The matchmaker's work is highly renowned for the method she designed to help people transform themselves from within in order to better their lives and find a relationship and love. Kailen Rosenberg has celebrity and "hometown" admiration alike, being that her company's services reach out to all. She starred in the reality TV documentary Lovetown, USA on the Oprah Winfrey Network and has been featured in over 400 top media outlets. She and her husband have been married for seventeen years and have three sons.

Kelly Rowland

Being a part of the sensational girl group Destiny's Child had this star rising to fame in the early 1990s. Kelly Rowland was born in Atlanta, Georgia, but, at the age of eight, she relocated to Houston, Texas, where she was placed in R&B group Destiny's Child, which ultimately included Beyonce Knowles and Michelle Williams. After hours of practicing in Tina Knowles's hair salon and their backyards, their hard work paid off when the girls signed a record deal with Columbia Records in 1997. With powerhouse voices and songs like "Bills, Bills, Bills" and "Say My Name," it's no surprise that they became one of the most successful girl groups of all time. In 2005, they officially called it quits, and the girls pursued their solo careers. Rowland's debut album Simply Deep hit number 12 on the Billboard charts; she released her follow-up album Ms. Kelly in 2007 and embarked on a world tour.

In addition to her singing success, the star expanded her talents to acting, appearing on both the small and big screens. She also appeared as a judge on the U.K. televised singing competition, The X Factor. Always having a humble heart, in 2005, Rowland teamed up with Beyonce after Hurricane Katrina to start The Survivor Foundation. Through their efforts, they were able to provide housing for victims and evacuees in Houston. In 2010, she launched another charitable entity, I Heart My Girlfriends, which focuses on a range of issues including self-esteem, date violence protection, abstinence, and community service.

Rowland's celebrity relationships have been kept quiet for the most part. In 2004, she began dating football player Roy Williams, and the duo announced their celebrity engagement that same year. However, two months before the wedding, the famous couple called it quits. In 2011, Rowland was spotted getting close with manager Tim Weatherspoon and fans speculated whether they were an actual celebrity couple. Three years later, the two had their celebrity wedding in Costa Rica with a few famous guests including the Knowles sisters. The newlyweds welcomed their son Titan Jewell in November 2014.

Kelly Rutherford

Kelly Rutherford is a decorated actress, with prominent roles in many soap operas, Lifetime movies, and other silver screen pictures. However, her most known role was Lily Humphrey in Gossip Girl. She also starred in Generations, Melrose Place, and more recently, Quantico. While featured in many other roles, she is still working to this day.

Both Rutherford's career and love life have been active. Her first celebrity marriage was to Carlos Tarajano, a wealthy banker. However, the celebrity couple did not last long, and a celebrity divorce was filed six months into their marriage. Four years later, Rutherford had another celebrity wedding to Daniel Giersch. The marriage yielded two children, Hermés Gustaf Daniel and Helena. Helena was born in the midst of a custody battle as a heartbreaking celebrity divorce ensued. While Rutherford fought a hard battle to keep custody of her children, she was unable to secure a victory. The courts did not rule in her favor, and in fact, because of her legal costs, she had to file for bankruptcy. The twists and turns of her custody battle could have been a soap opera itself.

Antonio Sabato Jr.

Antonio Sabato Jr. is an actor and model from Rome, Italy. He first grabbed America's attention as an underwear model for Calvin Klein and went on to play Jagger Cates on the popular soap opera General Hospital. His most recent projects include DIY expert and reality TV host on Fix It and Finish It and a contestant on season 19 of Dancing With the Stars. On Valentine's Day, Flip My Food Chef Jeff taught Antonio Sabato Jr. how to cook his wife a Valentine's Day meal, something CupidsPulse.com covered in an exclusive celebrity interview. Before his current celebrity marriage to Cheryl Moana Marie, he dated Alicia Tully Jensen. He has a son, Jack Antonio, from his famous relationship with actress Virginia Madsen and a daughter, Mina Bree, from his celebrity relationship with Kristin Rossetti. A few years ago, he and Marie welcomed a celebrity baby, son Antonio Sabato III.

SallyAnn Salsano

SallyAnn Salsano is an American writer and producer with more than 60 productions under her belt. She is most known for creating and producing one of the most talked about and highest rated reality TV shows of all time, Jersey Shore.

