

Celebrity Couple News: Find Out How Cardi B & Offset Make Their Relationship Work

By

Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, hip-hop power couple Cardi B and Offset pass the two-year anniversary of announcing their celebrity wedding. In June 2018, Cardi B announced the couple had been married for nine months. The rapper said that there are aspects of her life she wants to keep private, which included their marriage: "Our relationship was so new breaking up and making up and we had a lot of growing to do but we was so in love we didn't want to lose each other." The celebrity couple had a lot of ups and downs in their relationship: their secret marriage, a cheating scandal, the birth of their daughter and a period of separation, to name a few. Despite the chaos, the couple has remained strong over the past three years. Cardi B told Vogue: “Me and my husband, we prayed on it... It’s really us against the world.”

In celebrity couple news, Cardi B and her husband Offset have had their share of ups and downs. How do you rise above difficult times in a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

No couple is perfect, but it can be hard to hold onto your relationship when things are especially rocky. You and your partner both need to work on your relationship. It’s easier said than done to fix the problems in your relationship. If you don’t know where to start, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Spend more time together: Some relationships struggle when you don’t spend enough time together. Conflicting schedules and long-distance can take a toll on any couple, but it’s important to put the time into it. Plan a day to spend together each week. It doesn’t have to be elaborate: it can be a Netflix night in or a planned FaceTime call.

2. Identify bad behavior: It can be hard to tell exactly what’s going wrong in your relationship. It’s important to figure out where the negativity is coming from. If it’s from outside the relationship—like work stress or mental health issues—you and your partner can tackle it together.

3. Hold on to positivity: Relationship problems can feel like they overshadow the positives in a relationship. To fix the issues, you and your partner need to keep trusting and loving each other. If you forget about the good times, you won't have anything to motivate you to get through the issues in your relationship.

Celebrity Wedding: Raven-Symoné Marries Miranda Maday in Surprise Ceremony

By

Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Raven-Symoné announced on Instagram that she and girlfriend Miranda Maday were married in a surprise ceremony on June 18. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity wedding was an intimate backyard ceremony due to the Coronavirus pandemic. The celebrity couple has kept their relationship private, but Symoné opened up about her new wife on her Instagram post: “I got married to a woman who understands me from trigger to joy, from breakfast to midnight snack, from stage to home.”

In celebrity wedding news, Raven-Symone is officially off the market. What are some ways to explain a small wedding ceremony with few guests to extended family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a small wedding might be perfect for you. It's more intimate. It's cheaper. It's less stressful. The only downside is chopping down your guest list. If you're worried about your distant relatives and coworkers asking why they weren't invited, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Blame your budget: One way to curve these awkward conversations is by blaming your budget. Tell those that didn't make the guest list that your tight budget prevented you from inviting everyone you wanted to celebrate with you.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 3 Best Places for Women to Meet Women

2. Blame your family: Another way to dodge this question is to bring up how you want your wedding to be intimate. Tell them that the guest list is made up of only your closest family members and your wedding party.

Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton are waiting until after the COVID-19 pandemic ends to tie the knot. The celebrity couple has been secretive about their wedding plans, leaving fans in the dark about their engagement. A source close to the couple told UsMagazine.com that Stefani had begun the process to annul her previous marriage in the Catholic church in March of last year. this long to get married with family watching on Zoom,” the source reveals.

In celebrity wedding news, Gwen and Blake want to take the next step in their relationship and tie the knot, but they want to wait until after the pandemic. What are some ways to have a special wedding celebration during the pandemic?

Cupid’s Advice:

Quarantine has put a halt to a lot of weddings. Whether you pushed back your ceremony or decided to get married without the reception (for now), you’ll still want to do something special. Whether you want to celebrate your actual marriage or your would-have-been wedding date, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Virtual reception: While a Zoom-sponsored wedding reception may not have been your first choice, being able to talk to your closest friends is worth it. Get dressed up and make speeches with your wedding party and others close to you!

Celebrity Wedding News: Sienna Miller 'Can't Wait' to Make Lucas Zwirner Her Husband

By

Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, actress Sienna Miller is excited to tie the knot with fiancé Lucas Zwirner. The celebrity couple got engaged in February after meeting in December 2018. A source close to the pair told UsMagazine.com that Miller “can’t wait” to turn her fiancé into her husband. “They’re so in love. They’re so excited for this new chapter,” revealed the source. The couple hasn’t announced a date for their celebrity wedding yet.

In celebrity wedding news, Sienna Miller is in planning mode for her marriage to Lucas Zwirner. What are some ways to incorporate both of your personalities into your wedding day?

