But, knowing when you're ready to walk down the aisle is an important decision for every couple. If you've been with someone for a while, and you're wondering if you're both ready to dive headfirst into marriage, fortunately, Cupid has some love advice on signs you should look out for:

1. You recognize that effort is necessary: There's a certain stereotype that claims when you find the right one, everything will be easy. But, that isn't the case. In fact, every relationship has hardship and takes two people coming together to make an effort to keep their love alive. If you or your partner hasn't realized that being in this marriage is a long-term commitment to making an effort with one another, then maybe you're not ready to say "I do."

2. You make long-term plans together: If you're in it for the long haul, chances are both you and your partner have talked about your future together. Making serious life plans with your significant other is a big sign that you're ready for marriage. You've talked about your hopes and dreams, and you've supported one another when discussing them. Never plan a wedding if your future doesn't feature your partner as being apart of it.

3. You've done your fair share of soul-searching: Before you commit to someone else, you first must commit to yourself. If you're expecting your partner to love you, you've got to invest in loving yourself, too. You've got to be willing, to be honest with yourself and to know every facet of who you are under different circumstances. Soul-searching is a hard part of life, and it can be very uncomfortable. Bieber & Hailey Baldwin Celebrate Upcoming Nuptials #2 with Rehearsal Dinner

By Hope Ankney

In celebrity wedding news, Justin Bieber and Hailey Baldwin are getting ready to say “I do” for the second time! According to People.com, the celebrity couple held a rehearsal dinner for close family members on Saturday in South Carolina. Coming up on a year since the two secretly tied the knot in New York City at the courthouse, both Bieber and Baldwin wanted to host a bigger ceremony with their friends and family.

Justin and Hailey prepare for their second celebrity wedding with food and family. What are some ways to incorporate family in your wedding celebration?

Cupid's Advice:

Planning a wedding is one of the most stressful events to pull off. By the time the day comes, it goes by in such a whirlwind that it's hard to keep up with everyone and everything. But, sometimes family can help in easing the chaos you might feel as everything comes together for the big day. By incorporating your family into your wedding celebration, it can feel more personal and even reduce stress or wedding jitters. Cupid has some relationship tips for both you and your partner for incorporating your family before you walk down the aisle:

1. Unique walks down the aisle: The famous Office scene where the entire cast dances down the aisle in Jim and Pam's wedding is one that has been cemented in iconic television history. Everyone has seen that clip or even other ceremonies that implemented this idea. It's a fun and easy way to incorporate your family and friends into a part of your wedding that'll be incredibly memorable. You can have one song that is playing as everyone jigs down the aisle or you can try different songs for different groups. You can give the bridesmaids and grooms a song, the parents a song, and the flower girls and ring bearer a song. It'll liven up the ceremony and make everyone feel included.

2. Musical loved one: Instead of hiring a DJ, if you or your partner have a talented family member, allow them to either open or close the wedding by singing or playing a beautiful song. It's even better if the loved one has created their own, personalized song for the occasion. It proves to be very intimate, and it can give the family member such honor to perform at your ceremony.

3. Honoring the deceased: It's always a very personal and touching part of a wedding if the bride and groom take time to honor family members and loved ones that are no longer with them. There are many ways to do this. You can ask for a moment of silence for the departed. You can have family members come light a candle out of remembrance. Or, my personal favorite, is for a tree to be planted in honor of those that have been lost. Make it an uplifting part of your ceremony where it seems like they're celebrating alongside you.

wedding in the works! How do you know your partner wants to marry you for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a beautiful thing, but knowing when a long-term partner is wanting to marry you for the right reasons can be harder to decipher than one might think. Walking down the aisle is a big commitment, and it's important to know that your significant other is in it for the same reasons you are. If you're thinking about marriage, but you don't know exactly how to tell if your partner is sincere, don't fret! Luckily, Cupid has some love advice that will help you know if your partner is the real deal or not:

1. They make future plans with you in them: Let's be honest, most people don't talk about things they would rather not entertain. But, if your partner has been making plans about their future and you're apart of it, this could be a great way to know that they're marrying you for the right reasons. Bringing up future plans, in general, is a good sign in knowing how much they trust you, as well. They're opening their thoughts to your opinion about something important to them because they value it that much!

