

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Alum Rachel Lindsay Reveals the Most Awkward Part of Finding Love on Reality TV

By

Jessica Gomez

Bachelorette alum Rachel Lindsay opened up about the most awkward part of finding love on a reality TV show, according to EOnline.com. And, it's not necessarily what you would expect. Lindsay got engaged to Bryan Abasolo in 2017 on the finale of her Bachelorette season. The celebrity couple do not have a definite date for their celebrity wedding as of yet, but what Lindsay believes is the weirdest part of the process is the moment the show is over and the cameras stop rolling. “I tell people the most awkward day is the day the cameras go off. Not even your first date. It’s like, ‘I’ve been proposed to.’ It’s this amazing experience. And then they’re like, ‘That’s a wrap.’ Like, show’s done, and then you’re just standing with each other,” the bride-to-be explained. “And once we got past that, everything else was a breeze... Because you don’t know if the person is really the same person they showed you on camera – and I think that’s what’s scary.”

This celebrity news shows that there are awkward moments even when it comes to finding love on TV. What are some ways to reduce those awkward moments on your quest to finding love?

Cupid’s Advice:

Oh, the journey of finding love, how wonderful and scary it can be. Alas, not to worry, Cupid has some advice on reducing awkward moments that could be avoided with a few steps:

1. Don’t rush: Take things at a good pace – not too fast, not too slow. When rushing into things, we often miss signs that we should be looking out for in order to avoid making the mistake of further pursuing a relationship or to avoid certain awkward moments. Things should happen in their own time and not be rushed by you or the other person. Love isn’t a race, it takes time. You need to learn the way the person is and the way your new relationship is in order to avoid negativity and awkwardness. After that, then the trust needs to roll in, which is why taking things steady is many times a good idea.

2. Don’t try too hard: Impress others, but don’t stop being yourself. Pretending to be someone you’re not is bound to end in an awkward moment. It’s important to put energy into trying to putting your best foot forward and being the best version of yourself. However, in the process, make sure to stay true to yourself. Don’t let your mind roam too far, causing you to act out of desperation. It’s understandable to maybe not want to be your whole, total self – just remember to not stray away from what really makes you you. Insecurities can easily pop up when you’re playing a role that isn’t like you.

3. Don’t worry: Like said before, love and relationships take time. Sometimes certain concerns creep up on us and we become worrywarts. The unknown can be terrifying, and you may not feel completely comfortable because of that. However, don’t let unvalidated feelings take over. Get to know the person without judging them from past experiences you’ve had that have nothing to do with them. As time passes by, you will also build emotional intimacy, which should ease the worrying due to having a more open relationship with one another.

Celebrity News: Justin Bieber's Mom Defends Him Amid Selena Gomez Romance

By

Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Selena Gomez's mom is not too fond of Justin Bieber. Celebrity couple Gomez and Bieber have been stirring on and off celebrity gossip for a couple years now. Right now in latest celebrity news, they seem to be on. According to EOnline.com, Bieber's mom posted an Instagram with a caption that praised how proud she is of her son and how beautifully he is maturing. With all of this talk of Gomez's mom not approving of Bieber, Bieber's mom had to show the world that no one is perfect so we need to have patience with one another.

This celebrity news has us clapping. What are some ways to get support when your partner's parents don't approve of you?

Cupid's Advice:

The only realistic expectations you should have should not be for anyone other than yourself. It is upsetting though if your partner's parents don't approve of you and your relationship. Don't worry- Cupid is here to help with some tips on how to put your best self forward to potentially make a better impression with your partner's parents:

1. Find out activities they like: Talk to your significant other and find out some things that their parents are into. Maybe boating, cooking, going on walks, etc. Then, reach out to them to do one of their favorite activities with them. This will seem like less of a "kiss-up" move since you're not buying them anything, you are just simply creating a comfortable situation for them to truly get to know your amazing self!

2. Be blunt if they are: If your partner's parents really make it clear that they are not a fan of you, be blunt and ask them sincerely what you can do in order to gain their trust. Communication is key. Ask and then make efforts to do what they feel is necessary as long as it is reasonable and does not interfere with changing who you truly are.