Prior to her Jersey Shore days, other popular show credits include The Bachelorette, A Shot at Love with Tila Tequila and Extreme Makeover: Wedding Edition. Salsano owns her own reality TV production company, 495 Productions, a nod to the 495 freeway that ran through her hometown in Farmingdale, NY. Prior to her success as a producer, Salsano attended the University of Missouri, where she earned her bachelor's in accounting and minored in communications.

Salsano's love affair with reality TV may have started when she was a finalist for MTV's The Real World: Miami in 1996 and almost became a cast member. However, as an intern for The Sally Raphael Show, her career took a turn when she was promoted from accountant to producer. Since then, Salsano has been able to produce shows centering around dating advice, celebrity relationships and of course drama-filled dating problems. Her most recent work includes Party Down South, Freak Out, and Snooki & JWOWW,

Despite the controversial topics in many of Salsano's shows, she is in a very understanding celebrity marriage with someone who understands her busy work schedule. In a celebrity interview with CupidsPulse.com, Salsano spoke candidly about why audiences love watching reality TV, "I feel like we all get caught up in relationship shows because everyone is in or has been in some kind of screwed up relationship, and that's just normal."

Terri Seymour

Terri Seymour was born in 1974 and is an English television presenter and actress. She is most-recognized as an Extra correspondent and an occasional reporter on ITV2's The Xtra Factor and This Morning. She has previously been a correspondent on the popular reality TV show American Idol. She has made many guest appearances on television as well, including on The Tyra Banks Show and Material Girls.

Terri Seymour is perhaps best known for her famous relationship with Simon Cowell, which lasted for six years from 2002 to 2008. Even though their relationship ultimately ended, she maintains a great friendship with her celebrity ex. Now, she is dating actor Clark Mallon, and the famous couple has been together for three years. She became a celebrity mom in March 2015, when she welcomed her first celebrity baby – a daughter named Coco – with Mallon.

Blake Shelton

Blake Shelton is an American country singer and television personality that is most recognized as one of the celebrity judges on hit reality TV singing competitions such as The Voice, Nashville Star and Clash of the Choirs.

Originally from Ada, Oklahoma, Shelton is the son of a beauty salon owner and a used car salesman. Shelton's love for music started at the age of 12 when he learned how to play the guitar. In his teens, he began writing songs and even received a Denbo Diamond Award for his talents in writing. At the age of 17, Shelton moved to Nashville to pursue a singing career. Shelton made his country music debut in 2001 with a gold-certified self-titled album, which featured his hit single Austin that reached The Billboard Hot Country Song charts and remained number one for five weeks straight. In 2003 and 2004, Shelton released his second and third albums, which also became gold-certified. This country music success has 31 charted singles, 21 of which have reached number one.

The country heartthrob has had two separate cases of celebrity divorce. First was with his longtime girlfriend Kaynette Gern who he was married to for three years. Shelton's second divorce from fellow country singer Miranda Lambert, was finalized in 2015 after a four year celebrity marriage. Shelton recently began dating Gwen Stefani, his co-star on The Voice. Shelton and Stefani fell into each other's arms citing their prior spouses celebrity cheating scandals as catalysts for the start of their celebrity relationship together.

Jessica Simpson

Jessica Simpson burst onto the music scene in 1999 at the age of 19 with her single "I Wanna Love You," which peaked inside the Top 5 of the Billboard Hot 100. Since that time, she has branched out from singing/songwriting to acting, reality TV, and fashion designing. She has released 10 albums, many of which were certified platinum. She has sold over 30 million albums worldwide, and in 2013, she was ranked #32 on VH1's list of 100 Sexiest Artists of All Time.

In 1998, Jessica Simpson was introduced to singer Nick Lachey by their shared manager. In February 2002, they announced their celebrity engagement and were married in Austin, Texas later that same year. They made their reality TV debut on the MTV show Newlyweds: Nick and Jessica. The show's popularity was due in large part to portraying Simpson as the stereotypically naive and dumb blonde. In November 2005, they announced their separation, and their celebrity divorce was finalized on June 30, 2006.

The singer went on to have a high-profile celebrity relationship with Dallas Cowboys quarterback Tony Romo. During that time, she was nicknamed "Yoko Romo" and blamed for her celebrity ex's bad performance on the field. Their celebrity romance only lasted two years.

Simpson is now married to retired NFL tight end, Eric Johnson. They met in 2010 and were married four years later on July 5, 2014 in Montecito, California. They have two celebrity kids together: daughter Maxwell Drew (born 2012) and son Ace Knute (born 2013).

