According to UsWeekly.com, Poturalski was presented with an array of comments on one of her Instagram posts after captioning the image "Happy people don't hate," followed by three heart emojis. In celebrity news, Brad Pitt's girlfriend is keeping things classy when it comes to her beau's ex. How do you deal with lingering drama with your partner's ex?

Cupid's Advice:

When beginning or continuing a relationship with your current partner, the last thing anyone wants to face is drama associated with their ex. While you may want to believe that none of the rumors are true, it can be difficult to stop them from affecting your relationship. If you are looking for ways to deal with lingering drama with your partner's ex, Cupid has some advice for you.

1. Listen to your partner: Your partner cannot control the way their ex acts after their relationship has ended. Rather than focusing on whatever it is that their ex is saying, pay more attention to the way your partner is speaking and acting. If he or she is not paying attention to any lingering drama, then neither should you.

2. Limit their access: In a world where everything we do ends up online, it can be beneficial to limit someone's access to you. If a person can't see what you are doing, then they can't start any real drama!

3. Stand your ground: Unfortunately, sometimes people can be relentless and turning a blind-eye to the drama will only work for so long. Cupid's Advice:

Ending a marriage can be hard, especially when there are children involved. The separation might be a good thing for both parties, but it can be emotionally draining. There's not one right answer to how to handle yourself after the divorce. Cupid has steps you can take to move on immediately after a split:

1. Take some time to heal: Everyone handles a break-up differently, but we all can agree that we will miss the good times that we had with our partner once its over. It takes time to adjust to this new lifestyle. Don't rush into a new relationship just because you want to get over your partner. Taking things slow will be better to handle the process.

2. Ask for some space: Having people constantly asking you about how your divorce is going will not make it any better. Find a decent way to tell them that you are okay, and that you need your privacy at this time. This also can be used for family members. You might not be ready to tell everyone how you're really feeling. If you have children, spend more time with them. The younger ones will have a harder time understanding what is happening.

3. Find yourself again: Sometimes when we're in a relationship for so long, we forget what it feels like to do things by ourselves. Love & Libations: Fall For Celebrity Wines This Autumn

By Yolanda Shoshana

Pumpkin spice lattes are great, but wait, it's time to get wines for autumn. 'Tis the season for snuggling, cuddling, and binge-watching your favorite shows with a libation to sip and savor. What this means is that it's time to stock up on wine. Have a good supply so that you are ready for crisp cold nights and snowstorms. Plus, you never know when Netflix is going to drop a new surprise show on a Friday night.

Celebrate Fall With These Autumn Worthy Wines

Here are some wine picks to enjoy doing this autumn season:

Gerard Depardieu Chateau de Tigne Anjou Rogue

It's no secret that actor and bon vivant, Gerard Depardieu, loves wine. He once admitted that he drank 14 bottles of wine a day. I would never challenge him to a drinking game, no way would I survive. Depardieu owns several vineyards with one of his most well-known being Chateau de Tigne in the Loire Valley, France. The red wine from this winery is the way to go while you are enjoying comfort food or after a long day at work.

It's the kind of wine that's good with most meals, enjoyed with a pizza or burger. The bonus is that it's very affordable. Don't forget to have it while watching, Marseille, starring Depardieu. It's the first French web series by Netflix. It's so bad it's good. Not to mention, very sexy at times. Of course, the women wear the sexiest French lingerie which is perfect for your own boudoir ideas.

Studio by Miraval

When Angelina filed for divorce from Brad, the first thing that wine lover's wanted to know is, "but what about Miraval". Their award-winning rosé has been getting accolades since it hit the market. The good news is that even though the couple has called it quits, the wine lives on and is going strong. The one to sip this season is Studio by Miraval. It's a four grape blend that comes in a bottle that will remind you of perfume. It's for lovers of art and music who want to feel like they are on the French Riviera.

Sip with your love as you cuddle up in a warm blanket and connect through conversation.

Invivo X, Sarah Jessica Parker Sauvignon Blanc

Sarah Jessica Parker announced that she would be dropping some wine and it's finally here. The Invivo X, Sarah Jessica Parker's Sauvignon Blanc will be the first wine released in the collection. It's said that SJP has been a part of the wine's process from beginning to end. When I first heard that the wine is produced in New Zealand, I was surprised. It seemed like a New York or California winery would be more fitting, but New Zealand is a rising star in the wine world so it's a good move.

