

Celebrity Break-Up: Corinne Olympios Is Single Again After Announcing New Relationship

By

Karley Kemble

Just two weeks after announcing her new relationship, Corinne Olympios is back on the market. The former Bachelor hopeful was dating a Los Angeles area relator, but the pair has endured a celebrity break-up, reports UsMagazine.com. This celebrity news is a shock to fans, as Olympios said things were going well when she first spoke out about her now-ex. The reality star apparently in good spirits about her current relationship status, and shared the qualities she's hoping to find in a future partner: "I'm just looking for someone who's, like, chill and relaxed, supportive, cool,” she said. “We don’t need to rush into anything.” Hang in there, Corinne!

Corinne Olympios just went through another celebrity break-up very soon after announcing her relationship. What are some ways to know if your new relationship will last?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you begin a relationship, there’s always an element of uncertainty. Sometimes, you just know when somebody’s going to be around for longer than a few dates. Here’s what Cupid has to say:

1. They’re eager to be with you: Everyone’s busy to some extent. However, it is important to recognize the difference between not having time and making time. If your partner seems super eager to spend a lot of time with you, and never (or very, very seldom) postpones plans, that is very telling! Even better: when the time they want to spend with you is thoughtful or seemingly mundane (i.e. offering to tag along with you while you run errands.)

2. They take a genuine interest in your life: When others might brush you off and seem indifferent about something small that excites you, your new partner shares the new excitement with you. They love hearing you talk about the details of your life – big and small. The same goes for you, too. If you’re excited to learn all there is to know about them, you might just have yourself a lasting relationship!

3. They listen (and remember!): We can all tell if somebody is actively listening and genuinely caring. Perhaps you mentioned something in passing, and they bring it up later. That's a really, really good sign! It shows that they care about you and all that you have to offer!

By

Ashleigh Underwood

While she may not have gotten the fairy tale ending during her run on The Bachelor, Raven Gates has surely found love this time around. According to E! Online, Gates and boyfriend Adam Gottschalk met on this season of Bachelor in Paradise and have not let their spark fade away since. Ever since the season ended, the celebrity couple have posted several photos together on Instagram documenting their amazing time together. In one caption, Gates wrote of Gottschalk, saying, “my ride or die.”

In celebrity news, this Bachelor Nation couple is still going strong. What are some ways to continue building the strong foundation of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping a relationship strong and healthy, takes a lot of work. There need to be a solid foundation built if there is any hope of continuing on. Here a few ways to strengthen your romantic foundation:

1. Communicate: The only way to build a relationship with someone is to talk with them. Get to know who they are, what they like and don't like, who their family is, and tell them all the same things about yourself. In order to have a strong relationship with someone, you have to know them and be able to accept them as they are.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Bachelor' Nick Viall Addresses Being Single After Split from Vanessa Grimaldi

By

Ashleigh Underwood

As much as we wish it weren't true, The Bachelor doesn't always end with a fairy tale. Sadly, such is the case for celebrity couple Nick Viall and Vanessa Grimaldi. After being engaged for several months, the couple announced their split in August and embraced single life. In a recent celebrity interview, Viall finally opened up about being single. According to UsMagazine.com, Viall said, "It's never fun, right? I don't know. Being single kind of sucks. But what can you do?"

This celebrity break-up talk has us feeling bad for this Bachelor. What are some ways to embrace the single life after a split?

Cupid's Pulse:

Break-ups are always tough and can be hard to handle. While there is no magic cure to the pain of heartbreak, here are a few ways to embrace single life:

1. Focus on you: There is no better time to spoil yourself and learn about who you are, than when you are single. When you become single, you are flooded with a large amount of free time. This can be overwhelming and disheartening if you don't know how to fill that time. So, instead, spend this time trying new things and learning about yourself.

