According to UsMagazine.com, Bella recalled having feelings of hatred toward her fiancé Artem Chigvintsev after having their celebrity baby, but was able to move past these feelings as the couple began to have more open discussions. Chigvintsev stated that he wished Bella had opened up “sooner” about how she was feeling so that he was more aware of her postpartum depression when he came home from filming the ABC show Dancing With The Stars.

In celebrity news, Nikki Bella “hated” partner Artem Chigvintsev as she battled postpartum depression. What are some ways to support your partner through postpartum depression?

Cupid’s Advice:

Postpartum depression following the birth of a child is something that many couples face in their relationship, even if they are not talking about it openly. If you are looking for ways to support your partner through postpartum depression, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Discuss it frequently: To avoid the formation of ill feelings from either person, it’s important to discuss the effects postpartum depression is having on both your partner and the relationship. While your partner may be hesitant to open up because they fear it will strain the relationship, acknowledging and talking through these new feelings will prevent any bad feelings from building up.

Cupid's Advice:

Every mother deserves a little something after a difficult delivery journey. If you're looking for some perfect “push presents” to give the mother of your recently born child, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. A baby book journal: A baby book is something most sentimental moms will love. Especially if she is a new mom, writing down all of her experiences of her pregnancy and birthing story will be an important memory for her, and your child may love to read it one day!

Cupid's Advice:

Becoming a parent can be extremely exciting and awaiting your new baby can feel like a lifetime. By using those months that you are waiting for your bundle of joy, you and your partner can prepare, because your lives are going to take a major shift. If you and your partner are looking for ways to prepare for becoming parents, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Learn about baby and toddler sleep: The topic of sleep is one of the biggest questions for first time parents. You and your partner should learn about sleep while you are pregnant so you can quickly pick up on sleep troubles and avoid many of the bad sleep habits parents unintentionally develop. The biggest reason children have troubles sleeping through the night is that their parents haven't learned how to facilitate good sleep.

She admitted to not knowing about the baby news when she was undergoing breast implant removal surgery in June after asked by a fan how she found out about the pregnancy. She explained that when she took a pregnancy test before the surgery, it was negative, but after the surgery she took another and it was positive.

In celebrity baby news, Chrissy Tiegen is keeping it real by letting fans know how she found out about her surprise pregnancy. What are some ways to support your partner through a surprise pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

There is no telling how you're going to react when faced with a surprise pregnancy. That being said, you both have to be there for each other as you recover from being shocked. If you're looking for ways to support your partner through a surprise pregnancy, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Respond positively: When a woman experiencing challenging circumstances confides she is pregnant, the reaction of the first person she tells tends to set the tone for her decision-making. Avoid responding with shock or alarm, and be calm and understanding. Let her know you're there for her and that it's going to be okay. Pay close attention to her emotional state, and act accordingly.

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, celebrity couple Bindi Irwin and Chandler Powell are expecting their first child. According to UsMagazine.com, Irwin told fans that she is still in her first trimester, but wants them to be part of our journey from the beginning of this new life chapter. “Chandler and I are proud to announce that we’re expecting! It’s an honor to share this special moment in our lives with you,” Irwin said.

In celebrity baby news, Bindi and Chandler are about to become parents. How do you know if your partner will make a good parent?

Cupid’s Advice:

Becoming a parent is a big step in life and deciphering whether you and your partner will be good parents can be hard to determine. If you are wondering if your partner will be a good parent, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. They're a sacrificer: If a person is willing to make a lot of sacrifices, then the chances that they will be a good parent is pretty high. One of the main things parents are supposed to be able to do for their children without a second thought is sacrifice things. Parenting is all about sacrificing things. One of the main things parents have to give up when they have kids is time.

