

New Celebrity Couple: Charlie Puth Confirms He's Dating Charlotte Lawrence on Valentine's Day

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity dating and celebrity relationship news, Charlie Puth has confirmed he's dating Charlotte Lawrence, according to EOnline.com. Puth posted a blurry photo of himself and Lawrence on Instagram with his arm wrapped around her, where he wrote, "Happy valentine's day". Earlier this month, Puth and Lawrence sparked speculation that they might be dating when they attended New York Fashion Week together. Lawrence, an up and coming singer who appears to enjoy music just as much as Puth, has been a part of the Reckless tour.

In celebrity couple news from the Day of Love, Charlie Puth has a new woman on his arm. How do you know when to put a label on your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

New relationships are fun and exciting, but how do you know when you're ready to put a label on it? Cupid has some tips:

1. You start ignoring the dating apps: You might still be exploring your options before you decide you want a relationship with your new person, and that's perfectly okay. If you start going to the apps or sites less because it seems exhausting, then you might have found your person.

2. You consider them in your decision making: You may be ready for the next step if you're going on a mini vacay and want to invite your new beau. And, it doesn't have to be for the big stuff. Picking up a coffee for them before you stop by for a quick visit can be another sign you're ready to be exclusive.

3. The idea of commitment no longer scares you: Being mutually exclusive to someone can be pretty scary, but when you've found the right person, you'll find that it doesn't bother you anymore. You can trust them and can't wait to tell your friends and family about the new partner in your life.

Becoming exclusive can be a big relationship milestone. What are some other ways you can know you're ready to be mutual with your partner? Let us know in the comments below!

Celebrity News: Are Khloe Kardashian & Tristan Thompson Still Together?

By Lauren Burczyk

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Khloe Kardashian and Tristan Thompson are keeping their relationship under wraps. According to EOnline.com, despite rumors swirling online about the couple splitting up, the reality TV star says “she feels very fulfilled” when asked about her relationship with Thompson. They are still together, though Thompson is on the road and in Cleveland most of the time, and Kardashian is at home in L.A. Kardashian, 34, has been keeping things low-key on Instagram in recent weeks, which may be what’s starting the rumors. A source tells EOnline.com, the TV personality has been consumed with her daughter, True, who is 10 months old, and she is head over heels.

In celebrity news, speculation continues about Khloe and Tristan’s relationship status. What are some ways to start the “What are we?” conversation with your partner.

Cupid’s Advice:

Most of us dread the thought of having to bring up the “What are we?” conversation with someone we’ve been dating. Here are some ways to start the feared conversation:

1. Look for signs that your partner is ready for the talk: Look for actions rather than words when deciding if your partner is ready to DTR. If regular plans are being made and you’re being introduced to people important to your partner, then chances are it’s time for the talk.

Celebrity News: Elizabeth Banks Says She & Husband Max Handelman Work Well Together

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, Elizabeth Banks told UsMagazine.com that she works well with husband Max Handelman. Banks and Handelman are business partners for their production company, Brownstone Productions, and have been married for 15 years. They met at The University of Pennsylvania when they were still in college. Banks doesn't know where she would be today without him. The two have teamed up to produce a new show, Shrill, starring Aidy Bryant. The show will air on Hulu on March 15.

In celebrity news, Elizabeth Banks and her husband work together. What are some factors to consider before working with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There are a lot of factors to consider before you start working with your partner, but it can be well worth it in the long run! Cupid has a few:

1. Make date nights a priority: Will you be able to maintain date nights if you both work together? It's a proven fact: couples who date stay together. In order to do that, you need to put aside your professional lives at home and vice versa. If neither one of you will be able to do this, working with your partner might not be a good idea.

3. Give each other space: If you're going to work with your partner, there will be times that you both need space. Consider giving each other a separate office and taking separate breaks at work will help things from getting tense at home and at the workplace. Being with each other 24/7 will drive both of you batty otherwise.

