" He told Entertainment Tonight during CinemaCon 2018 in Las Vegas on Wednesday, "There's no other way to say [it]. I love Nicole with all my heart, and that's that." The former celebrity couple split earlier this month when, according to a source, Bella called off their engagement. May these celebrity exes get through this tough break-up.

This celebrity break-up isn't without heartache. What are some ways to cope with the loss of a close relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Most break-ups are not easy – they affect us in various ways. Luckily, there are ways to deal with them. Here are a few:

1. Being a break-up was the right choice: Sometimes love can blind us, but it is important to know the reason for our decisions, and that it is in fact the right one. Try your best to skip any denial stage to make it easier for yourself. Assess the situation and be sure. But don't overdo it to the point you're blaming yourself or driving yourself crazy. Just make sure that you stand strong in knowing the break-up was the right thing to do.

2. Take care of yourself emotionally and physically: Start off by making sure to eat well and exercise. Both eating and exercising are essential to your health and make you feel better after. As for emotionally, don't overwork yourself mentally. Give yourself a break to relax. Also, if you don't want to be alone during this time, then don't be. Reach out to family and friends. It's okay to do so. Alone time is important, too, however.

3. Think of the positive outcome: It is hard to see it during a tough time – but it is essential that you do find it. Things can look hopeless, and that can drag you into a downward spiral. It is important to find the good in all the bad situations we're in, no matter how small it may be. Just know that you are going through a hard time right now that will make you stronger in the long run. The future holds something much better. Positive thinking goes a long way.

Celebrity Break-Up: Anna Faris Learns Important Lesson From Divorcing Chris Pratt

In latest celebrity news, Chris Pratt finally broke the silence in regards to his celebrity divorce from Anna Faris. Pratt and Faris announced that they were “legally separating” in August 2017 after eight years of marriage, and they filed for divorce by the end of that year. “Divorce sucks,” Pratt ultimately revealed in an Entertainment Weekly interview this week. He continues to explain that him and Faris are still friends and are kind to one another for the sake of their five-year-old son, Jack. From Faris’ view, she said, “We have a great friendship, we really do and we always have. And it’s always tough to envision your future as one thing, but I think there is a lot of love,” on a SiriusXM’s Hits 1 in Hollywood interview. According to EOnline.com, Faris added, “I think it’s a lesson learned a little bit in terms of keeping relationships a little more private, potentially, even though I pride myself on being a pretty open person. But, I don’t know, it’s tough when you’re under the scrutiny.” In other news, Faris is currently dating Michael Barrett, while Pratt is allegedly still single.

This is the first we are hearing about the opinions of Chris Pratt and Anna Faris since their celebrity break-up. What are some benefits to keeping your post-relationship details on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

It can truly be a tough time in your life after you split from a partner you were together with for so long. You don't need to expose all of the details to every single one of your friends and family if you do not wish to. If you keep to yourself and a few close friends, here is what can happen:

1. You will be able to explore your true self: Without the input from others, you will have the opportunity to really understand what you are feeling. Sometimes, it isn't bad to have input from the ones you trust most, but this can occasionally lead to you thinking that you are feeling one way when you are really not. It is most beneficial to get to know yourself alone during this time.

2. You won't receive as much judgement: This is hard for you as it is, you don't need further scrutiny to just make this situation even worse. When people go through break-ups, it is really difficult for outsiders to truly understand the emotions and feelings that you go through. Therefore, they may judge. You can minimize that by conducting your life in a more private manner.

3. You won't be bombarded: The more details you put out there, the more people will crowd you with questions. "Why did you break-up?" "Was there cheating involved?" "Are you guys still talking at all?" It can become overwhelming. It is okay to just stick to talking to one specific person that you trust most to help get you through this time and then let the magical self-growth occur.

In this celebrity break-up, John Cena wasn't expecting it, and he's heartbroken. What are some ways to cope with an unexpected heartbreak?

Cupid's Advice:

Even if you think you and your partner may not be the perfect match, you may not expect to break-up out of the blue. Here are some suggestions on how to cope:

1. Be kind to yourself: Try not to be too hard on yourself. Remind yourself that despite what you are feeling, it is not all your fault. It takes two to be in a relationship and there were probably aspects from both of you that led to it not working out anymore.

2. Keep busy: If you and your partner were together for a long time, it may be very different for you to live life without them all of the sudden. Make an effort to fill up your planner so that it leaves you less time to sit and sulk in your bed. The more you are out and about the easier it will be to move on and make this life the best it can be.