Molly Sims

Molly Sims is an American model and actress that has been featured in Sports Illustrated, and hit movies such as Starsky

& Hutch and The Benchwarmers. Sims has acted in 22 productions to date, but her longest held and perhaps most memorable role was on NBC's drama series Las Vegas, where she portrayed character Delinda Deline from 2003 to 2008.

Sims was born in Murray, Kentucky and initially attended Vanderbilt University in hopes of pursuing a career in law. However, she left Vanderbilt after being offered a modeling contract from NEXT Models and has since been able to model in countless publications.

Aside from being a gorgeous model and actress, Sims is a New York Times bestselling author and published a book called, The Everyday Supermodel. She is currently working on her next book. When she's not writing, Sims can be seen on the popular daytime talk show, The View, where she serves as the panel's fashion contributor.

In 2011, Sims celebrated her celebrity wedding with Love and Other Drugs producer Scott Stuber. The celebrity couple currently have two children, Brooks Alan and Scarlett Stuber. In a celebrity interview, Sims offered celebrity style tips for hair coloring and date night looks.

Karina Smirnoff

Karina Smirnoff is known for her role as a professional dancer on the ABC reality TV show Dancing with the Stars, which she first appeared on during season 3. She won the Mirrorball Trophy while partnered with J.R. Martinez during season 13.

Karina Smirnoff's relationship and love life has often been in the media. She had a celebrity relationship with Mario Lopez, her DWTS partner during season 3, from 2006 to 2008. She then began dating fellow DWTS pro Maksim Chmerkovskiy in 2008. The two became engaged later that year but broke up in the fall of 2009. Then, in 2009, the dancer started a famous relationship with baseball pitcher Brad Penny; they announced their celebrity engagement in 2010 and split in 2011. Her most recent relationship and engagement was with Jason Adelman, but they revealed their celebrity break-up in 2015.

Ian Somerhalder

Ian Somerhalder, nicknamed Ian Smolderholder because of his good looks, is an actor, model, and director. He was born on December 8, 1978 and is best known for his roles on Lost and The Vampire Diaries. Somerhalder has received several Teen Choice Awards and People's Choice Awards for his popularity and work on those two television series.

Ian Somerhalder's relationship and love life has also been under the microscope since he first came to fame. In 2011, he confirmed that he and his The Vampire Diaries co-star Nina Dobrev were dating. The loyal fans loved the famous couple and were very upset when they ended their celebrity relationship in 2013. With Dobrev quitting the series in 2015, viewers have speculated that it is because of the tension the celebrity exes have on set, although both actors says that isn't true. In July 2014, Somerhalder began dating actress (and friend of Dobrev!) Nikki Reed. They confirmed their celebrity engagement in February 2015 and were married in April 2015.

Chris Soules

The hunky star of The Bachelor season 19 has changed the way women view farmers! Chris Soules was born in Arlington, Iowa on November 6, 1981. He was one of Andi Dorfman's final three men on The Bachelorette season 10, but she sent him home when she realized she couldn't see herself living in such a small town. Chris Soules then went on to appear on The Bachelor, and after getting to know 30 women on the reality TV show, he found love with Whitney Bischoff, a fertility nurse from Chicago, Illinois. The two announced their celebrity engagement in early March 2015, and Bischoff is already planning to relocate to Iowa. For now, the happy famous couple are living in Los Angeles while Soules appears on season 20 of Dancing with the Stars (where he's paired up with another W(h)itney – last season's champion, Witney Carson!).

Britney Spears

Growing up with the world watching, this pop star has been through it all. Born on December 2, 1981 in Louisiana, Britney Spears was destined for fame. At just 11 years old, she earned a spot on the hit show Star Search. Later, she joined fellow stars Justin Timberlake, Christina Aguilera, Ryan Gosling, and Keri Russell on The New Mickey Mouse Club on the Disney Channel. After the show's cancellation, she decided to pursue a music career. In 1998, she released her first hit single "...Baby One More Time." Making a name for herself in the infamous skimpy schoolgirl outfit, her career skyrocketed. Spears shed more and more clothing with each new song and became more controversial with her lyrics. In 2003, she added actress to her ever-growing resume when she starred in the film Crossroads.