3. Show them how much you love their child: If they can't get past who you are, and it is a struggle for you to see the good qualities in your partner's parents as well, there is a genuine force that cannot be denied- the love that you have for your partner. Instead of trying to boost your self-image, make it clear how much you love and care for your partner. Their parents cannot be too upset with the fact that their child is getting the love and care that they deserve.

Uh oh, is your relationship the current talk of the rumor mill? Don't worry, love. This too shall pass. If rumors are bringing you down, Cupid has how to fight through these challenging times:

1. Stay busy: This is an important factor because it tests and shows your true inner strength. 1. Be yourself, and don't fake it. You want someone to like you for you – and so, you want to put your best face on, not a different one. Never be afraid to show the real you. Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Arie Luyendyk Jr. Justifies First Impression Rose Pick

Rachel Sparks

This celebrity news is stirring up some fire! Bachelor Arie Luyendyk Jr. chose who to give his first rose to, and according to EOnline.com, his choice made a lot of people mad. Single mom from Maine Chelsea threw insults around, upsetting the other women and the viewers, but to Arie, she was taking the initiative he wanted to see. Arie is confident that viewers will change their mind about Chelsea; he hasn't yet!

This celebrity news has us in Arie's corner. What are some ways to know if someone appreciates you with no ulterior motive?

Cupid's Advice:

We all dream of being on the 'Bachelor' and being handed that rose, but like Arie, there are many times we can doubt the true intentions of someone. A lot of people will try and use someone in Arie's situation for their own personal gain, so how can you remain secure in others' advances? Read Cupid's dating advice:

1. They seek you out often: Arie was driven by Chelsea's relentless pursuit of him. It's confidence-boosting when someone keeps coming after you. How do you know they're doing it for the right reasons? Pay attention to when and how they seek you out. If they're gaining a lot of attention for it, the situation is less about you and more about them.

Celebrity News: Brad Pitt is Casually Dating as He Adjusts to Single Life as a Dad

By

Rachel Sparks

According to E!Online.com, the celebrity news is that Brad Pitt is slowly dipping his toes into the celebrity dating pool. The 46-year old actor is adapting to being single and seeing his family. Pitt stays busy by meeting with his large group of guy friends, none of them in the business, riding his motorcycle, and having regular dinner and lunch meetings. Though Pitt doesn't see his six kids as much as he wants, he has been filling his time with family, including going back to his Missouri and Oklahoma roots. As far as dating? This recently divorced celebrity says it's complicated and not a priority.

This celebrity news shows us celebs aren't immune to having to adjust. What are some ways to know you're ready to get back into the dating scene when you have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Balance is key when you're a single parent. You have to make sure you balance the demands of your career with the demands of your family. Maintaining a house, both the operations and finances, alone can be a challenge. Somewhere in there, of course, you need to be able to take care of yourself. Here's Cupid's dating advice to help you get ready for dating again:

1. Balance career: If you were the main bread-winner, maintaining the house and investing in your family was on the back burner because you had someone else helping you. When suddenly your support is gone, having the mental and physical energy to still invest in your career in addition to your new responsibilities can be daunting. Make sure your career is in a place where you can take some focus away and instead invest in yourself and a relationship.

2. Are your kids ready: With a large brood of kids like Brad Pitt, getting back into dating can be a lot harder. Each age range of childhood processes divorce differently, so each child will vary on their resistance to a parent returning to dating. As a parent, be ready for that resistance, but make sure you're caring for your children, too.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt Are Talking Again

3. Length of relationship: Depending on the length of your marriage, you may need more time to cope post-divorce. Shared affairs, such as mortgages and finances, can be hard to unravel and separate. Aside from that, the emotional aspect of becoming suddenly single can be a shock. As fun as dating can be again, if you're looking for something more serious, consider giving yourself the adequate amount of time to heal and the appropriate length of courting before claiming a relationship is serious.

Celebrity News: Kim
Kardashian Reveals Her 2018

New Year's Resolutions

By

Karley Kemble

New year, new Kim? Kind of! According to EOnline.com, Kim Kardashian has been very open with the changes she hopes to make in 2018 on her exclusive app. In the video, Kardashian states her main goal “is to be on my phone less and more in the moment.” She also hopes to up her fitness game and work out five to six days a week with her trainer. 2018 will certainly be a huge year for Kardashian and her husband Kanye West, as they will soon be welcoming another celebrity baby via surrogate, too!