It's the perfect wine to sip and watch Sex and the City with your girl squad as you share the joys and oys of dating. If you are on the other end, maybe you can sip and watch SJP's current show, Divorce, and share some "love is a battlefield" stories.

Domaine Curry Wine Cabernet Sauvignon

Not just a basketball wife, Ayesha Curry, who is also an author, restaurateur, and culinary personality has put her toe into the wine game as well. The luxury wine is a partnership with her sister-in-law Sydel Curry. The ladies teamed up with John Schwartz of Coup de Foudre in Napa Valley. It's a small production wine so it may be hard to find, but that makes it even better when you do get your hands on a bottle. You will be sipping all fancy.

This is a grown and sexy wine therefore perfect for a romantic night in. I have a feeling the Steph and Ayesha have quite a few of those (when their parent's watch the three kids).

Love & Libations: Celebrity Wines For Turkey Day

By Yolanda Shoshana

I'm sure you noticed that the day after Halloween the Christmas stuff was out front and center. Let's not forget about poor forgotten Thanksgiving. After all, it's a day to remember to be grateful for family and friends. Who doesn't love stuffing themselves with good food and libations on this holiday? While there are many wines to pair with your turkey day meal, here are some celebrity selections that are delicious and will make you feel fancy.

Different Celebrity Wines

1) Moet Chandon Champagne Brut

It's the first Champagne to even bother to work with celebrities. The first ambassador was Scarlett Johansson. No one knows why their relationship didn't last, but the bubbles moved on to tennis great, Roger Federer, to continue with its sexy sipping.

You may not realize this, but sparkling wine is perfect to pair with a Thanksgiving meal since bubbles go with anything and everything. Most people wait for a special occasion to break out the Champagne. What could be better than a meal with friends and family on a day full of gratitude? The wine would go great with turkey, but it's perfect for your guest who simply likes to indulge in the side dishes.

2) 2015 Napa Valley Three by Wade Red Blend/Wade Cellars

NBA player, Dwayne Wade has a lot to be grateful for this Thanksgiving. He and his wife/actress, Gabrielle Union, has just welcomed a baby girl. Wade has even taken time off from games to welcome his daughter.

As some of you may know, Wade is part of the secret NBA wine club. He enjoys wine so much that he started his own luxury wine label called Wade Cellars. The Napa Valley Three has some of the best red grapes swirled together such as Malbec, Merlot, Syrah, and Zinfandel. The black fruit and floral notes would be perfect for celebrating the day with those you love.

3) Lve Chardonnay/ Lve Collection by John Legend

John Legend has been in the wine game for a few years now. He teamed with wine personality, Charles to create a wine that is elegant and sophisticated. Long story short, his wine is as smooth as his music. I would love to know what he and Chrissy Teigen pair his wines. Will she cook this Thanksgiving or have it catered now that she has two little ones? Whatever they do, I assume wine will be in hand.

This California produced wine would be a delight with your turkey and for those who are vegetarians at your table. It's full and rich with notes of butter and toasted almonds. It's the perfect pairing and works well with a good playlist featuring some of John's music.

4) Miraval Rosé/ Chateau Miraval Cotes de Provence

While the love may be over between Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie their wine remains something to fall in love with. When they released the rosé it sold out in minutes. When the couple announced their split, wine lover around the world panicked because no one knew would become of their beloved rosé.

The wine lives on until further notice. If you are a fan of a good French rosé, this one is for you. A glass of Miraval would be great as an aperitif when your guests arrive or as a kick off to a more intimate dinner.

