12-12-12: Show Your Love & Support for the Victims of Hurricane Sandy

Here at CupidsPulse.com, we saw firsthand the true devastation caused by Hurricane Sandy. Our offices were located in the center of the storm, and we feel very fortunate that only a portion of our office was impacted. We were out of power for 13 days, but that is nothing compared to what so many other people faced – and are still facing. Many New Yorkers continue to experience distress: they have no place to live, their personal belongings are gone and they have no place to celebrate the holidays.

In hopes of helping these people rebuild their lives and their homes, a very special event takes place tonight: “12-12-12,” the biggest concert ever staged at Madison Square Garden, will begin at 7:30 p.m. EST and focus on the impact of Hurricane Sandy. The concert includes performers such as Bon Jovi, Eric Clapton, Alicia Keys, Kanye West, Billy Joel and The Rolling Stones. Additionally, stars including Leonardo DiCaprio, Jake Gyllenhaal, Adam Sandler, Kristen Stewart, Jessica Chastain and more will participate in the show to help the victims of the Superstorm.

Every single penny raised by the telethon will go to organizations serving the victims of Hurricane Sandy through the Robin Hood Relief Fund, which provides money, material and know-how to local organizations that are serving those hit hardest by the storm. Moreover, Tommy Hilfiger has agreed to donate t-shirts as part of the merchandise offerings for “12-12-12.”

If you can't be there in person, “12-12-12” will be distributed to nearly two billion people through television feeds, radio and online streaming. Given that the holiday season is all about love, be sure to tune in and show your support to the many New Yorkers still suffering.

Grand Opening: New Rooftop Garden at 'Sleep No More,' Gallow Green

By Royal Young

Mystery, voyeurism and delicious macabre make up Gallow Green. The restaurant sprawls over a roof on 27th street and almost the Hudson, near the McKittrick Hotel. Lori Bizzoco, founder of CupidsPulse.com, and I stumble into Gallow Green's grand opening after having wandered through the haunting mazes of Sleep No More, wearing white masks and witnessing ghostly dances through blue lit woods, listening to old music cranked from a far away gramophone as silent actors slowly danced.

We're high from the show and booze, consumed in the smoky lounge of the McKittrick where a busty woman with a red rose in her dark hair sang jazz. The restaurant feels like it is from a different, more elegant time, the 1920's or '30s. Yet we are surrounded by glittering modern Manhattan. The Empire State Building shines over our shoulders as we're guided to a wood table under beams hung with tattered, thick white lace. Our server looks like a beautiful nurse at an insane asylum.

"Try everything!" She urges us.

We settle for a tall beer list along with pulled brisket toast with tomato jam, horseradish and aioli, smoked pork meatballs, potted peekytoe crab a deeply buttery spread with toast tips, sliced summer tomatoes, avocado and brisket jerky. Everything is delicious. Small golden lights, and green plants decorate Gallow Green, rusting railway tracks and loose stones lay in the middle of the restaurant. With a live swing band playing, it does feel like we are on a beautifully decrepit old train, munching decadent morsels in the dining car.

I hate sweet things, so for dessert we decide to go with the Gallow Green Punch. Our nurse brings over a massive gold bowl and fills it with Absinthe. She heroically lights matches in the wind, until one catches and the liquor is in flames. It burns out blue into the night. She adds Delord Blanche White Armagnac, Lemon Shrub, Apollinaris Water and ice cubes the size of fists. We drink until it's done. The night is all about escape.

Mix Up Your Dating Life With Match.com

By: Lori Bizzoco

Last Friday, SingleEdition and Match.com hosted the “Mix Up Your Dating Life” event in NYC. There, Match.com representatives taught us how to find local singles, and – if you look closely enough – your perfect match. As a Match.com marriage success story, I was thrilled to attend.

Stir Events by Match.com

Match.com's new Stir events are the perfect opportunity to find singles living in your area, bridging the gap between online dating and a more organic, face-to-face approach to finding love. Each Stir event is customized through group matching algorithms in terms of age, gender and interests so that singles will be attending events with like singles.

As the world's largest dating site, Match.com isn't just throwing these live singles events – they're doing it on a massive scale. This month alone, they're throwing 189 events in more than 62 markets! Match.com has found so much success in their Stir events that they are expanding nationwide, planning to host 200 events each month by September.

Stir events range from large scale happy hours at local bars and venues, to more intimate, interest-based events such as cooking classes, wine and tequila tastings, dance lessons, bowling nights, rock climbing, and more! The happy hour events are free and open to both registered and subscribed Match.com members, while the interest-based events are only free for Match.com subscribers.

If you're a Match.com member, you can learn about and sign up for these events via Match.com under the "Events" header on the site.

We'll be heading to our closest Stir event soon, so be sure to check back for a review from us!

Cupid Event: Finding Mr. Bright at Bloomingdale's

By Vicky Sullivan of Aspiring Socialite

I fell in love with Bloomingdale's long ago. However, over the weekend, I got to experience love in an entirely new way during the Cupid's Pulse Finding Mr. Bright event in the cosmetics department. As I have grown to know all too well, New Yorkers never have enough time. Therefore, multitasking is a must. Getting both makeup and dating advice in one session is just what any social or corporate ladder climber needs. The fabulous Lori Bizzoco (pictured left,) founder and editor-in-chief of Cupid's Pulse, opened the program with a star-studded presentation on how to find love based on lessons learned from celebrity romances and heartbreaks. As a blogger and Aspiring New York Socialite looking for love, Lori has been an excellent mentor and complete inspiration to me.

Stylish representatives from Benefit Cosmetics, a makeup brand founded in San Francisco based on the principles of fast and fabulous, demonstrated how a few brightening tricks can actively enhance your natural beauty. While "That Gal" brightening face primer can give you that Kim Kardashian glow, BADgal Lash Mascara can make your eyes pop like Scarlett Johansson. As a blue eyed girl, I have my eyes on the Smokin' Eyes Sexy Eye & Brow Makeover Kit.
