

Celebrity Break-Ups: Fans Speculate That Porsha Williams & Dennis McKinley Called It Quits

By Amanda Sanders

In the latest celebrity news, fans are speculating that celebrity couple reality star Porsha Williams has split from her fiancé Dennis McKinley. According to UsMagazine.com, during Memorial Day weekend, her followers noticed that she was no longer McKinley on Instagram. Williams' sister Lauren and her mother Diane are also no longer following McKinley on Instagram. As of Tuesday night, the Bravo star began to follow McKinley once more, but her family members still aren't.

Fans have some opinions on what was behind this celebrity break-up. What are three good reasons to call off your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is a big deal and shouldn't be done lightly, but there are definitely some instances where it's warranted. Cupid has some good reasons it's time to call it quits:

1. They're too clingy: At first, it's nice to be with someone who showers you with constant attention. But if they get angry or disappointed every time you go out with your friends or when you need a night to yourself then its time to take a step back and re-evaluate how healthy this relationship really is.

2. They don't make time for you: Even Prince Charming might forget to respond to a text every so often or be forced to cancel plans when something important comes up. But if you're never able to pin down your guy to hang out, that doesn't give you much time to have an actual relationship. This kind of guy typically isn't looking for anything serious, and if you are, then it's time to move on.

3. You can't trust them: No one likes a liar. If you have serious doubts about where they were when they said they were working late or worse, you catch them in a lie, it's time to dump them.

Anniversaries are a wonderful reason to celebrate! Each anniversary is a milestone that allows you to reflect on the wonderful things that have occurred in the past year. As wonderful as they are to celebrate, you don't always need a big gesture! Here are a few of Cupid's ideas to commemorate your anniversary without blowing your budget:

1. Plan a trip: Take a trip, whether it be a weekend or only a day, to a place that means a lot to both of you! It could be where you got engaged, where you had your first date, where you got married, or simply a place you both have wanted to visit! Going through new experiences, or reliving fond memories with your partner are wonderful times that you will remember for years to come.

Celebrity Baby News: Roger Mathews Defends Estranged Wife Jenni 'JWoww' Farley Amid Parenting Criticism

By Emily Green

In the latest celebrity baby news, Roger Mathews of Jersey Shore, defends his estranged wife Jenni 'JWoww' Farley via Instagram on Monday, in the midst of an overflow of negative comments regarding their co-parenting skills. These negative comments come after new celebrity couple Farley and boyfriend, Zack Clayton Carpinello, were seen celebrating Memorial Day in Las Vegas, according to UsMagazine.com.

In celebrity baby news, Roger Mathews is supporting his ex JWOWW through criticism about their parenting. What are some ways to keep parenting criticism from affecting your children?

Cupid's Advice:

As a parent, receiving any criticism about how you are raising your children can be hard to hear, especially if it's from an outside source. These criticisms can make you begin to question if you are truly raising your children in the "right way." Every parent has their own unique way that they want their children to be raised. Here are Cupid's advice on remembering that your parenting style is the "right way" for you:

1. Ask yourself about their intentions: Some parents are what some would call "too confident" in their parenting style, thinking their way is the only right way to raise a child. Consider where their criticism is coming from: are they a random stranger that wants you to do things a certain way, or are they a close friend or family member offering advice? Through experience, you will find the parenting style that works best for you and your family.

2. Everyone is different: No parents are going to have the exact same type of parenting as others. Every household is different, with different parents and children, with different morals and ideals. If you are not sure about how to go about a situation, that's okay! Reach out to your partner, any close friends or family members, even do some research! It takes time to figure out exactly how you want to raise your children, so don't be afraid to try new things or ask for help.

3. You know your children best: No one knows your children better than YOU! You've been the one who has seen them grow up first hand, so you know how they react and adapt to certain situations and experiences. If you want to change up something in your parenting to better fit your family, that's fine! Just stick to what you know will benefit your family, don't conform to any criticisms from any outside perspective. You know what is best!

couple seems to be very excited to have their second baby on the way.

In celebrity baby news, baby makes four! What are some benefits to having two kids versus just one?

Cupid's Advice:

Having one child might seem easy, but having two means your children will have a friend for life. There are also added social benefits to having a second child. Cupid has some benefits to share that might have you thinking twice about stopping after baby number one:

1. Your children learn how to socialize and share with others:

When you have a second child, both will have to learn to get along and share with each other because they don't have much of a choice. Siblings are in each other's lives all day, every day for the first few years of their lives. This social interaction will help them when it is time to go to school and start making friends.

