According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple want to use their last embryo to have their fourth and final child with a surrogate. The couple currently have three celebrity kids of their own. Because of Kardashian's previous high risks pregnancies, doctors advised her of this being the safest way.

In celebrity baby news, Kim and Kanye may be trying for baby number four at some point. What is the value of giving your children siblings?

Cupid's Advice:

Some people are okay with having one child, while others want their child to have a sibling to play with. Cupid has some advice on the value of giving your children siblings:

1. Bonding: It's always cute to see siblings play together. At a young age they start to build this bond that will take them through their most valuable years. Although there will be plenty of fights and arguments, it will only make their bonds stronger. Learning how to build bonds with others is important and who better than to learn with than siblings?

2. Boys and girls: Sometimes you have a specific idea on what kind of family you want. Maybe you want a boy and a girl or all girls or maybe even all boys. When having both boys and girls, it's nice to teach your children how to respect other genders. For example, teaching your son not to hit girls or teaching your girls the importance of keeping your dress down when wearing one. Although you don't need to have one of each to be able to teach these lessons, it's a plus.

Celebrity News: Pamela Anderson Never Talked to Kid Rock Again After Celebrity Divorce

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, actress Pamela Anderson and musician Kid Rock have not spoken since they split. The two had a short-lived marriage in 2006 from July to November, and their celebrity divorce was finalized by 2007, according to UsMagazine.com. Even though the pair had an extravagant yacht wedding, the glue of their relationship didn't seem to hold. Anderson also has two celebrity kids, Brandon Thomas Lee and Dylan Jagger Lee. She shares her sons with her first ex-husband, Tommy Lee.

In celebrity news, Pamela Anderson confessed that she never spoke to her ex Kid Rock again after their divorce. What are some benefits of a clean break when you go through a split?

Cupid's Advice:

It is a struggle to completely cut ties with the person you were just so close to, but sometimes, it is necessary. Prolonging a break-up can serve unfair to both of you. Here are some great things about having the strength to completely cut ties after a split:

1. No wasted time: No time is wasted if it was spent doing what you wanted at the time. But, when you keep in contact with an ex and it is unhealthy for both of you, it can halt the opportunity for you to let go, move on, and find someone new. Be excited for what is to come!

3. No possibility of slipping up: We all know that sometimes we fall back into meeting up with our ex for a drink and then end up regretting it. If you have completely cut ties with your ex, this won't happen. Maybe in a few years after the break-up isn't fresh anymore you two run into each other and catch up, but that isn't a bad thing. The good thing about a clean break-up is eliminating the unhealthy interactions that occur right after the split.

Celebrity News: Blake Shelton Says It's 'So Fun' Having Gwen Stefani's Kids Around

By Carly Horowitz

In recent celebrity news, Blake Shelton is loving the time he gets to spend with the three sons of his girlfriend, Gwen Stefani. According to UsMagazine.com, Shelton says “At this point in my life, I kind of had put [having kids] as like, ‘Well, that wasn’t meant to be.’ Then all of a sudden it happens – one way or another – and it’s like, ‘Wow, I really missed out on a lot.’” Stefani shares her three children with her celebrity ex, Gavin Rossdale. It seems as if Shelton wouldn’t be opposed to having celebrity kids of his own with Stefani. But, a source shared with Us Weekly that, “Their feeling is if it happens naturally, great. But they’ve decided to not focus on it for the time being.” Nevertheless, Shelton is thoroughly enjoying having Kingston, Zuma, and Apollo Rossdale as a part of his life.

In celebrity news, Blake Shelton is relishing having his girlfriend’s kids around. How do you know if your partner will be good with kids?

Cupid's Advice:

It is usually pretty clear that if your partner loves you and is just a caring and kind person in general, then they will be good with kids. But, here are some specific aspects that can really make it clear that your partner will be the perfect parent:

1. They take care of you when you're sick: Remember last year when you were in bed with the flu? Did your partner make you soup and hot tea while they rubbed your back? If they did, then that is absolutely wonderful and that shows that if you two care for children together, they will be just as caring to them.

