Cupid's Advice:

Having a child can be a large adjustment for any relationship, especially one that is relatively new. If you are looking for some ways to prepare a newer relationship for a baby, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Balance responsibility: There is a lot of planning and preparation that comes with expecting a child. Be sure that these responsibilities are balanced between you and your partner. While one of you may be responsible for getting the nursery ready, the other may take on the task of baby-proofing the kitchen. Balancing these types of responsibilities is a great way to get both of you involved and excited about the child you are having.

2. Discuss expectations: Having a child can drastically change the dynamic of a relationship, so discussing future expectations is a must. Topics such as child care plans, living situations, and the future of your relationship are important to have early on to avoid conflict later. If you and your partner have different expectations, find ways to work through them and compromise for the benefit of your future child.

3. Continue relationship growth: Even though you may be focused on preparing for your child, it is still important to prioritize the growth of your relationship. Continue to go on dates and spend time together that does not revolve around child-preparation activities. This will show your partner that you view them as equally important to your future child and get them excited about becoming a family!

Cupid’s Advice:

Even if we are not planning on going on a dating television show, it is still possible to find love in unconventional settings. However, these settings may cause us to feel closed off or skeptical. If you are looking for some ways to find love in an unusual setting, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Drop preconceived ideas: When we find ourselves in a new setting, we often have preconceived ideas about what the people and experiences will be like once we arrive. In order to give the idea of finding love a fair chance, it is important to get rid of those preconceptions. Having a clean slate and open mind is the best way to find love in unusual situations.

2. Don't force anything: Sometimes when approaching a situation with the hope of finding love, we may unintentionally feel ourselves trying to force a connection. Even in unusual settings, it is better to let things progress naturally. Make sure that the person you are finding interest in is someone you would want present in your normal life as well, and not simply the best option out of the people around you.

3. Take advantage of your time there: Whether your unusual setting is a business trip or simply your local gym, it is important to take advantage of the time you have there. If you are looking to find love, use every opportunity to talk to the people around rather than waiting for them to approach you. By using your time wisely, you'll open as many doors as possible for potential bonds.

Celebrity Break-Up: Victoria Fuller Says She & Chris Soules Split Due to Geography

By Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelor Nation stars Victoria Fuller and Chris Soules called off their relationship due to geographical reasons. According to UsMagazine.com, Fuller was not ready to move to Iowa and join Soules on his farm. The two had been traveling to see each other since April of this year, but were ultimately unable to reach a decision on where to settle down together. While the pair agreed to a celebrity

break-up, they have reportedly been staying in contact with each other.

In celebrity break-up news, Victoria and Chris split due to location. What do you do if you're in a long distance relationship and can't agree on a place to live together eventually?

Cupid's Advice:

Distance can be one of the most difficult factors of a relationship to navigate. Whether someone is a long car ride away or only accessible by plane, the challenge of seeing each other can have a toll on the relationship. If you are looking for ways to overcome the challenges of distance as a couple, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Meet in the middle: One of the main reasons people do not want to uproot their life and move is because they are familiar with their current surroundings. It can be difficult to convince a person to leave their family and friends and move to a completely new place where they only know one person. But if both partners are willing to meet someplace in the middle, it would allow both of them to remain closer to home and to each other.

2. Continue to travel: If the impending distance does not need to be resolved right away, then continue your current travel methods. Circumstances and priorities may change after a period of time, and the two of you may eventually reach a point of agreement on where to finally settle down together.

3. Be honest with yourself: If you and your partner have had multiple conversations about the distance and there has been no compromise on either side, it might be time to consider the alternative of breaking-up. Breaking-up does not mean that the relationship failed, it simply means that the two people involved are progressing in different directions. In this case it may be two different geographical locations.