2. Be with your friends: Being in a relationship sometimes means that you have less time to be with your friends. When you are single though, you have endless time to be with your friends and catch up. They are the ones who will carry you through this break up and stand by your side no matter what. So, take this time to be with your squad and live it up.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor in

Paradise' Star Danielle Lombard Says Dean Unglert Was 'Encouraged' to Cut Ties

By

Melissa Lee

Is there ever a time where there isn't a ton of drama in Bachelor Nation? Bachelor in Paradise star Danielle Lombard recently disclosed some juicy celebrity news. In a recent interview, she says that Dean Unglert, who simultaneously dated Lombard and Kristina Shulman during the show, was encouraged to cut ties with Lombard in the finale of the show. Unglert, who originally found interest in Schulman, flip flopped between the two girls this season. According to UsMagazine.com, Lombard says that Unglert is infamous for constantly changing his mind, and relationships are no exception. She further disclosed that the producers of the show make it seem like there's always a greater opportunity to meet someone new and connect with somebody else. Sounds fishy!

This celebrity news continues the 'Bachelor in Paradise' drama from the most recent season. What are some ways to know if you're respected by your S.O. in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Dean is definitely looking sketchy after the nation watched him mess around with both Danielle and Kristina. This kind of situation is totally unfair – in order to prevent getting disrespected by your significant other, check out Cupid's advice:

1. Communicate often: If you're speculating that your partner is being dishonest, the best way to figure that out is through communication. If they aren't communicating with you very often, or they don't seem super serious about your relationship, it may be a cause for concern. Sit your significant other down and talk everything out – after all, it's better to be safe than sorry.

2. Talk to your friends: Though sometimes it's better to avoid the opinions others have on your relationship, this may be a time where you should lean on their advice. If your friends or loved ones have been around you and your partner, ask them how they feel about them. Do they think they're disrespectful? Or do they think you two go well together? Take their thoughts into consideration.

3. Listen to your gut: At the end of the day, your instincts will never guide you in the wrong direction. If you truly feel that something's off, don't torture yourself by being in a toxic relationship. When it comes down to it, the relationship may not be meant to be, and that's completely okay.

Reality TV Update: Andi Dorfman Is 'Excited' to See Arie Luyendyk Jr. as New Star of 'The Bachelor'

by

Ashleigh Underwood

The latest celebrity news reveals that Arie Luyendyk Jr. is the newest star of The Bachelor, and former Bachelorette Andi Dorfman is happy to share her excitement. In a recent celebrity interview with UsMagazine.com, Dorfman says, “I think it’s cool, it’s kind of interesting. It’s going back a little old school.” And she’s completely right: With the network bringing back an old contestant, there is bound to be some riveting plot twists and interesting people returning to this longtime reality TV show.

This former Bachelorette is just as excited as we are for the upcoming season of The Bachelor! What are some ways to support your friends as they look for love?

Cupid’s Advice:

Being a good friend means being there through thick and thin. Whatever they are going through, you are by their side, holding their hand. When it comes to their search for true love, here are a few ways to show your support:

1. Know how to listen: The most important thing you can do to help a friend is to simply listen. When your pals are upset or struggling with something, odds are, they just need to get it out of their system. Allowing them to talk through it can help their situation more than anything else.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Peter Kraus Speaks Out About Arie Luyendyk Jr. Becoming 'The Bachelor'

2. Empathize with them: While you may not be experiencing the exact same thing, you can probably relate. Share your stories with your friend and let them know they're not alone. This way, they'll feel more comfortable and hopefully feel better faster. When you share your experiences with them, it may also help them to come to another solution they may not have thought of before.

Reality TV Star Dean Unglert Talks About 'Bachelor in Paradise' Love Triangle

By

Ashleigh Underwood

Finding love isn't easy, even for Bachelor in Paradise contestants. As reported by People.com, during this season's competition, reality TV star Dean Unglert found himself in the middle of a love triangle. He initially pursued a relationship with Kristina Schulman and then showed interest in Danielle Lombard, ultimately leading them both on. Schulman eventually took herself out of the game, allowing Unglert to continue his celebrity relationship with Lombard. While filming Monday's finale episode, the reality TV star admitted that he hurt both women throughout the show. "Watching it all play back, it makes me realize that I need to change a lot of things about myself before I can actually pursue a relationship,” he shared. “It sucks to come to that realization that what you’ve been doing is just not right. To see how deeply upset Danielle and Kristina both were, it hurt.”

