In celebrity news, Tristan Thompson left Cleveland. According to EOnline.com, Thompson looked happy as he boarded the Cleveland Cavaliers' team plane on Thursday. They're Indiana bound for Game 3 of their playoff series versus the Pacers. His departure is a week after True was born. Until now, he hadn't left Khloe Kardashian or their celebrity baby True's side after the cheating scandals. It was said before that Khloe may be willing to give Thompson a chance, but they're still rocky now. “Khloe and Tristan don’t have much to do with each other. She’s very angry with him and rightfully so,” said a source. “At the same time, she does want her daughter to spend time with her dad. So, she isn’t denying him that chance. But, she is cold with Tristan and keeping contact to a minimum. Tristan doesn’t think Khloe will ever forgive him, but that’s yet to be determined.” But according to another source, “Khloe wants True to have a father and very much still loves Tristan... Khloe really wants to try and forgive him, and make it work, but doesn’t know how she will be able to do that.”

It seems like Khloe is having a hard time right now. What are some ways to deal when you’re relationship is in limbo?

Cupid’s Advice:

After a wrongdoing from your partner, you will need to figure things out, which requires a lot of thinking. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to deal:

1. Give yourself space: You need time for yourself. You have a lot of analyzing and evaluating to do, so you need a clear head. Feel free to go out somewhere for some “you time” to breathe in the fresh air and think, like the park for example. Being away from your partner can do you well, not only for thinking, but also for healing.

2. Keep yourself busy: Yes, you need to take time out to think, but you also need a breather. Staying busy will help. Do whatever, just let yourself get flowed away by other things. Run errands, focus on your hobby, hangout with family and friends. You should not be obsessing over the situation which is why you need a breather from it. So, be productive, with plenty of rest time to keep yourself centered and calm.

y Carly Horowitz

On Thursday morning, Khloe Kardashian welcomed her new celebrity baby girl into the world with Tristan Thompson! This birth occurred just days after the world saw shocking footage of Khloe's boyfriend, Thompson, kissing another woman at a New York City club and making out with two other women at a hookah bar in October. According to UsMagazine.com, a source says that none of his friends are surprised because they all know he cheats. This celebrity couple began dating in September 2016. Hopefully the two can sort out this situation for the sake of their new baby girl!

This celebrity baby news is somewhat tainted by the cheating allegations that came out about Khloe's man Tristan. What are some ways to shield your child from negative relationship turns?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes unsatisfactory aspects in your relationship can emerge out of the blue. It is important that these negative occurrences don't affect your child in a bad way. It is definitely beneficial for your child to come to terms with life and do realize that everything is not perfect, or else they could become too sheltered. But it could also serve detrimental if they are exposed to too much negativity. Here are some ways to protect your child against negative parental relationship trauma:

1. Never stop showing them love: Depending on how old your child is, they may or may not pick up on the relationship struggles you are going through if you do a good job at keeping it between you and your partner. But nevertheless, never stop showing your child love. Try not to be too over the top lovey dovey towards them because then it may seem like you're trying to compensate, and the love for your child, or anyone, should just be natural.

2. Don't let them in on too many details: Your child has a right to know what's going on in their parents' lives, but of course they don't need to know everything. If you and your partner are going through a relationship struggle, you can let your child in by saying something like "Mommy and Daddy aren't agreeing with each other lately but we are working on it." You don't need to tell them that one of you cheated or that you think you may be falling out of love.

3. Never let them loose sight of the wonderful things in life: You don't necessarily have to 'shield' your child from negative things in order for them to not come emotionally disturbed. You just have to remind them that yes even though these bad things may be happening right now, there are so many other magnificent aspects going on as well. Just look around, look at the beautiful trees, listen to the birds singing, think about the wonderful weekend you have planned to go to the beach or the amusement park!

In this celebrity baby news, Khloe Kardashian has some wishes for her soon-to-be born baby. What are some ways to keep expectations from affecting your children?