3. You are an expert now: With baby number one you had so much to learn, and you had to learn it fast. You disinfected everything, washed your hands so often they were like sandpaper, and packed half of the household whenever you left the house. However, with baby #2 you already know what you're doing because your first child taught you to be an expert, so you know what's coming with sleepless nights, feeding, and everything else involved with having a baby.

consider about your wedding's location?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day should be one of the happiest days in your life, so it is important to find the perfect location for your big day. The location not only sets the overall tone for your wedding theme, but it can affect the number of guests you're able to invite, and even the type of attire you and your wedding party wear. Cupid has some advice:

1. Prepare your guest list: When considering where you want to have your wedding, you need to know how many guests you want to invite because you will need to make sure you find a location that can accommodate all of the people you really want to be there for your special day. If you are planning your wedding at a faraway location, you will want to consider whether the guests you truly want to be present will be able to travel.

Celebrity Interview: 'Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal' Actor Noah Huntley Talks Career, Charity & Relationships

Interview by Courtney Shapiro. Written by Courtney Shapiro

Notorious for his roles in dramas and fantastical films, including The Royals, The Chronicles of Narnia, and Snow White and the Huntsman, it is no surprise that London native Noah Huntley was cast in the new and exciting TV movie, Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat with Huntley about how his childhood helped shape his career path, what he really thinks about the Royals, as well as his charity work and the projects he's excited to take on in the future.

Celebrity Interview with Noah Huntley: Early Career Path, Real

Thoughts on the Royals, and Future Endeavors

Huntley came from humble beginnings, as he grew up with seven siblings and had to carve out individual opportunities for himself. "It was slightly by happenstance because my parents had three sets of twins. You kind of thought to make your own rules," explains Huntley. He and his siblings went through a mix of private schools, home education, and state schools, until age 11 when the Sussex native attended a less expensive stage school for a year and a half to save his parents money. "I didn't really think I was cut out for such an overtly theatrical life; I wasn't going to be a tap dancer," he explains. But, that didn't stop him from finding a passion in acting while there. From that point on, he was hooked. "I got an agent and I kept working basically until I was 19 or 20, and I did a series in England called Emmerdale for two years, and that got me started."

Before landing some of his larger roles, the actor also spent time in the fashion world as a model. Expanding upon how he got into it, Huntley says, "My mother was doing a degree in textiles, so that was always there in the background. I came out of a soap and very much focused on film and theater for the next 10 years really. Then, I was in LA and I was broke, probably about 10 years ago, and did a little bit of modeling just to earn some money, and I thought nobody would see it, but it went really well." Huntley partnered with big names like Annie Leibovitz and L'Oreal, and his time modeling allowed him to put money in the bank as he continued to pursue his passion in acting.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Duchess Meghan Has Been 'Very Emotional' Since Welcoming Baby Boy

Over the years, Huntley has played many different types of characters. To prepare for various roles, he says “it’s usually about finding something in your own life or in your own character or personality that you can apply to a character that you’re playing.” Huntley also adds that certain character’s voices immediately get in your head. “It suddenly clicks and you go, oh, that’s the voice that the tone comes to me. Directors maybe see a different version of it, but to me, it’s the voice, and when you get that voice, then it sort of embodies a lot of the character and very often that’s key to unlocking the character you’re playing.”

Speaking of characters, Huntley’s most recent role is that of Caspian in the new Lifetime TV movie, Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal. In the movie, Caspian is one of the co-hosts on the fictional broadcast program, Good Day U. K., who often describes his disdain for Meghan and her romance with the Prince. The actor admits, “It’s a really fun character to play. It’s kind of the voice of the public in terms of media and how easily that partly represents the questions of the public, but it’s also very invasive, and to some extent has an agenda on getting the sensational scoop for a story.” On the other hand, his co-star, Louise Bond, who plays the other host on the broadcast, is the voice of reason and passion. “I’m really the yang to her yin in that respect,” Huntley explains.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Royal Drama Has ‘Put Pressure’ on Prince Harry & Meghan Markle’s Relationship

However, Huntley’s real life views on the royal celebrity couple don’t align with his character Caspian’s. “There is an element of celebrity that goes along with being part of the royal family. It talks about the political demands and expectations of the royals and then the other side of it, which is there should be no political agenda,” the actor elaborates. “So, I think that’s a fascinating argument. My character Caspian is kind of exploring the underside of that rather than getting caught up on the fashion and the glossy cozy fairy tale that is the royal family.”

The fact is, Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan are mostly portrayed in the media as having a fairy tale romance. In contrast, Huntley’s love life is far from that. When asked about what he looks for in a significant other, Huntley jokingly confesses, “Oh God, don’t ask me! I seem to just fail at it miserably, and I think three years was my longest relationship.” However, the Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal star does point to selflessness as one of the keys to a successful relationship. He adds, “I think that fairy tale in terms of love, is almost transcendental. It’s something that’s bigger than the sum of its parts.”