2. Other people tell you that they brag about how great you are when you're not around: An important part of a relationship is in how that person treats you when you're not there. How do they talk about you? How do they discuss your relationship? If friends, coworkers, and family alike speak up about how highly they praise you outside of being together, it's a sign that they're in the relationship for the right reasons. Your spouse should be one of your favorite people, so make sure they're just as great without you as they are with you before saying "I do."

3. They don't run when things get tough: All relationships have their ups-and-downs. It's just in how you handle them that tells how healthy your relationship is. Challenges never fully disappear, and the longer you're together, the more challenges you'll face together. During these trying times, if your partner is determined to stay by your side and stick it through, that's a great indication that they're marrying you for the right reasons. Never commit yourself to anyone who runs when things get tough.

This celebrity wedding was a very Hawaiian affair! What are some themes to consider for your wedding?

Cupid’s Advice:

Decorating isn’t always the best part of planning for a wedding, but hosting a theme can really liven up the occasion. Themed weddings are always fun as they allow a couple to really express their style and creativity. It proves to be much more immersive as the theme can tie into invitations, hashtags, wedding cake, and more! Here are Cupid's suggestions of fun themes to consider for your wedding:

1. Under-the-sea wedding: A personal favorite is a wedding that has an underwater theme because it is a fun and unique way to entertain your guests! You can get crazy with table decorations by incorporating brightly colored fish into the centerpieces, print off aquatic invitations, and you can even set-up a photobooth station with a sea-life backdrop for everyone to take fun photos in front of. The color palette for this theme is so varied, you don't even have to worry about colors clashing. And, if you're invested enough, you might even be able to host your reception at a real aquarium!

2. Halloween wedding: A Halloween-themed wedding is one that never fails to be a memorable event. If you enjoy the holiday and love to dress up, consider this idea as one to plan your wedding around! Guests could come dressed up to the ceremony or reception in any costume they pleased as the decorations and meal revolve around the spooky day. Celebrity Wedding: Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson Secretly Marries Lauren Hashian in Hawaii

By Ashley Johnson

In celebrity wedding news, Dwayne “The Rock” Johnson and Lauren Hashian tied the knot! The movie star may have been calling the Garcia Companies CEO his wife for years, but it was not until Sunday, August 18th the two made it official in true celebrity style. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple had a secret Hawaiian wedding, accompanied by traditional leis and a classic sunset. The wedding was picture-perfect, as the newlyweds posed in front of the waterfront after their nuptials and posted to Instagram, which caught the attention of many other celebrities, such as Tom Brady and Kevin Hart.

This celebrity wedding was a big surprise! What are some benefits to keeping your wedding under wraps?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting married can be one of your most special moments in life, and you can feel very pressured in making sure that your big day is perfect for you and your partner. That being said, sometimes big life moments do not have to be such an event, but rather the moment itself is special enough. Sometimes getting carried away with a big guest list and making excessive plans can ruin the special moment, so Cupid has some advice on the benefits of keeping your wedding under wraps:

1. Fewer opinions: When fewer people know about your wedding or are invited to your wedding, it can put a lot less pressure on you and your partner. Everyone is going to have an opinion on something: the dress you are wearing, the food being served, the music being played at the wedding, etc., so it is best that you focus on yourself and your partner's needs/wants rather than those of numerous guests. It is yours and your partner's special day, and no one else's!

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: 'DWTS' Cheryl Burke and Matthew Lawrence Marry in San Diego

2. Less money: If you are keeping the big day just between you and your partner then you certainly have no one but yourselves to impress. You are free to make whatever arrangements you want to for your wedding and do not have to worry about it being so extravagant for a big group of people. Anything like food, drinks, or seating will be completely up to you, as there will be very few or no guests in attendance.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding News: Zoe Kravitz & Karl Glusman Secretly Married

3. More special: Your wedding could be a whole lot more special with just your dearest friends and family. Big extravaganzas can be fun, but they will not be as intimate as a small wedding with a select guest list. When your closest loved ones are there to watch you and your partner make vows to each other it can make the moment feel a lot more special, as opposed to inviting a list of guests you have no direct relationship with.

Two years after their big wedding celebration, which was televised on their reality show, 'N Sync's Lance Bass revealed that the marriage did not have an official license. According to EOnline.com, the couple failed to properly fill out the required paperwork. Cupid's Advice:

Congrats, you're engaged! Among the excitement as you rush to the alter, planning every last detail can feel like a juggling act. Here are some must haves before you say 'I do'.

