

Dating Advice Q&A: How Can You Tell Red Flags From Online Dating?

Question from Natalie L.: I was seeing a guy a while ago. It didn't work out in the end since he was too immature, but during the brief relationship he said something that stands out in my mind today. He said he had been checking up frequently for months to see if I was still with my boyfriend at the time (and jumped at the chance to be with me once he saw I was single). I didn't think much of it then but now I see it was kind of creepy. How can I tell red flags from online dating ideally sooner than later to avoid situations like this?

Dating has always been complex dance between couples. Add our modern technology into the mix, and it gets even more tricky to find a partner who is best for you. However, do not fret. Leave it up to our relationship experts who can offer their best dating advice on using technology the right way. Online dating isn't going anywhere, so let's learn how to date properly in this technological age! Here you will learn a few dating tips that will help you avoid online dating red flags before it's too late.

Dating Advice On Deciphering Red Flags Online

Suzanne K. Oshima, Matchmaker: When it comes to online dating, you don't really know someone until you "know" someone. If you rush into the first and subsequent dates, and then a relationship, then you may miss all the red flags along the way. So, it's always best to proceed slowly and get to know him. Dating advice I always recommend is to exchange a few emails, then move it to texting, then a phone call. Then if he seems okay, move it to the first date. And then as you go on more dates, really get to know him, ask questions and get curious. He will start to reveal more and more about himself. And with each step in the process, you will get to know him a little better and either the red flags will start to appear... or you will see that you have a great guy on your hands.

Robert Manni, Guy's Guy: This is a tricky area. What may have seemed like creepy behavior could have simply been be a young man waiting his turn for a chance to connect with a lady who sparked an interest. Or, it could be creepy. How can you know? And how can you spot red flags with potential suitors? There is no perfect method to address this common issue. However, deploying a combination of your intuition, common sense, and due diligence will help. When meeting a new guy, ask him for his full name. If he hesitates or gives you incorrect information, it's definitely a red flag. You probably want to Google him, too. If you have mutual connections, get their take on his character. You might also ask him his thoughts about dating, his likes and dislikes, and why he's single. If any of his answers seem shaky, it's a possible red flag. But again, your most important tool when deciding if a new guy "feels" right for you is your gut instincts. Pay attention and good luck!

Relationship Advice: So When Exactly IS It Time For Sex?

By Joshua Pompey

I'm ready. At least I think I'm ready. No, I'm definitely ready. Ugh, I'm sorry, but I'm just not ready! Does deciding when to have sex sometimes feel like a ping pong match in your head that ends with nobody scoring? Or perhaps, people scoring a bit too much? Well, maybe I can be of help as a relationship expert. If you aren't sure if you should have sex or wait, let's take a long look at some solid indicators with the following relationship advice.

Relationship Advice On When It's The Right Time To Have Sex

1. You feel comfortable without the assistance of liquor. First and foremost, it's all about how comfortable you feel when those 5 drinks aren't helping you to make your decision. Sure, most of us want to rip off our clothes when liquor is involved. Especially if we are extremely attracted to that person. But how do you feel when you're sober? If you aren't completely comfortable in intimate situations when your clothes are on, you probably won't feel comfortable with your clothes off either.

2. Silence feels normal. This might sound like a strange dating tip for an article about sex, but being able to be feel comfortable in silence around someone you're dating is a very strong indication of just how close the two of you are. Just don't stay that quiet when things get intimate!

Related Link: Dating Advice: Should A Woman Split The Bill On A Date Night?

3. You have talked about your relationship goals. Keep in mind that everyone is different. Some people are content with multiple partners. Some people prefer monogamy. To each their own. But regardless of your preferences, you should know what your partner is all about with his or her intentions before taking it to that next level. Or at least have a very strong idea.

4. The chemistry is undeniable. Sometimes this happens on the first date. Sometimes it's after several dates. Sometimes several months. But you will know when the chemistry is too strong to stop. When this happens, just let go and enjoy it. There is nothing to feel guilty about if you are two willing partners, because let's face it, those feelings don't come around often.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How Do You Know When It's Right To Move In With Someone?

5. When it doesn't interfere with your relationship goals. You may feel perfectly normal having sex on the first night. But will the other person question who you are as a person if you do? Could it put a long term relationship in jeopardy? It's important to consider these questions before taking things to the next level. If you want to play it safe, having sex within the first couple of dates is risky if you're seeking out a long term relationship, unless you're absolutely certain your new partner shares your views. Otherwise, hold off until you are sure you won't be labeled or judged for your actions.

Keep an eye out for these indicators and consider my relationship advice next time you're faced with the decision on whether or not to have sex. Don't succumb to pressure, and remember that you're in charge of your body. Good luck!

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Kendall Jenner, Nicki Minaj and Minka Kelly

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, three famous couples have caught the public's attention, two of which are celebrity relationships that are just getting started, such as with Kendall Jenner and A$AP Rocky, and former exes Minka Kelly and Wilmer Valderama. In terms of more serious relationships, one of Hollywood's most anticipated marriages involve rappers Nicki Minaj and Meek Mill. But who's stepping out this time around hand in hand? Join me as I look into the crystal ball of relationships and love. Below, I share my predictions for these celebrity couples.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last

Kendall Jenner and A$AP Rocky: I'm convinced that Kris Jenner had a secret meeting with the Kardashian/Jenner kids where she told them they could only date black people associated with rap music. It appears that Kendall Jenner is now following the family trend by allegedly dating rapper A$AP Rocky. Jenner and Rocky been spotted having dinner together as they creep out during the late night hours. While they're doing the "date thing," don't call them boyfriend and girlfriend just yet. Jenner is taking it slow. She wants to enjoy herself. Basically, she is testing him out to see if he's worth her time. If Rocky wants Jenner to take him seriously, he is going to have to step it up. Kendall tends to be a little more "low key" and drama free with her relationships. She won't flaunt her love affair like Kylie or Kim. But only time will tell if they officially become a couple. Don't be surprised if Jenner is on mystery dates with someone else.

Nicki Minaj and Meek Mill: Everyone seems to be wondering when Nicki Minaj and Meek Mill will walk down the aisle. That wedding may be getting closer. The celebrity couple just moved in together in fancy crib in Beverly Hills. In April, Minaj said she was single on the Ellen Show, so this move is a big step. Minaj looks all the way into the relationship, but there is something about Mill that looks shady for lack of a better word. I'm not saying that he's cheating on Minaj, but he leaves the door open for other women. He likes to get his flirt on which could lead to trouble down the line. If they don't get married soon, it may never happen. There is a big chance that they will simple crash and burn after the relationship runs it's course.