Cupid's Advice:

It is so fun to fantasize about which specific aspects your child will inherit from both you and your partner. Although, you should not let that overtake the beauty of nature. Your child is going to be so beautiful and will inherit great aspects from you and your partner. It may not be exactly what you hoped for, but you will end up finding it to be perfect anyway. It may be hard sometimes, both before your child is born and much later down the line, to keep your expectations from affecting your children. Fortunately, Cupid is here with some tips on how to help:

1. Let go of timelines: Children are supposed to walking by the time they are one and be potty trained by two, right? No, not necessarily. Don't place such high standards on your child meeting the typical deadlines of when they are going to accomplish these 'firsts'. Every child is different and runs on different schedules. Don't worry, they will eventually take their first steps and be potty trained when the time is right for them. Just enjoy the moments you have together because when they are older and out of the house, you're going to wish you could still be changing their diapers!

2. Let them know they are enough: It is unrealistic to say that you won't have any specific expectations for your children. Even if you do, let your kid know that they are perfect just the way they are. You can encourage them to be the best they can be, but try not to expect so much that you end up getting let down, or worse, your child feels as if they let you down. Shower your child with love and appreciation.

3. Support: One of the greatest things you can do as a parent is show support for your child's interests. Maybe you wanted your child to be a star soccer player like you, but they seem to be more interested in swimming. Great for them! Even if it is not what you originally expected, be happy that they are showing interest in something and support them. Remember, your child is not just a younger replica you, they are a different version of you so let their own light shine!

Cupid's Advice:

The way to prepare your relationship for a child is for you and your partner to be in it together. You both must be on the same page. With that being said, Cupid has a few suggestions on how you both can prepare together for your child:

1. Learn about the birthing process and about life with a baby: You both can do research or read books, then discuss. Learning about the way your child will be born into the world and the things after is not something that's just for the mom who's carrying. This is something your partner should not stay behind on – they must learn it as well. It is important to know things like what to do during labor and what to expect after the baby is born.

2. Build the nursery together: Put both of your ideas together to create the perfect nursery. Both of you should have an input. Besides being productive by getting it done before the baby arrives, it can also be a bonding experience. You can also baby proof your home while you're at it.

3. Go over your finances: This is something you should definitely do together. Lack of money or shortage of money can hinder both a relationship and the way you're able to raise and accommodate your child. So, sit down with a pencil, paper, and calculator, and begin. Look through everything and see what you're dealing with. This is something that you guys can do more than once, since finances can change without warning and at anytime.

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrating two events in a day can create some very busy energy, but that doesn't make it any less fun! Cupid has some ideas on ways to maintain the balance between both family celebrations:

1. Plan ahead and thoroughly: One event takes time to plan, so imagine two. You don't want to stress yourself out. Ask for help planning if needed. There are many things to consider when planning, so make an agenda and get started when possible. When planning both events side by side, you are more likely to keep them balanced as well.

Related Link: Rachel McAdams Is Pregnant With Her First Child

2. Make the events equal in size: Of course this depends on what type of events you are coordinating, but if you want to create two balanced ones on the same day, without one event outshining the other, it could be a good idea to make them the same size. When thinking of size, you should consider guest lists, themes, decorations, amount of food, etc. Again, this depends on the type of events.

Related Link: Meghan Markle Gets Baptized at Chapel Royal at St. James Place Prior to Celebrity Wedding

3. Schedule properly: Time management is important. One event should be during the day and the other in the evening, ideally. Plan accordingly by scheduling the events at specific times for specific time periods, with enough room to change clothes if necessary and traveling. There should be a reasonable gap in between, so in order to consider this properly, the events should be on a somewhat tight schedule for the best, stress free results.

1. What color do you want to use?: Do you want to go with pink or go neutral with white or yellow? Consider colors for your baby's clothes and for the nursery. Even for the baby shower. Most people like to take the sex of the baby into consideration when it comes to these decisions. But either way is fine. Just as long as your bundle of joy is a happy one.