Celebrity Couple: 'BIP' Star Taylor Nolan Praises New Boyfriend

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity couple news, Bachelor In Paradise alum Taylor Nolan praised new boyfriend Frazer Nagy. Nolan became excited about making her relationship with Nagy Instagram official. She told UsMagazine.com.com, "My whole world is very different from his, so that was something I was unsure of, how that would work out. But he's incredibly supportive and doesn't make it weird at all and understands [the Bachelor Nation publicity] is just a part of my life." While the couple doesn't watch The Bachelor during celebrity date nights, but they have had some awesome hangouts with Nolan's former costar Vanessa Grimaldi and her new beau Josh Wolfe. It's great to see that Nolan has a supportive boyfriend!

Bachelor In Paradise's* Taylor Nolan has moved on, and the grass is greener. What are some ways to be emotionally supportive of your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

It's so sweet that Taylor Nolan has a new beau who supports her. Here are a few ways you can support your partner:

1. Be supportive: Stress can make us want to give up a lot. It helps to have someone who is a constant cheerleader to help you get through the tough times. So whether your partner is still in college working on a masters program or in an internship that might open doors for their dream job, make sure they know you'll be supportive the whole time, even when they are super stressed out.

2. Be quiet and listen: We can't all have a fairy tale romance, so just listening to your partner when they need to vent can be super helpful. You want to let them know that they can talk to you openly about anything and that they'll have your full attention. This will not only make your relationship stronger, but will teach you both to communicate with each other effectively.

3. Remind them you love them: Reminding your partner that you love them lets them know that you're ready to listen. It can help lift their spirits if they've been having a bad day. So hug them, give them a smooch, and ask how you can help.

Being supportive of your partner can help make you both a stronger couple. What are some ways you're supportive of your partner? Share in the comments below!

Celebrity Couple: Kylie Jenner & Travis Scott Pack on PDA at Grammys

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity couple news, according to UsMagazine.com, Kylie Jenner and Scott Travis had no issues with showing affection for each other at the 61st annual Grammy Awards last Sunday. They smooched on the red carpet and wrapped their arms around each other for a photo. How sweet!

This celebrity couple isn't shy about showing their affection for one another. How do you communicate your preferred level of affection to your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Showing public displays of affection to your sweetie is fine but be sure not to take it too over the top! Here are some ways you can communicate to your partner about the level of affection you're comfortable with in public:

1. Email or text: You can send each other an email or text to open up a conversation about how comfortable you both are with holding hands or kissing in public. There are people who aren't going to approve of you and your honey holding hands or kissing, so talk about how you would handle it.

Cupid’s Advice:

As parents, we all know how difficult it can be to find the perfect work-life balance. Here are some ways to balance your career and family life:

1. Manage your time efficiently: To create and maintain a work-life balance, you have to schedule your day ahead of time. Planning ahead and focusing on the most important tasks first, will give you enough time to spend with your family later on in the day.

2. Realize that it’s okay to say no: To excel in your career, you have to be committed to your work, but keep in mind that you have to learn to set your limits and say no once in awhile. To find the perfect work-life balance, you have to remember that you can’t always say yes to additional tasks, especially if they’re tedious and cutting into the time you need to spend with your family.

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity couple news according to EOnline.com, Bachelor Nation couple Kaitlyn Bristowe and Jason Tartick have confirmed their relationship. Bristowe joked, “I mean I was gonna use my podcast to break the news, but I guess the Today show beat me to it.” What a way to have your new relationship announced!

In celebrity couple news, there’s a new Bachelor couple lighting up the gossip columns! What are some ways to announce your relationship to family and friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

Being in a new relationship is a fun and exciting time, although you might not want it announced on The Today Show.

Here are a few ways you can announce your new status to family and friends:

1. Through a phone call: Texting can be easy, but we so rarely think to make an announcement by calling our family or friends. Make a few phone calls to the people you care about most to let them know you're dating someone!

In celebrity news, Anne Hathaway opens up about her past insecurities, but claims she's an entirely different person now. Hathaway, 36, who has starred in movies for nearly 20 years, admits that her time in the spotlight hasn't always been glamorous. According to People.com, during a celebrity interview excerpted from the latest installment from The Jess Cagle Interview, Hathaway said "I did everything wrong for so long," and added that even though her career was flourishing, she suffered from "feelings of inadequacy, insecurity, and nervousness and anxiety."

