

Fitness Tips: 5 Couple Exercises That Are Worth the Sweat

By Rachel Sparks

Now that the holidays are over, we're no doubt regretting some of those holiday treats we consumed. The cold keeps us in, the sweets come out, and we're juggling between moments of extreme stress and joy with friends and family so our eating habits are erratic at best. Right after that came the new year with the promises we made to lose the weight we gained over the past couple of months. Let's break that cycle now by taking a cue from celebrity couples like Jennifer Lopez and Alex Rodriguez and start working out with our S.O's.

The hottest fitness tips start with you and your partner breaking a sweat together.

Working out makes us feel great about ourselves, but make it even better by doing it with your partner. Celebrity couples who work out together boast of strong bonds with their partner. There's nothing but good reasons to exercise with your partner, so grab them up off the couch and get going!

1. Hiking: We're starting easy and free (usually). If you or your partner are new to the exercising world, hiking is a great way to cheat the mind into thinking you're not working out. You can control your path, mileage, and speed so it's a great way to get into shape with a motivating view.

Related Link: Let Your Partner Be Your Inspiration to Getting and Staying Fit

2. Kayaking: Another way to trick those who hate traditional exercise into getting active involves another outdoor sport—kayaking. Most rental kayaks offer an option to share a two-butt kayak. It's a great workout for the arms and it challenges your communication and teamwork.

3. Rock Climbing: Let's keep it safe and stick with indoor rock climbing gyms until that confidence and strength has built up. The latest celebrity trend involves rock climbing gyms, but beware that there's a fair amount of trust involved. Your partner usually holds onto the rope that keeps you secure as you climb. When your arms start shaking, there's no better feeling than your S.O. cheering you on.

4. Kick Boxing: Don't do this when you're mad at your S.O. Or at least, don't miss the bag as you throw your anger-fueled upper cut and knock your partner in the teeth. It's a great way to relieve stress and learn self-defense in addition. Take turns on the offense and defense and offer each other constructive criticism. Hot celebrity couple Chris Hemsworth and Elsa Pataky are known to practice kick boxing together.

5. Yoga: Yogi's make intense positions look effortless, but be warned: there is a fair amount of knowledge and practice that goes into this sport. Couples who practice together help strength fine-tune muscles and flexibility. Bonus: you can do some really cool arial tricks together. Adam Levine and his wife Behati Prinsloo have been pictured holding plank together. And yes, holding your favorite position is an integral part of yoga.

Being young and in love is never easy, especially for people in the public eye. Celebrity couple Zayn Malik and Gigi Hadid are no exception. In a recent interview with UsMagazine.com, Malik opened up about his celebrity relationship with the model. When asked about how he and Hadid handle the public attention, he stated that the two of them try to ignore all the comments. Instead, they focus on each other and “do right” by one another. He also shared that since they both love to cook, many of their date nights are spent cooking for one another and trying out new meals.

We can't get enough of this celebrity relationship! What are some other date night ideas for longtime couples?

Cupid's Advice:

When you have been with someone for a long time, date nights can seem tedious: You cook the same meals, go to the same restaurants, and watch the same movies. If you want to spice it up, check out these fun date ideas:

1. Get out of your comfort zone: When things start to feel too comfortable in your relationship, do something daring! If you and your partner love to dance, go to a new club. If you end up loving it, you have a new go-to spot, and if it's not quite your thing, you have a fun new memory to share with each other. Or take a cue from this celebrity relationship and simply try out a new recipe – it's as easy as that!

2. Get intimate: It is easy to get into a routine with your partner: You come home, eat dinner, watch television, and go to bed, only to repeat it all the next day. Often, we forget that intimacy matters in a relationship. To get back into that romantic zone, try getting a couples massage. This way, you will be able to relax from the stresses of your life and also feel closer to one another.

3. Get competitive: There is nothing more fun than beating your partner in a heated round of a board game. While this date idea may be simple, it is also extremely overlooked.

Celebrity Interview: ‘Mom vs. Matchmaker’ Star Carmelia Ray Dishes on Celebrity Relationships & Expert Love Advice

By Delaney Gilbride

The mother of all matchmakers is back and ready to tackle every and any matchmaking challenge that comes her way! Carmelia Ray's hit show on Myx TV, Mom vs. Matchmaker, is in full swing after the show's second season debuted on Tuesday, March 14th. Yearning singles couldn't be more hyped! Ray integrates her 20-plus years of experience as a celebrity matchmaker, certified dating coach, and online dating expert to battle it out with determined mothers in order to find the perfect suitor for struggling singles on her stirring reality TV show. In our exclusive celebrity interview, the matchmaker spills her expert dating advice as well as her views on the hottest celebrity couples.

Carmelia Ray Talks Season Two of Mom vs. Matchmaker

The saying "mother knows best" truly came into play during filming of the second season of Mom vs. Matchmaker – so much so that the expert needed a little help herself as she went head-to-head with the mothers. “I thought the moms were fiery last season,” Ray shares, “but that was a fondue compared to the blazing competitors this season! I had to bring in a smoking hot love assistant, Patrick, to keep up with all that fire.”

Related Link: ‘Martha & Snoop’s Potluck Dinner Party’ Producer SallyAnn Salsano Talks About Her Hit Reality TV Shows & Possible ‘Jersey Shore’ Revival

Moms were ready to give their all following the success of the show’s first season, and they sure didn’t disappoint. The process of being a matchmaker isn’t an easy one, especially if you’re butting heads with the mother of a client. Ray recalls working with a mother who called herself the “Mafia Mom” and, boy, did she mean it. The mothers participating in this season showed up “ready to rumble,” making it deliciously exciting for both Ray and her viewers.