Minka Kelly and Wilmer Valderrama: Didn't Wilmer Valderrama and Demi Lovato break up like five minutes ago? Well Valderrama is not wasting time crying about it. He has already hooked back up with his ex Minka Kelly. The two dated in 2012, so this is their second time around. While they will have some fun, the relationship is not for the long haul. Kelly will want more than what Valderrama can give her, which is marriage or at least a nice long term commitment. She will eventually have to move on. Valderrama is always dating a hot actress or singer. What is it about him that is hard to resist? He will continue to woo the ladies and probably won't be ready to settle down until he hits his 40s.

Relationship Advice: Listen With Your Heart

By Debbie Ceresa from Divorce Support Center

How many times have you said this to your partner? “You never hear what I say! Aren’t you listening to me?” Or maybe they’ve accused you of not hearing or remembering what was said. The longtime celebrity couple Kurt Russell and Goldie Hawn credit listening as a secret to a successful relationship. “Learn to listen and live in the moment. Don’t over plan your future; focus on being the best partner you can be in the present moment, and the rest will follow.” Listening is key to building and maintaining a healthy relationship, but it’s not easy. The skills of a good listener require dedication and a heart with ears. You must have the ability to give yourself totally to the person who is talking. It’s not easy because we are constantly inundated with outside distractions, such as our thoughts, cell phones, and social media. In his book, Wherever You Go, There You Are, Jon Kabat-Zinn, professor of medicine emeritus at the University of Massachusetts Medical School, defines mindfulness, or active listening, as paying attention in a particular way, on purpose, in the present moment, and non-judgmentally. We listen to understand, to obtain information, and for enjoyment, but researchers and relationship experts at the University of Minnesota found that “the average person only remembers half of what he or she has immediately heard said by another person.” Over time, that result can have a devastating effect on your relationships. A key factor in a successful relationship is to become a pro in active listening. Active listeners make an effort to hear what has been said and understand the message. To accomplish this, you must master four of these dating tips.

Relationship Advice On Active Listening

1. Create a listening ritual and space. Find a comfortable place to sit and listen to each other, particularly when the conversation is important. Your special place should be free of distractions thereby giving yourselves total attention to each other. Unplug, de-clutter, shut the door, do whatever it takes for some priceless listening time. My husband and I have created a morning coffee time on our patio. The morning sounds of birds, the tranquility of mountains in the distance, and the early neighborhood sounds provide us with a peaceful space to share stories daily.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: How to Get Over “The Little Things”

2. Pay attention. Give yourself to the speaker with a nod of your head, a slight gesture, or smile. Maintaining eye contact demonstrates you are in the moment. Most importantly, try to focus on hearing with your heart. “Wisdom is the reward you get for a lifetime of listening when you’d have preferred to talk,” said relationship expert Doug Larson.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: What Makes a Marriage Strong?

3. Put yourself in your partner’s shoes. Don’t be afraid to be empathic. Recognizing your partner's perspective will give you the opportunity to think beyond yourself. You'll be surprised as you discover their hopes, dreams, fears and expectations. These discoveries will lead to you honing in on your listening skills as you begin to know your partner more intimately.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Four Reasons To Be Thankful For Your Partner

4. Collect moments and be prepared to retell the story. When your partner shares a story with you, it's important to them. The story is their moment, and it has now become yours. How many times have you and a friend retold the story of running through the airport together or the time you celebrated your anniversary at a special restaurant? "One of the best ways to remember something better is to know that you are going to tell what you learned to someone else," said writer Henrik Edberg. "Then you'll be more alert, naturally start asking more questions to understand and what is said – in my experience – simply seems to stick better." My best relationship advice is to learn from retelling your special moments, remember the eye contact, gestures, and emotions. With so many distractions vying for our time, the ability to listen is a quality often longed for in today's relationships. By creating the ideal atmosphere, paying attention, showing empathy for our partner, and being fully engaged in listening, you can show your loved one how much you care by not saying a word.

Relationship Advice: Why Isn't It Easy to Say Goodbye?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Some say Ben Affleck is waiting to find out if his celebrity ex Jennifer Garner wants to reconcile with him. Despite their celebrity divorce, they have remained close. According to a source, many people feel Jennifer is stringing Ben along and “making him jump through hoops.” They say she’s acting hot and cold, and he has no idea where they stand as a couple or a family. It can be very frustrating to remain in limbo and not know what to expect. Many people find themselves in this situation after a break-p or an attempted break-up.

Sometimes the road to splitting up permanently isn't clear, and there can be lots of fits and starts before either reaching the final end of a relationship, or deciding to give it another solid try. Why is it so hard for people to let go, sometimes even if they are officially divorced? Check out the following relationship advice:

The most compelling reason people continue to hold on is the fact that they have a shared history. The person who might be an ex-partner has a sense not only of who you are, but who you were with them and during your time together. To then say good-bye to them can also feel like saying goodbye to who you were during your relationship. Another thing that can keep you hopeful, even if you aren't happy right now, is the possibility that something will change and the good times you once shared and the positive aspects of the relationship will resume.

Related Link: Jennifer Garner Source Says Ben Affleck's Alleged Celebrity Affair Was the 'Ultimate Betrayal'

Another thing that can keep the glue between you from completely giving way is if one of you wants to hold on more than the other. When this happens, the one who isn't ready to finally end it might persist with calls, emails, and texts which can increase the doubts the other might feel as well as any guilt feelings he or she might have about ending the relationship in the first place. The partner who wants to continue to be together might also make assertions that they will change whatever behavior may have led to the unhappiness between you. They might even start to do it, which can make the other person stick around with the hope that the negative behaviors will disappear completely. As a result, a couple can often seesaw because even small changes can increase optimism and give someone the stamina they need to be willing to try to give it another shot. In the case of a betrayal, when the initial and intense anger diminishes, there can be a willingness to give the person a chance to rebuild your trust. Also, when there are children involved, as there are with Jennifer and Ben, there is often a desire to keep the family together for their sake. That can be one of the strongest driving forces of all. Whatever the case, certainly if a lot of loving feelings remain it is hard to imagine life without them in it.

Related Link: Lessons From Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck

The question becomes, how do you know if you are wasting your time, holding on with the hope that the happiness will be rekindled or the bad behaviors will change when there is the chance that neither of those things is likely? How can you know how much time to give it before reaching the decision to finally call it quits? Are there any strategies to employ for ending a relationship?