This celebrity news shows celebrities have the same insecurities we do. Like Anne Hathaway, what are some ways we can conquer these demons?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether we like to believe it or not, celebrities can face some of the same feelings of insecurity as we do. We have some advice on ways to conquer these all-too-common feelings:

1. Try not to always blame yourself: If you're having a severe case of the Monday's and can't seem to accomplish anything at work, think of other reasons that may be affecting your productivity. Instead of blaming it on your inadequacies, decide if it could've been a poor night's rest causing this or a busy weekend that drained your energy levels.

Celebrity Couple: Royal Celebrity Couples Face Online Bullying

by Mara Miller

Kensington Palace is worried about online bullying against the royal celebrity couples, Kate Middleton and Prince William, and Meghan Markle and Prince Harry. In the latest celebrity news, according to People.com. Kensington Palace staff have spent countless hours monitoring negative comments aimed toward the royal sisters-in-law. These comments often try to pit Duchesses Middleton and Markle against each other, with fans of both taking sides and arguing among themselves. In some rare cases, there have even been serious threats of harm. The cyber bullying isn't just toward both women: Kate and Meghan fans often turn against, and threaten, each other.

The Royal Celebrity Couples are facing terrible comments on social media and, in response, Kensington Palace is making a peace movement. What are ways can adults cultivate a positive experience online?

Cupid's Advice:

Kensington Palace has been locking down the comments on social media about the royal family. While it might be easy to act thoughtlessly online without caring about another person's feelings, bullying has serious emotional repercussions that have, in some cases, led to suicide when an online social interaction is not as easily monitored. We should all strive for a positive online experience. Here are some ways to achieve it.

- 1. Remember the Golden Rule: Remember the saying, "If you can't say anything nice, don't say anything at all?" Apply this logic to any future comments you might make online in a public forum. Realize the comments you are making are about real people, too. It's easy to get into shipping wars when we adore our royalty and our celebrities, but they have feelings and busy lives just like we do. Would you want to hurt your favorite celebrity because you've said something terrible about one of their family members when they're trying to work out their personal differences?

2. Report Threatening Behavior: If you're on a forum like Facebook or Twitter, you can report any threats toward someone who is getting bullied. Often, there is the option to block a specific user. Never make any threats yourself. While there are no exact laws against cyber bullying, it is still a form of harassment and there can be legal ramifications if you're caught.

3. Just Walk Away: The best thing to do is ignore it, even when you might really want to make that comment to try to make an internet troll go away. Bullying can take away the enjoyment of the video or article you're trying to read and put you in a horrible mood when you could have just ignored someone else's childish behavior.

Together at SAG Awards

By Lauren Burczyk

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Emma Stone and Dave McCarry giggle together during a rare public date night. The couple was seen together on Sunday at the 2019 SAG Awards, being very giddy. According to UsMagazine.com, this isn't the first time the couple has made a rare public appearance together to an awards show. Earlier this month, the couple enjoyed a night out at FOX's Golden Globe afterparty, where they were seen being very affectionate toward one another.

The elusive celebrity couple Emma Stone & Dave McCarry are not often seen in public together. What are some ways you and your love can prevent public expectations from influencing your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to not let others influence your ideal relationship. While public expectations may be tough to overcome, there are some ways to help prevent them from influencing how you and your partner carry on your love for one another:

1. Forget about public expectations altogether: It seems much easier than it actually is, but it's important to forget about what others expect of you. When we let go of all public expectations, we tend to enjoy our partners even more.

Celebrity Couple: Emily Blunt & John Krasinski Were Warned About Working Together

By Lauren Burczyk

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Emily Blunt and John Krasinski were warned about working together on the set of A Quiet Place. Despite being told that she would end up being divorced by the time filming was over, Blunt claims that working together on set has brought her and Krasinski even closer. On Sunday, Blunt took home a SAG Award for her part in A Quiet Place, winning best supporting actress at the 25th Annual SAG Awards. According to People.com, Blunt, 35, told reporters in the SAG press room after her win, that “we had never done it before and it is kind of the great unknown.”