The emotional celebrity break-up of Vanderpump Rules stars Jax

Taylor and Brittany Cartwright aired on Monday. Taylor owned up to his shortcomings and suggested that they split because he was not happy with himself. This break-up was filmed in August 2017 and since then, the pair has actually been trying to make their relationship work, according to UsMagazine.com. On Tuesday, Taylor confirmed on Twitter that the two are indeed still a celebrity couple now and he added, "I was a mess but each day has gotten better. I'll never be perfect I know this, but I do know that I have the best partner a guy can ask for, and all I care about is being the best I can for her here on out." Taylor realized during their short split that Cartwright made him want to be a better man and he did not want to lose her. This celebrity relationship has been through many ups and down but right now they seem to be at an up!

This celebrity break-up left us with mixed feelings. How do you know when it's time to break up with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There are clearly not any tell-tale signs that it is time to break-up with your partner. Jax thought it was the best idea at the time but then he realized he was wrong. Yet, there is not a right or wrong answer to anything. You can only do what feels right in your heart in the moment. But, there are some specific indications that the relationship you are in may not be the best for you right now:

1. You find yourself wanting to do other things than spend time with your partner: If you would seriously rather lay in your bed and watch Netflix alone than go out with your boo, then that may be a problem. It is understandable to want your alone time sometimes, but it should not feel like a chore to go spend time with the one you love.

2. You bicker about everything: It is okay to not agree with your partner all the time, but if it has come to a point where bickering is draining both you and your partner, you need to have a talk. Are you bickering about small things all the time because there is something big that is bothering you both deep down? Be open and honest with each other and try to get your relationship happiness back before it is too late.

3. You constantly think about what else is out there: Is there someone out there who likes painting as much as I do? Do all partners snore so loud? Your loved one's traits should be endearing to you. It definitely may be time for a break-up if you constantly fantasize about if other people may be a better fit for you. Remember that everything is what you make of it. If you find yourself feeling this way but you do want to make it work, you can! You two just have to try together to get back on the right track. But if you find yourself feeling like this and it makes you realize that you really do not see a future with this person, then end it and be confident that your true love is out there and you will find them soon.

However, we do not know the reason for their split as of yet. We wish them the best of luck.

In celebrity break-ups, John Cena and Nikki Bella called it quits. What are some reasons to call off your engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Calling off an engagement is rough. Nevertheless, it is better to realize now that it's not working out rather than later after you're married. Here are some reasons why you would possibly call off your engagement:

1. You argue all the time and cannot come to an agreement: Relationships have to consist of good communication between partners. If you argue all the time, that is something you can work through. Now, if you argue all the time and just don't resolve anything, then there is a problem. If this is the case, your issues will likely build up and continue to cause havoc in your relationship.

2. There is no trust: There are times in a relationship where there may be a lack of trust, and many times couples work through it. However, when at the point where you're engaged, trust should be something that is prominently there. There is no reason why you should not trust the person you are going to marry.

3. There are things you cannot get past: If you're marriage is going to work, you need to have moved on from past mistakes your partner has made. Sometimes we remain in relationships without forgiving our partner for a past discretion. When engaged, the slate should be wiped clean in a way. You are about to start a new chapter in your lives, and if you still have past demons knocking on your door, you may already be a step toward divorce without even being married yet.

after what transpired this week. What are some ways to keep your relationships with your exes civil?

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping a relationship with an ex civil isn't always an option, but it many times can be! Cupid has some tips on how to go about it:

1. Be respectful toward each other: Don't curse, don't be sarcastic – just don't say things that can be taken the wrong way. Between exes there can be lots of tension, so it is easy for one person to feel like the other is overstepping. Stay in your lane and give the respect you expect.

Don't be afraid to be the one that loved the most and give everything you had, because you've got to find people who love like you do and who are ready." She also goes on to state that she is "out with the old, in with the TRUE." This definitely seems like the two went through a break-up. To add to the speculation, Unglert also wrote on Instagram, "As I've gotten older, I've learned that although everyone DESERVES love, it's not something we're entitled to. Love takes work. Love is compromise. Love is earned. I still have a lot of work to do on myself, a lot to prove to myself, before I'm ready for something like that." To conclude, a source informed EOnline.com that the pair did indeed break up recently. The aspects of distance and traveling are said to have had some effect on their relationship. The two plan to continue as friends.