If you are moving forward with the intent to give your relationship a try and see if things can work out, it's good to be clear about what specific changes you are looking for and how long you are willing to wait to see if they actually take place. For example, if you are looking to see if you can trust your partner again, the only real way to do that is to give them enough time to show through their actions that what they say and do is worthy of your trust. But if months go by and you continue to be disappointed because the promised changes aren't happening, or they have happened once but were never followed up on, that can be a good indicator that things aren't really going to be different from what had been upsetting you all along, and if you want to be happier it is time to let go. Ideally, you or your partner can look for counseling, which can help you either get your relationship back on track or help you reach the difficult decision that it really is time to say good-bye to each other.

It appears that Jennifer and Ben continue to share loving feelings, as well as children, and therefore remain open to the possibility of reuniting as a couple. Here's to hoping for the best!

Relationship Advice: Turning Your Summer Fling Into Something That Lasts Longer

By David Wygant

Summer loving, have me a blast. Summer loving, happened so fast. I met a girl crazy for me. I met a boy cute as can be. Summer days drifting away to oh oh the summer nights.

You remember those lines from that iconic song in the movie Grease, Summer Nights? Well for those of you lucky enough to find a special someone during the hot months, you've just had a little summer loving, or you're experiencing it now. The days are winding down, nights are getting cooler, the sun getting weaker, and Labor Day is almost upon us! What are you going to do about your summer romance? Will it last? As a relationship expert, I'm here to tell you that summer isn't hunting season. Fall actually is! Whoever you met in the summer is thinking the same thing you are. They're thinking, "Have I met somebody that I'm actually going to be able to celebrate Christmas with? Will they be able to cuddle and snuggle all warm by the fire with me?" So how do you actually turn this summer fling into something long-lasting? My relationship advice is very simple, just continue with the fun!

Relationship Advice On Turning Your Summer Fling Into Something More

In the beginning of a relationship, it's all about having a good time, getting to know one another, learning each other's love language, figuring out who each other is. So what you want to do is continue this relationship by being the same person. Maybe you won't be taking walks on the beach or around the lake anymore. Maybe you'll be doing things in your hometown. It doesn't matter where you are, or how you met. The bottom line is, summer flings can turn into long-lasting relationships, so you should treat it just as that. Continue doing things that were fun.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Make Your Love Life Sparkle Post-4th of July

Summer may be ending, but if you want a serious relationship, keep courting him or her. Court this person because you've been courting them the whole time in the summertime. Court them so they knows exactly what you're talking about. The best dating advice I can offer is to be open, loving, and present to continue this relationship. To me, summertime is a great time to meet, but now it's time to get down to the nitty-gritty, and get down to the beauty of what you can actually co-create together. Bring back memories of the summer. Take lots of pictures now as summer winds down to an end. Take time to text your special someone these photos throughout the fall so you both can be brought back to that moment. There's no reason for summer flings to end. It can easily continue into the fall. Follow my relationship advice and dating tips, and I assure you, you'll be able to sing Summer Nights this same time next year.

Dating Advice: Should A Woman Split The Bill On A Date Night?

By Joshua Pompey

The moment has come. The bill arrives. Sweat trickles down the back of your neck once the server drops the checkbook at your table. What do you do? Do you let him pay for the meal? Or do you sit there awkwardly while he reaches for his wallet? Ah, the age old question that relationship experts love to answer. If you're looking for dating advice that will help you navigate this dilemma, take into consideration the different scenarios that can arise on a first date.

Dating Advice On Splitting The Bill With Your Date

The dating advice that I provide you will vary depending on the context of the situation. Suppose a man invited you out to an expensive restaurant or took you somewhere that costs a lot of money, without you being aware of the situation ahead of time. In this case, you really shouldn't be reaching for your wallet. It's not on you to cover an expensive bill that someone else imposed upon you.

But in any other situation, you should at least reach for your wallet at the minimum. This motion is less about the actual act of paying, and more about what it reveals about you as a person. When you reach for your wallet, you aren't just letting him know that you are willing to pay. You are communicating that you are considerate, interested, and trying to do the right thing. A man will notice and process this, even if he quickly waves you off.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How Do You Know When It's Right To Move In With Someone?

Back when I was single, this was something that I always looked for on a first date, and I know for a fact that most men do as well. When we're on dates and someone sits there as the check comes without even flinching, we start to wonder if she expects to always be taken care of, and even worse, will wonder if she is innately selfish. This may not be you at all, and maybe you've mentally planned on paying for something on a second date, but remember, it's a first date and he still doesn't know you very well. A man's perception of you is based solely on the limited amount of time that they're engaged with you on a first date. In the event that the man waves you off, just smile and say, "Okay, but next time the first round is on me!" And in the event that he doesn't wind up waving you off, that shouldn't be a big deal either, even if you don't like him. As a rule of thumb, don't accept a date if you can't afford to partially contribute. And if him not paying bothers you, then maybe it's a sign he's not your type anyway.

Related Link: Relationship Advice On Financial Infidelity

At the end of the day, what most quality men want (pending they don't have unresolved mommy issues) is a woman who is down to earth and considerate. The more you make this clear with the things you say and the actions you do, the easier it will be to avoid unnecessary relationship problems in the future regarding finances. You don't want to start any partnership with unequal footing. Having a guy shoulder the bill all the time is a sure way to stir some resentment. The best dating tip that I can offer is to at least give it a try.

Dating Advice Q&A: How Has Technology Changed the Way We Date?

Question from Sandy L.: I'm a recently divorced mom of three who is jumping back into the wonderful world of dating. I can already tell that things are very different than when I was last single! How has technology changed the way we date? Should I definitely try online dating?

Dating can be complicated. Add social media and electronic devices into the mix, and it can get even more tricky to find a compatible partner. This feat is especially challenging for new singles leaving failed marriages. However, do not fret. Leave it up to our relationship experts who can offer their best dating advice on using technology the right way. Online dating is here to stay, after all, so don't be afraid to jump in and catch up with the times!

Technology Dating Advice After Divorce

Suzanne K. Oshima, Matchmaker: Dating after divorce can be scary, exciting and challenging all at the same time. But wait, don't let that scare you... because while things have completely changed since the last time you dated, it's also a really great time to be single. Meeting men has never been easier, especially with the advent of online dating. And while it can seem a little scary to put yourself out there so publicly, online dating is actually one of the best ways to meet someone. Just put together a profile with great photos (men are very visual, so you need to attract him) and an essay that shows your fun personality and what you're passionate about...soon your calendar will be booked up with dates! And if you need more dating advice on how to get back into dating after divorce, you can grab a free copy of my eBook: "Dating After Divorce: A New Beginning."

