By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity baby news, Bachelor in Paradise's Jade Roper and Tanner Tolbert share their baby boy's name two days after his emergency home birth. On August 1, Roper revealed her baby's name on Instagram saying, "Say hello to Brooks Easton Tolbert!" According to UsMagazine.com, this celebrity couple welcomed their baby boy into the world on July 29th at their home.

In celebrity baby news, Jade & Tanner finally revealed their newborn son's name. What are some ways to compromise with your partner on baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're expecting a child one of the hardest decisions to make can sometimes be coming up with a name you and your partner agree on. It's an important decision, and one you cannot change once it's been made. It can often mean compromises on both sides to come to an agreement. Cupid has some advice on ways to compromise with your partner on baby names:

1. Create a list: You and your partner can begin by each creating a list of baby names that you like. Compare your list and pick out any names you both put down. From there, you can work through the names each of you like to make your decision.

2. Family names: Family names can often be a sticking point when one of you has a name you are set on passing down to your child. If one of you has a family name you really want to use consider using it as a middle name as a compromise. This way the name gets incorporated without being the name used for your child every day.

3. Find a common theme: If you are having trouble narrowing down a name, start with coming up with a theme you both agree on. Maybe you both know you want a unique name, or you can agree you want your baby to have a traditional name. It isn't the final name but it is a good starting point that can help you get there and come up with a name you can both agree on.

Celebrity News : 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Speaks Out About Jed After Finale

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown ended her engagement to Jed Wyatt. Five weeks after their engagement, Brown was heartbroken to find out that her relationship with Wyatt began with lies when she discovered he had a girlfriend when he first entered the show. According to People.com, Brown said finding out Wyatt hadn't been honest was "heartbreaking" and that by being dishonest "he hurt [her] worse than anybody else did."

In celebrity news, Hannah wasn't willing to settle once she found out Jed had been dishonest with her. What are some ways to know your partner is lying to you?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, happy ever after is no longer in their future. Wyatt's dishonesty broke Brown's heart and left her unable to forgive him for the hurt he caused her. It is never good when you find out that someone you love has lied to you. Cupid has some advice to help you know when your partner is lying to you:

1. They say they never lie: Anyone who tells you that they never lie is lying to you. It is common for everyone to tell little white lies from time to time. Sometimes these kind of lies are okay because they are meant to protect someone's feelings or something of that nature. Getting caught in a small lie like that wouldn't have any real consequences. We all tell these kinds of lies, so an honest partner would have no reason to insist they never lie at all.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Releases Intimate Details in Front of Peter's Mom!

2. Lack of eye contact: One of the tell-tale signs of lying that is upheld as true by science is when someone refuses to make eye contact. If your partner is normally someone who makes eye contact with you when you're talking, and now they are avoiding that eye contact it is a good indicator they aren't being honest about something.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: 'Vanderpump Rules' Stars Tom Schwartz & Katie Maloney Get Official Marriage License in Vegas 2 Years After Wedding

3. They accuse you of lying: One of the oldest tricks in the books is to try to get the focus off them by pointing their finger at you. Your partner might accuse you of lying or cheating out of the blue. This blame game is often a way to try to justify their own dishonest actions.

Parenting Advice: Tips to Get

Your Child Talking

By Bonnie Griffin

Kids are full of questions. We can sometimes find ourselves tired of giving them answers, especially when they ask the same question more than once. However tiresome the endless questions may be, it's actually good that they are asking questions and they should be encouraged to ask even more. According to Parents.com "When you answer your child's questions, you help keep your child's mind open, says author and parenting expert Michele Borba, Ed.D." This parenting advice will help you get your kids talking and help them use their imaginations and satisfy their need to learn.

Parenting Advice: Ask your kids questions to keep them talking.

Teaching your child to talk doesn't have to be all work. It can be fun for both of you. The main important part is to just get your kids talking so they can mimic your words and patterns and continue to learn and grow. Cupid has some parenting tips when it comes to some ways to get your kids talking more:

1. Ask them open-ended questions: You want to get their minds and imagination working and open-ended questions are a great way to do that. Instead of asking them yes or no questions, ask them questions that require a more elaborate answer. Ask them questions that will make them think and talk more. You can ask them what they like to daydream about, or what makes them happy. If they give a short answer prompt them to elaborate.

Related Link: Parenting Tips: Taking Care of Yourself Helps You Take Care of Your Kids

2. Parent-Kid Activities: Life is busy and sometimes we feel like we don't have enough time in the day to do everything we need. It's important that we make time to be with our kids because they learn much of their words and behaviors from us. If we just sit around on our smartphones that is what they will mimic. Set aside time every night to do an activity with your child. Working together on a puzzle, or playing an easy game of go-fish is a good way to break into conversation with your child and get them talking.