Dean Unglert realized that he needed to change after viewers saw him involved in a reality TV love triangle. What are some ways to make sure you’re ready for a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

As Unglert learned, starting a relationship can be stressful. If you are unsure whether or not you’re ready to begin something new, answer the three questions below:

1. Are you comfortable with yourself? A big part of dating is joining together two lives: your’s and your partner’s. Before you commit to a relationship, make sure you’re happy with who you are and the life you’re living. As they say, you must love yourself first.

Celebrity Break-Up: ‘Bachelor in Paradise’ Star Amanda Stanton Opens Up About Her Split from Robby Hayes

By

Melissa Lee

Looks like there's trouble in paradise! Bachelor in Paradise star Amanda Stanton recently spilled details about her celebrity break-up from Robby Hayes. EOnline.com reported that, following their brief reality TV romance, the former celebrity couple attempted to make their relationship work in the real world. Hayes asked Stanton to be his girlfriend but continued to go out with his friends and go MIA for multiple days at a time. Stanton has taken a mature position following their celebrity break-up, saying that she doesn't blame him for anything and wishes him the best.

Amanda Stanton is staying positive after her latest celebrity break-up. How can you keep a good attitude following a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups can be super tough, so props to this reality TV star for staying positive and moving on! If you find yourself struggling to keep a good attitude after a split, check out Cupid's advice below:

1. Be nice: Although you may want to talk badly about your ex, it's better to be nice and keep a positive mindset. Wish them the best and move forward instead of focusing on the past and starting drama. The cliché "fake it 'til you make it" is true: If you think only good things about your ex and your former relationship, you'll eventually begin to believe them!

Related Link: Celebrity News: Spoiler Alert! 'Bachelor in Paradise' Stars Derek Peth & Taylor Nolan Are Engaged

2. Focus on yourself: Instead of wondering what your ex is doing or being sad about the break-up, use it as ammunition to better yourself. You have the power to make any situation better, and if you do things to positively impact your own life, you won't be as concerned with the split. Start a new workout routine, focus on your career, or make an effort to spend more time with your friends.

Celebrity News: Peter Kraus Speaks Out About Arie Luyendyk Jr. Becoming 'The Bachelor'

By

Ashleigh Underwood

The new Bachelor for season 22 has been decided. While many fans believed Peter Kraus was the front runner and clear choice, the latest celebrity news is not in his favor! Instead, Arie Luyendyk Jr. will be this season's star. Although ABC went in another direction, Kraus believes they "made the right choice," according to E! Online. He is grateful for the opportunities The Bachelorette provided for him and is ready to continue helping people in his home state of Wisconsin.

In this celebrity news, Peter Kraus says he supports ABC's decision, but does he really? What are some ways to deal with rejection?

Cupid's Advice:

Rejection can be hard to deal with, especially when you were sure of the outcome. So, when it rejection hits you out of nowhere, use these tools to to make it through:

1. Accept the outcome: Denying rejection will not make it go away. In fact, it will only delay your ability to move on and try again. So, after giving yourself some time to grieve, acknowledge the rejection and move forward.

Celebrity News: Spoiler Alert! 'Bachelor in Paradise' Stars Derek Peth & Taylor Nolan Are Engaged

By

Ashleigh Underwood

This season, Bachelor in Paradise has fulfilled its goal of helping its contestants find love. In latest celebrity news, Derek Peth and Taylor Nolan have decided to continue their romance and have gotten engaged! According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple engagement came out of the blue on Wednesday, August, 30. With a Neil Lane ring, Peth popped the question during a taping of Bachelor in Paradise's after-show.

This celebrity news comes before this season of Bachelor in Paradise is even complete! What are some ways to keep your engagement on the down-low until the right time?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting engaged is a big and important step in a relationship. However, you may not be ready to share your big news with everyone around you. Here are a few ways to keep your new status quiet until the right time:

1. Stay off social media: When you and your partner get engaged, it's only natural to commemorate the event with photos. While you may be tempted to share photos or post subtle clues about your relationship, don't. Social media is the easiest way for your news to spread, whether or not you're ready for it.