Robert Manni, Guy's Guy: Technology has had a huge impact on dating, and it can be a great tool for meeting prospective partners. So, the answer is a resounding "yes" for trying online dating. Here are a few tips to help you get started. Before signing up for any sites or apps, decide what you want from the experience. Save time, psychic energy, and money by limiting your initial foray into the online dating world by signing up for only a few services. Talk to your single friends about their experiences and ask them for dating tips in setting up your profile. Most importantly, don't limit your dating life to the online world. Meeting other singles the old fashioned way—through friends, at work, by taking a class, and just by living your life still works. After all, no matter how successful you are at meeting people online, the real chemistry test for a new relationship happens when you meet face-to-face.

Relationship Advice: True Love or Rebound?

By Amy Osmond Cook for Divorce Support Center

It's a familiar scene; we watch a friend wallow in a doomed relationship for a while only to hear him or her declare their true love was found in a brand new relationship. For example, as fans watched multi-platinum recording artist Taylor Swift switch from her celebrity relationship with Calvin Harris to cozying on the beach with new squeeze Tom Hiddleston, it makes one wonder if this truly was perfect timing for a new love to grow, or simply a rebound relationship? Sometimes it's hard to know for sure. But if your new relationship feels a little too good to be true, here are some dating tips and relationship advice to determine if you could be somebody's rebound.

Relationship Advice On Rebounding

- 1. Your partner just got out of a long-term relationship. Following a failed relationship, it's always wise to take some time alone to realign one's goals and evaluate lessons learned from that experience. This time is valuable to ensure you don't make the same mistakes in future relationships. But if you are involved with someone who has recently left a long-term relationship, you need to determine if your new partner was ready to move on, or are you simply filling in as the emotional gap? “If you’ve met someone you like that recently got out of a relationship, take it slowly,” advised relationship expert and blogger Alina. “Even if he or she says they are completely over their ex and have moved on, it is in your best interest to take your time getting to know this person a little more before giving yourself the green light to emotionally dive in.”

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 3 Ways To Scratch The Seven-Year Itch

2. The relationship is moving at a fast pace. You may have dated for a short time, but the relationship has already escalated to a highly physical and committed relationship. While you are spending every moment together and talking about your future, consider how well you know this person. If this relationship is moving at rocket speed despite the fact you know very little about your partner, you may be the rebound for your partner’s crushed heart. “I think I married for the wrong reasons. Instead of following my heart and doing something that made me really happy, I just did it for the idea of everything,” said Britney Spears of her failed marriage to Kevin Federline. She talked about her decision to wed in a 2008 For the Record documentary.

Related Link: Five Ways To Cope With A Relationship Breakdown Just Like The Celebs

3. The former flame is the third member of your relationship. It’s common for people to share stories of old relationships. But if a past love is a common component to your romantic dinners, this could be a sign that he or she hasn’t moved on from that former relationship. It’s likely you are a vehicle in helping your partner get back with the person they truly want to be with. The staff at eHarmony.com offered relationship advice with the following scenario as a warning: “He talks about his ex all the time. He mentions that you look like her, or that your mannerisms or interests remind him of her. He takes you places he once took his ex – and tells you so. If he’s still preoccupied with someone else, he’s not ready to fully move on.”

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: How to Rebound from a Solo Holiday Season

4. Friends are surprised your partner is dating again. You and your partner’s friends are helpful in determining if the person you’re sharing your time with is worthy of that commitment. If you see outsiders shaking their heads at the relationship, it may be a warning sign. The staff at eHarmony warn that the new relationship “may be poorly timed and concur that sometimes it’s wise to trust the red flags coming from others.” Finding someone to share your life with is a gift. But if the foundation for that new relationship is sitting on shaky ground, it is destined to fall.

By being aware of your new love’s past, keeping control of the pace, ensuring former partners are out of the picture, and measuring the reactions of others who care about you and your partner, you are lined up to score big on the relationship front rather than being sidelined as a rebound.

Celebrity Couple Predictions:

Pauly D, Leonardo DiCaprio and Chloe Grace Moretz

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, three famous couples have caught the public's attention, two of which are celebrity relationships that have been in the works for some time now, such as with Pauly D and Aubrey O'Day and Chloe Grace Moretz and Brooklyn Beckham. But one of the newest Hollywood couples is Leonardo DiCaprio and Nina Agdal. Who's stepping out in Hollywood this time around hand in hand? Join me as I look into the crystal ball of relationships and love. Below, I share my predictions for these celebrity couples.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last

Pauly D and Aubrey O'Day: Pauly D and Aubrey O'Day are definitely an interesting pair. It's a rollercoaster kind of love. The latest celebrity news is that Pauly is abstaining from sex with O'Day to slow things down. At this point, it might be a very good move so they can figure out where their relationship is going. This famous couple works because they are both a hot mess when it comes to relationships. Either they will continue to break up and get back together or they will have a secret wedding then divorce quickly. Eventually, O'Day will decide that she can do better because she can. Pauly can't give her the kind of love that she craves. Let's just say, it's a learning experience for both of them. The best partner option for O'Day is actually an older gentleman who is stable with a nice bank account. I ain't sayin' she's a gold digger, but she likes to be pampered. What lady doesn't?

Leonardo DiCaprio and Nina Agdal: It's no surprise that DiCaprio has found another model to cozy up to. This time, it's Sports Illustrated model, Nina Agdal. They have recently been spotted frolicking around Greece together. Right now it's looking like a regular Leo, love 'em and leave 'em relationship. In several photos, he already looks bored with Agdal. She is beautiful and all, but don't expect to see Agdal at many events with Leo. Basically, the best thing about their relationship for her is more attention for her career. She should bask in the photo opportunities and trips while she can. Unless she has some tricks up her sleeve, their celebrity relationship will be a short one. DiCaprio likes his freedom which is why he continues to select the women that he does. When he does find his match, he is going to pull a George Clooney move by putting a ring on it quickly and walking down the aisle.

Chloe Grace Moretz and Brooklyn Beckham: Slowly but surely Moretz and Beckham are becoming the cutest Hollywood couple. They have been dating since May of this year and Moretz's mom has posted on social media that she approves of their relationship. Moretz recently spoke at the Democratic National Convention, while Beckham made the smooth boyfriend move of showing up as a surprise. Then Beckham's mom, Victoria Beckham, praised the speech on Instagram! It looks like a major love-fest is going on. Beckham is clearly smitten. He is consistently declaring this love and support for Moretz on social media. If they weren't so young, I would say to be on the lookout for wedding invitations. It's nice to see young love without the drama. They compliment each other in the best possible way. I can see them walking down the aisle in the future.