Celebrity News: Britney Spears Is 'Angry' At Child Support Battle with Kevin Federline

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Britney Spears isn't happy with celebrity ex, Kevin Federline, who is requesting more child support money from her. According to UsMagazine.com, Spears believes that she pays for everything already and she has an inkling that Federline may be requesting this additional money to support his other four children. Spears makes it clear that she does certainly care for her celebrity kids as well, as the ex-couple split time with their kids 50/50. A source reveals, "Those boys are her world. She is an amazing mother." She simply just does not believe that this additional money is needed to help her children live a good life.

In celebrity news, Britney Spears is angry at her ex for asking for additional child support. What are some ways to keep legal battles from affecting your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

After a split, some issues may arise regarding legal matters. You and your ex may disagree on some aspects. Although, it is important to be mature and handle these disputes privately so that it doesn't affect your children. We all know that guaranteeing your children's happiness is the biggest priority. Here are some tips on how to keep these legal battles from negatively affecting your kids:

1. Talk to them: If your kids are older, they most certainly will not be blind to the situation at hand. They may overhear phone call conversations and such. Even though you are trying to keep them out of it, older kids should still be informed so they feel involved and loved. Be honest and explain to them what is going on but assure them that everything is going to be okay.

2. Don't badmouth your ex partner: The last thing you want to do is talk negatively about your kid's other parent in front of them. You never want to make it seem like there is a good guy and a bad guy because that will just create an abundance of stress on your children. Even if you feel as if your ex is a horrible person, keep it to yourself and allow your children to form their own opinions by the way that they treat them.

Parenting Tips: Eating Healthy

By Carly Horowitz

It's extremely important to showcase a healthy lifestyle as a parent. The eating habits that you start your children with set the pace for how your children will eat in the future and throughout the rest of their lives. It's all about balance. Obviously your kids want some treats every so often, and that's okay. As long as most of the foods you are feeding them are healthy, then that is perfect. We all know that sometimes this can be a challenge! Luckily, Cupid is here with some tips and tricks on how to get your kids to eat healthy!

Introduce your children to a healthy lifestyle with these parenting tips!

Here are some clever tips and tricks to help your kids be the healthiest they can be:

1. Go on an adventure: If your children are struggling to enjoy fresh fruits and vegetables, take them to a farm and have them experience picking the fruits and vegetables themselves! Kids love hands-on activities, and this is a great way for them to feel in charge of their own food consumption. Maybe if they pick the blueberries and tomatoes themselves, they will want to eat them!

2. Dip it in: Try adding enhancing ingredients to your children's food to make the experience more delicious for them! Dip vegetables in ranch, hummus, or salsa. Sprinkle some sugar on fruits, or dip them in a yogurt-based sauce! Also, here's another interesting tip: brown sugar can go very well with carrots. Every child has different tastes, so figure out which works best for them personally. It may take some experimenting, but you will have your kids eating healthy in no time.

3. Playful peer pressure: Invite over someone who your child looks up to for dinner –maybe their older cousin or friend. Make it clear that they are eating the healthy food on their plate and so little Johnny should too so that they can be like him! There are plenty of encouraging television shows and YouTube videos as well that promote healthy eating for children. You can even show them that celebrity kids like Bear Blu Jarecki and Rocco Ritchie eat very healthy as well!

4. Cook with them: This is another hands-on activity that can engage your child in eating healthy. When you are preparing dinner, invite the kids to help out so that they will feel like they're contributing. They would be silly not to try eating the healthy meal they have just helped prepare!

Bonus tip- Watch sugary drinks: Most kids love juice and those yummy, sugary, calorie-packed drinks. Try to limit your child's juice intake to just one cup of juice per day. Prompt them to then drink water throughout the day! Staying hydrated is very important, especially for active kids.

Celebrity Break-Up: Jennifer Hudson's Ex David Otunga Will Fight for Primary Custody of Their Son Post-Split

By Karley Kemble

Jennifer Hudson could be facing a long and messy custody battle. In the latest celebrity news, UsMagazine.com reports the American Idol alum and current coach on The Voice is fighting her ex-fiancé David Ortunga for primary guardianship of their son, David Jr. According to Ortunga's attorney, he has been working to settle an "amicable parenting agreement with Ms. Hudson for several weeks now," but the estranged couple has not been able to finalize it. Hudson has previously been granted a petition for Order of Protection against her celebrity ex, citing protection for herself and for her son. The pair announced their celebrity break-up earlier this year.