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, Angelina Jolie is waging a war over custody of her six children with Brad Pitt after their celebrity divorce. In a court document filed August 7 by Jolie's legal team, Jolie claimed Pitt "has paid no meaningful child

According to UsMagazine.com, sources say the reason Jolie is revving up the custody battle is because, “She sees the writing on the wall: Joint custody is a done deal, and there is nothing she can do to stop it.” Pitt was the subject of a child services investigation immediately following Jolie’s divorce filing, but he was cleared of any wrongdoing. That make us better.” According to EOnline.com, an insider said Pitt and Jolie have “had a pretty dramatic year and [Pitt] wants things to remain calm in the future.” One source said the actor has been on a few dates, but hasn’t focused on any serious relationship yet. In celebrity news, the custody battle between Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie is getting contentious. A source told UsMagazine.com that amid the celebrity divorce, Pitt is “very angry” with Jolie for being “controlling of their children” and will “do anything to see his kids and have them in his life.” Court documents show that the judge said “it is critical each of [the Jolie-Pitt children] have a healthy and strong relationship with their father and mother” and that it is “harmful” for Maddox, Pax, Zahara, Shiloh, Knox and Vivienne to not have a relationship with their father. The papers also state that if Jolie does not allow the children to build relationships with Pitt, she could lose full custody of them. An insider said “Brad has taken the high road through all of this; he could have gone to court much sooner to ask the judge to intervene. He was done being Mr. Nice Guy and rolled the dice.” After the custody agreement leaked, Jolie released a statement through her spokesperson on June 13 saying, “This misleading leak is not in the best interests of the children. From the start, Angelina has been focused only on their health and needs, which is why it was so important

Relationship Advice: The Pitfalls of Dating While Divorcing

By Dr. Jane Greer

Dating someone new is exciting but often challenging, and adding the complications of a divorce that's not officially finalized yet, as well as kids from the fractured marriage, into the mix can create a whirlwind of possible pitfalls and new challenges. Waiting for a divorce to become official, though, can take some time, and it is often difficult to put the entire future of one's love life on hold until it is all said and done. Actor Brad Pitt, for example, has been seeing MIT professor Neri Oxman in the midst of ending his marriage to Angelina Jolie. Dating while being separated from your ex-spouse can often feel like a no man's land of uncharted territory with no clear rules. There may be concerns about how quickly to move things along, or a newfound fear of commitment because the most recent union failed.

While you may be eager to move forward and find new love, it can feel like a slippery slope where you can get in too deep quickly, sometimes without even meaning to. With that in mind, there are certain pieces of relationship advice to consider as you navigate this sometimes lawless territory.

The first obvious question is how soon is too soon? It is a very personal journey in terms of how each person manages the sadness of saying good-bye to someone they loved and shared a life with. Some people have no immediate desire to meet someone new, and instead withdraw and go into emotional hibernation, unwilling to put themselves out there for a while and risk being hurt again or diving into another unsuccessful relationship. Others take the opposite approach and seek out a new romance because that is what they believe they need to survive the turmoil they are facing. Taking your personal inventory of what works for you, figuring out your own rhythm of moving faster or slower, can be helpful in gauging the best way for you to proceed. If you do decide to jump back in to the pond of love, try to consider what didn't work in your marriage and attempt to avoid those behaviors in this new partnership.

Along those same lines, how do you balance the responsibilities and devotion you have to your children, as well as all the things that go along with taking apart your old life, with this new person? Consider how much energy you realistically have to give to your new identity as a single person and to your new relationship. If you have met someone you really like and want to get involved, that is fine, but keep your kids in mind and pace yourself with how you introduce them, possibly saying your new love interest is simply a friend at first so as not to confuse them. On the flip side, you might find you are not ready to invest a lot of time into a new romance. He or she might want to jump right in, planning dates and weekend brunches, but you are juggling time with your kids and don't want to miss a soccer game or a dance performance which often conflicts with the proposed plans. Think about and prioritize what is most important to you, and be completely honest about what you are willing and able to put into this new situation. Be clear about your time and what you need to keep it balanced. It can be helpful to convey this upfront so that they can keep their expectations of you realistic and not bombard you with demands for getting together. By doing this it will help make the new relationship stay light and be a relief for you, instead of becoming another emotional burden and a new source of guilt.

Finally, is it okay to talk about your ex and the details of your divorce with your new dates? There is no question that you have gone through a difficult time as you and your ex-spouse untangle the life you shared together. It has probably been the focal point of everything for you, all that you can think about. It is natural, then, that it is what you are used to talking about, and very likely what you want to talk about. That is understandable, but when it comes to the people you are just meeting and getting to know, the less you say about the nitty-gritty of your ex and your divorce, the better. Try to keep the conversation focused on fun topics such as activities you enjoy doing as well as those you would like to pursue in the future. Instead of making this new person your support system while you go through the divorce, allow your connection to be about what is ahead of you and think about it as an opportunity to explore who you are now and who you are becoming.