In celebrity couple news, pregnancy isn't keeping Sophie Turner from protesting racism with her hubby, Joe Jonas. How do you know you've found a partner with values that align with your own?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding "The One" is always going to be a long process, but finding someone who shares similar values as yours is especially difficult to find. If you're wondering if you and your partner have similar beliefs and ethics, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Just simply ask: Don't be afraid to ask your partner how they feel about current events, politics, and social issues. It shouldn't be an interrogation session, but just you just casually asking your partner a question. This is so much easier than trying to figure out on your own, and you're bound to get a more real and authentic answer.

The celebrity couple plan to stay in Kensington Palace for now with their celebrity baby, Archie.

In celebrity news, this royal couple is considering a move to Canada. What are some ways to compromise with your partner about where to live?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting serious in a relationship means that you will have to start making choices with and for the benefit of your partner.

This may mean considering a relocation for career or family reasons. Cupid has some advice on how to help make the discussion a smoother one:

1. Listen to their reasons: You don't have to be fond of moving to another state or country. It is normal to feel this way. Changing your environment is a huge adjustment, but hear your partner out. Ask them: how will this help us or our family? Weigh the pros and cons, and try to remain reasonable.

Cupid’s Advice:

Kandi Burruss is getting ready to welcome her third child via surrogate. Burruss had a lot of nerves and doubts before she was able to fully commit to surrogacy. Cupid has some factors to consider to help you figure out if surrogacy is the right choice for you:

1. Your health: If you’re considering having a child, via surrogate or not, it is important to make sure you’re healthy both physically and mentally. Surrogacy can come with a lot of stress and struggles. Knowing how to deal with your stress and emotions in a safe way can make the entire process go smoothly.

Celebrity Baby News: Jenna Dewan & Boyfriend Steve Kazee Are Expecting

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, Step Up star Jenna Dewan is waiting for a bundle of joy to arrive, as she is expecting a celebrity baby with her boyfriend, actor Steve Kazee. This will be Jenna Dewan's second child. The celebrity parent had her first child with her heart throb co-star and ex-husband Channing Tatum. According to UsMagazine.com, Dewan's celebrity ex was crying while she was giving birth to their daughter. The Magic Mike star told the magazine, "I probably went to the bathroom four times [at the hospital] and had a crying fit. Like, I'm just like, 'I don't know what to do!'" Tatum later added that "seeing the one you love in pain makes you feel bad, Men are useless, but we are really useless during [the delivery process]."

In celebrity baby news, Jenna Dewan is preparing to welcome her second child – her first with Steve Kazez. What are some ways to prepare for the birth of your second child?

Cupid's Advice:

Welcoming a little one into the world can be very time consuming and stressful if you aren't prepared. Having your second child should be easier, right? Not exactly! Sometimes it can be easier if you have the same gender as you did previously, especially if you have a lot of baby clothes and bottles left over. Babies have a mind of their own just like humans. They can't directly tell you how they're feeling, but you'll catch their drift once they start crying. The second can be tricky and different for everyone. Cupid has some tips and tricks to help you through this journey:

1. Don't assume this will be easy: Every child and pregnancy is different. Try to keep an open mind, especially with the second child. Even though this is the second child, there's still a lot to learn about being a parent. Also, if you aren't the one having the child, be there for your partner.

2. Don't compare the two children: When the baby is born, it's okay to assume who they look like and whose personality they might have. It is important that you try to not compare your children in the beginning stages of life. Yes, they might do some of the same things that older brother or sister do/did, but it's not a good habit to keep comparing the two. You want your baby to be their own person and not a younger version of your first child.

3. Relax: Everything will work out fine if you are less stressed. The baby will come and you'll be fine. Don't overthink anything or expect the worse. Just hope for a healthy and happy baby, because that's truly all that matters.