This celebrity break-up seems to be getting very messy. What are some things to consider when you're splitting with your significant other and you have a child in the picture?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, relationships fizzle out. While a split is always complicated and full of emotions, if you and your estranged partner have a child, there are even higher chances for issues to arise. If you are breaking up with your partner and you share kids, Cupid has some things for you to consider:

1. Be ready to co-parent: You and your partner have a shared responsibility for your kids. If you are splitting up, you should figure out how you'd like to continue raising your kids. Ideally, this should be done without the help of layers and a court. Figure out a system that works best for your lives and stick to it.

2. Adopt a "kids come first" mindset: Establishing this mentality is important after a split. Regardless of the differences between you and your partner, it's important to remember that your kids come first. This will help you in times of conflict and stress. Sometimes, you'll both have to swallow your pride and put on a happy face for the sake of your kids' well-being.

3. Keep it professional: Never badmouth your partner in front of your kids. No matter the situation, it's important to voice your negative opinions in private. By projecting your feelings about your ex onto your kids, you could cause long-term emotional issues for them. Let your children form their own opinions and conclusions, and make sure you're there for them when they need you.

Parenting Tips: How To Set a Good Example For Your Child

By Noelle Downey

When it comes to parenting, setting a good example for your children can be one of the trickiest parts. Although every good parent wants their kids to look up to them and be able to positively emulate their behavior, in reality, setting a good example can be much more complicated than it first seems. It requires constant attention to your actions and reactions around your child, and a good sense not only of your child's perception of you, but of your perception of yourself. According to UsNews.com, Madeline Levine, renowned psychologist and author, spoke to this concept recently, saying that true integrity is shown, "by a thousand small examples.” Robyn Silverman, child and teen development specialist, agrees, “They hear your process,” she advises, noting that it’s important to articulate your good decisions and why you’re making them so the child can learn to appreciate your moral compass and follow your example.

Whether you’re a celebrity parent or not, it’s vital to set a good example for your children to insure that they grow up to be healthy, well-adjusted adults. Check out this parenting advice to demonstrate to your kids through your actions the way you want them to behave.

Setting a good example for your children is complicated, but not impossible. Just like celebrity kids, your children may struggle to know how to act even if they’re not growing up in the spotlight. Below are some tips for how to show, rather than only tell, your kids how to act:

Prioritize spending time with your kids: Celebrity mom and famous actress Katherine Heigl once asserted in an interview, “family comes first” and we couldn’t agree more! Your kids can’t learn from your example if you’re never around to begin with. Although life is busy and other priorities should also be on your list, make sure your children know how much you care about them by spending quality time focusing only on them. Just being together will teach your kids to value family time and your advice in particular!

Watch what you say: If you're constantly complaining in the car to your partner with your kid in the back seat, or mumbling a series of not-so-nice words when you step on a favorite toy left out in the middle of the living room, your child will pick up on it. While you should find time and space to vent or deal with negative emotions verbally, try not to do so in front of your kids. By considering carefully how your kids will interpret what you say and choosing to be positive, kind and thoughtful with your words when you're around them, you'll show them that what you say matters and make them less likely to learn bad habits when it comes to talking out their problems.

Be self-aware and in the moment: When it comes to being a good example for your kids, one of the most important steps you can take is to focus on being your best self in the moment. While it's easy to get caught up in your head as a parent, in a 2014 interview with Cupid's Pulse, reality star and celebrity parent Rosie Pope cautioned mothers not to forget what's going on in the here and now. "You have to be really present in the moment, because you don't have a lot of time to do anything," Pope counsels, "You have to be 100 percent present to feel fulfilled and know that you're getting the most out of every moment." If your child observes your focus on living in the moment and making sure your behavior in the here-and-now is nothing short of stellar, they'll want to mimic that way of life.

Communicate when you've made a mistake: Nobody's perfect, and you shouldn't expect yourself to be either. We all make mistakes, and even if you try your hardest to set a good example for your children, at some point there's bound to be a slip-up. Don't be afraid to tell your child you acted poorly in a situation if they see you lose control for a moment or two. Apologize, explain why what you did was unacceptable and take steps to move forward. Your child will ultimately respect you for owning up to your mistake and it will teach them to also be honest and take responsibility for their actions when you discipline them in the future.

Setting a good example for your child is an important part of the parenting process. Although no one is capable of being a good example every minute of every day, we should all strive to better ourselves for the benefit of our children. By taking the time and making the effort to demonstrate good actions to your child, you are investing in not only their future, but the future of the world.

