Bagcal

By Jenna

One of the most exciting pieces of celebrity news to hear is that your favorite famous couple is pregnant with their first celebrity baby. In Hollywood, news of a celebrity baby spreads quickly, especially when stars take to social media to share their excitement. According to UsMagazine.com, Brandon and Leah Jenner announced via Instagram that they are expecting their first child.

A celebrity pregnancy goes viral very quickly when you're a famous couple. What are three reasons social media should not be used to make big announcements?

Cupid's Advice:

Big news such as pregnancies and engagements are something that you may feel tempted to share with your family and friends, but social media may not be the best way to break the news. Here are some of Cupid's tips for why social media should not be used for big announcements:

1. Social media makes things feel impersonal: When sharing big announcements with your loved ones, the more personal the method of sharing, the better. If possible, tell your family and friends the news about your pregnancy or engagement in person, or schedule to call them on Skype or FaceTime. The moment will feel even more special if you take that extra step.

2. The news you share will be available to all people on your friend lists: While your aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends may be on social media, there are people who you're not close to that you may not want to share your big news with. Ensure that you know everyone who you're sharing your big announcements with, and that your frenemy from work won't find out!

3. Sometimes, unexpected disaster can strike: You may be so excited that you and your sweetheart are finally going to tie the knot, and you may post daily pictures of your road to the altar on your Facebook feed. But sometimes the unexpected can happen and the engagement is over as quickly as it began. Save yourself the embarrassment of having to explain to hundreds of people why Jeremy dumped you (or vice versa) and keep word of the big news limited to your inner circle.

Cupid's Advice:

Though only one person carries the majority of the load during the pregnancy, the partner's role is just as important. Here are some tips on how a partner can support their love during pregnancy:

1. Comfort is key: Like Evan Ross, make an effort to make your partner feel good. Whether that be a nice massage or giving them the opportunity to rest through out the day. They are lucky to have you there for them during the 9 months of discomfort, make your presence known with little acts of kindness.

We love Maynard's cute celebrity pregnancy announcement. What are some creative ways to announce your pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Baby news is happy news, and therefore, it should be announced in cheerful fashion. Take a cue from celebrity pregnancy announcements like Maynard's and come up with a fun way to share that your family is growing:

1. Take funny photos: Use your baby bump as a prop or punchline for a series of pictures. If you want to be really coy or aren't interested in being photographed, show how your family, your house, or your diet is changing. You can write that you won't be drinking alcohol for the next few months and accompany that with a picture of a baby bottle.

2. Enlist the help of an older sibling: Instead of announcing a new baby is on the way, share that the child you already have is about to be a big brother or sister. Take a cute picture of your son or daughter and caption it, “I’m being promoted.” Or dress up your kid like a superhero and make a sign that says, “Every superhero needs a sidekick,” along with the due date. If it’s your first baby, you can use your pet as a prop instead.

3. Use word play: Take a picture of something baby-related – whether that be your blossoming belly, your pregnancy test, or some baby clothes you’ve already purchased – and write a pithy caption using a play on words. Maynard used the idea of a “food baby,” but other common phrases to consider are “bun in the oven” or “ready to pop.” You can also try using a movie or song title with the word “baby” in it.

It helped me get through the wait to get my result by counting down with me. #spon” Mowry-Housely and husband Adam are already parents to Aden, 2.

This celebrity pregnancy made recent headlines! What are some ways you can prepare for a second child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Just because people like Mowry-Housley already have one child doesn't mean baby number two will be an identical experience. Cupid has some tips on how to prepare for your second go-around:

1. Hand-me-downs: In the case of celebrity babies, this may not be something to consider, but a second baby should mean less spending. Take advantage of your first baby's outgrown clothes, toys, and crib! If you are having the opposite gender, this may not be completely possible, but there are always some unisex items that can be transitioned to the second child.

2. Reflect back: Are there certain foods that kicked your morning sickness into high gear? If you kept a journal last time, it may come in handy as you work through your food tolerances and recall your previous pregnancy experience. Still, remember that not all pregnancies are alike.

It will help to bring the family together before the baby is born.

Pregnancy isn't all about the "glowing." There are trials and tribulations to overcome during those nine months, and it's important to support your partner along the way:

1. Listen: The most important thing you can do for your relationship and your love life is to pay attention to your partner's needs while she is pregnant. Other times, she may just want to share with you that the baby is kicking. Help her remain relaxed and happy.

