Cupid's Advice:

Deciding how many children to have when building your family is an important decision. If you're wondering which factors to include when making your decision, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Consider the finances: One of the most obvious factors to consider when planning to have children is the financial aspect since raising a child is expensive. Many couples prefer to spend all of their money on their children. Decide if your preferred financial situation is more suitable for a big or small family.

2. Think about sibling dynamics: A lot of couples decide how many children they want to have based on the sibling dynamic. Figure out what dynamic will fit your family best.

1. Less time to agonize: Although most people like the extra time to plan, the truth is that it's one of the most stressful times of your life. If the clock is ticking, there is so much to do and so many choices to make. If you have extra time, that gives you the opportunity to change your mind constantly. It also gives you time to procrastinate. But, with less time, you have to make a decision and stick with it. It allows you to move on to the next step because there's no time to slow down.

With every addition to your family comes moments of excitement...and exhaustion. Still, after you welcome your first child, you should feel a bit more ready for future babies. So how do you prepare differently for a second child during pregnancy? Cupid has some ideas:

1. You have more hand-me-downs: Before your first baby was born, you were probably scouring the Internet for “must-haves” and stocking your home with all of the essentials: a crib, a changing table, a car seat, a stroller, clothes...the list goes on. Now, though, you should have plenty of hand-me-downs for your second child to use.

Three Hollywood Breakups That Offer a Lesson In How Not To Behave During Divorce

By Sheena Clarkson

While about half of all marriages end in divorce, in Hollywood the rate is undoubtedly higher. We look to celebrities to see the latest trends in everything from hairstyles and designer shoes to baby strollers and exercise regimes. But when it comes to breakups, stars aren't always the greatest role models.

If you're facing a difficult breakup, take a lesson in dealing with lost love from a few celebs that handled it less than famously.

Kim Basinger and Alec Baldwin

At the center of this couple's divorce was a bitter child custody battle. Kim claimed to have been victim to physical and emotional abuse during the marriage. Meanwhile, Alec tried to discredit his estranged wife by portraying her as moody and unstable.

What really turned up the spotlight on this nasty divorce was when a voicemail was leaked to the press in which Alec, in an angry rant, referred to his 11-year-old daughter as a "thoughtless little pig". It was the voicemail heard 'round the entertainment world, and resulted in a judge ordering that Baldwin be temporarily banned from seeing his child.

Lesson: Don't let frustration toward your ex spill onto your kids.

Liza Minnelli and David Gest

Having been married and divorced 4 times, Liza is one celeb who could single-handedly affect Hollywood divorce statistics. Though their marriage officially lasted about five years, after the first year of marriage the couple separated and things got messy fast.

Gest hurled accusations and lawsuits at Minnelli, suing the Oscar-winning actress for verbal and physical abusive, even claiming she had given him an STD. Though David Gest hurled a slew of allegations in the courts, the whole ordeal ended with his case being dismissed.

Lesson: Toss the dirty laundry out with the relationship.

Denise Richards and Charlie Sheen

Nowadays, the name Charlie Sheen is pretty much synonymous with traits that are big red flags to most marriage-seeking women. Egomaniac? Check. Self-described porn-addict? Check. Drug and alcohol problems? Check, check. It probably doesn't come as much of a surprise that Sheen also has difficulty handling rejection.

When the couple split after three years of marriage Richards accused Sheen of being abuse, unfaithful, and an addict. Charlie responded with a string of voicemails and emails that make Alec Baldwin's post breakup rant sound cordial in comparison. In a message leaked to the press, Sheen calls Richards a "sad, jobless pig" and even makes fun of Richards' cancer stricken mother.

Lesson: Don't resort to personal attacks.

There's no getting around it, love has the potential to make us all a little crazy. But if you skip the angry voicemail in favor of some healthy self-reflection you'll rebound from heartache as a stronger, happier person.

What are some ways to announce your pregnancy without words?

Cupid's Advice:

Announcing your pregnancy can be challenging; how to do it, who to tell, not forgetting to leave people out. To announce your pregnancy without words, you need to think creatively. Telling people about your pregnancy is one of the most memorable times of your life and doing it without words is harder. Cupid has some advice:

1. Baby bump: Many mothers have been told that they were pregnant before they even announced that they were expecting. This isn't always bad! If you're looking to announce your pregnancy without words, flaunt your baby bump! Wear tight clothes purposefully around your friends and family. You won't have to tell numerous people you and your mate are expecting because they'll ask you!

2. Facebook: There are many ways to announce your pregnancy on Facebook. Obviously, there is the typical status stating "We're pregnant!" or "The long wait is over, we're expecting!" Announcing your pregnancy without words is more innovative. Post a picture of your positive pregnancy test, post a picture of you and your beau with a can of Prego. One of you can hold a sign saying "We are..." and then the other holds the tomato sauce can. Quirky, fun, and easy to do!

3. Send out sonogram: This is an extremely quirky and light way to announce your pregnancy. You can either take a picture of the sonogram and post it online, or email it to your friends and family. Or, you can make copies of the sonogram and send it in the mail to your family and friends, inscribing on the back, "I think this explains enough." Everyone will love the creative idea and gesture of informing them about your baby on the way!

Did you announce your pregnancy without words? Explain below!

A source tells People, "[They] were married at St. Patrick's Old Cathedral in New York City with family and friends sharing in the joy of the occasion," one of those friends being Baldwin's costar Tina Fey. How do you decide whether to take your husband's name after marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

You've lived with your last name your entire life, so it might be time to move forward and change it for you and your partners' sake. Here are some ways to know that taking your husband's name after marriage is the right decision:

It's your own decision: The pressure from your husband, the new in-laws and everyone around you can be too much to bear. If you want to take your husband's name, it should be because you believe it's a symbol of your commitment, not because you feel obligated due to pressure from everyone else.

It won't offend your birth family: Some family names hold heavier history and meaning than others, so taking your new husband's name can cause controversy. If this is not the case, there is no reason you shouldn't take your husband's last name. You can even hyphenate if you feel uncomfortable abandoning your maiden name.

There is no reason not to: If you do not want to take your husband's last name because your signature doesn't look as good as your maiden name did, think again. Not taking your husband's name for petty reasons can cause him to question your love and commitment.

How did you decide you were going to take your husband's name? Tell us below.

"He had his hands all over [her] the entire night," an eyewitness said. Another insider stated that Baldwin is committed to staying single, but his being so public with Thomas "makes me think it might be a little more serious."

How do you prioritize when it comes to a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It may be challenging to make time for your loved ones, but it's important to do so. If you aren't sure how to prioritize when it comes to your relationship, here are some tips:

1. Schedule one day: Your job is important to you, but so is your significant other. By spending at least a day or several hours in a week solely with your honey, it'll show them how much they mean to you.

2. Lunch or dinner: If it's difficult to spend a day or more than a few hours with your partner in a week, try to schedule a time that's suitable for both of you to have lunch or dinner together.

3. Family: Spending quality time with your family is equally important as spending it with your mate. Find time to have several get-togethers with all of your loved ones.