This Bachelor Winter Games celebrity break-up wasn't really unexpected, but Lesley had some things to say about it. What are some benefits to getting your side of a break-up story out to your family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

When you and your partner break-up, speculation can occur. If you feel comfortable, the best thing to do is get your side of the break-up out to your family and friends. Here is why:

1. They will know the truth: You definitely want your closest friends and family to know the truth about why your break-up occurred. Fill them in on how you feel about it so that they are not left in the dust to wonder how you are doing. Your ex-partner may have a different side of the story, and that is okay. Both of you guys can expose your thoughts and feelings on the matter in order to make for a healthy, transparent split.

3. They will try to understand: Even though no one can ever feel the exact same way you do, people can at least try to understand. The more they understand, the easier it is for them to continue to love and support you.

There simply isn't truth to many of the rumors about Channing and Jenna's recent celebrity break-up. What are some ways to communicate your break-up to family and friends?

Sometimes the hardest thing about breaking-up is breaking the news to your friends and family that have rooted you on all this time. Fortunately, it is your closest friends and family, so they will understand that this is the right decision for you and respect that. Here are some ways to break the break-up news:

1. Social media: If the majority of your friends and family use social media on a daily basis, this may be the quickest, most efficient way to get the word out. You can do something similarly to what Channing and Jenna did and thoroughly explain that there are no hard feelings in order to decrease the potential spreading of rumors.

3. Take time to tell everyone personally: If you are feeling up to it, it may be beneficial for you to take the time to call each individual person that you need to break the news to. By doing this, you will get genuine feedback and support from each person. Call your gal pals first because they will most likely be the most ready to accept the information. Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a lifelong commitment that must be worked on day in and day out. Sometimes it may get rocky along the way, but try not to give up! Here are some ways to work on your marriage before breaking it off:

1. Remember why you got married: You are going to need some motivation if you want to avidly work on your marriage during a rough time. Try your best to remember why you got married in the first place. Ponder the amazing assets of your partner and visualize the amazing wedding that you shared together. 1. Put forth a united front: No matter what your beef is with your former significant other, your kids shouldn't catch wind of it. It's important to get on the same page with your ex before communicating with your kids. You want to make sure the messages coming from each of you are the same.

Justin and Jennifer's celebrity break-up is fairly new, but it looks like at least one of them is moving on. What are some things to consider before moving on after a break-up or divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break-up can be extremely difficult sometimes. What can be even worse is deciding whether to move on or not. Here are some things you should consider before moving on:

1. Why did you both break up?: Was the break-up over something not worth it or was it over something that was? Sometimes we break-up out of anger or over something that we think we cannot move past, but do. Evaluate things, make sure that the break-up happened for the right reasons and you're okay with that decision.

"Justin had friends with him but they all left and Justin and Baskin were alone together for the night." We wonder what Gomez has to say about this. Was their break an actual celebrity break-up?

In celebrity news, we're wondering if Jelena is old news. What are some ways to know you're ready to move on after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on from a past relationship can be hard. However, when it's done, it's done, and you have to move on. Cupid has some ideas on how to know when it's time to not look back and carry on from a former relationship:

1. There is no future with the relationship: If you no longer see a future with an ex flame, it's time to ditch them and move on. If you know this valuable piece of information, then you're just waiting for the inevitable at this point. Why waste more time on the relationship when you can spend that time moving on and actually doing things that will benefit the future you have without that person?

2. The other person has moved on: If your ex has moved on, then it is probably safe to say that you should too. It may hurt to see them with someone else, but things happen for a reason. Don't let seeing them with someone else throw you into a jealous fit. Instead, take it with a grain of salt, and move on.

3. You're worn out: Relationships can be tiresome. However, if you feel absolutely drained, this could be a sign that it's time to move on. You can only try so hard and oh so much. If you gave it your best shot, that's what matters. If your relationship still doesn't work after all your efforts, you may be seeing a dead end, and so it is time to carry on without your ex.

Donald Trump Jr.’s celebrity break-up may have something to do with his infidelity. What are some signs that your partner is being unfaithful?