Cupid’s Advice:

Your wedding should be a great day for both you and your spouse. It's easy to get caught up in your ideas on how the day should go, but it's just as much your partner's special day as it is yours. If you're not sure how to involve your future spouse in the wedding process, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Start on the same page: Set the tone for your wedding planning process. Let your partner know that their ideas are just as valid as yours and that you want their help. A good jumping-off point is making a list of must-haves for each of you and coming together to see what's most important to the other.

2. Put them in charge: Give your partner complete control over an aspect of your wedding. If they're passionate about music, let them make the decisions regarding the band or DJ. If you're in charge of other aspects of our special day, your partner should have the same experience.

3. Value their input: Let your partner voice their opinions. A good way to do this is to present your partner with your topic choices. Let them help you decide between your top three cake choices. Not only will it make the decision process simpler, it gives both parties input on an aspect of the wedding.

Celebrity Wedding: 'Bachelorette' JoJo Fletcher & Jordan Rodgers Get Engaged ... Again

By

Katie Sotack

Almost a year after his initial proposal on The Bachelorette, Jordan Rodgers proposed to JoJo Fletcher all over again. The celebrity news was revealed on Rodgers' Instagram on Saturday, featuring a photo of the couple showing off Fletcher's new rock. The caption went on to explain that their first proposal for the show was real and meant the world to both of them. However, as they began planning their wedding, they wanted to do it their own way, in private. Cue proposal number two!

Perhaps there will be a celebrity wedding on the horizon finally for this Bachelorette couple. What are some ways to make your partner feel special during a long engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Wedding bells are in your future, but the road to the chapel is a long one. Fear not! Long engagements are challenging, but there are ways to reassure your partner and reaffirm your love during the process.:

1. Remember the date: Commit to small gestures that remind your partner you are excited for your nuptials, however far down the line they may be. Write the date with doodled hearts on your fridge's whiteboard, or leave your partner a sticky note reading "one year to go!" However you remind your significant other of your excitement, make it a fun, any day surprise.

2. Keep the romance going: Wedding planning can throw your brain into overdrive. Find a balance between excitement for your wedding and commitment to your love life by scheduling date nights where wedding talk is off the table.

3. Take small steps: Do not let your engagement drag without any planning whatsoever. Even if your wedding is set years down the line, make yourself a schedule. Try to settle at least one detail a month so that both you and your partner feel you're moving forward.

Celebrity Wedding: 'Teen Mom 2' Star Jo Rivera Marries Vee

Torres with Ex Kailyn Lowry in Attendance

By

Courtney Shapiro

The knot was recently tied for celebrity couple Jo Rivera and Vee Torres. The Teen Mom 2 celebrity wedding was filled with love and family as Torres' son Isaac and daughter with Rivera, Vivi, participated as the ring bearers. According to UsMagazine.com, Torres' ex Kailyn Lowry was also at the wedding. Lowry attended with her best friend and sent a tweet thanking her for "wiping my tears as I bawled." Rivera and Torres declared their engagement in April and were both looking forward to their big day.

In this celebrity wedding, Rivera's ex attended. What are some ways to decide whether to include your ex on the guest list for your nuptials?

Cupid's Advice:

Is it okay to have you ex at your wedding? Cupid has some thoughts on when this is okay:

1. The relationship with the ex isn't fresh: If you have been in your current relationship longer than you were broken up and were able to be in a friendship with your ex, then having them at your wedding shouldn't be an issue. The past is in the past and both of you are currently happy with the life you live, so it should be easy to include them on the guest list.

2. The ex is a part of the couple's life: The ex shouldn't be invited to the wedding if they are just a random person brought up from the past. If the couple spends time with this person and thinks of them as a friend rather than an ex, then they can choose if they want that person there or not.

3. The ex is the other parent to your child: This is more of a courtesy to the child rather than to either of the parents. It shows that even though the parents are not together, there is no hostility between them, which gives the child an easier time of understanding the new relationship.

This royal celebrity wedding was highly anticipated and watched by millions. What are some ways to cope with your anticipation of your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is one of the most anticipated days of your life. Typically people count down from months, to years before their big day. Cupid has some advice to cope with the anticipation of your big day:

1. Celebrate: This is a huge step in your life and is definitely a time to celebrate. With the drama and stress that surrounds weddings, you need time to relax and let loose. Besides the bachelor/bachelorette parties, maybe have a night where everyone can come together and relax together.