Relationship Advice: 3 Ways To Scratch The Seven-Year Itch

By Amy Osmond Cook for Divorce Support Center

If you listen to the relationship experts, the seven-year itch can just as easily be called the three-year itch, four-year itch, or the twelve-year itch. “There’s no consensus among experts as to why the seven-year itch may occur,” explained relationship expert Jennifer Nagy. Experts identify irritating contributors like hasty marriage proposals (Pamela Anderson or Khloe Kardashian), declining interest in his or her’s partner, and growing family responsibilities. But with married couples facing a 50-50 chance at success, it makes one wonder how to extend the rather short shelf life of a marriage, despite the growing needs of maintaining a life together.

Fortunately, society is filled with celebrity couples who have defied the odds. Will and Jada Pinkett Smith will celebrate twenty years together next year, Bill and Melinda Gates have been married over twenty years, and Billy Crystal and his wife, Janice, have been together forty-six years. If you and your partner are truly committed to making a marriage work, here is my relationship advice where I provide three ways to scratch that seven-year itch. Follow these dating tips to increase the longevity of your marriage.

Relationship Advice On How To Have A Lasting Marriage

1. Search for the things you first loved about each other. “I just love him more and more,” said Reese Witherspoon about her five-year marriage to Jim Toth. “I want so much for him to be happy, and he wants me to be happy.” Life is filled with distractions that make it difficult for those once-endearing traits to present themselves. Between family, changing interests, and work, we have many things demanding a portion of our time. Remember: You committed to share your life, dreams, and your whole self with this person. Don’t take that promise lightly, and don’t search for perfection—you won’t find it. Instead, uncover the things about your partner that make you feel secure, more focused, and better able to grow and expand your evolving interests as a couple.

2. Make the private moments meaningful. “For us,” explained Chrissy Teigen about her marriage to John Legend, “it’s exciting to have time away and then be together and make up for that lost time.” As a mature relationship grows, the opportunities to share alone time are few and far between, but the need to find that time becomes so important. “When the sexual intimacy in the marriage can be nurtured and given the time to grow, then the marriage will be successful,” wrote Dawn Michael. “The problem, of course, is that many couples lose the closeness that brought them together in the first place.”

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Keeping The Fireworks In Your Relationship

3. Leaving is not an option. “At our facility, it is not uncommon to see a loving spouse sit with his or her aging partner while illness, dementia, or frailty robs them of meaningful twilight years together,” said Scott Hanson, executive director of Lake Ridge Senior Living. “Even though the loved one may no longer recognize him, the thought of leaving or loving her any less is simply not an option.” That kind of commitment through good times and bad is what strengthens the bond Gisele Bündchen shares with her husband Tom Brady. “My father always said, the quality of your life depends on the quality of your relationships, and I think, no matter how challenging it was, we’ve always been supportive of one another. I think that’s the most important thing you can have in life.” With the array of circumstances that continually take shots at a relationship, it’s hard to know whether or not a marriage will be strained at any specific time. According to Nagy, “The studies do seem to agree that couples need to put in the extra effort every day in order to sustain happy marriages. If a couple doesn’t prioritize their relationship, their marriage will fall by the wayside – no matter how long they’ve been together.”

Dating Advice: How To Go From Single To Married

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettoes, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Jaki Sabourin to offer their dating advice for those who wish to go from dating to marriage. Follow these dating tips if you're interested in finding the love of your life.

Dating Advice On Getting Married

1. Keep your word to yourself. Know what you want and go for

it. Don't go against your initial intention of getting married. The experts dating advice is to understand commitment and don't send mixed messages to the men you're seeing. This is how you'll make space for your husband.

Relationship Advice: From Website to First Sight

By Lori Zaslow and Jennifer Zucher for Project Soulmate with contributing writer Erin Infelice

Dating in today's world is complicated since most people choose to make the first move from behind cellphone screens. With dating apps and social media sites that offer personal messaging options, you can reach anyone at any time. But when it comes time to finally meet the man from behind the screen, it can get scary really fast. How can you be so sure that he isn't faking it? As relationship experts, we understand that this is a nerve-wracking situation, but don't be too afraid because you might just miss out on a great catch! Follow our relationship advice to make sure you aren't getting catfished anytime soon.

Relationship Advice For Those Who

Want To Meet Their Online Crush

1. Do a thorough background check. Before taking the first leap of faith, you want to make sure you are definitely going to meet the person you think you're meeting. This might seem crazy, but your first step should be to Google him. See if any links come up for Facebook, Instagram or LinkedIn, and take a look at his profiles. This gives you an insight into both his personal and professional lives and gives you the assurance that he actually exists. If his profile says he works at a law firm but his Facebook says he's a bartender, you might want him to clarify this info before deciding to go on a date night.

2. Look for tagged pictures. Make sure he's tagged in pictures from friends and family, and that these pictures are from multiple events. If he only has pictures of himself, chances are he stole the pictures from another person and is catfishing you. It's much easier to copycat pictures that someone uploaded of themselves than it is to take pictures from others' profiles.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: When to Share Your Passwords

3. Make sure you're talking to the guy you see in the pictures. Try talking on the phone with him, FaceTiming him, or maybe even using an app like Snapchat to catch a live picture of him before deciding to meet up. The more proof you have that he is the same guy, the more comfortable you're going to be when it's time to meet up.

4. Pay attention to your interactions. If he keeps rescheduling your first date or doesn't actually make any effort to go on a first date, chances are he's not who he says he is online. Try not to allow too much time between a cancelled and rescheduled date, or else you both may lose interest altogether.

Related Link: Dating Advice Q&A: How Can You Know If Someone is Being Honest Online?

5. Have an escape plan. Just like any date, a date with an online match can easily turn sour quickly. The best dating advice we offer new online daters is to keep your first date short and sweet – maybe grab coffee instead of dinner. And make sure you tell a couple of friends where you will be so that they can keep tabs on the situation if he turns out to be someone other than the guy in the pics. If anything does go wrong, you will be able to remove yourself from the situation quickly.

6. Once you've decided that you feel comfortable, go for it. It's not uncommon for people to choose the online dating route. This means that there is a pretty good chance that the guy you are planning to meet is totally normal. Don't forget – you found him on a dating site, so if you think it's weird then maybe that's not the place for you to be looking for potential dates. If you've followed our relationship advice, are comfortable with everything he says and portrays online, then it's definitely time to try it out.

Happy swiping!

Expert Relationship Advice: You're in the Dog House...Now What?