Celebrity Break-Up: Nick Viall Says He Still Loves Vanessa Grimaldi Post-Split

By

Melissa Lee

It seems like there's always drama in Bachelor Nation, and this week is no exception. After season 21 Bachelor Nick Viall and Vanessa Grimaldi announced their split last week, Viall broke his silence regarding the situation. "I still love her very much. I'm not afraid to say that," Viall admitted at the Wrangler by Peter Max line debut party. According to UsMagazine.com, he wants to stay friends with Grimaldi, despite the difficulty of the separation.

This celebrity break-up really wasn't that shocking. What are some ways to know you're not a good match with someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Heartbreak is real, but it comes as a result of realizing the person you're dating just isn't for you. If you're wondering whether or not your partner is a good match, check out some of Cupid's advice below:

1. Differences and similarities: Although they say opposites attract, there is such a thing as too many differences. If it gets to a point where you realize that the differences between you two are starting to take a toll on your relationship (and result in frequent arguments), it might be a sign that you're not the best match. Differences in morals, attitudes, and personalities can be an on-going conflict in relationships, so make sure to pay attention.

2. Comfort level: Ideally, you would like to feel completely comfortable around your significant other, right? But... what if this isn't the case, and you can't imagine yourself ever getting particularly comfortable around them? This would be a cause for concern. Your partner should be someone that never judges you, so if you feel like this isn't the case, it may be something you need to think about.

3. Think forward: Do you see yourself having a future with this person? If you are dating seriously, it's important to think forward about whether or not you think things will last. If they have qualities that you personally don't want in a longterm partner, this could be a sign that you two aren't a great match. Although it's fun to casually date as well, you need to keep in mind what you would like to get out of the relationship.

rissa Donovan

Ashley Iaconetti doesn't make dating her first priority. According to UsMagazine.com, The Bachelor alum is too busy to go on random dates after she's done recording her Almost Famous podcast. The single celebrity joked that she would rather have God drop a husband in her lap than go on dates with strangers. We bet that Iaconetti will someday get lucky with love!

In celebrity news, Ashley Iaconetti claims to be too busy for romance. How can you open up your schedule for date nights?

Cupid's Advice:

Although we can't predict when you will meet the next person you'll be in a relationship with, we can help by giving you some advice about opening up your schedule for date nights:

1. Free up your weekend nights: The best opportunity to go on date with a busy schedule would be your weekends. Many fun venues usually have events that you and your date can enjoy on Saturday. Sundays are good for restaurants specials and maybe brunch specials depending on what you and your date want to do.

Celebrity Breakup: 'The Bachelor' Couple Nick Viall and Vanessa Grimaldi Call Off Wedding Engagement

By Ma

rissa Donovan

Bad news for those rooting for Nick Viall and Vanessa Grimaldi to get married soon. The celebrity couple has split up! According to EOnline.com, The Bachelor couple shared a joint statement on their celebrity break-up and there's a great amount of heartbreak for the both of them. Before their split, the Reality TV stars were determined to not let the Bachelor curse effect their relationship. We hope the two can find love again and maybe star on Bachelor in Paradise in the future.

This celebrity news is upsetting to hear! What are some benefits of sharing your break up news with your ex vs. doing it alone.

Cupid's Advice:

Telling people that your relationship has ended is upsetting. Depending how the relationship ended, you might find yourself able to break the news with your former partner. Here are the perks of sharing your break up news with your ex compared to doing it alone:

1. You've ended on good terms: There's a good chance you ended your relationship on good terms if your ex is willing to spread the news about your split. Most exes are too hurt to come together to share bad news about their former relationship. It's a good sign that they want what's best for the both of you.

Celebrity Interview: 'Love Blows' Creators SallyAnn Salsano & Patti Stanger Discuss Reality TV & Modern Dating

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Marissa Donovan.

Television producer SallyAnn Salsano and famous matchmaker

Patti Stanger have teamed up to create a new reality TV show on WE tv called Love Blows, which follows the drama of a Chicago family's matchmaking business. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Salsano and Stanger chat about their show, previous television projects, and today's dating world.