Celebrity Baby News: Rachel McAdams Is Pregnant With Her First Child

y Jessica Gomez

Multiple sources say that Rachel McAdams is pregnant, according to EOnline.com. The alleged mother-to be has not said a word on it and neither have any of her representatives. McAdams has always been pretty private about her life. The last time she was photographed was in Toronto where she was wearing a jacket that could have been hiding her celebrity baby bump. She's also been keeping a low profile in the last few months. We don't know much as of yet, but let's hope we soon will!

This celebrity baby news hasn't been confirmed by McAdams herself, but we're happy for her! What are some reasons to keep your pregnancy under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether to announce your pregnancy or not is the mother-to-be's choice. Cupid has some reasons why you may not want to break the news just yet:

1. To avoid stress: Pregnancy is a sensitive time when your health and the one of your baby depends on you taking it easy. If we feel like outside factors can cause us stress during a critical time, then as mothers-to be we must cut out those things. Sometimes people can become over bearing when it comes to receiving baby news – so if you're around those kind of people, then momentarily hiding your pregnancy is an option. Do what's best for you and your bundle of joy.

Related Link: Jordin Sparks Celebrates Baby Shower

2. Judgy peers: Whether these peers are at school or work, or are your neighbors, friends, or fam, sometimes they're just not the easiest people to deal with. At times, we may be surrounded by people who judge and/or gossip, and that can lead to you wanting to keep your pregnancy low-key. During pregnancy, drama should be avoided, so there's no shame in doing what you have to do. Do what you have to do for yourself, forget about others. You and your baby are most important.

Related Link: Kylie Jenner Plans to Keep Motherhood Journey with Stormi Private for Now

3. You don't want to jinx it: Some of us are superstitious and believe in the ability to jinx things. This may not be logical to everyone, but if it's logical to the mother-to be, then that's enough. It's your body and your baby. Sometimes certain people find reassurance and comfort in not telling people right away due to fear of something wrong, like a miscarriage for example. At the end of the day, as long as the baby news is delivered later rather than never, it should be fine.

There are many different ways that you can introduce your little bundle of joy to family and friends – the choice is yours. Cupid has some tips:

1. Social media: Post a cute photo on Facebook, Instagram, etc. Posting a precious photo is one of the simplest ways. You can literally share the photo with so many people without having all the germ fears first-time parents go through. If you don't like the idea of social media, send it through a photo message individually or in a group chat.

2. Throw a small get-together: Hosting a nice intimate gathering at your place is a cute and fun way to introduce your baby to your friends and fam. It can also relax the new mommy. Being around loved ones can be good for you and your baby, as long as you know and let everyone know about how long the meetup should last. Let everyone rave about your cute little one, but know how much you can handle in a time of big transition and probably one of the most tired times of your life.

This celebrity pregnancy wasn't confirmed until Kylie's daughter was born. What are some ways to put your child first during pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

It is immensely important to care for your child even before they come out of the womb. Follow your doctors instructions, read baby books, and get some advice from Cupid! Here are some ways to put your child first during pregnancy:

1. Eat well: You are now consuming nutrients for both you and your baby. You want to make sure that whatever you put in your body, you would want to put into your baby's body as well. Make efforts to eat a healthy and balanced diet whenever it is possible. It's definitely okay to satisfy those cravings though! Just make sure you are still consuming an abundance of healthy foods to get the vitamins and nutrients to your baby.

2. Rest: Taking care of your body when you are pregnant means taking care of your baby's body too. Be sure to engage in relaxing activities like yoga, deep breathing, stretching, or maybe even get a massage! The more calm and relaxed you are, the more calm and relaxed your baby will be.

3. Alter your public pregnancy date: When people ask you when you are due, take your official due date and add two or three weeks to that. Then, you won't have people bombarding you until after you have already had a couple weeks to settle into this whole new mother thing. This will also help to relieve stress on your baby and produce valuable mother and child time for the beginning of their life.