Cupid’s Advice:

If things have just not been the same lately between you and your partner, there may be something sneaky occurring. Don’t jump to conclusions, as we all have a tendency to do. But, if you notice any of these signs, sit down with your partner and have a mature conversation about the thoughts you are having. Here are some signs that indicate that your partner may be cheating:

1. Intimacy has halted: It is normal during long-time relationships that the intimacy between you two may slow down at points. If it has completely stopped and when you try to get close to your partner they back away constantly, then that is a red flag.

2. Constant private phone usage: If out of the blue your partner starts to use their phone a lot more often in a very private manner, then that is a little fishy. If your partner has always been a big phone user, then maybe it is normal. Ask them if they have something going on at work or another occurrence that may be causing them to use their phone instead of spending time with you.

According to EOnline.com, Iaconetti confirmed that the couple broke up less than a month after the Bachelor Winter Games finale. We get along very well, it's just there's a little something missing and you can't really pinpoint what it is. That's just how I feel." Wendt confirmed, saying, "I feel like that's normal and I feel like you get those connections all the time where if you take away our outside world and just put Ashley and me on an island together, we'd probably get along really well. And that's what Vermont was."

This celebrity break-up happened after a very short relationship.

What are some ways to know your relationship doesn't have longevity early on?

Cupid's Advice:

For the most part, we want the relationships we enter to last. Sometimes there are signs to look out for to tell if the relationship is most likely going to hit a dead end down the line. Cupid has a few red flags to share, get ready for some relationship advice:

1. Lack of trust: Trust is built overtime, but if there is no amount of trust, then the relationship will likely end soon. Trust is essential and can make or break a relationship. Consider the following: do you not trust them because of your own issues or actually because of them? Sometimes we have trouble trusting people, not because of what they do or the way they are, but because of what we've been through before them. This is something to consider before you go crazy over not trusting them, and thinking your relationship won't last. However, at the end, you need to learn to trust those who have earned it.

2. You can't agree on anything: There are certain things you should be agreeing on. It's okay to have differences in opinion, but if you can't agree on things like goals and the future, then this is a red flag. There should be some similarities when it comes to the important stuff. To add on, when disagreeing on things, the situation shouldn't get out of hand. You should be able to approach and get through the conversation calmly, not always ending in a fight— so this is something else to also look out for.

3. Commitment issues: The inability to fully commit to you and the relationship is an obvious red flag. But that is not the only thing we mean when we say commitment issues. There are other things to look out for. If you notice that your partner in general has an inability to commit to things, then that's a possible red flag that you guys won't work out. In a successful relationship, we need consistency and devotion. If your partner isn't dedicated, responsible, or is unable to pull through with their obligations, then it's a definite bad sign. We need someone we can count on at the end of the day.

It looks like Vanessa and Donald Trump Jr. are calling it quits on their marriage. According to EOnline.com, Vanessa filed for a celebrity divorce on Thursday in Manhattan Supreme Court. The celebrity couple have been married for 12 years and share five children. Since she filed for an uncontested proceeding, it looks like there more than likely won't be a custody battle. Donald Trump Jr. married Vanessa in 2005 at President Donald Trump's Mar-a-Lago estate in Palm Beach, FL. The President reportedly played matchmaker for the duo, as he introduced his eldest son to the model at a fashion show in 2003.

This celebrity divorce is very unfortunate for the pair's five children. What are some important factors to consider regarding your children during a split or divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorces and/or splits are never fun for anyone involved, but sometimes it has the most lasting effects on kids. Cupid has some things to consider:

1. Always be open and honest with your kids: There's nothing worse than lying to your children, even if they're little white lies, because eventually the truth will come out. Sure, you don't necessarily want to air your dirty laundry about issues you have with your significant other with your kids, but try to be as straightforward as possible when letting them know about your split and the ramifications of it. They'll appreciate it in the end.

has tried to convince her family that Justin has changed ... but her family just isn't budging right now." "It's been hard for her because she is super close with her mom. Her mom was her rock when she was having her health complications," the source added. "Justin and Selena decided to take a break to give her family some more time to heal and take in the idea of her and Justin being a couple again." Let's see what happens in this messy situation.

This celebrity break-up is said to be sparked by Selena's mom. What are some ways to deal with a parent who doesn't like your significant other?

Cupid's Advice:

Being with and loving someone who your fam does not approve of can be stressful and just plain hard. Cupid has some love advice on things to consider and how to deal with a parent not liking your partner:

1. Consider if your partner is worth the fight: This may sound harsh, but if you're close to your family, you have to evaluate this. Is this person for right now or are you guys both thinking long-term? You have to assess the seriousness of your relationship before you go jumping through hoops for a person that may not be there in the not-so-distant future.