By David Wygant

There's nothing like being in the doghouse. As a relationship expert, I can assure you it's the worst part of getting into a fight with a woman. Getting sent to the doghouse without our favorite toys is never any fun. The next time you're in the doghouse, make sure you bring your iPad or have your phone with you so you can sit there and play on your phone and text your friends to figure out exactly how to get out of the mess you're in. Sounds fun, doesn't it? Well, I've got a better idea. An idea that's based on something called communication and is a sure way to help you avoid future relationship problems. So now with the following relationship advice let's try to do things differently and stay out of the doghouse.

Relationship Advice To Get Out Of The Doghouse

As with most dating advice that's given, communication is the most crucial key to any relationship. However, there's another important key to having a great relationship, and that is ownership. When you learn how take ownership of something, you'll no longer be in the doghouse. I truly believe that fighting can be avoided in any relationship, as long as you have open communication and take responsibility for all your actions. When you stop blaming the other person or stop getting triggered by what they're doing, you're going to be more in the present moment, so that when a fight happens, you'll be able to have fight management skills right away.

Related Link: Dating Advice: How to Know When You've Found the One

I was once with a woman whose nickname was "Perfect." Whenever we fought, which was regularly, I would always get so frustrated with her. I was open to apologizing and hearing another viewpoint, but she was always focused on proving her side, twisting my words around, and making me feel like I was always the one at fault. I would tell her that she was blaming me and she would insist that she wasn't. She never took responsibility for anything! In the time I was with her, she said sorry maybe once, and we fought probably every two weeks about something. It's not in my personality to fight, but it sure was in her personality. She was looking for it; she craved it because she loved drama. So with her, I couldn't do a thing. But with most sane, rational people, I have learned the art of saying "I'm sorry," and you can too if you see my relationship with Perfect as a cautionary tale.

Next time when you're in the doghouse, I want you to think about what happened or triggered inside you to go into the fight mode. I want you to clearly understand her point and listen to it carefully as you review the fight. I don't want you to come out of the doghouse if you're not keeping this relationship advice in mind. I want you to look at her and say, "Listen, I love you. I totally hear what you had to say the other day. I respect your feelings and the way you feel, and I understand that my actions may have triggered you to feel a certain way, and I apologize for that." It really is that simple. It's apologizing, talking with kindness, and making the other person know that you understand where they were coming from. It's what we all want, to be in a relationship where we are understood and heard.

Relationship Advice: How Do You Know When It's Right To Move In With Someone?

By Joshua Pompey

So you think you're ready to move in with your significant other? After all, he's fun, treats you well, and let's face it, he really only gets on your nerves about 20 percent of the time. What more could you ask for in a man? But before you go unpacking in his place, you better make sure you're prepared for what comes with the move ahead. Moving in with the wrong person can be a nightmarish experience. Especially when you find yourself packing up your bags and single again. As a relationship expert, here is my relationship advice and thoughts on whether you should make the big move.

Relationship Advice: 4 Questions To Ask Yourself Before Moving In With Someone

Are you compatible living partners? What does his place look like when you visit or sleep over? Are there socks always laying around his apartment floor? Does he ever make his bed? Does it look like some of his dishes have taken a permanent residence in his sink? If you too have a fondness for living off paper plates and doing dishes once a month, this may be a match made in heaven. But for all you women out there who prefer to keep clean, the best dating advice I can offer you is that you may want to reconsider moving in with someone who will unintentionally turn you into his own personal maid. This will eventually build resentment and lead to big problems down the road.

Related Link: How to Make A Man Initiate The First Move

Will you be a guest or a resident? How big is his place? Is there room for your 25 pairs of designer shoes? Is he willing to let you convert his man cave into a floral masterpiece of feminine energy oozing out of every wall? At the end of the day, you need to be able to feel like you're at home with the person you're moving in with. Maybe you don't have to tear down his man cave on an extreme level. But at the minimum, make sure he is open to letting you provide a little personal touch to your place so that you feel like you are a resident, not a visitor.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 5 Steps To Securing A Second Date

How often do you fight? Fighting is one thing when you live apart. You can get mad, hug it out, then have some space for a day or more. When you live together, that person who is driving you crazy will be there when you wake up, eat, and go to sleep. There is no escape. Everyone will fight once in a while, but if you are fighting on a weekly, or even monthly basis, moving in is an absolutely horrendous idea.

Related Link: Dating Advice: Does A Man Really Have to Call?

Are you trying to heal the relationship? Some couples that are struggling in their relationships figure that moving in will make them closer. Maybe if you live together you will stop fighting as much and form a stronger bond right? Wrong. This will only end the relationship at a rapid-fire pace. My relationship advice: Work out whatever issues you have or strengthen the love between you and your man before you jump to that next level of sharing a residence.

Dating Advice: How to Create an Irresistible Online Dating Profile

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Michelle Marchant Johnson to offer their dating advice for those who wish to revamp their online dating profiles. Follow these dating tips if you're interested in finding the love of your life through the world wide web.

Dating Advice On How You Should Set Up Your Online Profile

1. Write for your audience. In the written sections of your relationship profile, remember who you're writing it for. You want to represent yourself the best way you can, but you also want to present yourself in a way that is attractive to others.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 3 Types of Women Men Avoid

2. Mind your presentation. The same way you want to look your best at an interview, you should also want to with online dating. Especially if you're trying to find a lasting relationship. Therefore your online profile should have a clear head shot and appropriate title/screen name.

Related Link: Dating Advice for Women Over 40: Why He Didn't Call?

3. Don't be too serious. Online dating should be fun. This dating advice says not to take it too seriously. Profiles that present themselves as too picky or intolerable have less success. No one wants to go out with someone who might be troublesome on a night out.

Relationship Advice Q&A: Is Liking Other People's Photos Suspicious Behavior?

Question from Valerie M.: I have been with my guy for a few years. I love him and he loves me, but we view social media differently and it causes us to bump heads. He “likes” photos of other girls constantly, especially if they’re half naked. I’ve told him repeatedly why it bothers me when he does this and ask how he would feel if I did the same thing, but he continues to do so. Am I being too sensitive? I know you can find others attractive while in a relationship, but letting the world know you like all these suggestive photos seems a little unnecessary and juvenile.

Dating during these technologically savvy times is a bit more complicated than it used to be. Social media has completely changed how people view relationships, love and faithfulness. Gone are the days when men used to open up a magazine and silently admire the opposite sex. However, do not fret, leave it up to our relationship experts who can offer relationship advice and dating tips that may provide comfort about your partner’s social media activity.