Her personal life has always been a hot topic in the media. Beginning in 2000, Britney Spears dated former The New Mickey Mouse Club co-star and member of 'N Sync Timberlake. Can you say power celebrity couple? After a few years, the pair called it quits. Moving on quickly, Spears sparked some controversy at the 2003 MTV Video Music Awards when she shared a sexy kiss with Christina Aguilera and Madonna. A short celebrity marriage in 2004 to longtime friend Jason Alexander ended with an annulment only two days later. The singer then moved on with backup dancer Kevin Federline. Spears and Federline were married in 2004 and soon welcomed two sons: Sean Preston in September 2005 and Jayden James in September 2006. Taking a quick turn for the worse, the new parents split just two months after the birth of their second son.

After her celebrity divorce, her downward spiral began as the star was seen partying around town with socialite Paris Hilton. This new lifestyle landed her in rehab, and we all know what happened next. When Spears checked out of rehab, she was spotted in a beauty salon shaving her head. Given her troubling custody battle and questionable behaviors, many fans wondered if she'd find her way back to the spotlight. But did we really think she wouldn't make a comeback? Just two months after her public meltdown, the singer returned with a clear mind and a new album Circus. With her career on track again, she began dating her old manager, Jason Trawick, whom she later became engaged to. Unfortunately, the pair called it off in 2013, when the star began her judging gig on The X Factor.

Recently, the global superstar has been linked to Charlie Ebersol. With her Las Vegas show Piece of Me, there's no doubt that Spears is back and better than ever.

Gwen Stefani

Gwen Renée Stefani is an American singer and songwriter most known for having headlined the multi-platinum rock band, No Doubt from 1986 to 2004. In 2004, Stefani made her solo debut with her album Love. Angel. Music. Baby., which reached The Billboard 200 charts with hit songs Hollaback Girl and Rich Girl to name a few. By 2006, Stefani released her second studio album, The Sweet Escape, before returning to No Doubt to collaborate on another album. After the release of Push and Shove, the rock band once again went on hiatus, giving Stefani time to star as celebrity judge on the reality TV singing competition The Voice, while also working on her third album This Is What Truth Feels Like, which released March 18, 2016.

Aside from Stefani's success as a pop music icon, she is a mother to three children and was in a celebrity marriage with Gavin Rossdale for 14 years. Unfortunately, this celebrity couple separated following Rossdale's celebrity cheating scandal involving the family nanny. The couple's celebrity divorce was finalized on April 20, 2016. Despite the heartbreaking circumstances that ended Stefani's marriage, she has happily moved with Blake Shelton, her co-star on The Voice.

Kristen Stewart

Kristen Stewart is best known for her role as Bella Swan in The Twilight Saga, which catapulted the actress into A-list stardom. Born in Los Angeles, she was raised in the entertainment industry: Her father, a stage manager and television producer, and her mother, a script supervisor, taught their daughter everything she needed to know about Hollywood. She began acting at the age of eight and has since appeared in numerous movies, including Panic Room, Catch That Kid, Zathura, Snow White and the Huntsman, The Runaways, and many more.

America loved to follow Stewart's real-life celebrity relationship when she was dating hunky Twilight co-star Robert Pattinson. The celebrity couple were very private when they first started dating, keeping their love life low-profile in 2008. The pair didn't officially acknowledge the romance until 2012, when the young actress was caught in a celebrity cheating scandal. Us Weekly posted photos of Stewart getting cozy with her Snow White and The Huntsman director, Rupert Sanders. She issued a public apology to her boyfriend, and attempted to reconcile, but was unable to and they ultimately split for good. It appears that Stewart cannot escape relationship news when it comes to her love life. Most recently, Stewart was in a relationship with French singer and actress SoKo, who is rumored to have also dated Pattinson. However, Stewart ended her relationship with the songstress in May 2016 and has since been spotted with her former flame, Alicia Cargile.

Dr. Darcy Sterling

Dr. Darcy Sterling is a licensed clinical social worker and relationship expert whose office, Alternatives Counseling, is based in New York, N.Y. Sterling practices alongside her wife, Stephanie Sterling, in order to aid clients who want more out of life by providing relationship advice on a number of topics. Aside from their work helping individuals and couples, Sterling also hosts workshops focused on psychology and runs a Q&A blog that offers dating advice for those struggling in their relationships.

Sterling earned her master's in social work from Columbia University in 1996 and a Ph.D in the same subject from New York University in 2006. Since then, the therapist has shared her relationship advice through a number of news outlets, such as Huffington Post, Psychology Today and Mind Body Green. However, Sterling's most recent and talked about contribution is her role as a relationship coach and dating mentor on E!'s newest reality TV show, Famously Single. On the show, she uses her expertise as a psychotherapist and provides insight for the celebrity cast to help them understand how their toxic ways have resulted in failed relationships while teaching them relationship skills to improve their love lives.