This celebrity news shows us that even celebrities like Kim Kardashian plan to make big changes with the new year. How can you stick to your resolutions once you've committed to them?

Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to make resolutions at the beginning of the year, but it's not always easy sticking to them. In fact, most people ditch their big resolutions before January even ends. If you're hoping to make sure your big changes stick, check out these tips straight from Cupid:

1. Re-frame the "resolution": Resolutions rarely see life past January is because of the immense pressure to strictly abide to them. If there is even a small deterrent, most people give up because they aren't perfecting their goal. Try re-framing and leave room for error. For example, if you want to lose weight, instead of saying "I will lose 20 pounds this year," say "I want to change my eating habits and focus on my overall health." The two coincide, and it's more likely you'll have more success!

2. Don't be afraid to restart: Slip-ups are inevitable, so don't beat yourself up over them! With 52 weeks and 365 days, you would be insane not to stray from your big resolution. When you do stray (notice: "when" and not "if"!) know that your next choice/decision is an opportunity to get back to your goal. It's better to have a slow and steady progression, rather than no progress or even backtracking and giving up completely!

3. Have a support system: Lean on others for support. It's not a sign of weakness, rather, it's a sign of strength! When you tell others about your goals, they will want to help encourage you and help keep you accountable. Making others proud is always a very empowering motivator, so you should definitely consider this option!

This celebrity couple isn't going to be heading down the aisle anytime soon. What are some reasons to hold off on marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

While you may feel pressured to plan your wedding right after you and your partner become engaged, it's important to keep your wants and needs in mind. Long engagements are perfectly okay! Here are some reasons to consider pressing pause on your future walk down the aisle:

1. It saves money: Sometimes, it's financially smart for you and your partner to have a long engagement to save money for your big day. No matter the size of the wedding, they can be quite costly. Invites, rental spaces, dresses – they all add up very quickly. Ease the financial burden and take your time!

2. It grows your relationship: When you prolong your engagement, you can truly get to know your partner better because it allows for time spent together in a different light. Celebrity News: Jason Kennedy's Wife Lauren Scruggs Defends Him After Co-Host's Exit

By

Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Lauren Scruggs, Jason Kennedy's wife, is standing by her man! After her hubby's co-star, Catt Saddler, quit working for E! due to a pay disparity, Kennedy received criticism on social media, according to UsMagazine.com. Scruggs was there to support her hubby though. This celebrity couple stands strong together – and Scruggs had something to say via Instagram on Dec 21 to defend her man and E!. She wrote, "I believe in female empowerment and gender equality, but it's heartbreaking that a network is being deemed sexist when that is simply not true. At one time my husband had a female co-anchor [Giuliana Rancic] on E! News who made 3 times his salary. Women are paid accordingly on this network, and the difference in his salary versus hers did not affect Jason. He knows there are always more components to consider when determining one's salary than gender alone... Since Jason was named the permanent anchor of E! News over two years ago, he has had various co-hosts that rotate throughout the week. A permanent co-host has never been named since the last one left 6 months ago."

This celebrity news shows that couples stick together in the good times and bad. What are some ways to support your partner through a controversial time?

Cupid's Advice:

Supporting your partner during tough situations is important. Cupid has some relationship advice on ways to support your partner:

1. Communicate effectively. Make sure you are listening as much as you are speaking. Sometimes we mistake hearing for listening. The best way to help your partner is to try your best to understand them and prevent misunderstandings, and for that, listening is key!

Cupid’s Advice:

Believe it or not, style does play a role in relationships, and not just in the aesthetically pleasing department. Cupid is here to inform you!:

1. Matching has a connecting effect: Have you and your partner ever matched without planning? You both end up wearing similar outfits or the same color? In a way, it feels good. You feel like you're both connected, plus you look cute in public. Feeling like you and your partner are on the same page is a good thing, and matching is a small nudge in that direction.

2. People snap judgments: It's engraved in our society – people judge others based on how they dress and their style. Whether these judgments are good or bad, the way you dress and the way your partner dresses are both in the public eye, up for observation. You shouldn't care what people think, but you may be more reluctant to not care when your significant other is meeting your friends or the fam. We all know that a good sense of style does make a lasting impression.