Celebrity Parents: Former 'Bachelor' Arie Luyendyk Jr. Calls Wife Lauren the 'Hottest Momma'

By Katie Sotack

Arie Luyendyk still has the hots for his final rose recipient and now wife, Lauren. The caption on a recent Instagram post of his wife in a swimsuit holding their eight week old baby read, "I love those cheeks. Proud of you @laurenluyendyk, hottest momma around #8weeks". According to EOnline.com the celebrity couple are having a grand old time as parents. They can be seen hiking and eating out on social media where they document their trials and tribulations of new parenthood. As for the post, Lauren responded with a squeamish "Omg baby", to which Arie let us know he couldn't help himself with a simple "Sorrrrryyyyy".

These celebrity parents are always supporting and uplifting each other. What are some ways to support your partner after she gives birth?

Cupid's Advice:

Arie and Lauren are enjoying their time together as new parents, but Arie has been sure to let new dads know it's a vital job as well. "It will be hard, it will challenge your relationship. It will also be the best thing you'll have ever done together," the former Bachelor said. Take a parenting tip from Arie, and use these ways to be there for your partner after the birth of your child:

1. Take care of Mama: With the focus on the new life you've brought into the world, remembering the needs of the woman who's produced this baby can fall to the bottom of the list. But don't let it. Pregnancy and birth takes a huge toll on the body. Hormonal-wise, the baby package is likely a roller coaster that does not dissipate after postpartum. Take the time to check in with your partner emotionally and physically during the ordeal.

2. Get her a gift: I'm not talking flowers here, though even that gesture is nice. Instead think of the traumatic toll birth has taken on her body and get her something she needs. Try something like MOMBOX, a subscription service that delivers a box full of goodies for postpartum moms. They have boxes for vaginal birth and c-sections which come with things like transition panties, herbal bath salts, and nipple cream. If you're not into prepackaged gifts, try to put a basket together yourself. Use your knowledge of what relaxes your partner and what's currently paining her to create the perfect gift.

3. Give her alone time: Her entire life is revolved around your baby right now, but her mental health is important too. Once a week offer to watch the baby by yourself for a few hours so mom can do something for herself. Suggest taking a bubble bath or going out with friends/family. Anything to remind her that she is a person outside of your precious child and her needs deserve to be met too.

Royal Celebrity Parents: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry Are 'Enjoying Each Day' with Baby Archie

By Katie Sotack

Royals Meghan Markle and Prince Harry are stowed away in Windsor and “enjoying each day” with their eight week old celebrity baby, Archie. According to People.com, the celebrity parents are focused on giving Archie a peaceful start to life, hence the escape to a private cottage. A royal source says they are “basking in the glow and enjoying each day”. Like all new parents, the royal couple are living soulfully in their new baby’s needs and wants, discovering his newness every day that they spend with him.

These royal celebrity parents are enjoying the time with their infant son. What are some ways to bond as a couple in the face of parenthood?

Cupid’s Advice:

New parenthood is filled with as many challenges as it is joys. Making time for your partner when this new life has become your world can feel impossible. Here are relationship tips for parents looking to bond outside of their baby:

1. Make time for one another: With your new baby becoming the center of your world, it's difficult to make time for each other. However, having one-on-one time is essential to a sturdy relationship and ultimately the growth of your baby. Go on a date together or just sit and talk after the baby's gone to bed.

2. Enlist a trusted relative or friend: Give yourself a break and recruit a member of your inner circle to watch your children so you parents can have alone time. Make sure you have faith in their child care abilities and your child is familiar with the care taker so that you don't spend your date worried out of your mind.

3. Cut each other some slack: Being a parent isn't easy. When your partner makes a mistake, don't go after them. Instead understand where they're coming from and that we're all human. As long as your baby's safe, chances are they won't remember the tiny screw up.

Fitness Tips: How to Workout After Having a Baby

By Bonnie Griffin

Working out after childbirth might seem like a daunting task. Your body is out of whack after pregnancy due to hormones that can linger up to six to eight weeks postpartum. Exercising will only make you stronger and will help you recover faster after giving birth to your new little one. According to Prevention.com, Eva Longoria has been following a strict celebrity workout and a healthy eating plan since giving birth to her celebrity baby boy six months ago, and it shows! This celebrity mom looks amazing. You might be interested in these fitness tips for working out after having a baby if you want your pre-baby body back.

