1. Try positive thinking: Negative thinking can be a downward spiral that is hard to come back from, and it can become difficult to be positive when you hardly have been. Only use words that will empower yourself. It may seem hokey and redundant, but positive thought is a powerful tool and will reshape the vocabulary your brain uses.

Celebrity News: Designers Say Bebe Rexha is Too Big

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, People.com reports the 2019 Grammy Awards are extra special for single celebrity Bebe Rexha. She was nominated for Best New Artist/Best Country Duo/Group Performance, so the music artist naturally reached out to several dress designers for her Red Carpet outfit. They turned her down, refusing to design a dress for her because she is “too big.” Rexha said this on Instagram, defending herself and all women a size 8 and up, “You’re saying all the women in the world that are a size 8 and up are not beautiful and that they cannot wear your dresses.” We should all adopt Rexha’s mentality on being called too big.

can fight against body shaming like Bebe Rexha?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you are a size 8 or a size 8x, here's how you can fight body shaming:

1. Wear whatever makes you comfortable: Hot? Wear your tank top. Want to wear that black dress that shows off your curves? Do it. Life is way too short to be worried about what you're wearing, no matter your size. If a brand only caters to certain sizes then you do not have to shop with them. When anyone tries to be rude or negative, call them out on it.

Maybe you just had a baby, have issues with polycystic ovary syndrome, or got injured in a sports accident and haven't been able to shed the pounds.