Emma Stone

Emma Stone, born Emily Jean Stone on November 6, 1988, has become a comedic starlet, thanks to roles in Superbad, The House Bunny, Easy A, and Crazy, Stupid, Love. She was born in Scottsdale, Arizona, and at the age of 15, she convinced her parents (with a PowerPoint presentation!) to move to California so she could pursue an acting career. The actress has also appeared in the action film The Amazing Spider-Man.

Emma Stone has only had one serious relationship and love: She met Andrew Garfield on the set of Spider-Man, and the co-stars began their celebrity romance in 2011. Since then, the celebrity couple has gushed about each other in interviews, but according to celebrity gossip, they've had some trouble in the last year or so. In March 2015, after four years together, the Hollywood couple announced their celebrity break-up but have been spotted together post-split on multiple occasions. Who knows if these celebrity exes will reconcile, but we sure hope so!

Alison Sweeney

Alison Sweeney is a director and actress who is also known for hosting 13 seasons of the American reality TV show, The Biggest Loser. As an actress, Sweeney starred in the NBC hit daytime soap opera Days of Our Lives as antagonist Samantha Gene Brady from 1993 to 2015. Starring in the series helped boost Sweeney's career and earned her a Daytime Emmy Award nomination. After 21 years with the series, Sweeney was able to direct a number of episodes and has even directed for other daytime dramas such as General Hospital.

Sweeney enjoyed a celebrity wedding in 2000, when she married her husband David Sanov, a Los Angeles police officer. The happy couple raised two children during their 16 year marriage. In a celebrity interview with CupidsPulse.com, the blonde starlet credits her family for her healthy lifestyle choices. When pregnant, Sweeney couldn't help but notice the abundance of literature aimed at keeping babies (versus mothers) healthy and was inspired to write her book, The Mommy Diet. Sweeney's pivotal role as host of The Biggest Loser has contributed to her overall health and fit physique.

Taylor Swift

Singer-songwriter Taylor Swift, who had admirable success in country music, has crossed over to pop with her latest album 1989, which has received rave reviews. Swift was born on December 13, 1989 in Wyomissing, Pennsylvania. At the age of five, she was already singing, dancing, and performing for family members. As she got older, her love for music only grew, and she was determined to make it in the entertainment industry. Her family moved to Nashville, Tennessee, the country music capital of the world, to try to make her dreams come true. Finally, at a cafe performance, all of Swift's efforts and talents were noticed by Scott Borchetta of Big Machine Records, and the rest is history. Since then, she has quickly climbed to the top of the charts, nabbing 7 Grammy Music Awards, 15 American Music Awards, 11 Country Music Association Awards, 7 Academy of Country Music Awards, and 12 Billboard Music Awards.

Taylor Swift is quite notorious for her laundry list of celebrity exes, including Joe Jonas, Taylor Lautner, Jake Gyllenhaal, John Mayer, and Harry Styles, all of whom have inspired her famous break-up songs. Her relationship and love life is always splashed across the celebrity gossip magazines. Most recently, the songstress has been seen with disc jockey and singer Calvin Harris and though this celebrity couple has called it quits, their drama continues to unfold—mostly on twitter. Between her drama with ex Calvin Harris and the Kimye Famous scandal, Swift has her hands full.

Channing Tatum

Channing Tatum was clearly created by the gods to fulfill every girl's dream – he is one hunky man! He is an American actor who has starred in several films, including Foxcatcher, 22 Jump Street, Magic Mike, The Vow, and Step Up. He was born on April 26, 1980 in Cullman, Alabama but spent most of his life in Tampa, Florida. He was offered a football scholarship to Glenville State College in West Virginia but turned it down to pursue other interests. He was a stripper at a local night club before he was discovered on the streets of Miami by a modeling agency. He was then featured in print ads for Gap, Nautica, and Abercrombie and Fitch. As his career continued, he appeared in Ricky Martin's "She Bangs" video as well as several commercials. After a small role on CSI: Miami, he decided to pursue acting and hasn't stopped since.

Channing Tatum has managed to keep his relationship and love life mostly private. In 2009, he married his Step Up co-star Jenna Dewan, and in 2013, the famous couple welcomed their first child, a celebrity baby girl named Everly.