Celebrity Baby News: Kylie Jenner Plans to Keep Motherhood Journey with Stormi Private for Now

In celebrity news, Kylie Jenner plans on keeping her life with celebrity baby Stormi low-key, at least for now. The 20-year old reality TV star and makeup mogul kept her pregnancy on the down-low and demands that her motherhood journey be kept private as well, according to UsMagazine.com. “She is extremely protective and she is very focused on trying to keep motherhood private for right now,” a source said. “All Kylie wants is for her privacy to be protected right now and is pretty demanding about that at this time.” The source also adds that Kylie is in no hurry to get engaged to beau Travis Scott, so we guess there won’t be any celebrity wedding bells ringing there for a while.

In this celebrity baby news, it begs the question – is it okay to post photos of your child on social media? What are some factors to consider?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you want to post photos of your child on social media or not, the decision is up to you. It's all up to preference, as long you understand the loss of control that takes place on your end once you upload a photo on the web. Here are some factors to consider:

1. It will always be on the web: When you post photos of your little bundle of joy, they will permanently be on the internet. This concerns some people, while others don't find any harm in it. Think it through and decide whether or not this factor plays a role in your preference, considering that these photos are of your child and they will one day grow older and potentially see them.

2. Cyber safety risks: Do I want everyone to see this? Unless your social media account is private, the photo is available to pretty much the whole world. So think about what you're posting and consider whether you care who sees it or not. Cyber safety is one of the biggest concerns for parents considering it has been suggested that approximately 50% of photos on Pedophile sites come from the social media pages of parents.

3. Some photos may either be misjudged, misappropriated, or both: On social media, everyone has an opinion. This makes room for people to sometimes misjudge what they see or think they see on a photo. Misappropriation also happens often, especially with memes. You never know if one your photos will fall victim to this. People all the time take photos and turn it into a post relating a totally different message, good or bad. If you're fine with this because of your care-free attitude then that's fine, but others may want to stray away from this.

We can't wait for more news about Stormi Webster!

This celebrity baby's name was highly anticipated. What are some ways to honor your family's heritage when it comes to naming your child?

Cupid's Advice:

It's an awesome idea to pay homage to your relatives when naming your new generation. Cupid has some ideas for you:

1. Use a maiden name: Maiden names make beautiful first names! If your maiden name is too masculine or feminine, use a variation that fits your style. Nicholson or Nicholas can easily become Nicole, Michaels can become Michaela. The possibilities are endless, you just have to get creative!

2. Middle names matter: If you are set on a first name that has no relation to your family, consider tying your child's middle name in! You can use the same middle name as a parent, grandparent, or even great-grandparent, or even use their first name. That way, there is a direct familial connection, which will certainly be appreciated.

3. Use a combo: Perhaps you want your child to have connections to both sides of the family. This can be done a variety of ways. No feelings will be hurt when you make a clear effort to bring together both families!

"I'm sorry for keeping you in the dark through all the assumptions. I understand you're used to me bringing you along on all my journeys," Kylie said via Instagram on Sunday. "My pregnancy was one I chose not to do in front of the world. I knew for myself I needed to prepare for this role of a lifetime in the most positive, stress free, and healthy way I knew how. There was no gotcha moment, no big paid reveal I had planned. I knew my baby would feel every stress and every emotion so I chose to do it this way for my little life and our happiness," she explained. "Pregnancy has been the most beautiful, empowering, and life-changing experience I've had in my entire life and I'm actually going to miss it. I appreciate my friends and especially my family for helping me make this special moment as private as we could. My beautiful and healthy baby girl arrived February 1st and I just couldn't wait to share this blessing. I've never felt love and happiness like this I could burst! Thank you for understanding."

Well, this celebrity baby news wasn't just a rumor! What are some reasons to keep your baby news to yourself for a while?