While it is a lot to contend with, it appears Brad is handling these possible roadblocks and choices with aplomb. Neri seems to be taking everything in stride, and perhaps she and Brad can continue on this path to happiness together.

Love & Libations: Date Ideas & Summer Loving With Rosé

By Yolanda Shoshana

With the start of spring earlier this week and summer creeping closer, it's time to bust out the rosé. While it's fun to "rosé all day" anytime of the year, there's something even more magical about sipping the pink wine during the spring and summer months. If you're looking for a fun date idea, here are four rosés that you can enjoy to make you feel like the rich and famous.

Spring & Summer Date Ideas with Rosé

Château Miraval Rosé

Love didn't keep Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie together, but their wine, Miraval, is still flowing strong. When the former celebrity couple came out with the rosé, it was such a hit that it was named "the best rosé in the world." When they split, the first question was, "What will happen with the wine?" Luckily, the wine lives on!

Pitt once said that he tastes every barrel himself – but now, I'm not sure who tastes for him now since he is rocking a sober life. Made from four grape varietals in Provence, it's an elegant wine that works for all types of occasions. This wine is perfect for what Wendy Williams calls the "kitchen table top," when you are with family and friends sharing secrets, celebrity gossip, and the joys or oys of life.

Diving Into Hampton Water Rosé

Can you imagine Jon Bon Jovi sipping rosé by the pool? It's not a bad image at all. He just launched a new rosé inspired by the Hamptons called Diving Into Hampton Water. Rosé wine is known as "Hampton's Gatorade" because it's a big deal during the summer. Bon Jovi's son, Jesse Bongiovi, came up with the concept and name of the wine. While the name of the wine features the Hamptons, it's actually produced in the South of France by the very charming winemaker, Gérard Bertrand.

It's the kind of wine to sip by a pool when hanging out with your boo. The wine is selling out because it's shiny and new. If you can get your hands on a bottle, it will be a special treat for you and the one you love.

Sofia Rosé

This rosé by Francis Ford Coppola is named after his only daughter Sofia, who most people know as a talented director and screenwriter. With her busy schedule, I can't help but wonder how often she has her wine. This California wine is a blend of Syrah and Pinot Noir. It's an elegant wine in a sexy bottle that showcases the lively pink color of the rosé. The aromas in the wine are floral and berries, which make it wonderful to pair with fish, seafood, and cheese.

Skip the Sofia Rosé bubbles in the can and go for the still wine in a bottle. It's perfect to pair with a quiet date night at home or when you're cooking dinner together.

Vanderpump Rosé

While Lisa Vanderpump is famous for being one of the stars of Real Housewives of Beverly Hills, she is quickly becoming known for her wine. Since she and her husband, Ken Todd, are in the hospitality business with 28 bars and restaurants, having a wine is a natural progression. The Vanderpump Rosé is produced in Provence, so it's perfect to drink when you want to feel like you are in France without hopping on a plane. As Vanderpump says, "Life isn't all diamonds and rosé – but it should be."

It's a feminine wine with a lot of personality on the palate. This wine is perfect for your summer soirees at a rooftop bar or in the backyard with your squad.

Celebrity News: Would Jennifer Aniston Get Back Together With Brad Pitt?

By Jessica Gomez

Former celebrity couple Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux's split is raising a certain question: will celebrity exes Aniston and Brad Pitt be getting back together now that they're both single? According to UsMagazine.com, Aniston and Pitt will not be rekindling their celebrity relationship after all. "Jen wouldn't consider being with Brad in a romantic way," a friend of Aniston's said. "But there is always a spot in her heart for him.” As for Pitt, a source said, “Brad is sad to hear about Jen’s divorce. He only wishes the best for her. However, Brad hasn’t reached out to Jen, and has no plans to do so at this point.”

In this celebrity news, fans are speculating about Jennifer Aniston and Brad Pitt now that both have gone through splits. What are some things to consider before getting back together with an ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether or not to get back with an ex is an important decision. It isn’t always an easy one either. Cupid has some things to consider before making the choice:

1. Have you both moved on from the reason you both broke up?: Think about the reason why you both broke up in the first place. Was it for a good reason or was it circumstantial? Then, also think about whether you both have forgiven each other completely for past mistakes. If you have, then that can be a good sign – if not, then not so much. If you feel like you haven’t forgiven your ex for something, then that problem will probably constantly arise during your reconciled relationship.