Relationship Advice On Social Media Etiquette

Suzanne K. Oshima, Matchmaker: Your boyfriend “liking” other women’s provocative photos is not only a bit inappropriate, but it’s also completely disrespectful to you. Especially after you explained to him how it makes you feel. He’s being insensitive to you and your feelings. Sometimes the only way to make him see your point is to give him a taste of his own medicine by doing the same thing with other men’s photos. If that doesn’t work, then I suggest you have another heart to heart talk with him and if he still doesn’t get the point, then I would re-evaluate whether you want to be with a man who doesn’t respect you or your feelings.

Related Link: Q&A: Should I Be Concerned About My Man’s Social Network Activity with Other Women?

Robert Manni, Guy’s Guy: Although I am not a big fan of poking around my partner’s online content, you’ve already opened Pandora’s Box. And now you have to do something about what you’ve discovered. Men are visual creatures, but when a guy is in a committed relationship, “liking” scores of scantily clad women online is not a great idea. Since you’ve been together for a few years, you can most likely chalk this behavior up to “checking out the menu without ordering.” But can you be sure? You’ve asked him to stop, yet he continues “liking” these women. My relationship advice is to ask him to curtail his behavior one more time. If he is deliberating doing something that bothers you, his priorities are out of order. At this point, if he won’t stop... maybe he has to go. Your call!

Dating Advice: 3 Types of Women Men Avoid

On this week's episode of Single in Stiletto's, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Nick Karson to offer their dating advice for those who aren't having the best luck in the dating world. Learn whether or not you fall into one of the three types of women that men tend to avoid. Follow these dating tips to get your love life back on track.

Dating Advice On Who Men Try To Avoid

1. Being bossy. Very few men find bossy or rude traits attractive. Men do like strong women, but not if she is self-centered and generally mean. There can't be a relationship if you're entitled and trying to rule everything. Mutual respect is always best.

Related Link: Dating Advice: How To Be Sexy On Date Night

2. Being needy. Insecurity and constant calling is usually a red flag. If you can't allow a man to have space, then he will most likely avoid a real relationship with you, especially if you're suspicious without reason. Being overly needing is overbearing. Take time to relax.

Related Link: Dating Advice for Women Over 40: Why He Didn't Call?

3. Being flirty. Men don't like women who are always seeking compliments from others. Men are territorial, so be careful how you receive and react to attention. The experts dating advice: It's disrespectful to be flirty or be perceived as flirty with other people in front of your man. Don't do what you wouldn't like done to you if the roles were reversed!

Relationship Advice: Keeping The Fireworks In Your Relationship

By Amy Osmond Cook for Divorce Support Center

“I wanna know what love is. I want you to show me.” The rock band Foreigner made that desperate request thirty-two years ago, and we are still wondering about the answer today. With summer romance in full swing, many are looking for relationship advice on how they can keep the fireworks flying in a relationship that is worth protecting. A common truth behind some of today’s most enduring relationships is that it takes work to keep that spark alive, and these four dating tips will help ensure your love is a total blast.

Relationship Advice On How To Keep The Spark Alive

1. Keep dating. Typically, a secure, committed relationship means we don't have to pay close attention to it, right? Wrong! Relationship experts stress that just the opposite is true. Marriage counselor Michele Weiner-Davis says that many times her clients can't recall the last time they spent any time alone together. "They are just not recognizing that romantic time with one another is what a relationship should be about—it should not just be the icing on the cake," she says.

Related Link: Have a Front Row Date Night to the Fireworks on a Circle-Line Cruise

2. Stay connected. A healthy relationship needs to be nurtured. That means your significant other needs to be reminded regularly that you are his or her number one fan. By using today's technology, you can drop a message to your main squeeze in any form. Be careful who is on the receiving end, however. UsMagazine.com reported on Kelly Ripa's experience sending a photo of her toned behind to her husband, Mark Consuelos. Unfortunately, the photo made its way to her in-laws' iPad instead. "My mother and father-in-law respond from their email and they're like, 'Dear Kelly, we are so proud of all your hard work,' she said. 'Your exercise classes are really paying off.'"

Related Link: Balance Work and Love Like a Celebrity Couple

3. Stay interested. When the relationship began, we wanted to know everything about our new love interest. As your relationship continues to progress and evolve, staying curious about what makes your partner tick keeps you both engaged in the relationship. "Romantic profundity embodies frequent acute occurrences of intense love over long periods of time, along with romantic experiences that meaningfully resonate in all dimensions, helping the individuals flourish and thrive in all dimensions of love," wrote relationship expert Aaron Ben-Zeev, Ph.D. In other words, the best relationship advice to follow is recognizing and celebrating the new, positive discoveries with your partner which will keep things hot in the relationship.

Related Link: Famous Couple Robert Pattinson and FKA Twigs Exchange Promise Rings

4. Do whatever it takes. When you have made up your mind that you are committed to this relationship, you will find the little things that often chip away at a marriage won't be a factor in yours. For example, actor Hugh Jackman and his wife, Deborra-Lee Furness, have made a promise to each other not to be apart for more than two weeks at a time. They have been together since 1996. The decision to stay committed early on will be the foundation when difficult times challenge the relationship. Since actor Dax Shepard opened up publicly about his personal struggles with addiction as a result of childhood abuse, his wife, Kristen Bell, has remained supportive of her husband and offers public support to others who live with mental illness and addiction. "Seeing the world through his eyes has really opened mine to knowing that it is a disease, and nobody is choosing to drink more than others. They are doing it because of a variety of reasons, and they deserve the attention of a mental health professional, and not the county jail or however else we're choosing to pretend we're fixing the problem," says Bell.

The secret dating advice behind a healthy relationship is that there is no secret. But it does require an understanding of what you want in a loving partner and an awareness of what you are willing to share. Then, by investing time in keeping private time a priority, being generous with loving gestures, staying curious about your partner, and being fully committed to the success of the relationship, you are destined for a lasting love that lights up the room.

Dating Advice: How To Be Sexy On Date Night

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Abiola Abrams to offer her dating advice on how to be sexy on your next date night.

