In celebrity engagement news, it seems another Pump Rules couple will be heading down the aisle! What are some important things to remember when everyone around you is getting married and having babies?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a fact of life. Friends get married and then, eventually, have babies. Even if you aren't attached to someone yet, you don't need to rush to get married and have babies of your own. Cupid has a few ideas on what to remember when everyone around you is getting married and having babies:

1. Don't rush: You'll have marriage and babies when you are ready for it. Even if you're single, you don't need to put pressure on yourself to meet "the one". Rushing can lead to a lot of mistakes you'll regret later, like marrying the wrong person, and will make your life more difficult once children are involved.

2. You're not selfish: So what if your career is more important than marriage and kids right now? It's okay to focus on the things you want to do while you're still young. Write that novel, take that trip to Scotland for an Outlander tour, or soak up the sun in the Bahamas on a mini-vacay.

3. Your time will come: Nothing is more agitating than having your baby fever kick because of your first meeting your friend's cute new baby and you haven't met someone you're happy with yet. Take the time to enjoy being single. Date and find the right person.

Celebrity Engagement: Bindi Irwin Is Engaged to Long-Time Boyfriend Chandler Powell

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bindi Irwin and her long-time boyfriend, Chandler Powell, of six years are engaged. The celebrity couple got engaged on Irwin's birthday, July 24th, according to an Instagram post by Irwin. The couple did not rush into this engagement, dating for six years beforehand. According to UsMagazine.com, Irwin previously said that she and Powell were "enjoying their lives together." Now that the time has come where the couple has taken that next step, it seems that Irwin is excited to marry the love of her life.

This celebrity engagement has been a long time coming! How do you know when you're ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity couple took their time falling in love and enjoying their lives together before deciding to get engaged.

There are no rules that say that you have to get engaged or married at a certain point in a relationship. Maybe you just want to enjoy your lives together without the pressure of what society thinks you should do like Irwin and Powell, or maybe you just want to take your time before making a lifetime commitment. Cupid has some advice to help you know when you're ready for marriage:

1. You know yourself: Before you tie yourself to another person for life it's important to be confident in the person you are. According to MyDomaine.com, therapist Kimberly Hershenson, LMSW, says, "A successful marriage is more likely if both partners feel secure independently and are able to work as a team moving forward." One way to help you learn yourself is to experience independence. That may mean being single a while, living on your own, or being financially independent.

2. You include your partner in future plans: When you think about your future do you automatically envision your partner there with you? If so then you might be ready for marriage. It doesn't mean that you want or need your partner/spouse present at every social event in your life. It does, however, mean you consider them when you're thinking about or planning the important, meaningful events in your future.

3. You are okay with the fact it won't just be about you anymore: As an adult, you might be set in your ways. Maybe you like the house organized a certain way, want to eat dinner at a specific time every night, or have big dreams. When you find a partner and you know you're ready to get married you will understand that you must learn to put their wants and needs ahead of your own at times. You may have to compromise on things you've gotten used to on your own, but you are okay with that because you want a life with your partner.

1. Stay calm: Listen to your partner and the reasons that they are jealous. This celebrity couple has had us wondering when they were going to get engaged for a while now, but it seems even J.Lo wasn't aware of when it would happen. Both J.Lo and A-Rod seemed content to keep the relationship going as it was, but on their recent vacation in the Bahamas, A-Rod surprised J.Lo with a romantic proposal on the beach with a beautiful ring to match the momentous occasion.

In celebrity wedding news, Alex Rodriguez pulled off a grand surprise for Jennifer Lopez. What are some ways to pull off a romantic surprise?.

Cupid's Advice:

Though a proposal may not be the surprise you're ready to give your partner just yet, there are many other ways to surprise your lover that are super romantic and keep that spark alive. Cupid has some tips:

1. Breakfast in bed: It may seem like a stereotype, but you can't go wrong with breakfast in bed. You get a chance to show off your cooking skills and make it so your partner starts their day on the right foot. It also gives you an excuse to spend a little extra time before you go about the normal business of your day.

2. Get them off their feet: Surprise your partner with a day that's all about them. Give them a massage, make dinner, and run any little errands they may have needed to do.

3. Unexpected vacation: If you know when your significant other has vacation days to be used, buy them a surprise ticket to a place they've always dreamed of going. Plan everything down to the last detail, but leave some room for any additions they may want to do once you both get there. Not ready to break the bank? Vacation in the country and stick to Airbnb, a vacation close to home is still a vacation.

Celebrity Engagement News: J.Lo & A-Rod Are Officially Engaged!

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity couple and celebrity wedding news, Jennifer Lopez and Alex Rodriguez are engaged! Cupid's Advice:

Proposing should be fun and memorable. While you may not want to get a huge ring for your partner, here are a few ways you can get creative:

1. On a keyboard: Remember those old clacky keyboards that had keys you could remove for cleaning? Some updated gaming desktop keyboards can be used for this, too (fun keyboard lights are sure to be eye-catching). Take the keys and rearrange them to ask your partner to marry you!