Huntley may not be fulfilling selflessness in a current relationship, but he certainly applies it in his philanthropic endeavors. During the filming of The Chronicles of Narnia, Huntley was cast, but told he wouldn’t be receiving payment for the role. He would only be earning residuals from the film, so he decided, “I’ll do it for free, and you can donate more money to my my nominated charity and that’s the way I prefer it to be rather than take any any money for it.” Huntley supports Greenpeace, Bloodwise and The Actors Benevolent Fund, among other charitable organizations.

Aside from filming Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal, and taking a passionate step into charity, Huntley is currently working on a new show called Pandora that will air on the CW coming out this July. The actor confesses, “I’ve wanted to do sci-fi for a long time.” In the show, Huntley plays the head of a military training academy, who he admits “is potentially a bully.” Huntley is greatly looking forward to this project, which is unlike anything he’s starred in previously.

You can watch Noah Huntley as Caspian in ‘Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal’ on Lifetime, premiering May 27th. You can also follow Noah on Instagram and Twitter.

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, former Teen Mom star Jenelle Evans and husband David Eason are back in court trying to regain custody of their children. According to what a source told EOnline.com, Evan and Eason are “hoping to get [their] kids back in time for summer.” The children were taken after allegations that Eason killed their family dog, Nugget. The celebrity couple plan to seek counseling after they regain custody of their children and life begins getting back to normal.

These celebrity parents are fighting for custody of their kids. What are some ways to avoid a custody battle amid a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Splitting up when you have children doesn't need to result in a custody battle. If both parents agree to be reasonable, then a custody agreement can be made without ending up in a conflict. Cupid has some advice to keep things amicable:

1. Get informed: A good place to start working towards an amicable custody agreement is to become informed in your state's custody laws. Learn what "a child's best interest" means based on the laws in your state because that is what the court will base their decisions on when it comes to the custody of your children.

2. Ask your family attorney questions: Your children are the most important people in a custody case, so don't be afraid to ask your attorney lots of questions, and do not let them pacify you with vague answers. This will not only help you better understand the matter at hand, helping you become more informed but will prepare you for all possibilities and help you fulfill the role of being reasonable so you can avoid an ugly battle in court.

3. Be open to working with your ex: Just like you want to spend time with your children, to be there for them and meet their needs, so does your ex. In celebrity break-up news, Kendall and Ben have called it quits. What are some ways to know your relationship has long-term potential?

Cupid's Advice:

When you are in a relationship that has true potential to become long-term, you and your partner should enjoy each other's company, have chemistry, and feel comfortable just being yourselves around one another. Cupid has some advice to help you decide if your relationship is built to last:

1. You feel at ease being your true self with your partner: Everyone is on their best behavior when dating someone new, but once you have been together a while and have reached the point you are considering your relationship becoming long-term you should be comfortable around your partner. Each of you should feel at ease being yourself with one another without worrying the other will be put-off by your personality.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding News: Zoe Kravitz & Karl Glusman Secretly Married

2. You trust each other: A successful long-term relationship requires trust between you and your partner. If you are honest with each other from the beginning, that trust will come easy and you will have a solid building block for a happy and long relationship.

3. You both still have independence: Being in a relationship doesn't necessarily mean you and your partner have to spend 100% of your time together. If the two of you still have your independence without giving each other the guilt trip, this is another good sign you might be with the right person for a long-term commitment.

Cupid's Advice:

There are benefits to a small or secretive wedding you may not have considered before. So, if you and your partner are feeling overwhelmed with wedding plans, Cupid has some reasons why ditching those plans might be a good idea:

1. You and your partner are private: The idea of a big wedding irks you. Your wedding day is about you. Why not have a smaller ceremony in the courthouse with you, your partner, and two of your closest friends?

3. Tighter budget: You won't need to worry about spending money on a ridiculously expensive wedding. This way, you'll be able to focus more on your love for each other rather than stressing out about the cost of your wedding dress or tux.

Celebrity Parents: Eva Mendes & Ryan Gosling Are Running Into Trouble Teaching Their Daughters Spanish

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity baby news, celebrity parents Eva Mendes and Ryan Gosling are discovering that children learn the language they hear the most. According to EOnline.com, Mendes, who is Cuban, wants her children to learn Spanish, but the actress is finding that what the children are actually learning is Spanglish. Mendez told The Talk that she speaks “Spanglish, and that’s what they’re picking up. So it’s adorable, but it’s technically not a language.” Even celebrity children say the darndest things.

Even celebrity parents have issues with various parenting efforts! What are three tips for teaching your child a foreign language?

Cupid’s Advice:

Teaching children a foreign language can be difficult, but if you start when they are young and remain consistent, you can teach them to be bilingual. Cupid has some advice:

1. Start teaching them while they are young: Young children have minds that absorb knowledge like a sponge. If you teach your child both languages from the beginning, they will learn quickly. When children are first learning to really speak, typically at ages 2 to 3, they can learn words quickly, even in two languages.