2. Communicate with your family and partner: If you're serious about your partner, then you have to talk with both parties about the situation. First talk to your fam. Express to them your feelings about the person and relationship, and don't forget to include how the disapproval is affecting you. Do the same with your partner –discuss your feelings about them and your family, along with the way their disapproval of them is affecting you and your relationship. Sometimes it will take more than communicating, but communicating constantly is important.

3. Take some time apart if needed: This may not work for everyone, but it may work for Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber, we'll see. Taking a break isn't ideal for every relationship, so you must know if it is something that is convenient and can help yours. Taking time apart may show your family that you really care about their opinions and it can even show them how you are affected by not being with your partner. This should not be taken as a sign of submission, but as a way to cope in the meantime.

2. Never disrespect: Respect is similar to trust in the fact that once you disrespect someone, it opens up a whole world of

Sometimes this is easier said than done, because things can get heated. The key is to stay as relaxed as humanly possible and try to work things out with your other half.

Rumors are stirring about a potential celebrity break-up. What are some ways to decrease break-up speculation?

Cupid's Advice:

People have a tendency to be nosy. They may begin to assume things in regards to your relationship if there are notable changes on social media, or in person. Whether these changes have any truth to them, it can be annoying to have people constantly discussing these rumors. Luckily, Cupid is here with some advice on how to decrease this talk:

- 1. Be honest: If you don't mind people knowing the truth, then share your break-up right after it occurs. This will stop people from formulating their own conclusions as to if you and your partner have broken up and why. Let people know about your break-up, and give them an explanation to the extent at which you feel comfortable so that further rumors don't begin to arise regarding the reasons why.

2. Delete social media: After your break-up, you may want to take a break from social media anyway. Also, if you temporarily delete your social media during this time, it will decrease speculation that can form from people analyzing who you are following, who is liking your pictures, and such. Sometimes it's nice to take a break from it all.

3. Be yourself: The number one reason why break-up speculation arises is because people notice changes in individual's personalities. If you and your partner actually did not break-up but you are just going through some other personal changes, let your friends and family know so that they don't assume otherwise. If you and your partner did break-up but you don't want people to know yet, try your best to still act like yourself so speculation doesn't occur.

It is definitely not beneficial to be on guard all the time about if your partner is cheating on you, but it isn't bad to be aware that it could happen. Here are some signs that may indicate that there is some infidelity occurring in your relationship:

1. Less time together: If your partner randomly begins to have less time for you, they may be spending time with someone else. Obviously if your partner just got a new job or is dealing with some occurrence, they might have less time to spend with you because of that. Talk to your partner and ask why your time together has decreased.

Pitt will not be rekindling their celebrity relationship after all. “Jen wouldn’t consider being with Brad in a romantic way,” a friend of Aniston’s said. “But there is always a spot in her heart for him.” As for Pitt, a source said, “Brad is sad to hear about Jen’s divorce. He only wishes the best for her. However, Brad hasn’t reached out to Jen, and has no plans to do so at this point.”

In this celebrity news, fans are speculating about Jennifer Aniston and Brad Pitt now that both have gone through splits. What are some things to consider before getting back together with an ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether or not to get back with an ex is an important decision. It isn’t always an easy one either. Cupid has some things to consider before making the choice:

1. Have you both moved on from the reason you both broke up?: Think about the reason why you both broke up in the first place. Was it for a good reason or was it circumstantial? Then, also think about whether you both have forgiven each other completely for past mistakes. If you have, then that can be a good sign – if not, then not so much. If you feel like you haven’t forgiven your ex for something, then that problem will probably constantly arise during your reconciled relationship.

2. Do you see a future with your ex?: Why go back to an ex if you don't think it's going to be serious and no good future ahead? Think about this thoroughly – sometimes we see a future with someone, but that future comes with unnecessary obstacles and negativity. If this is the case, then it may be a sign that your ex is meant to stay an ex. Think about this while spending some time apart – it's something big to ponder.

3. What are reasons to get back together and not get back together?: Pro and con lists are good ones to make. Be fair and think about why you should get back together with your ex and why you shouldn't. Then, weigh it all. Certain things weigh more than others, so be honest and just with yourself when considering all the information. Making a list with a friend can help, as long as that friend isn't necessarily biased.