Celebrity couple Emily Blunt & John Krasinski were warned that working together would damage their relationship. What are some ways to separate work and love with your S.O.?

Cupid's Advice:

Working with your partner may seem like a wonderful idea, but there can be some drawbacks. There are some adjustments that have to be made when intending to spend your working hours and your downtime with your S.O. To avoid putting your relationship in jeopardy, we have some ways to know your boundaries when working with your partner:

1. Maintain your privacy: Every relationship needs to have some space to survive, this is especially true while working with your significant other. Give each other enough time to respond to emails, make phone calls, and complete projects without shadowing each other throughout the entire day.

Celebrity Couple: Victoria Beckham & David Beckham 'Very Touchy' Before 20th Anniversary

By Lauren Burczyk

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Victoria Beckham and David Beckham were seen being very touchy and flirty with one another while celebrating at an event this week. According to People.com, David Beckham showed his support for his wife by attending an event dedicated to honoring the launch of her Reebok x Victoria Beckham collection. The celebrity couple will be celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary this summer. David Beckham had previously opened up about why being married for so long can be challenging. In an interview on the Australian TV show The Sunday Project, he said “to have been married for the amount of time that we have, it’s always hard work.”

The Beckhams have an admirably long marriage for a celebrity couple. What are some tips to having such a successful relationship as them?

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping a marriage fresh and healthy for a long period of time is usually not as effortless as it may seem. Just like anything else, marriages take hard work to stay strong and remain successful. Here are some tips on how to keep a powerful, lasting marriage:

1. Remind your partner that you appreciate them: The honeymoon phase doesn't last forever. If you and your partner have started to be less affectionate toward each other, it's important to always remind them that you appreciate them.

Celebrity Dating: Chrissy Teigen Questions Modern Dating

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity dating and celebrity news according to EOnline.com, Chrissy Teigan questions modern dating. Teigan and her husband, John Legend, have been together for twelve years and married for five. They have two children, Luna and Miles. Teigan questioned modern dating on Twitter on Sunday, saying, "I haven't dated for a long, long time but are guys really pulling the 'let's be exclusive' thing six months into dating like what, I have been exclusive what the f–k have you been”. Chrissy is right—modern dating can be a mess.

Chrissy Teigen’s questions about modern celebrity dating are way too relatable. What are some old-school tips we should adopt in today’s dating game?

Cupid’s Advice:

Though online dating platforms are the newest way to meet someone, old-fashioned dating still has its merits. Here are a few old-school tips:

1. Get off the phone: We carry mini-computers around with us, allowing constant access to the outside world. Old-fashioned dating meant actually spending time with your date to try to get to know them and giving your date time to get to know you if you’re genuinely interested in a relationship. Try leaving the phone in your purse or back pocket on vibrate to give your date your sole attention.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple: Chris Pratt and Katherine Schwarzenegger Move In Together!

2. Take Things Slower: While waiting for marriage to be intimate might seem too old fashioned, taking things slow while you’re dating has its benefits. Keep in mind that there is nothing wrong with jumping into bed together on the first date, but if you’re serious about the person you want to date, waiting and taking things a tad slower will allow both of you to decide if pursuing the relationship is plausible or a total disaster.

3. Find someone you can dance with: While this might seem like something your grandmother would say, couples who can dance and have fun together are more likely to have a successful relationship. And no, this doesn't mean a bump and grind in a club. Think head resting on shoulder, holding hands, swaying together kind of dancing.

Celebrity Couple: Chris Pratt and Katherine Schwarzenegger Move In Together!

By Mara Miller

According to People.com, in the latest celebrity news celebrity couple, Chris Pratt and Katherine Schwarzenegger recently moved in together. Pratt helped his fiancée move out of her home in Santa Monica, California on Friday. He excitedly captioned a short video on Instagram, “I love moving,” showing off his new Chevy Silverado, a trash bag, and a cardboard box full of belongings. Moving in together can be lots of fun when you’re ready like these two are!