2. Teach them one word at a time: While formal lessons are an option, they are not a necessity to teach your child a foreign language. Use pictures and objects to teach them one word at a time, teaching them that the object or picture can be called two different things – one in each language they are learning.

3. Communicate with them in the second language: Choose specific times throughout the day where you communicate using the second language. Consistency is key when your child is learning another language.

This pair will be planning a celebrity wedding after two years of dating. How do you know when you're ready to marry your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be tough to know when you're truly ready to marry your partner. Cupid has some advice:

1. When participating in your partner's hobbies doesn't feel like a chore: If you are with the person you are truly in love with, and meant to spend your life with then you will not find spending time with them, doing things they love exhausting. Instead, you will pleasure in the joy it brings them to share their passion(s) with you. Marriage is a lifetime commitment, so you want to know you will enjoy spending your life with your partner.

2. You enjoy each other's company: When you are married you and your partner will be spending the majority of your time together, just the two of you. Before you make the leap into marriage, it is important that you can enjoy time together when it is just the two of you; no friends or outside distractions. Do you enjoy everyday tasks when it is just the two of you alone at home reading or catching a movie on television?

3. You love yourself: It may sound cliché, but the number one key to loving someone completely enough to commit to spending your life with them is loving yourself. If you do not love yourself, that negativity will seep into your relationship and slowly pick it apart. Put your faith and love into yourself first, then you can share your heart with your partner and love them without holding back.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Alum Ashley Spivey Reveals She Suffered a Miscarriage

By Bonnie Griffin

In celebrity baby news, The Bachelor alum Ashley Spivey shared her celebrity pregnancy story of suffering through a miscarriage in what was a “very wanted pregnancy.” According to UsMagazine.com, Spivey learned of the pregnancy early on, but the devastating news came only two weeks later when her doctor revealed that “the embryo actually had shrunk and the doctor concluded that [she] was experiencing a miscarriage.”

In celebrity news, Ashley Spivey is dealing with the devastation of a miscarriage. What are some ways to support your partner during pregnancy difficulties?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy difficulties leave broken hearts and scars for both parties in a relationship. Remember to support one another during this devastating time, without trying to find fixes that will only prolong the pain. Cupid has some advice:

1. Understand there is no quick fix: Losing a child or finding out you are unable to get pregnant is a devastating loss for anyone trying to become a parent. When someone we love is in pain, the knee-jerk reaction is to find a way to fix the problem, but there is no quick fix for a loss this painful. Like the loss of any loved one, only time will bring healing, so give yourself and your partner time to grieve and the healing will come naturally.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Shawn Johnson is Expecting a Year and a Half After Miscarriage

2. Do not jump into discussing having other children: When a mother has a miscarriage, to her she just lost a unique child, and that child is irreplaceable. It may seem like telling her that she can always have another baby offers reassurance, but it will likely only add to her pain and frustration. Instead, just support her by showing and telling her that you love her and staying by her side as long as she needs you there.

3. Be supportive and lift her back up: When a woman goes through a miscarriage or learns she is unable to get pregnant and have children, it often leads her to thoughts that she is broken. Whether she expresses this feeling out loud or not, it is common, and she needs her partner to be there for her. Hold her, love her, tell her she is not to blame and that it is not her fault.

In celebrity news, not everyone has love for the Bachelor franchise apparently. What do you do if you're vying for the heart of someone another person is also interested in?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're first getting to know someone, there's no way to be sure that you're the only person they're seeing. There's always a little friendly competition at the beginning of a potential relationship. Cupid has some tips on what to do when someone else is interested in the person you're trying to snag:

1. Act your age: Some people like to act immature or childish to get someone's attention. That is not the way to do it. While using a childish voice or teasing a potential partner may get you temporary attention, it's no way to keep them interested for the long term.

2. Confidence: It doesn't matter what you do, what you wear, or what you say if you don't do it with confidence. Be confident in your walk, be confident in your flirting, just be confidence. Confidence is attractive because it shows that you know you've got what they're looking for.

3. Show interest: This might seem obvious but the best way to grab someone's attention is to show genuine interest in their lives. Ask them about their friends, their favorites, and maybe try out a hobby or two that they enjoy. This shows them you're interested and makes them want to get to know you better.

A new baby in the family is an exciting time for you and your partner. Here are a few ways that being new parents can bring you closer together:

1. You’ll learn to lean on each other more: Sleepless nights with a crying baby, frustration over breastfeeding, learning to cope with new feelings that come along with having a new baby... All of these things will lead to you and your partner learning to lean on each other in ways you didn't before. You have a new little person who needs you and it won't work if you don't learn how to lean on each other.
