Cupid's Advice:

Having children is a beautiful miracle. However, preparing for the first child may be a little different than preparing for your second. Cupid is here to help you get ready for child number two:

1. Prepare the older sibling: Now that you're extending your family even more, you need to think about your first child. Since they are becoming a big brother or sister, it will be exciting, but there may be a little jealousy. Just make sure that you pay attention to your first child, even though having a newborn is a lot of work. Neither of your children should feel neglected.

2. Hand-me-downs: The good thing about having gone through pregnancy and birth already is that you still have all your old equipment. First of all, you still have your maternity clothes, so you don't need to go shopping again. But there's also the benefit of having a crib, baby clothes that your first child grew out of, a stroller, etc. You get to save some cash when having a second child, which will be important in the long run.

3. Less parenting books, and more hands-on experience: When preparing for your first child, you spent most of your time reading pregnancy, birth and parenting books to ensure your child was healthy. However, now that you already have your first child, you've experienced what it's like to be hands on with your child. You know how to hold your baby, how to put them to sleep, and how to feed them. Hopefully, this will make you a little more at ease when you're expecting your second child.

Cupid's Advice:

Teaching your child to enjoy the same things you and your partner do can be a great way to bond with your child. It's sometimes challenging to engage your child. Cupid is here to help:

1. Play with them: Whether it's music or acting that you're interested in, play it in a casual environment. Kids love to play school and play store so whatever it is you're into, play it with them. Allow them to play an instrument or play with dolls. Incorporate your interests into their games.

2. Show them: If you take them to your concerts or gigs, they might get an appreciation for it too. Not everybody is an entertainer, so take them to your intramural softball games or just introduce them to your favorite entertainers. Concerts and movies that you love can be stuff that the two of you love together especially as your child gets older.

There's another celebrity baby in the mix for Megan and Brian! What do you do if you find yourself pregnant and in the midst of a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy can cause a shift in a relationship, and it's not always positive. It's one thing when you decide to have a child together, but when you realize you're pregnant in the midst of a split, it can get dicey. Cupid is here to help:

1. Communicate: Weigh your options with your partner (or ex-partner) and decide how best to handle it. Raising a child together is a big step, especially if you aren't on the best terms. Understand that you have other options, but don't make any decisions without them.

2. Make it work: Divorced parents and separated families make it work all the time. It isn't the easiest solution, but sometimes it's all you can do. Just try to be civil toward them for your kids and act accordingly in order to provide for them.

3. Single parenting: If the situation is really bad and you can't bear to be anywhere near your ex, try raising the child on your own. The idea of a bad father being in the picture isn't good for anybody. With the help of your family, you can definitely have a strong support system without him.

Fingers crossed that this famous family gets reunited soon!

This celebrity news is very unfortunate. What are some ways to know if you're ready to have a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Children are a blessing. Although babies can bring joy, some couples simply just aren't ready to have them. Let Cupid help you determine if you're ready for parenthood before you actually get pregnant:

- 1. Available: Babies require a lot of time, care, and patience. Evaluate your schedule and goals to see if you can take care of another life besides your own, just like Money did in this celebrity news. Whether you're focused on your career or trying to figure out what to do with your life you need to be honest with yourself about having the time to devote yourself to this baby.

2. Educate yourself: You'll never know if children are for you if you don't educate yourself on the topic. Take time to research what it's like to have a baby and what they need. Or if you're a hands-on learner, assist someone you know in caring for their baby. This will be the best way for you to see if you're ready to have one of your own.

Courtney Stodden Suffers Miscarriage of Celebrity Baby

By Nicole Caico

Celebrity couple Courtney Stodden and Doug Hutchison are coping with the loss of their unborn celebrity baby. Stodden, 21, recently confirmed that she was expecting in May. According to UsMagazine.com, Stodden's rep put out a statement addressing the miscarriage on July 17, saying, "It is with a heavy heart to inform you that last week Courtney Stodden suffered a heartbreaking miscarriage. Courtney and her husband, Doug, are at an emotional loss for words and are using this time to grieve with their close family and friends."

