Cupid's Advice:

A new relationship is always exciting! You might be tempted to tell everyone in your life about your new love, but there are some benefits to keeping a new relationship private. If you're not sure if keeping a new relationship under wraps is for you, Cupid has some advice:

1. You can connect on a deeper level: Keeping your new relationship private gives you and your partner a chance to establish your relationship. There's a lot of learning to do at the start of a relationship and keeping it private will allow the two of you to create a strong foundation.

2. There's less pressure: One way to have privacy in a relationship is to keep it off social media. This prevents people from having expectations about your relationship. This will keep the relationship between the two of you and away from those who aren't rooting for your happiness.

3. It will end cleanly: Relationships are always a shot in the dark and they don't always work out. If your new relationship wasn't built to last, keeping it private will make it easier to move on. You can rely on your inner circle without having it questioned by outsiders.