In these fitness tips, find out how working out will benefit you after having a baby!

Exercise after having a baby is recommended because you'll heal faster and build your strength while toning your muscles. Not only will it physically help you heal, but you'll be in a better mood and have more energy when exercising. Physical activity relieves stress and helps you to lose weight, which leads to you becoming a fitter and happier version of yourself. Cupid has some fitness advice to help you decide on a workout routine after having a baby:

1. Abdominal exercises: When you are a new mom, you'll want to start out with low-risk exercises such as abdominal bracing. For this exercise, pull in your lower tummy towards your spine and brace for a few seconds. These can be done three to four times a day in reps of eight to twelve. Stop working out if you experience any pain. Physical activity is beneficial, but not if you push your body too hard too soon.

2. Pelvic floor exercises: Another low-risk option for new moms are pelvic floor exercises. You can sit and lean slightly forward while keeping a straight back. Squeeze your pelvic muscles for a few seconds. Do these in reps of eight to twelve.

3. Walking: Walking is another great way to exercise after having a baby. You can walk on a treadmill, or put your new son or daughter in the stroller. Take a nice walk around the neighborhood. Not only is it a good and safe exercise after childbirth, but it will get you out of the house for some sunshine. It's also a fantastic mood booster!

4. Swimming: You'll want to avoid high impact workouts. Swimming is an ideal way to exercise post-childbirth. You can exercise without any of the impacts you'll experience with something like running. You'll have fun in the water, too!

5. Rest after your workout: When you're a new mom, rest seems like something impossible to come by with a newborn who isn't on your schedule. It is important to take a few moments after a workout to rest because it can help replenish your strength and leave you feeling rested and restored.

Working out safely after having a baby can improve your health and mood. Let us know some of your workout routines after having a baby in the comments below.

Celebrity Parenting: Find Out What Carrie Underwood Is Doing Differently as a Second-Time Mom

By Mara Miller

In celebrity news, celebrity parenting isn't Carrie Underwood's first rodeo. She was already a celebrity mom to four-year-old Isaiah Michael before she welcomed celebrity baby Jacob Bryan in January, according to People.com. Little Jacob has joined his celebrity parents and big brother on Underwood's Cry Pretty 360 arena tour. While it might be a popular notion that second-time moms naturally have it together by the second child, Underwood admitted it isn't the case for her. Her two boys look different, with her newborn's unique strawberry blonde hair while her eldest son's hair is darker. She also finds herself worrying more over Jacob. Underwood even revealed that she schedules a time to cry when she feels overwhelmed. "Sometimes I feel like I just need to cry, for no reason, and there's not anything that happened," she says. "I've learned to be okay with that, whereas five or 10 years ago I would have been like 'Oh my God, something's wrong with me!'"

Celebrity parenting comes with the same challenges the rest of us face. What are some tips you can learn from your first-time parenting mistakes?

Cupid's Advice:

You're on your second kid, or maybe even your third. You've had time to learn what not to do, or maybe you need a nudge in the right direction because you feel like scheduling a cry. Cupid has advice on parenting tips you can learn from your first-time parenting mistakes:

1. Don't take advice from everyone: You need to do your own thing when it comes to parenting. Many people—family and friends included—will have opinions on things like how much you should feed your kids, when they should go to bed, or when you should stop breastfeeding. You need to do what you feel is right for the well-being of your children.

2. You overestimate free-time: Um, free time? What's that? Unless you have a baby sitter or your spouse is willing to stay with the kids while you pursue your passions, there is no such thing as free time now that you're a parent until the kids are in school...and that's a maybe unless it's scheduled. Time management is now key so you don't drive yourself crazy because it helps you see how much time you actually have in a day.