Matchmaker Gives Love Advice on the End of “Cuffing Season”

With warm weather just around the corner, Ray’s love advice for the end of “cuffing season” – or winter flings – is short and sweet. “It’s time for spring cleaning!” she exclaims. This advice is both literal and metaphoric when it comes to your life. “Clear out your clutter – in your mind, on your social media, and with your love life. Dump anything or anyone that doesn’t serve you or what you stand for.” Although we all know too well how rough it is to end a winter relationship following long nights of cuddling and cocoa, Ray advises us to leave all of that in the past. The matchmaker thrives off of her ability to connect singles with their life mates and says, “Helping people find love is the best reward I could ever imagine.” So how could her advice possibly steer us wrong?

As for finding someone special in the heart of spring, Ray mentions that if you're looking for love, you have to have a plan. "It's amazing how many singles who are looking for love don't date!" Ray shares. "My number one tip for someone looking for love is to make sure they have a dating strategy and plan in order to find love. You cannot go into dating without a plan for how, where, and when you plan to be dating."

An Inside Look at Celebrity Relationships

Since Ray has been coined "the celebrity matchmaker," it's only fitting that we asked her a few questions regarding the most popular couples in Hollywood. As for Selena Gomez and the Weeknd, the dating expert totally understands why the public adores their relationship. "They get each other's lifestyle and understand the hardships of dealing with their lives constantly being under scrutiny," she says. "This musical pair is an undeniable force and notable power couple." The matchmaker adds that "there's something incredibly undeniable about young, attractive, talented, celebrity couples, especially when they combine forces and publicly display their affection and respect for each other."

Celebrity News: Find Out Why Rob Kardashian Lashed Out at Blac Chyna

By Jessica DeRubbo

There's never a dull moment in the world of the Kardashians! Most recently, the social media world has been buzzing about the drama happening between celebrity couple Rob Kardashian and his fiancée Blac Chyna. According to EOnline.com, Kardashian removed all trace of Chyna from his Instagram account, but according to sources, it's nothing to be alarmed about. Apparently it's just the aftermath of a fight the two had. A source said, "Rob and her have been getting into little tiffs and Blac Chyna flipped on Rob. He was so pissed at how she spoke to him, so he deleted everything about her to hurt her." So, it looks like there may be trouble in paradise. We'll have to see what happens next in this duo's celebrity relationship!

This celebrity news has us getting drawn into Kardashian drama again!

What are some ways to keep your relationship issues private?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt that though relationship drama between the Kardashians may be entertaining, it's not very pleasant when you experience it yourself! Plus, it gets even more taxing when those around you know your private business. Cupid has some tips to keep things between you and your partner:

1. Avoid social media: Social media is good for a lot of things, but keeping your private life private isn't always one of them. Avoid social media when you've just had a disagreement with your partner at all costs. You may be tempted to air your dirty laundry, but you'll almost always regret it in the end.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Rob Kardashian & Blac Chyna Tease New Reality TV Show with Instagram Post

2. Keep details from your friends: Again, it may seem therapeutic to air your frustrations to those closest to you, but resist the temptation! Often times, word will get around. Other times, your friends will simply get the wrong impression of your relationship and think it's bad all the time if you complain too much and fail to tell them about all the good things to balance it out.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Rob Kardashian Deletes Instagram Photos & Blac Chyna Hints at Break-Up

3. Come to an agreement with your partner: The fact is, just because you don't tell people about any relationship issues you may be having, that doesn't mean your partner won't. When you're both calm, have a conversation about some relationship ground rules. Come to an agreement that you will not speak to those around you about any relationship issue you're having, unless you agree on it.

Relationship Advice: Post-Engagement Behavior

By Dr. Jane Greer

Only a few short months after former child star Lindsay Lohan and fiancé Egor Tarabasov professed their love for each other with an engagement, it appears there's trouble in celebrity couple paradise. Lindsay shared a series of posts on social media recently, including a video on Instagram of her fiancé in a club, which she captioned "Home?" She posted another shot with the caption, "Thanks for not coming home tonight. Fame changes people."

After you get engaged, taking that next step in your relationship, the expectation is that you will both live up to your new commitment and want to spend even more time together building your new life. What happens, though, when just the opposite seems to be taking place, and what might it mean for your future?

Sometimes it isn't such a clear path from getting engaged to getting married. For some people, undertaking such a big change and lifelong responsibility can cause people to question their choices and judgment, basically asking, did I make the right decision? That concern and insecurity can trigger their fears and hamper their ability to move forward. As one partner might be looking to be more involved and connected than ever, the other, questioning partner might actually be pulling away and become less available, spending more time elsewhere and possibly even dabbling in activities that can cause jealousy and trust issues. These actions, however, can often be more of a statement of the trepidation that becoming engaged conjures up, rather than a reflection of their true feelings for their partner.

If this happens to you, whether you are on the side of needing more space or the side of wondering what is going on with your fiancé, the most important thing to do is have a conversation with each other to explore the feelings that were triggered by this huge, life-changing event. Leave room to talk about misgivings and insecurities, even if that is difficult, so that at least you have an opportunity to express your concerns with the hope that they don't weigh you down and pull you apart permanently.

Another piece of relationship advice is to seek counseling to address whatever might be getting in the way of your future happiness. Talking to someone about this can help you determine if you jumped into the engagement prematurely, and the best thing to do would be to postpone the wedding or even walk away, or if it is just a temporary setback that can be fixed. Given Lindsay and Egor's apparent break-up, this might be a helpful step. This is a way to work through the tough time and have a better understanding of each other, know you are able to share your fears and conflicts, and perhaps move toward a happy ending.