2. Do you see a future with your ex?: Why go back to an ex if you don’t think it’s going to be serious and no good future ahead? Think about this thoroughly – sometimes we see a future with someone, but that future comes with unnecessary obstacles and negativity. If this is the case, then it may be a sign that your ex is meant to stay an ex. Think about this while spending some time apart – it's something big to ponder.

3. What are reasons to get back together and not get back together?: Pro and con lists are good ones to make. Be fair and think about why you should get back together with your ex and why you shouldn't. Then, weigh it all. Certain things weigh more than others, so be honest and just with yourself when considering all the information. Making a list with a friend can help, as long as that friend isn't necessarily biased.

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Justin Theroux found post-it notes from Jennifer Aniston's celebrity ex, Brad Pitt, during the time that he was together with Aniston. According to UsMagazine.com, a source stated, "He stumbled upon old Post-it notes Brad had written. Sweet little Post-its like, 'You looked nice tonight' or 'Miss you already'." The source further explained that these post-it notes caused much controversy. The source goes on to say, "Jen assured him they weren't a big deal, but Justin wasn't thrilled ... Justin had moments of insecurity like that." Needless to say, details are still surfacing with regard to the Aniston-Theroux celebrity break-up.

Details from this celebrity break-up are still emerging. What are some ways to keep the personal details of your relationship under wraps post-split?

Cupid's Advice:

Personal details about your relationship are just that – personal. It can be a burden if these intimate details are being released. Post-split time is stressful in general. It doesn't need to be more stressful by details being revealed. Cupid is here with some advice on how to keep those personal details on the down-low after your break-up:

1. Be careful to whom you tell information: A relationship is usually between only two people. If you truly want to keep the details between you two, be meticulous about who you share your post-split details with. Even your best friend might not be able to keep the juicy details to themselves.

2. Get on good terms with your ex: Have a mature conversation with your ex and make sure you guys are on decent terms after your separation. Make it clear that you want to keep your information private. If you and your ex aren't on good terms, it could cause them to potentially leak information in regards to your relationship that you did not want exposed. Make sure you guys are on the same page.

3. Be straight forward: If you must expose information to someone post-split, be straight forward and make affirmative statements so that your words cannot be twisted and skewed. Say things like "We have moved on maturely", and just leave it at that.

Celebrity News: Brad Pitt is Casually Dating as He Adjusts to Single Life as a Dad

By Rachel Sparks

According to E!Online.com, the celebrity news is that Brad Pitt is slowly dipping his toes into the celebrity dating pool. The 46-year old actor is adapting to being single and seeing his family. Pitt stays busy by meeting with his large group of guy friends, none of them in the business, riding his motorcycle, and having regular dinner and lunch meetings. Though Pitt doesn't see his six kids as much as he wants, he has been filling his time with family, including going back to his Missouri and Oklahoma roots. As far as dating? This recently divorced celebrity says it's complicated and not a priority.

This celebrity news shows us celebs aren't immune to having to adjust. What are some ways to know you're ready to get back into the dating scene when you have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Balance is key when you're a single parent. You have to make sure you balance the demands of your career with the demands of your family. Maintaining a house, both the operations and finances, alone can be a challenge. Somewhere in there, of course, you need to be able to take care of yourself. Here's Cupid's dating advice to help you get ready for dating again:

1. Balance career: If you were the main bread-winner, maintaining the house and investing in your family was on the back burner because you had someone else helping you. When suddenly your support is gone, having the mental and physical energy to still invest in your career in addition to your new responsibilities can be daunting. Make sure your career is in a place where you can take some focus away and instead invest in yourself and a relationship.

2. Are your kids ready: With a large brood of kids like Brad Pitt, getting back into dating can be a lot harder. Each age range of childhood processes divorce differently, so each child will vary on their resistance to a parent returning to dating. As a parent, be ready for that resistance, but make sure you're caring for your children, too.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt Are Talking Again

3. Length of relationship: Depending on the length of your marriage, you may need more time to cope post-divorce. Shared affairs, such as mortgages and finances, can be hard to unravel and separate. Aside from that, the emotional aspect of becoming suddenly single can be a shock. As fun as dating can be again, if you're looking for something more serious, consider giving yourself the adequate amount of time to heal and the appropriate length of courting before claiming a relationship is serious.