Though it hasn't been long, celebrity couple Chris Pratt and Katherine Schwarzenegger are moving in together! How do you know when you are ready to take that step?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving in together can be a mix of amazing, frustrating, exhausting, and exciting emotions, not to mention expensive, even if you're just moving an hour and a half away from the city to the countryside. How do you know when you're ready?

1. Review your expenses, and then decide how you'll break things up: Are you going to split the bills even, or share them? Consider if you're ready to share the cost for food and gas, and if you're renting and the utilities aren't included, the water and the electric. This can be easily done by creating a budget for your potential new household.

2. You're willing to make a couple sacrifices: 3 AM dance sessions and binge-watching your favorite television show might have to be put on hold while your partner sleeps. You'll need to take time to do chores, and these will go quicker, like helping your partner wash the dishes or walk the dog together. You might also have to put down the social media to spend more time together. If you can see yourself making tiny sacrifices like this, then you both might be ready to live together.

3. You trust they will be great with your pets or children: While this might not be a factor for everyone, it's still an important factor to consider. If you are with someone who doesn't like children or animals, and you adore both your toddler and your pet rabbit and they want nothing to do with either, then you might need to re-evaluate your relationship. Trust in this situation is key because you don't want your human babies or fur babies to get hurt.

Celebrity Couple: Joe Alwyn Clears Up Rumors About Dating Taylor Swift

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, celebrity couple Joe Alwyn and Taylor Swift clear up some rumors about their relationship. According to EOnline.com, the couple has been spotted in public together on several occasions recently, including The Golden Globes. They also attended several parties together after the event. Alwyn said about his relationship with Swift, "I don't think anyone you meet on the streets would just spill their guts out to you, therefore why should I? I think it's normal." Alwyn is absolutely right. He and Swift deserve their privacy, no matter how much we may crave every single juicy detail.

Celebrity Couple Taylor Swift and Joe Alwyn are elegant in the face of rumors. What are some ways you and your partner can approach rumors?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors can have some serious ramifications for your relationship, depending on the nature of the gossip. What should you do when the rumors are flying about you and your partner?

1. Always speak to your partner first: Together you can discuss how you would like to tackle the situation. Should you ignore it, or say something?

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Joe Alwyn says, 'I Know What I Feel' About Girlfriend Taylor Swift

2. Don't do anything to aggravate the situation: Misunderstandings are bound to happen amongst family and friends when a new relationship starts. Maybe you're so wrapped up in your bubble of love, it's hard to fathom sharing any details yet. As a result, the gossip has started flying!

You don't need to tell people anything you don't want to about your relationship. Either address it or let people cook in their assumptions. Leave a little mystery to your love life!

3. Be honest with anyone important who might have heard the rumor: If it's Joe Shmoe in the work office who only started a week before, then it's none of his business. But if you and your partner's family and friends hear about the rumor, they may get worried something else more serious may be going on. It's okay to clear the air with them because immediate family and close friends will be there to support you and your partner later.

What else do you suggest doing if you and your partner face rumors?

Celebrity Couple: Kim
Kardashian Calls Khloe Kardashian an "Idiot" for Staying with Her BF

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news according to US Weekly, Kim Kardashian insulted celebrity couple Khloe Kardashian and NBA Pro Tristan Thompson by implying her sister is an idiot. The snide comment was made because Khloe Kardashian did not call off her relationship with Thompson after he cheated during Kardashian's pregnancy. Kourtney Kardashian, however, stuck by her sister's side, saying, "It's so quick and easy to be like, 'leave him, leave him'. It's so much harder to stay and have the whole public think you're an idiot for staying."

Tension is running high in the Kardashian family because of the celebrity couple. What are some tactful ways of telling a loved one you don't like their S.O.?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not easy to tell your loved one that their significant other is a lousy person, especially when they aren't ready to listen to you. What are some ways you can tell them how you feel without the family drama?

1. Sit them down for tea or coffee: Don't let them know what you think about their S.O. publicly. Invite them over for a private conversation. Your loved one might not be willing to hear what you have to say about their spouse, but a private conversation in the living room will be more effective than a status post on Facebook about how much you hate the person your loved one is dating.
