Cupid's Advice:

In any relationship, you and your partner should always discuss what things you both feel are private in your relationship. Cupid has some things to keep in mind about privacy in your relationship:

1. Social media: If you open up on social media about your current relationship, exes that you're still friends with may see what you're doing and may try causing drama in your life. Revealing too much about your relationship can leave you open and exposed to the antics of a rejected ex.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby: Khloe Kardashian & Tristan Thompson Are 'Actively Trying' for Baby No. 2

2. Everyone won't be happy for you: Your relationship may bring you haters. Not everyone will rejoice in the sight of your union, which will leave you and your partner open to critics. The fewer people who know about your private life, the less feedback you'll have to deal with.

Related Link: Celebrity Exes Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie Reach Child Custody Agreement

3. Added pressure on your relationship: By putting your relationship out in the open, you give people permission to idolize your relationship. Sharing your every move in your private life can put your relationship in a position to be the prototype of what real love is. This can convince people that they want what you have solely based on what they have seen. This can put a lot of pressure on you and your relationship. You may want to go above and beyond the expectations for your followers, which makes it easy to lose sight of what's really important, building an unbreakable bond with your significant other.

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone loves a good fairy tale, but for many couples that simply doesn't happen. Most people don't know how to create and maintain healthy relationships and marriages. Cupid has some ways to make a relationship work through thick and thin:

1. Empathize with each other: One of the biggest problems in relationships is that people only see their own point of views. In order to really connect, you have to listen to one another and accept each other's point of view.

Cupid’s Advice:

Fighting with a partner, friend or family member is never pretty. It can be hard to recover from a bad fight in a relationship. Cupid has some ways to make it right with your partner after a fight:

1. Don’t be petty: After a fight, your emotion might still be running high, so let the dust settle after a fight. You may feel like throwing in some last-minute shade, passive-aggressive jabs or get back at them. But all that does is prolong the nastiness of your fight. The best thing is to let it go and work out your problems.

Cupid's Advice:

Even the most successful partner needs and wants to be built up. Whether your partner is winning at life every week or struggling, they need you to be their greatest fan. Cupid has some way to support your partner's career wins:

1. Build up your partner: The best gift you can give your partner is your own belief and confidence in them. Let them see how amazing they are in your eyes. You do that by giving them positive feedback when they succeed and/or struggle. Your belief in them will motivate them to keep going this in return will have the same effect when it comes to you when you need it.

romance alive in your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Life has a way at chipping away at a relationship. Cupid has some ways to keep the romance alive in your marriage.

1. Make date night a priority: Dating is what made you fall in love in the first place. So, it would make sense to keep at it to stay in love. But as we know life gets in the way. So, remember date night does have to elaborate or over the top, it could be something simple as a picnic. Just set aside time for each other each week for just the two of you to reconnect.

3. Never lose the PDA: At the beginning of a relationship, you probably couldn't keep your hands off each other. Constantly holding hands, sneaking in an extra kiss or two, cuddling. Ask yourself how affectionate are you now? After a long period of time and kids' things can get a little trickery when it comes to the PDA. It's important to maintain that closeness that PDA provides. Physical touch should happen on a daily whether it's a peck on the cheek, holding hands or a slight pat on the butt. By maintaining the PDA you will be able to keep the romance alive.