As a single parent, how have you decided when it was the right time to start dating again? Share your dating advice below!

New Celebrity Couple? Brad Pitt & Sienna Miller 'Spending Some Time Together'

By Marissa Donovan

Former co-stars Brad Pitt and Sienna Miller could possibly be dating! According to UsMagazine.com, they seemed interested in each other in April during a cast and crew dinner for The Lost City of Z. The two were spotted together again at the Glastonbury Festival with celebrity pal Bradley Cooper on June 24th. Since Pitt's celebrity divorce from Angelina Jolie, he has been spending time with his children and casually dating. Maybe these Hollywood actors will someday walk down the red carpet together as a celebrity couple!

There may be a new celebrity couple in Hollywood! What are some ways to know you're ready to move on from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Like Brad Pitt, ending a relationship that has lasted many years can be deviating. Eventually you will be prepared to get back in the dating scene. Here are some ways to know you're ready:

1. You're okay being single: Rushing into a new relationship is never a good idea and it's a sign that you're not over your heartache. Knowing that it's okay to be single is the best mindset to have when casually dating. This will make you feel optimistic instead of hurt when a first date doesn't go well.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Angelina Jolie & Brad Pitt Are Talking Again

2. There's no fake closure: Sometimes putting on a fake smile after a break-up can be a defense mechanism for the pain you're still experiencing. Having real closure is the sense that you understand and accept that you and your ex partner need to see other people.

3. You don't check your phone: There used to be an urgency to check your phone while you were in a relationship, but now you put it on silent more often. If you catch yourself enjoying the moment you're in instead of worrying about what your ex partner wants, then you're totally available to see other people!

Celebrity News: Angelina Jolie & Brad Pitt Are Talking Again

By Noelle Downey

This week in celebrity news there's an item that will have many Brangelina fans breathing a sigh of relief; Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie are talking again. According to EOnline.com, after a six-month period of silence when news of the celebrity divorce broke, the former couple has finally put aside their differences enough to open up some direct lines of communication. While the exes' relationship is still strained, a close inside source says their recent move to connect personally is a "significant step" away from only speaking through lawyers. The source also claims that things are less "tense" now between the former power couple and that "they've both agreed to put the kids first." No doubt Pitt and Jolie's six children, Maddox, Pax, Zahara, Shiloh, Knox and Vivienne are just as relieved as we are that their parents have taken a step from sour to civil.

Cupid's Advice:

1. Try your best to stay civil: If there's constant animosity between you and your former spouse, your child will pick up on it. While anger and sadness are normal responses to a life event like divorce, it's important to remember that your child is also likely experiencing these emotions, and keeping your relationship with your ex civil will help smooth the transition for them.

2. Develop a new routine: Angelina Jolie said in a recent statement to the press, "We are and forever will be a family. And so that is how I'm coping." If the circumstances of the separation allow it, try to make room in your new routines for your child(ren) to spend time with the other parent. While at first this may be difficult, in the end it will help your whole family cope with the change.

According to UsMagazine.com, Thornton and Jolie were a celebrity couple who got married back in May 2000 while in Vegas. However, their relationship ended in 2002. "She seems, you know, OK to me when I talk to [her]," Thornton said. "I don't talk to her that often, though. You know? We're still very good friends, but she's got her world, I've got mine."

This celebrity news sheds some light on how Angelina is doing amid her divorce. What are some ways to deal with divorce drama in an effective way?

Cupid's Advice:

Emotional hurt won't last forever, which is something to think about if you've gone through divorce. Cupid is here to make the drama a little easier to manage:

1. Ignore the petty communication: If your ex is not trying to solve a solution, but rather egg on a fight, then it's not worth a response. For example, if you dropped off your child, and your ex-partner sends you a text negatively commenting on the parenting you did, you do not have to answer. This will take out some of the fight, and you will be the more positive person.

2. Take a break: Going through a divorce is stressful, and you're going to feel overwhelmed. It's okay to take a step back for a little while to give yourself room to breathe. You can't go on with an unclear head. Get back to it when you're ready. Make sure you are healthy!