Related Link: Parenting Tips: Keep Your Kids Safe Online

3. Listen and participate: When your child starts asking you a hundred questions, don't blow them off. It only takes a few minutes to engage them when they want to ask questions, and showing them you are interested in what they have to say will only prompt them to talk even more and ask more questions which are a good thing. It not only helps them learn to talk and open their imaginations but sets the precedent that you are there to listen and help them learn and that is equally important in their development.

Encouraging questions and asking questions of your own are great ways to get your children talking. Let us know your thoughts about getting your young children to talk in the comments below.

This celebrity engagement has been a long time coming! How do you know when you're ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity couple took their time falling in love and enjoying their lives together before deciding to get engaged.

There are no rules that say that you have to get engaged or married at a certain point in a relationship. Maybe you just want to enjoy your lives together without the pressure of what society thinks you should do like Irwin and Powell, or maybe you just want to take your time before making a lifetime commitment. Cupid has some advice to help you know when you're ready for marriage:

1. You know yourself: Before you tie yourself to another person for life it's important to be confident in the person you are. According to MyDomaine.com, therapist Kimberly Hershenson, LMSW, says, "A successful marriage is more likely if both partners feel secure independently and are able to work as a team moving forward." One way to help you learn yourself is to experience independence. That may mean being single a while, living on your own, or being financially independent.

2. You include your partner in future plans: When you think about your future do you automatically envision your partner there with you? If so then you might be ready for marriage. It does, however, mean you consider them when you're thinking about or planning the important, meaningful events in your future.

3. You are okay with the fact it won't just be about you anymore: As an adult, you might be set in your ways. When you find a partner and you know you're ready to get married you will understand that you must learn to put their wants and needs ahead of your own at times. You may have to compromise on things you've gotten used to on your own, but you are okay with that because you want a life with your partner.

Parenting Advice: Plan To Fail and Be Okay With It

By Bonnie Griffin

If there is one thing about parenting is certain, it's that nobody is perfect; not us and not even our children as much as we love them. We're all human and being human means we will make mistakes, but we need to slow down and realize it's okay to fail. Children are growing and learning. They might not meet your expectations on the first try. Admit it—you have experienced moments like this in your own life you learned from. See this as an opportunity for growth instead of failure. Instead of stressing out about mistakes you or your child might make, follow these parenting tips keep small failures from turning into something big, and help your child grow into a contributing, responsible person.

We all learn from mistakes. Here are some parenting tips on how to handle your child's.

Sometimes you're going to zig when you later realize you should have zagged. Sometimes your children are going to forget or choose not to do their homework or drop a dish when helping clean the kitchen. It is all a way to learn and grow that will make you a great parent, and your children grow into a responsible adult. Cupid has parenting advice and parenting tips on accepting those failures with ways to help your children learn from them so they can grow into intelligent, good people:

1. Learn from mistakes: Just like you learn from mistakes at work and throughout life, you will learn from mistakes as a parent. You may learn a better schedule, etc. Like you, your children can also learn from mistakes. Instead of stepping in to help them smooth out every mistake they might make, let them make them.

You Take Care of Your Kids

2. Rules of homework: Getting our children to do their homework isn't always easy. In fact, it can be really hard, and mistakes might get made. Remember, it is up to you to help set them up for success but don't do their homework for them. Provide them with a quiet, phone-free environment, and give them the tools they need. If they wait until the last night to do their science project even though they had the tools necessary to complete it, don't jump in and do it for them. They will learn to prepare and use their time more wisely the next time.

3. Teach them kindness: Kids can be mean. It's something we hear often, but it's something that makes it all that more important that. # Parenting Tips: Lifestyle Changes for Better Behavior

By Bonnie Griffin

We all love our children and would do anything for them, but that doesn't mean getting them to behave in the best way is always an easy task. As a parent, you want the best for your child and part of this includes teaching them appropriate behaviors so they grow into productive and good people. Luckily, if your children have behavioral issues, we have some parenting tips to help you develop better your children's behavior.

Here are parenting tips to help improve your child's behavior.

Raising your children is a full-time gig, and the most important job you will ever have. Sometimes it seems like the hardest job in the world it's because you love your children and are dedicated to them. Parenting is a 24/7 job which doesn't end after the workday. Your children won't always behave the way you want or expect. Cupid has parenting advice on lifestyle choices to help with nurturing your children so they behave better:

1. Routines: Children thrive on routines. Make sure you have a strictly set routine for important parts of the day like mornings, breakfast, school, after school, dinner, and bedtime. That doesn't mean you have to dictate to your kids exactly what the routine has to be comprised of, it means you can work together to make a routine; allow them to give input and come up with a routine together.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: Tips to Leave in the Past

2. Daily one-on-one time: The one thing that will have the best effect on your children's behavior is spending quality time with them individually. They have an emotional need to feel connected with you as their parent and need positive attention or they will seek out your attention other ways. This often means they will act out negatively because they see negative attention as better than no attention.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: Cooking Fun with Your Kids

3. Sleep is important: When you're tired you feel sluggish and cranky. So do your children. Children and teenagers need more sleep to keep up with all the energy their growing bodies require.

