Cupid's Advice:

Starting a new relationship is leaves you feeling warm inside and eager to rush into your relationship. If you're looking for ways to ease into a new relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Try new things together: When you're taking it slow, you have all the time in the world to actually enjoy dating. That's because you're probably going on more legit dates with your person, so you have more opportunities to make them fun and exciting, not dinner and a movie. And trying something new together can place you both in a position where you're newbies to the activity, and you can bond over how 'out of place' or natural the new activity feels.

1. Take it slow: Once you get into a new relationship after a recent split you want to make sure that you're taking this slow and steady. By Katie Sotack

In celebrity news, Bachelor alum, Arie Luyendyk Jr, and wife Lauren Burnham are putting up a united front when it comes to their child. Celebrity parent Lauren left her one week old home for a luncheon with her sister. Social media users attacked, claiming Lauren left baby Alessi too fast, but Arie has come to his wife's defense. According to UsMagazine.com, the star responded that it was his idea and "[t]o all the negative comments regarding leaving her with grandma for a 45min lunch, cut her some slack!”

In celebrity news, Arie is coming to the defense of his wife’s parenting decision. Why is providing a unified front as parents so important?

Cupid’s Advice:

Parenting is hard enough as it is. If partners aren’t on the same page publicly, it leaves room for all the nosy nobodies who claim to know better for your baby. A unified front is essential to a clear message for both your child and others. Here are some ways to hone that message:

1. Back your baby mama/daddy: It’s important to demonstrate agreement in front of others and have each other’s backs. Even if you’re not 100% sold on their decision leave that discussion for a more private time.

2. Confess to disagreeing (behind closed doors): No couple sees child care the same way all the time. Have an honest discussion with your partner about compromising on the way to raise your kid and what you want for them in life.

3. Share your observations: Talk about the time spent caring for your children and what you’ve observed about them. As different people you’ll likely pick up on different aspects of what the kids’ need. By sharing this with your partner you’ll merge perspectives and have an easier time finding common ground.

Cupid’s Advice:

Being in a new relationship is a fun and exciting time, although you might not want it announced on The Today Show.

Here are a few ways you can announce your new status to family and friends:

1. Through a phone call: Texting can be easy, but we so rarely think to make an announcement by calling our family or friends. Make a few phone calls to the people you care about most to let them know you're dating someone!

But, wait a while to announce it – some studies show that couples who wait at least three months to announce their relationship online have a better chance of staying together.

In the latest celebrity couple and celebrity wedding news, Arie Luyendyk and Lauren Burnham have tied the knot in a Twilight: Breaking Dawn-themed wedding. According to US Weekly, Burnham's wedding dress was a stunning sleeveless gown with floral embellishments. The ‘Bachelor’ alum celebrity wedding was stunning! What are some ways you can have an equally glamorous wedding without the cost?

Cupid’s Advice:

You can have your own themed wedding too! Even if you haven’t chosen a wedding planner, Cupid thinks these ideas are super fun and cost-effective:

1. Don’t be afraid to geek out: Are you a Star Wars and Legos fan? If you’re going for a galactic-themed wedding, use Legos to make your wedding cake topper. If you or your future spouse have Legos from the Star Wars Line, you can have tons of fun sorting through bricks and mini light-sabers together to make a cake topper that represents you both. You can also have your hair done like Princess Leia on your special day!

2. Go for `something simpler: Okay, so maybe you don’t want to take your wedding theme off of Earth. Instead, you want your own Twilight inspired wedding. You don’t need to spend an arm and a leg on candles and lace for the bride and groom table. Go to a craft store and buy some lace to put across the table and, if you live in a rural area, let nature be the backdrop for your wedding photos.

3. Be a bargain shopper bride: You don’t have to have the most in-style wedding dress right now for your special day. Absolutely make sure you love it before you buy it, but make certain you're aware of your budget and don't shy away from a deal. Also, keep the bridesmaids in mind if you're going to buy their dresses. Dress shops are bound to have dresses on clearance as long as your girls are willing to be flexible. The shoes don't even have to be from the dress shop either. Discount shoe stores sometimes have buy-one, get-one-free: take advantage.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Becca Kufrin Feels 'Sick' When She Finds Out Colton Underwood Dated Friend Tia Booth

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, Bachelorette Becca Kufrin said she felt “sick” after finding out contestant Colton Underwood dated her friend and former Bachelor contestant Tia Booth. On the second week of Kufrin’s season of The Bachelorette, there was already plenty of drama, including when the former NFL player told Kufrin on a group date that he had a short-lived relationship with Booth. According to People.com, on the show, Underwood told Kufrin about his time with her friend in January, “We had a weekend together and we had a good time, but for me the timing wasn’t right to grow what was a spark into a flame. If my feelings were strong enough, I wouldn’t have came on [the show]. I think that from what I know of you, we could build something awesome. We could have the time. Whereas it wasn’t there, moving forward, with her.” Kufrin was shocked by the news, telling the former San Diego Chargers player “I’m not going to lie – I don’t know how I feel about it. “It makes me feel a little bit sick. I’m very attracted to you, I really like where our conversation was on night one and I feel like we had a lot in common, but it’s a very tricky situation. It puts me in a very strange position. It’s just a lot to take in right now.” By the end of the episode, Kufrin did end up giving Underwood a rose, but the issue clearly won’t be put to rest. Next week, it was revealed Booth will appear on the show alongside Kufrin’s other Bachelor girl friends.

In this celebrity news, The Bachelorette is already drama-filled after only the second episode. What are some things to consider before dating a friend’s ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Dating a friend’s ex is a tricky situation. Cupid has some tips to help you decide whether or not you should do it:

1. Is your friend over it?: Before dating your friend’s ex, it’s important to assess how your friend feels about the old relationship. If your pal is still devastated by the break-up and harbors feelings for their former partner, dating their ex would likely really hurt their feelings. Along with this, it’s important a lot of time has passed between when you start dating this person and when your friend dated them.

2. It’s worth it: If you’re considering dating a friend’s ex, you should make sure you truly see a future with him or her. 3. You have your friend's blessing: After contemplating whether or not to date your friend's ex, the best thing you can do to give yourself peace of mind is just to talk to your friend. See how they feel about you having a romance with their ex. If they are okay with it, then that's great! If they aren't, you should consider their feelings about the situation strongly.