1. The License: Learn your lesson from Tom and Katie and get a license. This is perhaps the most essential piece to a successful wedding, considering it confirms the actual marriage. If you don't know where to start, call or visit your local county clerk's office. Remember that the license will take some time to be processed.

2. Meet the officiant: Prior to the wedding, plan a meeting with your officiant. This will give you time to go over the ceremony and inform the officiant of your desires. The added benefit of meeting beforehand is that if your officiant is a regular at performing weddings (ie: priest, rabbi, officer of the court) they'll know the official documents you'll need to send in as well.

3. Vendors: About two months before the wedding, touch base with your vendors again. Reaffirm that they will be at the agreed location at the correct time and presenting the correct menu. This is also a great time to get any questions you or they have answered.

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding is ultimately about you and your partner joining together. So it makes sense to personalize the ceremony and reception to reflect who you are as a couple. Here are some ways to add character to your wedding day:

1. Honor those who've passed: You may have a close relative who has passed away. That doesn't mean they can't be a part of your special day. Take a tip from Jax, whose father passed, and save a special seat with a photo or poem for your loved one. Consider dedicating that spot to their ashes or a rose.

2. Include pets: If your furry friend is a big part of your life with your significant other, consider adding them to the

1. Prepare your guest list: When considering where you want to have your wedding, you need to know how many guests you want to invite because you will need to make sure you find a location that can accommodate all of the people you really want to be there for your special day. Social media is a powerful tool, but it can also cause irreparable damage to a relationship if used unwisely. Cupid has some advice on how to be careful with social media:

1. Beware of screenshots: Screenshots can be taken on both a computer and a phone now without much effort. Choose your words carefully when sending a text message. Sometimes it is better to have a phone conversation to settle differences with your partner or friend if there is a disagreement. Do not say something that can be used against you later.

2. Not EVERYTHING has to go public: Keeping parts of your relationship between you and your partner will benefit your relationship more than you think. Sometimes we get excited about gifts and can't wait to share it because your partner was so thoughtful. This can cause jealousy. It's better to keep it to yourself unless it's a big milestone like the decision to buy a house together, or an engagement or baby announcement.

3. Consider your partner's feelings: How do they feel about a post before you post it? You should ask your partner before you share anything because what you might not feel is private may be something they would never post. Communication is key to making a relationship work and you cannot communicate efficiently if you can't even agree with what is appropriate to post online.

Celebrity Wedding News: J.Lo Was 'Surprised' When A-Rod Asked Her to Marry Him

By Megan McIntosh

According to UsMagazine.com, Jennifer Lopez was in for quite the surprise when she went on vacation with her boyfriend of two years, Alex Rodriguez. This celebrity couple has had us wondering when they were going to get engaged for a while now, but it seems even J.Lo wasn't aware of when it would happen. Both J.Lo and A-Rod seemed content to keep the relationship going as it was, but on their recent vacation in the Bahamas, A-Rod surprised J.Lo with a romantic proposal on the beach with a beautiful ring to match the momentous occasion.

In celebrity wedding news, Alex Rodriguez pulled off a grand surprise for Jennifer Lopez. What are some ways to pull off a romantic surprise?.

Cupid's Advice:

Though a proposal may not be the surprise you're ready to give your partner just yet, there are many other ways to surprise your lover that are super romantic and keep that spark alive. Cupid has some tips:

1. Breakfast in bed: It may seem like a stereotype, but you can't go wrong with breakfast in bed. You get a chance to show off your cooking skills and make it so your partner starts their day on the right foot. It also gives you an excuse to spend a little extra time before you go about the normal business of your day.

2. Get them off their feet: Surprise your partner with a day that's all about them. Give them a massage, make dinner, and run any little errands they may have needed to do.

3. Unexpected vacation: If you know when your significant other has vacation days to be used, buy them a surprise ticket to a place they've always dreamed of going. Plan everything down to the last detail, but leave some room for any additions they may want to do once you both get there. Not ready to break the bank? Vacation in the country and stick to Airbnb, a vacation close to home is still a vacation.

4. Surprise party: Have a get-together or party that's all about your partner. If their birthday is near, then plan the birthday party they've always wanted. Go all out with a theme that lets them really shine! If there's no birthday party in the near future, you can still celebrate your partner. Just have a party or get together just to show off your love.

The two have been dating since 2017. Aww, congrats to them both!