<http://cupidspulse.com/wp-content/uploads/2017/08/Sally-Ann-Salsano-and-Patti-Stanger-Interview-for-Love-Blows.mp3>

SallyAnn, we last spoke about Martha and Snoop's Potluck Dinner, so I have to start off with saying congratulations because that's a tremendous success and your first Emmy nomination! How does that make you feel?

Salsano: I'm super proud of that. They are such power houses, superstars, and household names worldwide. Working with them – there's almost nothing they won't do. They are super dedicated 24/7 and on set with you morning, noon, and night. And creatively, it's really fun. We really had a great time.

Related Link: ‘Martha & Snoop's Potluck Dinner Party’ Producer SallyAnn Salsano Talks About Her Hit Reality TV Shows & Possible ‘Jersey Shore’ Revival

You've said that there are a lot of commonalties between them, even though people may view them as so different. Do you think that played a role in the show's success?

Salsano: There's all this hullabaloo now in our world about different people and people being against each other. If the country was more like this show, we'd be in a better place. If you like someone, nothing brings you together more than a good meal and good conversation. Just get together and have a good time! It doesn't matter where you're from, where you're raised, or what you're like. At the end of the day, we all like to eat, laugh, and have fun. That's basically what this show's about.

Absolutely – great point. Patti, last month, you were on Hollywood Medium with Tyler Henry, and you shared that your adoptive mother was really good at giving you advice. What was that experience like?

Stanger: It's not so much what he says and how he says it. It's more like, when you're in the room, there's a strong energy. You feel the presence of your loved one. He's a guy that brings in the energy of your loved ones, and you feel loved. My mom died a really horrible death of lung cancer, and at the end, she was in a lot of pain. So knowing that she was okay was important to me. And then my biological mother showed up – that was all really nice. I never met her, but I felt a presence. You can't tell that though the television though.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: 'Hollywood Medium' Star Tyler Henry on His New Memoir & Career: "This is Fundamentally What I'm Meant To Do"

Now, let's talk about Love Blows. This is just an amazing collaboration. Who came up with the idea?

Salsano: Patti!

Stanger: I came up with the idea. I wanted SallyAnn involved because she did Jersey Shore, and I envisioned this show to be in the same style. I just thought she was the perfect powerhouse to go into Chicago and turn it upside down. Chicago didn't have it's own reality TV show, which was really important.

These are people I work with – I'm like the head affiliate for matchmakers around the world. I'm the one generating leads, giving them advice, and training them. So Lisa used to fix me up – we were like sisters. One day, she told me the story about her husband who cheated on her with her best friend – and she stills works with both of them! Their kids are now training to take over the business. I was like, "Oh my god, this is a reality TV show."

I originally sold the show in a different format to Bravo, but when I left Bravo, I took it back. SallyAnn reformatted it and came up with a better concept than what I had. It was just going to be a pilot at first, but of course, given the powerhouse that she is, she made it go straight to series. We're super excited. It's going to connect to viewers like The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills and Vanderpump Rules. It's a show you can keep watching for two hours straight.

So you knew Lisa before you started developing the show?

Stanger: She's someone I work with on a regular basis. All matchmakers work with me; we all work with each other. What's great about this show is that you're going to see this unveiling of the industry. You're going to see behind the scenes of matchmaking, which is a real business that you cannot major in at college. The only place you can get certification is through my old assistant who owns the Matchmakers Institute in New York. You train with matchmakers. You shadow them, like other matchmakers have shadowed me. It's cool because it's always handed down generation after generation – the way Lisa plans on handing it down to her daughter Annie.

A lot of crazy things happen in these episodes, a lot of cliff-hanger drama. And I'm appearing in a lot of episodes, which is fun.

SallyAnn, you've produced a lot of shows about love and relationships. What do you think makes this one different?

Salsano: It's actually real. There's something about a family dynamic that you can't change. If you combine the young and beautiful people on Vanderpump Rules with the drama of Flipping Out and the family dynamic of Cake Boss, then you get Love Blows – this show has it all. And it's all coming from a place of helping other people find love.

Mixing Patti's star power and expertise with their family dynamic is a recipe for success. Still, there's a lot of disastrous moments behind the scenes too. It's the stuff that reality shows are made of – and it's completely authentic.