Courtney Stodden is broken hearted over the loss of her celebrity baby. What are some ways to support a mother who has experienced loss?

Cupid's Advice:

It is no secret that miscarrying is emotionally traumatic for an expecting mother or couple. Unfortunately, there is no way to change the situation, but supporting a woman or couple going through this experience can make a difference:

1. Share stories: Miscarriages are more common than many people know, and even though many women do not talk about their miscarriages, there is still a stigma. In order to help a mother who has experienced this loss, have other women share their experiences with miscarriages. Whether you read stories online together or have friends and family talk about it, sharing this information should help her realize that her miscarriage is not her fault, and that she is not alone.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Rob Kardashian & Blac Chyna Tease New Reality TV Show with Instagram Post

2. Don't dwell: It is extremely important to acknowledge and talk about the emotional pain that your friend or family member is going through after this loss, but do not harp on it. Let her start the conversation. You won't know if she is ready to tell you about it, or if she can emotionally handle talking about it, unless she starts the conversation. Constantly revisiting the topic might make her feel worse.

3. Look toward the future: A miscarriage does not mean the end of hope for parenthood. Encouraging this woman or couple to continue hoping for the baby they've always wanted will hopefully lift their spirits. Remind them that this loss is not a failure and that they should continue looking forward.

Celebrity News: Pregnant Holly Madison Talks Celebrity Baby No. 2

By E! News

Holly Madison is all about moving onward and upward. According to E! News, the pregnant star has been quite the busy bee between preparing for her second celebrity baby with hubby Pasquale Rotella and releasing her latest book The Vegas Diaries, but Madison was able to sit down with E! News' Maria Menounos and Jason Kennedy to chat about everything going on in her life—including that ongoing feud with former Girls Next Door co-star Kendra Wilkinson-Baskett. But first, babies. In latest celebrity news, Madison, who is expecting a baby boy very soon, tells us that she and Rotella are still trying to decide on a name for their little one. "My husband and I are still debating. We're kind of waiting for that last-minute epiphany for a name we really love." The couple's 2-year-old daughter Rainbow Aurora is also anticipating her little brother's arrival, even if she wasn't exactly stoked about the news at first. "She's ready. When she first heard she was having a brother, she was like, 'No, I want a sister.' But now she's kinda come around and she's happy about having a brother." LOL!

Madison has always been very candid about her life with the public, from her time in the Playboy mansion to her books and family life, and when it comes to sharing her stories with her children, she's grateful that she has a way for them to know her entire story.

"I think that's the great thing about having the books. If for some reason I'm not around, they can have those stories there and know why I made the decisions I made, and what I learned from my mistakes and different things like that," she tells us. "I think it's about age-appropriateness too, so I'll play that by ear."

One thing she'll definitely be able to share with her children is the need to let go of worrying about everyone else, something she tells E! News would be her advice to her younger self.

"I would just tell myself to be more confident and not worry about constantly pleasing other people or being scared of what other people are gonna think because I feel like I lived so much of my life in fear of other people's opinions and what other people were gonna think about me that it held me back from moving forward for so long."

Madison touched on a bit of that in her latest book, which focuses on her life after leaving the mansion and ending her long-term relationship with Hugh Hefner.

"It was really when I got to know myself and it was my journey. It ends right before I meet my husband in real life. And I think my biggest lesson I learned was that we spend so much time looking for that other perfect person when we should really be looking for ourselves."

Holly has also been recently targeted by former co-star Kendra, who took to Twitter to say some vulgar things about Madison (which she later deleted), and while the author could go on attack to defend herself, she's just choosing not to.

"I don't necessarily wanna clear things up specifically because I wrote my story about my time in the mansion and that's there for everybody to read and it speaks for itself,"

Madison tells E! News of the Kendra debacle. "And as far as any ongoing feuds, it's just not something I engage in because some people wanna drag it on forever and I've moved on."

However, Holly admits that Kendra's remarks were "definitely hurtful. It got to the point where I know I can say just as mean things about her, but why would I want to?"