Celebrity Exes Chris Pratt and Anna Faris Give Co-Parenting Tips!

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, celebrity exes Anna Faris and Chris Pratt remain on good terms while they co-parent their son, Jack. According to US Weekly, Pratt and Faris remain close for the sake of their child. Jack's well-being has been their main focus, especially now, with Pratt's celebrity engagement to Katherine Schwarzenegger and Faris's long-term relationship with Michel Barrett. Faris said, "I think the general idea is making sure he's surrounded by lots of love and happiness." Jack is a lucky kid to have two parents who work together to make him safe and happy even though they are no longer together. Pratt and Faris should start offering parenting advice!

Chris Pratt and Anna Faris are setting the golden standard on co-parenting. What are some ways to co-parent when the relationship is less than friendly?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorce isn't easy, especially when you might never want to see your ex again. How should you set your own golden standard for co-parenting your child(ren)?

1. Remember that you were a happy family once: Even though things are tough now and you might not be able to stand each other, remember that you were a happy family together once. Divorce isn't just hard on the both of you, but on your kid(s) too.

Related Link: Celebrity Exes: How Chris Pratt Told Anna Faris About His Engagement

2. Never speak negatively about the other parent: Hearing bad things about their parents can leave a long-lasting impact on children that might cause them to act out in school or at home. Never, ever say anything nasty about the other parent.

Remember, kids are like sponges. They like to repeat what they hear, and your other co-parent is likely to find out what has been said about them eventually. Would you rather get through this co-parenting thing together relatively unscathed, or hardly be able to stand each other when you're in the same room together if your child needs you?

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Chris Pratt & Katherine Schwarzenegger Are Engaged!

3. The both of you need to swallow your pride: There will be birthday parties, family nights, holiday gatherings, and school events. Your child(ren) needs to feel loved first. They will need reassurance that Mom and Dad can still get along. Put aside your differences and have a board game night. If you've moved on already, include your new S.O. if the other co-parent has agreed to let your kid(s) meet them. While things might be awkward at first, eventually the less than stellar relationship as co-parents will become easier.

What are some ways you suggest making the co-parenting relationship work when things aren't great with your ex?

The couple got engaged three months ago, and the proposal came during a trip to upstate New York, EOnline.com reports.

This celebrity wedding must not have taken long to plan! What are some benefits of a quick engagement??

Cupid's Advice:

Long engagements are the norm when it comes to getting married, but short engagements are the new trend. Cupid has some benefits of a quick engagement:

1. You get married sooner: By having a short engagement you get to marry the person you love faster. If you truly love your partner, what's the point of delaying something truly beautiful?

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Gwyneth Paltrow Gushes Over Newlywed Like with Brad Falchuk

2. Less time to quibble over decision making: With a short engagement, you are limited, which isn't necessarily a bad thing. What that means is that your options are limited on vendors, dates etc. When you have less options, it makes it easier to make a decision. It also means less time to battle over every pro and con on your wedding.

3. Back to real life faster: Adjusting to real life may be smoother with a short engagement. Having a long engagement forces you to stay in the same position with your partner for another year instead of taking the next step.

Bella told EOnline.com in a statement, “After I called off the engagement, we tried to work on our relationship to get back to where it was, and in order to move forward with our wedding. After much time and soul-searching alone and together, we have decided to officially part ways. I had a beautiful and loving 6-year relationship with a wonderful man. I have the utmost respect for John, but I know what is best for me.” A source said Bella is doing well and moving on with her life after the breakup. But, Cena has yet to publicly comment on the breakup. This news comes after Bella’s representative said she and Cena were “working on their relationship” after the two initially called off their engagement just over three months ago. The couple began dating in 2012 and their relationship has been documented on Total Divas and Total Bellas.

It looks like John and Nikki are experiencing a celebrity break-up yet again. What are some factors to consider before reconciling with an ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Are you feeling like you might want to reconcile with an ex? Cupid has some factors for you to consider:

1. Will it last?: Before getting back together with an ex, you want to make sure that the reconciliation will actually last. For Bella and Cena, their reunion was short-lived. Getting back together just to break up again shortly after can cause you more pain than the initial break up did. If you reunite with your ex, make sure you are completely committed to doing so and you are sure things will last for the long term.

2. Have things changed?: You shouldn’t get back together with someone if all the problems that made you two break up are still there. If you choose to reconcile with your ex, all former arguments should be quelled and you two need to have worked through your problems. If a past issue is still present, it's likely to cause more trouble for you further on in your relationship.

3. Are you ready?: It's important you make sure that you are emotionally ready to be in a relationship again after already getting your heartbroken before. You need to make sure prior to reconciling with your ex that you are confident in yourself and are ready for what could happen if the relationship fails again. Don't get back with your ex if you think you won't be able to handle a potential negative outcome from it.
