What are some things to consider when you're dating an older man?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding genuine love is hard and so is finding someone you connect with. Love can come in all shapes and forms. If you found love with someone older it doesn't make your love any less important or significant. However, no matter who you are with there are going to be challenges. Cupid has some advice on things to consider when you're in a relationship with an older man:

1. Does he have children: One of the biggest things to consider before getting involved with an older man is does he have kids? Kids aren't necessarily a bad thing, but you will have to understand him having kids probably means he will want to devote a lot of time and attention to them. You need to ask yourself if you are okay and willing to become a part of an already established families life.

You might miss out on sharing certain "firsts" together, so ask yourself if you are okay with that.

Ashley Olsen and Boyfriend David Schulte Call It Quits

By Brittany Stubbs

It looks like Ashley Olsen is back on the market. Several sources confirm that she and David Schulte have split up after dating for a little less than a year. "He was a great guy and cute, but it didn't work out," a source shares with UsMagazine.com. Despite her relationship with Schulte, CEO of luxury eyewear brand Olive Peoples, the Olson twin has kept her personal life pretty private, and her rep had no comment regarding the breakup.

What are some ways to tell it's time to call it quits on a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everything is meant to last forever. In fact, some relationships are just ticking time bombs. Here's when you know it's time to say goodbye:

1. There is no trust in your relationship: Lack of trust can destroy a relationship. Whether it's rooted from consistent lies, or infidelity from the past, without trust, there's no healthy future for the two of you as a couple.

2. Everyday is a different battle: If your relationship has gotten to the point where it's just one fight after another, it might be a sign it's time to move on. Granted, every couple has their conflicts here and there, but if you're no longer seeing eye to eye on anything and tensions are high anytime you're in the same room, step back and reevaluate.

3. You no longer communicate: Whether far apart or in the same room, if you're no longer communicating with one another, you've lost one of the most essential aspects of your relationship. You need to either find a way to reconnect and begin communicating again, or call it quits, because without communication, your relationship can't move forward (successfully, at least).

How have you known it's time to call it quits? Share your experiences below.

Ashley Olsen and Justin Bartha Split

Ashley Olsen is a single celebrity again, according to UsMagazine.com. The former Full House star and current fashion designer split with her boyfriend of two years, actor Justin Bartha. Sources say The Hangover star was planning to propose to Olsen five months ago. Also, the couple was caught loft-hunting three months ago. Despite these things, one of Bartha's friends insists the relationship is over.

How do you know when a relationship has run its course?

Cupid's Advice:

It's tough to figure out when your Facebook status should be set to "it's complicated" versus "single." Cupid has a few suggestions in figuring out which to go with:

1. There are still feelings there: If the two of you still have emotions churning, maybe you both just need some space to think things through.

2. You run in the same crowd: Think of Ross and Rachel in Friends. They never distanced themselves from each other and in the end, after much anticipation, they got back together. This may be a similar situation for you and your partner if you have mutual close friends.

3. There's no future: If you don't see what you have going anywhere down the road, then perhaps it's time to call it quits and start living the single life.