Shifting gears, let's talk about digital matchmaking versus traditional matchmaking. Do you think singles are ready to get back to true matchmaking – where a matchmaker (instead of a website or app) sets them up on a date?

Stanger: Personal attention will never be defeated by an app. Ever! With a matchmaker, you have someone selecting potential partners for you and talking to you on a daily basis...versus an app that has no information! You don't even know how tall they are, how many kids they have, if they're divorced. That's why matchmaking is older than prostitution – it's as old as time.

Do you think the show could help bring back the matchmaking industry?

Stanger: I wanted to make it a major in college – where you could actually major in it and open your own business. The industry is really going to change in the next 10 years. We've already passed the two billion dollar mark – internationally, not just in the United States.

We've never been able to use FaceTime matchmaking because people want to hide their looks, their voices, their age, their height, and their weight. So that's the next frontier: Will you FaceTime with somebody? Will you show them who you are in broad daylight without makeup on and your hair up?

That's brilliant! Getting back to the show, Patti, we'd love to know a bit more about your role on-camera.

Stanger: You see a little bit of a softer side of me. I come in to help Annie, and I have to shut Lisa down because Lisa's more of a screamer than I am in this particular season. On top of it, I go on three dates.

I'm still going to lose my cool because I'm Patti, but I'm not in charge, so it's a different side of me. It's hard because I'm used to calling the shots. I'm more like the therapist that comes in to fix the problems in the family.

I have a couple additional questions for you, SallyAnn. The last time we spoke, I asked you if there would be a reunion for the Jersey Shore cast...and then Reunion Road Trip happened!

Salsano: That had nothing to do with me. Oh my god, I would kill to do one – with the entire cast and have them talk about the past.

As you probably know, Ronnie Ortiz-Magro and Pauly D have both been on the show Famously Single. Have you watched it?

Salsano: Of course. I watch this show and everything those cast members do. We have a group text going, and we always support each other. They're like my children. They call me "Mom." It makes me feel 900 years old, but it is what it is! There's something different when you know somebody before anyone else did. I think you just kind of have a different bond with them and different insight into who they are.

Any final words about Love Blows?

Salsano: Just watch it!

Stanger: You need to watch it live. We have this expression on WE tv: "Live or Die." You're going to get tips about what to do if you want to open your own business, if you're dating someone and it's not working out, if you want to get back in the game after a divorce. 'Bachelorette' Alum Shawn Booth Opens Up About Having Kids with Kaitlyn Bristowe

By Ma

rissa Donovan

Shawn Booth and Kaitlyn Bristowe already have goals for their future children. According to UsMagazine.com, Booth wants his children to be as active as possible and to not be hooked to technology. The Bachelorette alum also added that he wouldn't be opposed if their children wanted to be on Reality TV. The couple has not released celebrity baby news, but we can already predict how awesome they will be as parents!

This celebrity news has us hoping that Shawn Booth and Kaitlyn Bristowe will get married and have kids soon! What are some ways to deal with the pressure from family and friends to get married and have children?

Cupid's Advice:

Couples who are happy and have been together for years are often pressured to take the next step in their relationship. Whether that means getting married or having kids, here are some ways to deal with the burden of people stressing over the next step in your relationship:

1. Openly express what you and your partner think: When a question pops up about marriage or children, just let you and your partner be honest with the person. Make sure you and your partner first discuss the idea before spitting out the first thing that comes to your mind!

3. Ask about their experiences: Divert the attention off of your relationship by asking the person about their experience with marriage or having children. The person will most likely share their experiences, even if they were bad. This will make the person feel like they are giving you insight and post pone the focus on your relationship. If the person is not married or have children, just simply ask about their current lifestyles and see what they can share.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor in Paradise' Premiere Addresses DeMario Jackson & Corinne Olympios Scandal

By

Melissa Lee

You must have been living under a rock to not have heard about the serious drama surrounding this season of Bachelor In Paradise. After Corinne Olympios accused co-star DeMario Jackson of sexual assault, the premiere of season four was a must-watch to see how the show would handle the incident. In celebrity news, according to People.com, host Chris Harrison immediately addressed the show's decision to suspend production, claiming that it was a stressful and emotional time for the cast and crew. The rest of the two-hour opener showed Jackson and Olympios quickly bonding, drinking, and getting physical together. By the end of the episode, filming was suddenly halted as producers pulled the two aside. Be sure to watch the next episode of Bachelor In Paradise to find out what happens!