On top of that, your style is something that you identify with, it's a reflection of you. On that note, let's do some shopping!

This celebrity news may not be appreciated by the married boyfriend in question. What are some ways to make sure your love interest is truly unattached?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not fun to deal with others' emotional baggage. Though your partner may claim to be unattached to their ex, there's always a possibility they still could be. Cupid has some signs to look out for:

1. They've purged their social media: This may seem like a small detail, but it speaks volumes. One hand they're just pictures, but it could also indicate that they have some unresolved feelings about their ex. Photos are nostalgic – so your partner might just be nostalgic about their past love.

2. They talk about them nonstop: People want to talk about topics they're interested in, people they like, or things that are on their mind. Celebrity News: Taylor Swift's Ex Turned Her Into 'Quasimodo,' According to BFF Todrick Hall

By

Karley Kemble

Taylor Swift is infamous for being dramatic about her exes. If 2017 has shown us anything, it's that Swift is tired of being defined by the media. Every time you say his name, you hunch over.” Though her most recent relationship ended with a break-up, Hall said that his bestie is happier than ever with her current beau, Joe Alwyn.

In celebrity news, even Taylor Swift fell victim to an unhealthy relationship. What are some ways to know you’re in an unhealthy relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Unhealthy relationships are emotionally draining, and it’s best to end them before things worsen. If you think you might be in an unhealthy relationship, read these tips from Cupid:

1. They’re too attached: Sure, it’s normal to be a little clingy to your partner, but there is a line that must be drawn. Make sure you are aware of the differences between healthy attachment and emotional manipulation. Phrases like “I’ll die if you ever break up with me” should never be taken lightly. Emotional manipulation is never, ever okay.

2. They constantly blame you: If your partner finds a way to spin every argument or disagreement you have and makes you feel like the bad guy, that is a telling sign of an unhealthy relationship. You are entitled to your feelings and opinions, and your partner should never invalidate you for being too sensitive or for overreacting. Beware of this if it arises.

3. You're changing for the wrong reasons: You and your partner should bring out the best in each other. Any changes you make in your life should always be because you want to – not because you think it's what your partner would want for you. It's cliché, but staying true to your core values is important, and you should never lose sight of that!

This celebrity couple has stayed almost entirely out of the limelight. What are some ways to keep your relationship on the down-

Low?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, it's better to keep your relationship between you and your partner. If you're looking to keep your relationship quiet for the time being, read these tips straight from Cupid:

1. Keep it offline: In a world ruled by social media, it's important to refrain from posting or sharing anything related to your personal relationship! If you don't want others to know, keep it off the Internet until you're ready.

2. Stay in on weekends: Weekends are the days when most people go out, so if you're wanting to keep your relationship quiet, it's better to stay in. couple are now back to a happy marriage, according to the source, making celebrity news and relationship goals.

This celebrity news isn't surprising, given that cheating is a violation of trust. What are some ways to regain lost trust in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Once trust is lost, it's hard to get it back. But it's possible. Cupid has some love advice:

1. It takes two of you to rebuild trust: Both the person who is forgiving the other and the one that is working to mend the trust they broke have to work on it. You both have to meet each other half way to rebuild what was lost. And remember, Rome was not built in a day.

2. Be honest with one another from here on out: Honesty is always key to making a relationship work. A way of proving yourself to one another is to not lie. If one partner or both partners continue to lie to one another, it will not work, and the path to rebuilding the trust will get much more difficult. Be truthful and be open. Communication is key.

3. Can you forgive? Can you prove yourself?: Lots of thinking and evaluating needs to happen! Before trying to rebuild the trust in a relationship, you both need to ask yourselves something: Can I forgive him or her? Can I prove my loyalty again after violating his/her trust? If the answers to these questions are yes, then let the mending begin. If not, it's time to let go.

Megan Markle is adapting to royal traditions. What are some ways to combine holiday traditions with your partner’s? Cupid has some advice!

Cupid’s Advice:

Adopting another person's traditions can be hard, especially if you and your partner aren't into the same things. Read Cupid's advice to help you and your love have a stress-free holiday:

1. Be flexible: A consensus is ideal, but many times we have to compromise or make certain sacrifices. Plans can also be modified to accommodate both parties. Do what you can do, but remember to accept what you may not be able to change. Also, don't forget to keep a positive mind!