2. Anticipate: Now, this may sound negative, but it can be a very effective tool to use. It's simple; if you anticipate drama and mistakes with the thought, "What's the worst that could happen?" you will get through the weeks leading up to the big day. It's almost like reverse psychology. You will mentally be prepared for anything thrown at you.

Budget-Friendly Tips for Holiday Weddings

By

Cara Davis and Kayla Garritano

The countdown to the holidays has begun! The holiday season can be the only time of year that's simultaneously joyous and stressful. For some, this season will bring with it the event of a lifetime: a wedding. Those planning holiday winter weddings have several opportunities to save money and lessen the stress burden for themselves and their guests. You can be glamorous like a celebrity wedding, but keep it all in a budget!

These tips will be sure to give you a holiday wedding that won't break the bank!

1. Deck the halls: Most event locations will have already decked the halls for the holidays, allowing you to piggyback their efforts for a low-cost wedding. Go with Christmas hues of gold, red and green – or go for a silvery winter blitz. Strings of white Christmas lights will transform any room into a holiday paradise. Beautiful, and affordable.

2. Silver bells: Create budget large-scale ornaments as decorations using styrofoam balls. Spray-paint them and cover them in glitter. Or you can create groupings of bare branches spray-painted white and covered in silver glitter. Sounds like a winter wonderland! Paper ornaments can play as great wedding invitations or wedding favors.

3. Seasons eatings: Comfort food is a popular winter wedding choice (think soups, pasta, pot pies and mac-n-cheese). Don't shy away from cost-cutting measures like serving family-style or buffet. Consider a hot chocolate, cider, eggnog or coffee bar to which your guests can immediately help themselves (plus, you'll save hundreds by skipping the alcohol).

4. Marshmallow world: Gingerbread houses make quaint table centerpieces, as do natural greenery and berries. Cocoa mixes or cookie cutters also make inexpensive wedding favors. You can also buy a bunch of marshmallows, chocolate and graham crackers to make a s'mores kit!

5. Peace on Earth and online: Couples are increasingly using online wedding planning tools, like creating or sending save-the-date and invitations online, personal websites and online RSVP services. They are also using social media to communicate wedding details. Brides and grooms also have the option of registering online for gift cards at sites like CardAvenue.com, which is a great option for guests already overwhelmed with holiday shopping lists.

Pandora or Spotify are excellent, economical methods to pipe in some yuletide carols at the appropriate time during your reception.

According to UsMagazine.com, following their celebrity marriage in August, Theroux joked around in an interview with Extra, "I made her change both names, so she's now Justin Theroux." He also added, "I think 'Aniston' is going to stick with her if she likes it or not." So it's safe to say that the former Friends star's well-known moniker will still be around in spite of her recent celebrity marriage! In other news, the famous couple have been enjoying being newlyweds, especially with their celebrity honeymoon in Bora Bora.

It doesn't look like this celebrity marriage is sparking a name change. What are some factors to consider when it comes to changing your name post-marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Choosing whether or not to change your last name can be difficult. Here are some reasons why you may want to stick with your maiden name:

1. Your last name just fits: If you're older in age and have had the same name for quite some time, it may sound better to you – and there is nothing wrong with that. Or, like Aniston, you may have a solid career where people have known you by the same name for many years.

2. It's a lot of work: Let's be honest: Changing your name is a hassle! You have to change your driver's license, credit cards, reward programs, and more. Are you ready and willing to spend the time to do so?

3. You value your independence: Just because you don't change your last name doesn't mean you love your significant other any less. It's a personal decision and may be a way of keeping a piece of who you are.

Julianne Hough and Hockey Player Boyfriend Brooks Laich Announce Celebrity Engagement

Just when it seemed all hope was lost for celebrity couples, Julianne Hough and her boyfriend Brooks Laich prove love is still real in Hollywood. As UsMagazine.com reported, Hough announced her celebrity engagement on Instagram with a black and white photo of the adorable duo embracing in a kiss. She captioned the photo expressing her excitement for the “wedding planning adventures” to come. On her blog, she continued to show signs of complete bliss as she promised to share some “exclusive details and pics” with fans in the next few days.

We’re excited for some happy celebrity engagement news! What are some ways to creatively utilize social media to announce your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

After becoming engaged, one of your first instincts will be to frantically post on social media. However, by resisting that initial urge to ramble on social media with a blurry and unfocused picture, you can wait to post and produce a well-planned engagement announcement. Cupid has some suggestions to keep your engagement announcement on social media from being too cliché:

1. “How we met” caption: Everyone already knows you’re in love, but most people probably don’t know the story of how you and your fiancé fell in love. Caption your engagement photo with the heart-warming story of where, when and how you met each other, as it will be sure to capture the hearts of your audience members.