This celebrity news is totally full of drama. What are some ways to keep drama out of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

This story has been filled with ups and downs, keeping us on the edge of our seat. With the constant drama going on, Corinne and DeMarco must feel their heads spinning. If you're looking to keep drama out of your relationship, check out some tips from Cupid:

1. Forget social media: At the end of the day, it's important to remember that your relationship solely consists of you and your sweetheart. When we're always posting on social media, an opportunity for people to criticize or create drama can most definitely arise. If you want to avoid drama, try to lessen your social media appearance by skipping out on constantly posting.

2. Keep it casual: Don't rush into anything serious, especially when the relationship is relatively new. Go at your own pace and keep things casual until they naturally become steady. If you or your lover are putting pressure on the relationship to make things serious (for example, moving in together or meeting the family too soon), this can create problems and that unwanted drama.

3. Keep the exes out of it: This should be a given for any healthy relationship, but be sure to keep your exes far away. Regardless of the circumstances, having your ex-lover as a consistent person in your life can only be trouble. It can spark trust issues, infidelities, and overall uncomfortable vibes that should just be avoided altogether.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Vanderpump Rules' Star Stassi Shroeder Gets Dumped By Boyfriend on 4-Year Anniversary

By Ma

rissa Donovan

Stassi Shroeder had her heart broken big time! The Reality TV star shared on her Twitter that, after her four year relationship with boyfriend Patrick Meagher, he dumped her on their anniversary. According to UsMagazine.com, the two had a rocky long-distance relationship. The Vanderpump Rules star booked a trip to Mexico to celebrate their anniversary, but once Meagher called their relationship off, Shroeder brought her best friend instead. Hopefully she can find a future partner to treat her better!

This celebrity break-up isn't necessarily surprising, but it's still sad. What are some ways to know your relationship is on its way out?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometime break-ups can be predictable depending on what has happened in your relationship. Here are some signs you and your partner could be ending your time together soon:

1. Long distance effects you both: Distance doesn't always make the heart grow fonder in relationships. For some couples, being apart for long periods of time can strain your relationship and allow for you and your partner to grow apart. If this seems to be a problem, you can expect to be breaking up soon.

Celebrity Baby News: 'Bachelor' Alum Vienna Girardi Miscarries Twin Girls

By Ma

rissa Donovan

Sad news has recently been released from Vienna Girardi. The Bachelor alum shared that her twins passed away on August 5th due to her amniotic sacs rupturing. Girardi had previously shown symptoms of twin-to-twin transfusion syndrome a week prior to the emergency visit to the hospital. According to UsMagazine.com, The Reality TV star donated her twins to science to research more about twin-to-twin transfusion syndrome in hopes no other mothers have to share her experience.

This celebrity baby news is heartbreaking. What are some ways to support your partner through a miscarriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Miscarriages are an extremely painful experience for couples who are looking to start a family. Here are some tips on how you can support yourself and your partner through a miscarriage:

1. Go through the process: Take the appropriate steps after the loss of your children. Some parents hold a service for their children to help cope with the tragedy. Discuss options with a family doctor or therapist on what you and your partner can do.

Dean Unglert believe he knows Rachel Lindsay's intentions when it comes to not wanting him to be the next to find love on The Bachelor. According to UsMagazine.com, The Bachelorette star believes that Lindsay still has some feelings for Peter Kraus and does not want to see him with other girls on TV. Time will tell if the Reality TV star runner-up will have his own shot at love.

This celebrity news certainly sheds some light on a dramatic situation. What are some ways to get over your ex enough that you want them to move on with someone else?

Cupid Advice:

Getting over someone in general is challenging. You may feel like you should stay close in case there is a chance you could get back together, but that may end up making your love life complicated:

1. Cut ties temporarily: Keep your distance from your ex, whether that means not looking at their social media updates or not going out of your way to speak to them. You can still be civil with your ex, but for your own state of mind, give yourself space.
