New families are incredibly sweet, especially when a little magic is involved. In latest celebrity news, Hayden Christensen shared with UsMagazine.com that he and celebrity love Rachel Bilson named their celebrity baby daughter Briar Rose after the 1959 Disney Classic, Sleeping Beauty, revealing that the new parents are avid Disney fans. If that wasn't enough, Christensen also admitted that Disney songs are playing 24/7 in their house. It sounds like magical, adorable times in their household!

This celebrity baby is already a princess! What are some things to consider when naming your child?

Cupid's Advice:

There are hundreds upon hundreds of names out there, giving you a lot of choices to name your new baby. With so many to choose from, how do you know which name to go with? Cupid has some tips:

1. Go with your gut, and choose a name you like: Okay, most people goes with this option. A lot of the time people have names they like and have to narrow the choices down to one option with both partners agreeing on the name. Sometimes there's nothing to it other than twiddling down to the final choice.

2. Consider a name with meaning: I'm a person that likes meaning behind names. You might be, too. Spend some time looking over names and what meanings they have. You could find that your favorite girl name means "little warrior".

3. Consider any difficulties your child may encounter with their name: It's a tough world out there and I know new parents want to be unique and cool (looking at you Gwen Stefani and your son Zuma Nesta Rock). Keep your baby's names simple; no crazy spelling (I mean, look at my name), refrain from overly popular names, and consider names that overall may just get your child picked on.