1. You have more hand-me-downs: Before your first baby was born, you were probably scouring the Internet for "must-haves" and stocking your home with all of the essentials: a crib, a changing table, a car seat, a stroller, clothes...the list goes on. Now, though, you should have plenty of hand-me-downs for your second child to use.

bit more challenging since welcoming baby Everly 18 months ago. Her and her husband may be considered one of the hottest celebrity couples, but this celebrity mom is pretty down-to-earth when it comes to how she feels. It's a whole big circus in our household."

This celebrity mom has to be creative with her baby to prepare for the day. What are some ways to entertain your child while you get ready?

Cupid's Advice:

A child changes your daily routine in more ways than you could ever imagine. Something as simple as taking a shower or fixing your hair must be carefully planned according to your baby's schedule. Here, Cupid reveals three ways to entertain your kid while you get ready for the day:

1. Keep them busy: It's easy enough to move your baby's toys from the playroom to the kitchen...to the bathroom. Spread out a blanket and grab their favorites books and blocks. As long as they're having fun, they won't care that you're curling your hair or carefully applying your lipstick.

2. Ask for help: If your partner has a flexible work schedule, don't be afraid to ask him to stick around for a few extra minutes in the morning. A healthy habit in love and relationships is to partner on certain tasks, such as parenting. It'll be a good opportunity for him to bond with his child, and it'll let you have a moment to yourself before your busy day of parenting begins.

3. Turn to technology: While not all parents allow their children to watch television or play on an iPad, if you're okay with your kids becoming familiar with technology, go ahead! A 20-minute Dora the Explorer could give you the time you need to put on that fresh face of makeup.

Latest Celebrity Baby News: Celebrity Couple Ashton

Kutcher & Mila Kunis Forego A Nanny

By Katie

Gray

Celebrity couple Ashton Kutcher and Mila Kunis have been parents for a few months now to celebrity baby daughter Wyatt Isabelle, and they are completely in love with her. In their latest celebrity baby news update, Kutcher said, "You think you know how much you can love another person, and then you have a child and you realize you didn't know. It's infinitely rewarding." He added, "And I really look at this as the greatest opportunity of my life." The parents are old school and will not hire a nanny. According to People.com, Kutcher shared, "We want to be the people that know what to do when the baby's crying to make the baby not cry anymore. We want to know, like, when she makes a little face or something, we want to be emotionally in touch with her. And I think the only way to do that is by being the one who's there."

This celebrity couple is taking care of their celebrity baby without extra help. What are some things to consider when determining your best childcare option?

Cupid's Advice:

There's a lot to plan for when it comes to raising a child, and one of those things includes childcare options. Some parents may choose the same route as this celebrity couple and forego the additional aid. To help you make your decision, Cupid has some advice:

1. Your child's age: The age of your kid definitely plays a role when deciding what childcare option is best. If they are really young, it's important to spend extra time with them. However, some opt to have a baby nurse and/or nanny with them right after childbirth, which can be a nice way to learn what to do. It's important to be there for them during all of the stages in their lives, so choose whatever makes the most sense for you. Hiring a trained nanny when you can't be around is a good idea, as is having your family members and friends babysit when needed.

2. Time away from them: An important aspect in picking childcare is knowing the time frame. How long will you be gone? How often will you need childcare? Do some research! If you only need a babysitter occasionally, then have a few people that you trust on file. If your schedule has a specific time that you'll require childcare consistently, then work that out with a nanny or nursery school program.

3. Your normal routine: Figuring out what kind of job schedule you and your partner have is key. Some jobs have flexible hours, whereas others do not. Work out your hours with your employer and your partner, so that one of you can always be with your kids. Establish some kind of routine that is consistent. Some people opt for working from home in an effort to reduce how much childcare is needed.

The celebrity couple continues to be each other's rock for strength and support. In almost every celebrity news update about Lively's celebrity pregnancy, she has expressed how thankful she is to have such wonderful support. How do you thank your loved ones for their help?

Cupid's Advice:

Life can get pretty complicated with a new baby around, so if you're lucky enough to have family or loved ones who support you, then be happy! Cupid has some thoughts on how to thank those that have helped you out:

1. Write a letter: Taking the time to write out a personal note is very thoughtful and a lovely keepsake. Handwritten notes are always a good route to choose. The extra time and effort that goes into handwritten letters brings an extra sentimental feeling to the words on the page.

2. Pamper them: A day at the spa, a manicure and pedicure, or simply a night out of the house (be the babysitter for the night or take your loved one out yourself!) will go a long way.