Anna Kendrick Speaks Out About Celebrity Marriage

By

Katelyn Di Salvo

It looks like the celebrity wedding bells won't be ringing anytime soon for celeb Anna Kendrick. The actress does not believe in celebrity marriage before 30! Although the 29-year-old actress herself will not be walking down the aisle in a white dress this year, she did walk down the aisle in her best friend's wedding August 2, as the maid of honor. According to UsMagazine.com, her busy schedule has kept her away from the usual M.O.H. duties, but she made up for it by gifting the bride with a full set of diamond jewelry on loan from Harry Kotlar. Kendrick has been dating cinematographer Ben

Richardson for roughly a year now.

Anna Kendrick thinks celebrity and non-celebrity marriage can wait until your 30's. How do you know what the right time for you is to get married?

Cupid's Advice:

1. You fully understand the meaning of forever: You are ready for marriage when you are able to grasp what it means to be together forever. If that doesn't scare you, but rather excites you, then you are ready to say "I do". Understanding that you are no longer responsible for yourself but for someone else, and that you must honor, love and respect each other for the rest of your lives, is very important to know before walking down the aisle.

2. Life does not feel complete without each other: As corny as that may sound it is true. When you are ready to spend the rest of your life with one person you have to feel like they are a part of you. Being ready for marriage means not being able to picture your life without the other person.

3. You are financially stable: Marriage is of course about love, but you also have to be smart. Marriage is a big step in your life, and you should be financially stable before making that move. Otherwise, the stress of money can burden your relationship and love life.

Now the Hollywood couple are talking celebrity wedding plans. As UsMagazine.com reports, Bristowe shared her thoughts about getting married in Vancouver while her celeb love joked, "Either there or Vegas with Elvis, we're still trying to figure that out." This Bachelorette couple is looking to the future. What are some ways to compromise on wedding plans with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

In honor of The Bachelorette wedding talk, it's important to know how to plan for your big day. Cupid has some tips on how you and your partner can work together in planning this celebration:

1. Set a budget: Before any decisions are made like the venue or DJ, set a budget that you two promise to follow. That way arguments about unnecessary expenses or over the top gowns won't come up.

2. Focus on the fun: Some wedding decisions are going to be harder to make than others and you and your partner may get in fights about it. It's important to have some other topics that you two can switch too that are easier and more fun to make, like the food you want to serve or your dance song, that will help you cool down.

3. Hear each other out: It may be easy to immediately say ‘no’ to a seemingly ridiculous idea your mate suggests, but that will only cause hurt feelings. Listen to their reasoning and acknowledge what they want, after all weddings are a celebration of a relationship between two people, not just one.

Celebrity weddings involve hands on work, but they aren't all planned by the celebs involved like this one! What are some benefits to saying "no" to a wedding planner?

Cupid's Advice:

Although planning a wedding can be hard on a relationship and love, both you and your fiancé should have an active role in organizing the event. See below for our love advice on the benefits to saying "no" to a wedding coordinator:

1. Everything is how you want it: The best part of arranging the ceremony and reception yourself is that you truly know this will be the happiest day of your life. Everything from the decorations, to the DJ, to the vows will have your own mark on them and be unique to your nuptials.

Jennie Garth Celebrates Celebrity Wedding to David Abrams

By

Courtney Omernick

UsMagazine.com reported that celebrity couple David Abrams and Jennie Garth tied the knot on Saturday, July 11th. The celebrity wedding took place at Garth's home in California at 7 p.m. Many pals of Jennie were in attendance, such as Tori

Spelling and Miguel Pinzon.

This celebrity wedding took place at sunset. How do you decide on the timing of your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

While this celebrity couple decided that sunset was the best time for a wedding, not everyone will agree. See below for our love advice on when to tie the knot:

1. Consider your personality: If you're thinking about the time of day, consider if you're a morning person or an evening person. It might be too much to have the wedding earlier in the day and the reception later at night. Decide if you'd rather stay up later or get up earlier.

2. Consider the holidays: If you're trying to pick a date, think about what holidays might be close to your wedding day. Seeing as how many people travel to see their families during the holiday season, don't expect a ton of people to show up if your big day is right around Christmas time.

3. How long have you been engaged?: If you want a larger, more elaborate wedding, it's going to take some time to plan. If you've only been engaged to the person of your dreams for a month, don't expect to have every detail squared away immediately.