Dating Advice On How To Be Sexy During Date Night

In order to be sexy on your next date, follow the experts dating advice and always bring a positive attitude. Instead of focusing on everything you don't want in a partner, focus on the positive things that have happened in your life. It's also important to smile, wear a form-fitting dress (but not too tight!), and walk with confidence. If you're confident in who you are and what you have to offer, then your date will find you sexy.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Taylor Swift, Chris Evans and Ariel Winter

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, three famous couples have caught the public's attention. Two of which are celebrity relationships that are just getting started, such as with Tom Hiddleston and Taylor Swift, and Chris Evans and Jenny Slate, while Ariel Winter, on the other hand, has decided to kiss her boyfriend goodbye. Who's stepping out in Hollywood this time around hand in hand? Join me as I look into the crystal ball of relationships and love. Below, I share my predictions for these celebrity couples.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last

Tom Hiddleston and Taylor Swift: Looks like Taylor Swift has bounced back quickly from her breakup with DJ Calvin Harris. The new man on her arm is Hollywood hottie, Tom Hiddleston. This coupling took many of us off guard and they are going hard into this relationship. Parents have been met on both sides and there are tons of public displays of affection. I would love to applaud this new celebrity couple, however I'm suspicious of the quick romance. There have been grumblings that it's a publicity stunt. Would Swift go so far as to have a fake romance? It's a known fact that Hiddleston gets around when it comes to the ladies. I wouldn't go so far as to call him a ladies man, but he trades in his lady friends very often. Swift is known for having a new boyfriend often as well, though that isn't necessarily her fault. She tends to get dumped by her boyfriends, so what's a girl to do? She gets back out there. While Hiddleston and Swift are all smiles, I'm not convinced that this relationship is the real thing. Time will tell if all of these photo ops equal a real celebrity relationship. At least they look like they are having fun which is what that matters the most.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Taylor Swift Caught Kissing Tom Hiddleston Two Weeks After Split

Chris Evans and Jenny Slate: Chris Evans has been rumored to be dating any woman in Hollywood that he says "hello" to, but it's safe to say that he has a new boo and her name is Jenny Slate. Evans must be into funny women because Slate is a comedic actress. The two of them just stepped out together on the red carpet for The Secret Life of Pets. In Hollywood terms, this means that the pair is officially dating. Slate is gushing over being with Evans. It's nice to see Evans finally in a stable celebrity relationship after speculation of who he's snuggling up with. He seems like a nice guy and would be a keeper for the right woman. Evans and Slate will probably last about 6-8 months, with Evans being the one to break-up. Slate will want to nest and settle down with Evans. What girl wouldn't? However, he doesn't look ready to settle down and do the wife and kid thing just yet. Slate is getting him ready for the next lady.

Ariel Winter and Laurent Claude Gaudette: Ariel Winter, the actress from Modern Family has broken up with boyfriend Laurent Claude Gaudette, yet again. These two have been on again and off for the past two years. Most recently, the pair has unfollowed each other on Instagram. When millennials do that, they mean business! On a serious note, Winter is finally done with this celebrity relationship. This whole romance has been exhausting. Gaudette will call Winter, but she won't answer. I see that she will be moving forward. Winter will be single for a few more months then she will find a new love with a man who is a little bit older than her. She needs someone who is more her equal than Gaudette. Had anyone heard of him before he was with Winter? She'll bounce back just fine from this break-up.

Dating Advice for Women Over 40: Why He Didn't Call?

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Wendy Newman to offer her dating advice for those who may be upset that their date hasn't called. Follow these dating tips to get over rejection fast and focus your energy on finding the one who is right for you.

Dating Advice On How To Handle Men Who Don't Call Back

1. Don't overthink it. Chances that you'll figure out why he didn't call is very slim. There could be a number of different reasons why he didn't call, but don't over-analyze and be critical of yourself to find out why it didn't work out.

2. Accept it. The fact that he hasn't called you back should serve as a sign that he isn't right for you. Don't try to force anything. If he was meant to be the right man for you, he would have called. Know your worth and accept that you have to move on.

Relationship Advice: The Pressure To Choose Friends Over Your Significant Other

By Lori Zaslow and Jennifer Zucher for Project Soulmate with contributing writer Christina Madera

You just won two tickets to see the Broadway play, Hamilton. You know your best friend has been dying to go but your boyfriend is an American history junkie who would really appreciate the production. Who do you choose? You love your best friend and you love your boyfriend, and they both love being around you. So really, why would you even want to choose? We determined the three main reasons women think they have to choose between their BFF and their boy-toy. Follow our relationship advice and dating advice to avoid any relationship problems.

Relationship Advice On How To Balance Time Between Your Best Friend And Boyfriend

1. Are you the absent-minded friend? Being in love is not just beautiful, it's exhilarating. You want to dedicate every second of your time with your lover because they make you feel content. But don't sacrifice your friendships for your significant other. Remember that your friends came before your boyfriend or girlfriend, and will probably be there after. You can't just run to them when your relationship has fallen into the abyss if you ignored them during the honeymoon period. Denying yourself of "me time" or girls night outs may lead to loss of lifelong friends, which may make your romantic relationship turn sour. Make a day in the week that's dedicated to your friends and only your friends. Get mani/pedis with your girls and talk about something other than your relationship. Let your friends know that there is still a 'you' even though you're apart of a 'we'. Enjoying time with your friends will help you avoid date night guilt that comes when spending a lot of time with your sweetheart.

2. Are you the mediator friend? If your friends don't like your significant other, there has to be a reason. And if your significant other doesn't fancy your friends, there's reasoning behind this as well. Sometimes we're blinded by love or friendship, that we cannot see when we're in a poisonous relationship. If this is the case, seek out other perspectives on the situation and improve your relationships with their relationship advice. In other cases, the feelings of distaste between friend and significant other surfaced after one has been dishonest. You've forgiven your friend or lover for something that the other won't overlook. If trust was broken, their relationship may need a healing period. But if time has passed and the relationship between your friends and significant other is still weak, try strengthening their relationship by reliving great memories you've all shared. Make time for your best friend and your boyfriend together! It doesn't have to be just the three of you from the start. Invite them to a barbecue or a game night so that they can interact with each other naturally without feeling pressured into it. If this is the person you'll potentially marry then your best friend will eventually warm up to him and vice versa.

3. Are you the ultimatum friend? If you've ever had anyone in your life utter these words, do yourself a favor and remove this person from your circle. Forcing someone to pick a side is selfish and inconsiderate. What they're asking is not for you to choose between them and another important person in your life. They're actually asking for you to decide between happiness and heartbreak. This request is extremely possessive and if you were to grant it, there would be an opening for manipulation. If your significant other doesn't like you hanging around a hazardous friend it's fair for them to let you know how they're feeling, but how they express it is most important. The decision to continue a friendship or not should ultimately be yours.

Your relationship with your friends and your boyfriend need equal maintenance. You don't want to be labeled as the girl who forgets their friends while in a relationship, the same way you wouldn't want your significant other to complain that they are neglected. But you don't want to be controlled by either. You need to water both of your relationships in order for them to grow while also pulling out the weeds that attempt to overpower you.