Chrissy Teigen

Chrissy Teigen is an American model, writer and television personality that has graced the cover of Sports Illustrated and serves as co-host to popular shows like Lip Sync Battle and FabLife. Additionally, Teigen operates her own food blog sodelushious.com and has a published cookbook by the name Cravings.

As a child, Teigen's family moved around often, from Utah, to Hawaii, Idaho, Washington, and finally settling in Huntington Beach, California. It was in a California surf shop that Teigen was discovered by a photographer, who suggested that she begin modeling at the age of 18. From that moment on, Teigen began her career as a catalog model until her big break in 2010 when she was featured as Sports Illustrated's "Rookie of The Year," which catapulted her to stardom and paved the way for Teigen to grace the covers of other publications such as Cosmopolitan, Glamour and Vogue.

In 2006, Teigen met R&B singer John Legend while starring in his music video Stereo. Not long after, the pair entered a celebrity relationship. After 7 years together, the celebrity couple got engaged and later married in 2013. On April 14, Teigen gave birth to her first celebrity baby, Luna Simone Stephens, and has since been spotted caring for her bundle of joy alongside her husband.

Bella Thorne

Bella Thorne is a young actress in Hollywood, striving to become the next box-office megastar. She has starred in Big Love, Shake It Up, and My Own Worst Enemy. Following a successful career in the television industry, the actress transitioned to the booming movie industry in 2014. She has starred in The Duff, Blended, and Very Bad Day, along with many others. The famous star also attempted to begin a music career, with a top 10 hit on the Billboard Hot Dance Club list under her belt.

Recently, she has turned to novel writing, and is working on her first book. At the age of only 18, she is highly active in finding the next step for her career, and has many films in progress for the future. Thorne's love life was also very successful as she was dating Gregg Sulkin for over a year. However, the love wasn't met to last as the celebrity relationship came to an end in August of 2016. Thorne sat down with Cupid's Pulse Editor Lori Bizzoco for a celebrity interview about Valentine's Day.

Justin Timberlake

Justin Timberlake is a household name and has been one of the most well-known artists since his start in 1993. He was born on January 31, 1981 in Memphis, Tennessee. We first got a taste of JT in The All-New Mickey Mouse Club, where he performed with castmates including future girlfriend and pop superstar Britney Spears, future tourmate Christina Aguilera, future bandmate JC Chasez, and future movie actors Ryan Gosling and Keri Russell. Then, in the late 1990s, he rose to prominence as one of the lead vocalists in the boy band *NSYNC, which became one of the best-selling boy bands of all time.

During the group's hiatus, he released two solo studio albums featuring fan favorite songs like “Cry Me a River” and “SexyBack.” Each album sold over seven million copies worldwide, establishing Timberlake as one of the most commercially successful singers of the decade. From 2007 to 2012, he started to focus on his acting career, putting his music career on hold. He appeared in movies like Friends with Benefits and Runner Runner. In 2013, Timberlake resumed his music career with his third and fourth albums, exploring neo soul with song structures influenced by old rock. That year, Time named him one of the 100 most influential people in the world. He has won 9 Grammy awards and 4 Emmy Awards. His other ventures include record label Tennman Records, fashion label William Rast, and the restaurants Destino and Southern Hospitality.

Justin Timberlake’s personal life has been closely examined throughout his career, especially after he started dating Britney Spears in 1999. Their celebrity relationship was a whirlwind romance that ended abruptly in 2002. Shortly after their split, he began dating Cameron Diaz. After much speculation of a celebrity break-up, the couple broke up for good in 2006. In 2007, JT began dating the love of his life Jessica Biel. After an on-again, off-again relationship, the famous couple became engaged in 2011 and married in 2012 at a resort in Italy. On January 31, 2015, Timberlake announced that Biel was pregnant with their first child.

James Tupper

James Tupper, who is best-known for playing David Clarke on ABC's hit show Revenge, is recognized for his roles on the ABC series Men in Trees and the NBC series Mercy. He also appeared on season 7 of Grey's Anatomy. In 2006, the actor's relationship and love life was a bit rocky, and he split from his wife. Then, in 2007, he began a celebrity relationship with actress Anne Heche, whom he met on the set of Men in Trees. James Tupper moved in with Heche the same year, and the pair welcomed a son in 2009. He told Life & Style in 2009 that they do not wish to ever be married but rather to remain "eternally engaged" – something he reiterated in our celebrity interview.
