This celebrity news is a reality check. What are some ways to know if your partner is trustworthy?

Cupid's Advice:

Trust is a very important in a relationship. It can be hard to read people sometimes and know whether they are being honest or not. Cupid has some love advice on some ways to know if your partner is trustworthy or not:

1. Talk to them: If you feel like you don't trust your significant other, talk to them about it. Let them know what is making you feel uncomfortable. If they make an effort to fix it then you know you can trust them.

Charlie Sheen's Goddess Dumps Him

Charlie Sheen no longer has two goddesses on his arm, reports RadarOnline. At his “My Violent Torpedo of Truth” tour stop in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Sheen revealed that one of his ‘goddesses,’ Bree Olson, has left the household. Sheen said that Olson sent her goodbyes via text message, and though hurt, he wished her well.

Is too much texting in a relationship impersonal?

Cupid's Advice:

Texting has become one of the most popular forms of communication. However, is it okay to text in a relationship? Here are a few things to consider:

1. Your texts: Sending heartfelt messages like, "I hope you have a great day," or "Good luck!" is perfectly acceptable. Messages like "c u l8r" and "kk" can put a strain on your relationship. Texting is useful because it's quick and efficient, but be sure to spend a little more time typing your sincere messages.

2. Your reasons for texting: Having a quick conversation with your partner via text messaging is fine. However, if texting has come to replace more serious phone calls or face-to-face bonding time with your partner, then you should be wary.

3. Your relationship's strength: If you and your partner text constantly, and your relationship doesn't suffer because of it, then all the more power to you. Find a balance that works for your relationship.