3. Don't put yourself last: Even though you might feel overwhelmed and feel like you never have free time anymore, you have to realize putting yourself last is a big no-no. As mentioned, time management will help you see how much time you actually have so you can soak in the bathtub or go out to dinner with your friends. Even moms need breaks.

Celebrity Pregnancy: Tristan Thompson's Ex Claims Khloe Kardashian Relationship Caused Pregnancy Complications

By Katie Sotack

In celebrity news, Cleveland Cavaliers player Tristan Thompson is being accused of causing pregnancy complications for his ex, Jordan Craig. According to UsMagazine.com, the complications arose when Thompson publicly dated a woman believed to be Khloe Kardashian. The stress of being publicly ridiculed resulted in an order for bed rest and eventually, severe pregnancy complications.

In celebrity pregnancy news, Tristan's ex is blaming Khloe Kardashian for her pregnancy complications. What are some ways to keep stress from affecting your pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy is a wonderful time for mothers-to-be, but there's no denying the added stress of growing another life. Staying relaxed can help ensure a healthy and complication free pregnancy. Here are some ways to eliminate stress:

1. Get enough rest: getting the recommended 8-10 hours is essential to your mood and the babies health. Lack of sleep throws off your bodies regulatory hormones and adds to stress.

2. Try gentle exercise: moving around during the day will keep your endorphins up, in turn relaxing your mental state. Activity also has the added benefit of improving your sleep cycle.

Celebrity Parents: Mindy Kaling Opens Up About Single Parenting and Hard Work

By Katie Sotack

Celebrity parent Mindy Kaling has opened up about life as a busy career woman and single parent. After giving birth to her daughter, Katherine in December 2017, Kaling hasn't felt the need to slow down, according to EOnline.com. She is currently working on a TV show for Netflix and a movie for Hulu while promoting Late Night, a film she wrote and in which she acted. Though she's loving working hard now, Kaling says she'll eventually have to slow down when Katherine's older as there's no father to pick up the slack.

This celebrity parent is juggling single parenting and a busy career.

What are some ways to juggle parenting and work?

Cupid's Advice:

It's hard enough being a parent, and it's even harder having both a job and child(ren). Cupid has some tips on how to juggle the two:

1. Know what's important, and show up: Have your priorities in order. If it's your child's second birthday, tonight is the night to miss the office networking at the Chili's downtown.

Celebrity News: Duchess Kate & Duchess Meghan Are 'Bonding Over Motherhood'

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, the arrival of the royal celebrity couple Duchess Meghan and Prince Harry's royal celebrity baby, Archie Harrison Mountbatten-Winsor, means the Duchess will be spending more time with her celebrity royal sister-in-law, Duchess Kate. According to UsMagazine.com, an insider received this information from the palace, saying, "Meghan and Kate will be spending a lot more time together. Now that they're bonding over motherhood, they've become closer than ever." Aw! It's great to see that these royal sisters-in-law are putting aside their differences to bond as mothers of the next generation of the royal family.

In celebrity news, the alleged rivalry may be over between the two Duchesses, in favor of bonding over motherhood. What are some ways being parents can bring you and your partner closer together?

Cupid's Advice:

A new baby in the family is an exciting time for you and your partner. Here are a few ways that being new parents can bring you closer together:

1. You'll learn to lean on each other more: Sleepless nights with a crying baby, frustration over breastfeeding, learning to cope with new feelings that come along with having a new baby... All of these things will lead to you and your partner learning to lean on each other in ways you didn't before. You have a new little person who needs you and it won't work if you don't learn how to lean on each other.

2. Sleep deprivation: Sleep deprivation has a tendency to bring out our true selves. You won't realize how true your love for your partner is when the baby is screaming and you're both sleep deprived. Or how wonderful your partner is until they tell you to get rest when they tend the baby after nearly biting their head off.