This celebrity engagement was a huge surprise to Jennifer Lopez! What are three fun surprise proposal ideas?

Cupid's Advice:

Proposing should be fun and memorable. While you may not want to get a huge ring for your partner, here are a few ways you can get creative:

1. On a keyboard: Remember those old clacky keyboards that had keys you could remove for cleaning? Some updated gaming desktop keyboards can be used for this, too (fun keyboard lights are sure to be eye-catching). Take the keys and rearrange them to ask your partner to marry you!

2. On the beach: Pop the question on your summer beach vacation! You can do this in a lot of ways: drawing the question in the sand, making a sculpture, or just getting down on your knee with the ring if you don't want to get super fancy.

3. A themed proposal: Probably one of the most fun, choose either your partner's favorite book, show, or movie, and theme your entire proposal around it! Dress like Darcy and Elizabeth from Pride and Prejudice; build some Legos into a Star Wars themed wedding ring proposal, or put the ring in a mini Tardis if you're asking a Whovian to marry you.

Having a secret wedding relieves some of this pressure and allows you both to focus on what's important.

The ‘Bachelor’ alum celebrity wedding was stunning! What are some ways you can have an equally glamorous wedding without the cost?

Cupid’s Advice:

You can have your own themed wedding too! Even if you haven’t chosen a wedding planner, Cupid thinks these ideas are super fun and cost-effective:

1. Don’t be afraid to geek out: Are you a Star Wars and Legos fan? If you’re going for a galactic-themed wedding, use Legos to make your wedding cake topper. If you or your future spouse have Legos from the Star Wars Line, you can have tons of fun sorting through bricks and mini light-sabers together to make a cake topper that represents you both. You can also have your hair done like Princess Leia on your special day!

2. Go for `something simpler: Okay, so maybe you don’t want to take your wedding theme off of Earth. Instead, you want your own Twilight inspired wedding. You don’t need to spend an arm and a leg on candles and lace for the bride and groom table. Go to a craft store and buy some lace to put across the table and, if you live in a rural area, let nature be the backdrop for your wedding photos.

3. Be a bargain shopper bride: You don't have to have the most in-style wedding dress right now for your special day. Absolutely make sure you love it before you buy it, but make certain you're aware of your budget and don't shy away from a deal. Also, keep the bridesmaids in mind if you're going to buy their dresses. Dress shops are bound to have dresses on clearance as long as your girls are willing to be flexible. The shoes don't even have to be from the dress shop either. Discount shoe stores sometimes have buy-one, get-one-free: take advantage.

What justifies telling your ex about moving on?

Cupid's Advice:

Even though you might feel it's not their business, there may be times you need to let your ex know that you're moving on. What reasons would justify telling your ex about the details of your new relationship?

1. You're still friends: Not all relationships end completely with social media and number-blocking. In some cases, you might decide to stay friends with your ex. Maybe you work together or have the same circle of friends and don't want to cause tension or strife. Letting them know you're moving on before anyone else can soften the blow.

2. You have children: Whether you are just starting to date again or are ready to propose to an amazing new person, you're going to want your ex to know. You will want your child(ren) to meet them, since the person you're in a relationship with is now a big part of your life and theirs. Letting your ex know before anyone else that you're moving on will help prevent any potential arguments and will protect your child's well-being.

3. You want to let them down easy: Maybe you've tried telling your ex that you're moving on, but it's had the opposite effect; they think you actually want to get back with them. It's totally okay to let them know that you're moving on, but make sure you let them down easy. If you want to maintain the friendship with them eventually, they need to know that you have met someone else; potentially leading them on could turn disastrous later.

What are some other reasons you might justify telling your ex that you've decided to move on?

Who to take: Take someone you don't mind getting emotional in front of. Your significant other would be a great choice, or take your best friend. I would advise against taking young children or making this your choice for a first date.

Cupid's Advice:

We're inspired by the unconditional love that is felt between Jack and Ally. It can be tough when you love someone that has personal demons that they are trying to deal with. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to support your partner in their time of need:

- 1. Try not to be an enabler: If you and your partner were regulars at the local bar, it's time to make that habit a thing of the past. For your partner to get over their addiction, they have to stay away from anything that can entice their behavior.

2. Stop making excuses for them: For your partner to get better, it's important for you to stop allowing them to skip family gatherings or not come to the phone when their mother calls. It's best that you don't try to handle this all on your own, so including other family members on treatment plans is a good idea.