Cupid's Advice:

There are a few reasons that you may want to keep your pregnancy under wraps for a while, just like Kylie Jenner and many others. Cupid has some reasons as to why:

1. You have a stressful pregnancy: You just don't need nor want the stress. If you have a sensitive pregnancy where your health and the one of your baby depends on you taking it easy, then hiding your pregnancy could be an option for you. If we feel like outside factors can cause us stress during a critical time, then as mothers-to be we must cut out those factors. Sometimes people can become over bearing when it comes to receiving baby news – so if you're around those kind of peeps, you know what it is.

2. You're superstitious and don't want to jinx it: This may not be logical to everyone. However, if it's logical to the mother-to be, then that's enough – it's her body and her baby. Sometimes certain people find reassurance and comfort in not telling people right away due to fear of a miscarriage or something going wrong. At the end of the day, as long as the baby news is delivered later rather than never, it should be enough.

3. Judgy peers: Whether these peers are at school or work, or are your neighbors, friends, or fam, sometimes they're just not the easiest people to deal with. At times, we may be surrounded by people who judge or gossip, and that can lead to you wanting to keep your pregnancy low-key. During pregnancy, drama should be avoided, so there's no shame in doing what you have to do.

Congratulations to the celebrity couple!

Spoiler alert! Chrissy Teigen revealed the sex of her celebrity baby-to-be. What are some reasons to find out the sex of your baby before he or she is born?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the earliest decisions you make during pregnancy is whether or not to find out the sex of the baby. Cupid has some advice as to why you would want to find out whether your baby is a boy or a girl:

1. Decorating the nursery: You can go with neutral colors (white or yellow) if you'd like, but many people like to go traditional (pink or blue). A nursery is a place you want to have done and prepared by the time your baby arrives. Therefore, you want to finish it early, well before the due date. When deciding on decorating options, you may be one of those parents who would want to take the sex of your baby into consideration, so be sure before making final decisions.

2. The baby shower: Again, you can go with neutral colors for the decorations of the celebration. And you can choose unisex gifts as well. However, when creating a registry, you may need to know the baby's sex in order to choose the items you want or need to add. onto the list. Also, you may not want to keep your baby shower attendees in the dark when they're celebrating and showering your bundle of joy with presents – the suspense may make them go nuts, you never know!

Pregnancy & How She Told Tristan

3. Choosing a baby name will take longer: And it would be harder, too. You can save yourself half the time by finding out the sex of your baby – And also save yourself half the hassle. Imagine not knowing, therefore having to choose both a boy name and girl name. It's already hard enough coming to an agreement with your partner. Since choosing a baby name together can sometimes be a struggle for many couples, so knowing the sex of the baby can avoid further frustrations for sure!

This celebrity baby news is great to hear! What are some ways to compromise with your partner on baby names?

Cupid’s Advice:

Choosing your baby’s name is exciting, but can also be a bit tedious considering you and your partner should be in agreement with the name chosen. Cupid has some advice on how to get on the same page when it comes to the name of your tiny loved one:

1. Try using a compromising tool online: Babynamester.com has this tool, along with many suggested baby names for you and your partner to check out. The way it works is you enter the sex of the baby, then you and your partner each type in what your top baby names are. Next, you choose which one you each like best from your partner’s list. And lastly, the site generates a long list of combined baby name preferences. Try it and see if it may work for you!

Related Link: Khloe Kardashian Plans to Give Birth in Cleveland

2. The Middle Name: One of you can choose the first name and the other one can choose the middle name. Many couples compromise in this manner. Although, choosing the first name is most likely ideal for both parties, the middle name is the one that gives the name uniqueness considering that not everyone has a middle name, and on top of that, a middle name is a nice differentiating addition to a first name.

Related Link: Fall Out Boy's Pete Wentz Expecting Baby Girl with Meagan Camper

3. Combine the names: This isn't always possible, but it sometimes is. You can create a beautiful, unique name! For example in the hit Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn, Bella (played by Kristen Stewart) combined the names she and her husband Edward (played by Robert Pattinson) liked: Renee (Bella's mom's name) and Esme (Edward's mom's name), resulting in the name Renesmee.