4. Find opportunities to say yes: Children have lots of questions, they want to go everywhere and see everything which means saying no a lot. To counter the negative tone that can be set every time they hear the word no, find ways to say yes. Make a compromise and help them notice you are trying to help them find their way in life and with their friends. The more positive reactions they get from you the more positive their behavior will be in return.

5. Look for the source: When children misbehave it's usually because some underlying issue is bothering them. Take a look at the big picture and try to address the real issue causing the poor behavior.

What are some ways you redirect misbehavior in your children? Let us know in the comments below.

Parenting Trend: The Science Behind Baby Fever

By Bonnie Griffin

Whenever you see a cute new baby cooing you might feel a profound sense of “baby fever,” or a desire to have a baby of your own. Baby fever is often passed off as a fleeting thought, and people don’t often think of this thought as an emotion, but science shows that it is as real as any other emotion you may experience. Baby fever may feel stronger under different circumstances, like when you see a happy baby, or a bit more faint when you are around a crying baby or unhappy child.

Parenting Trend: Baby fever is an emotion as real as any other.

Every time you see a baby, or you get on social media and all your friends are posting pictures of their children, you feel a sudden need to have a baby of your own. A desire to hold a tiny life in your arms and nurture and love them. This is a natural part of life and real emotion that most people experience throughout their lives. The number one factor is often simply being exposed to babies being cute. Let’s take a look at this parenting trend and check out some of the reasons why people get baby fever:

1. Peer pressure: Peer pressure plays a role in people’s emotions causing feelings of baby fever. When we reach adulthood and many of our friends and family members are having babies, they often begin to hint, or outright say that it is time for us to do the same. Family members may often add to this feeling of pressure to have children, like parents insisting it is time for you to make them a grandparent with plenty of parenting advice.

Related Link: Parenting Trend: Weighted Blankets

2. Society: Society has certain “norms” we all feel pressured to meet from time to time. Once you reach a certain age or you get married it is as if you feel this invisible weight on your shoulders saying you should take certain next steps, and one of those steps is having a baby. Your subconscious can play into this need to meet societal norms with feelings of baby fever.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: Tips to Leave in the Past

3. Biological clock: Women have a finite time to have children before it becomes difficult. Our bodies have a biological clock that reminds us when we're ready for kids. Baby fever is sometimes our body's way of saying it is time for us to have our own babies before the opportunity passes us by. It can also be a combination between our biological clock reminding us that it is time to pass on our genes, and cultural influences telling us we need to have children.

Let us know some of the things that make you feel baby fever in the comments below.

Celebrity Parents: Struggling with Postpartum and Recovery Tips

By Bonnie Griffin

When you have a baby it's the happiest time of your life... until it's not. Many mothers struggle with a sense of extreme sadness and depression after giving birth. It may feel like you're all alone, and like you need to hide your feelings and pretend to be happy even if that's not what you're feeling but it's not. Celebrity parents like Katy Perry and Serena Williams are speaking out about their battle with postpartum depression. It's nothing to be ashamed of because it is very real for many new mothers.

Parents, you're not alone. Even celebrity parents struggle with postpartum.

According to People.com, celebrity parents like Katy Perry, Serena Williams, and Alyssa Milano are helping to shed some light on the reality of postpartum depression. Williams opened up saying, "Sometimes I still think I have to deal with it, ...

I think people need to talk about it more because it's almost like the fourth trimester, it's part of the pregnancy." These celebrities are helping shed light on the fact that postpartum is not something to be ashamed of; it is a natural part of giving birth and the first step to beginning to feel better is to accept it is natural and you don't need to hide. Here are some recovery parenting tips for dealing with postpartum depression:

1. Respond to your child's needs: Build a bond with your baby. That may seem like a lot when you're feeling like you're stuck in sadness and darkness, but take it one step at a time. You build a bond by meeting your baby's needs. When they cry, pick them up, have skin-to-skin contact, sing to them, anything as long as you're interacting with them in a positive manner. As your bond grows between you and your baby it will help you both to feel more secure and help you feel better, too.

Related Link: Parenting Trend: Baby Led Weaning

2. Take care of yourself: It can be easy to get lost of taking care of your baby instead of taking care of yourself after giving birth. This can be further exasperated if you're suffering from postpartum depression. Take your vitamins, and make sure you are sleeping when the baby sleeps. Ask your friends and family for help so you can get some time to yourself to pamper yourself and make sure you're getting enough sleep. Get outside and get some sunshine because it can positively impact your mood.

Related Link: Parenting Tips: Apply Research to the Practice of Parenting

3. Use your support network: Loneliness can make your postpartum feel worse, and leave you feeling lost in the dark. Reach out to your friends and family for support when you're lonely.