Former Celebrity Couple Kate Hudson & Matt Bellamy Reunite for Son's Birthday

By Nicole Caico

On July 9, actress Kate Hudson and her rockstar ex-fiance, Matt Bellamy, joined forces to celebrate their son's fifth birthday. UsMagazine.com reports that the former celebrity couple took their celebrity kids, Ryder (12) and Bing (5), to Palace Theatre in London to see the new Harry Potter and the Cursed Child play. Since calling off their engagement in 2014, Hudson and Bellamy have redefined their celebrity relationship. The two remain amicable for their children and continue to run a joint wine company, Hudson Bellamy Wines.

This former celebrity couple isn't letting their differences get in the way! What are some ways to remain civil with your ex for the sake of your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone can remain as friendly as Kate Hudson and Matt Bellamy. Remaining civil with an ex isn't easy. You parted ways for a reason, and it definitely wasn't because you just loved each other too much. Though you may want to run in the other direction every time you see your ex, that won't help your children at all. Here are some basic ways to remain civil with your ex:

1. Take responsibility: Chances are that when you split from your ex, some ground rules were laid out—either on your own or in court. Follow them. Do not deviate from the schedule, and be sure to hold up your end of the deal. This will help avoid additional issues and show that you respect your ex's time with your kids.

2. Mind your business: Whether your ex is telling you about a date he or she went on, or your kids are relaying information, if it doesn't have to do with you or your children, stay out of it. You may feel entitled to weigh in, but don't do it. Staying out of your ex's personal life or love life will keep everyone's lives more simple.

3. Play nice: Maybe you two couldn't stand each other at the time of the split, but now that you've parted ways, tensions should die down. Remain polite when dealing with your ex, especially in front of your kids. If you respect each other, say "thank you" when you can, or do a favor here and there. Co-parenting will work out much more nicely.

Six Celebrity Couples We Never Imagined Together

By Abbi Comphel and Whitney Johnson

There are plenty of pairings that just make sense: peanut butter and jelly; flip-flops and the beach; bright red lipstick and that little black dress, to name a few. That's not to say that unexpected matches don't make their mark: bacon and chocolate (seriously); navy and black; cowboy boots in the summertime. This idea holds true for relationships, too. Sometimes, a couple just seems right, and other times, it takes a bit more convincing to understand why they're a good fit.

If nothing else, the celebrity couples below prove that love can pop up in the most unexpected places and that opposites do attract. As for bacon and chocolate, the jury is still out.

1. Johnny Depp and Amber Heard: In latest celebrity news, this A-list actor married the Magic Mike XXL star in February 2015. The celebrity couple have been together for quite some time now. With a 23-year age difference, the pair have definitely made headlines. Heard doesn't want to be known as Depp's wife. She wants to make a strong name for herself in the acting world. This is one beautiful power couple!

2. Heidi Klum and Seal: For Klum, it was love at first sight: she saw Seal in a New York City hotel lobby and knew that he was "the whole package." They were together for quite some time and were madly in love. The celebrity couple sadly did not make it like everyone thought they would, and the relationship ended up celebrity divorce. But they are still very good friends and enjoy raising their four children together.

3. Lady Gaga and Taylor Kinney: Everyone was shocked when they heard Lady Gaga was dating someone and even more surprised when they found out it was actor Taylor Kinney. The two are talked about in the media because they keep their relationship very private. They have been together for about four years now and seem very happy together. They were first introduced when Gaga was filming her music video for "You and I."

4. Isla Fisher and Sacha Baron Cohen: This petite, fiery redhead and tall funnyman wed in a private ceremony in Paris in 2010 after eight years together. The couple are now raising their three children in Los Angeles. Keeping in line with the secrecy of their celebrity wedding, the couple waited quite a while to reveal the names of their celebrity kids: Olive, Elula Lottie Miriam, and Montgomery Moses Brian Baron Cohen.

5. AnnaLynne McCord and Dominic Purcell: The 90210 starlet and Prison Break actor were first spotted together in June 2011 and the two were very in love. With a 17-year age difference this celebrity relationship had a few struggles. But it seems the two are back together and still in love. McCord celebrated her 28th birthday this summer and Purcell was there to celebrate.