Celebrity News: Robert Pattinson Spotted Holding Hands with a Mystery Blonde Post FKA Twigs Split

Cupid's Pulse
* Celebrities. Love. Opinions. *

By

Rachel Sparks

Twilight star Robert Pattinson has been seen holding hands with another woman just a few months after the split with celebrity ex FKA Twigs. According to UsMagazine.com the couple attended Seth MacFarlane's annual holiday party together. The identity of the mystery blonde remains unknown. Pattinson admitted that his engagement with FKA Twigs was not totally amicable towards the end as believed. Privacy and scheduling conflicts created tension for the celebrity couple towards the end.

This celebrity news seems to mean that Robert Pattinson is moving on. How do you know when it's time to give up hope of returning to your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Returning to an ex is great. They know exactly what you like, how to treat you, what your interests are, and, more than likely, the two of you are great friends. Getting back with an ex can be like returning home. If the two of you agreed to take a break and ended on friendly terms, it's normal to wait to jump back into dating because you want to wait for your ex. Sometimes, though, it's more important for you to move on. Read Cupid's love advice to help navigate those tough relationship waters:

1. You're ready for a relationship: This is the ultimate way to know when to move on, whatever the circumstance. If you're feeling great about life, what you have, who you are, and you're ready to share that with someone, don't wait for your ex. Love never follows a predictable path. You may be sad to be moving on when there seemed to be promises of returning to your ex, but you deserve your own happiness.

2. The problems haven't resolved themselves: Couples take a break for a reason. If those reasons haven't been resolved, returning to an ex will only start a cycle. Whether it's scheduling or distance or something else together, don't go back until you feel you can give the relationship a fair shot. If the problems won't ever go away, it's definitely time to start fishing for something new.

3. You're ok seeing your ex with someone else: The penultimate way to know you're past your ex: seeing (or imagining) them with someone else doesn't get you fired up. It's not fair to a new relationship if you're still harboring feelings for your ex. If you're truly past them, there's no reason to hold onto the hope of a reunion if that's not where you see love.

1. Do you know how to spoil them: A romantic getaway is all about appreciating your partner, celebrating your relationship together, and expressing your love. Regardless if you have been with your partner for a matter of months or many years, it's important to keep the spark alive! If you're looking for different ideas to reignite the romance, Cupid has some tips for you:

2. Embrace spontaneity: We are creatures of habit, and it's easy to feel attached to routine. Your relationship should never feel like a chore! Cupid’s Advice:

At some point we all have wanted to get back together with an ex. It’s normal. They know you and what you like and they’re familiar and safe. While getting back together with an ex doesn't work for everyone, there are times that it can be the exact romance that you want in life. It all depends on your past with your ex. Was the breakup irreconcilable? You alone know what's best. Cupid has the relationship advice to help you decide:

1. You know each other: The best relationships are the ones where your partner knows you inside and out. They know your buttons and your insecurities, but they love you anyway. They know what makes you happy, how your brain works, your dreams, and how to support you. If your ex was great at all of these things, going back to that relationship can actually be a good thing.

2. You're friends: Romantic relationships work best when there's a solid foundation as friends. No matter what dating advice says about dating an ex again, you will know if you're ready for that kind of thing and if it will be good for you both.

When you go back to an ex, make sure it's for the right reasons and that you're fully committed to making it work. Who knows, the person who was once an ex could become the love of your life and your future spouse. Treat them as if they could be.

This celebrity news has us wondering about on and off relationships. What are some factors to consider before continuing with this type of relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When in an on and off relationship, you must consider certain things. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. What's the reason for turning down the heat?: Is it something minuscule or something worth a break up, like lack of trust? Sometimes an on and off relationship will be just that, on and off all the time. Make sure neither of you are quick to end it, just to get back together right away without fixing a thing – this will make the break-ups seem less serious and will probably make them occur often.

3. Can your problems be worked through?: Unfortunately, not all problems can be fixed. Sometimes, things just don't work out. Evaluate the problems between you and your significant other, and decide together whether your issues can be mended or if the relationship is just too broken.
