

Celebrity Break-Up: Demi Lovato Splits from Fashion Designer Henri Levy

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity break-up news, Demi Lovato has called it quits with fashion designer Henri Levy, according to UsMagazine.com. Both sober, the two met years ago in rehab and became friends. They sparked news of their celebrity relationship after they were spotted in early November 2018 enjoying a dinner date at Matsuhisa restaurant in Beverly Hills. Neither has commented on their split.

This celebrity break-up comes after only four months of dating. What are some ways to know your relationship has long-term potential?

Cupid's Advice:

All new relationships have a honeymoon stage. Whether you decide to stick with your partner after a rough time or not is the true test of a relationship. Cupid has some advice on how to know when a relationship has long-term potential:

1. You feel like yourself with them: You're okay with letting them see you limp in the morning because you tripped while walking the dog. You don't care if your partner sees you with bed-head. You let them see you worrying because your paycheck wasn't as large as you thought it would be. While all of these may be examples, it's important to be yourself around your partner. If you have to fake who you are to impress the person you're with to avoid judgment, then the relationship will not last.

2. You know what your partner needs: They know how you like your coffee, and they can tell when you're about to have an emotional breakdown days before it happens. When your partner instinctively knows what you need, then they just may be the one you're meant to live your life with – and it's not just from their side. When you know that your partner needs something without them saying anything, then it means that you have reached the point where you're both in a solid partnership.

3. You're physically intimate: A relationship with long-term potential isn't about the sex. You can both be virgins up until marriage if that is something you both value before making a life-long commitment. Holding hands, innocent kisses, and hugs are a sign that you are both comfortable. And if you aren't waiting until marriage, the time between the sheets will help build a stronger connection as long as you both understand that it's a way for you both to show how much you love each other.

Demi Lovato One Day After Her Overdose

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, Wilmer Valderrama was spotted visiting celebrity ex Demi Lovato at the hospital, just one day after the singer's drug overdose. According to EOnline.com, Valderrama's car was seen entering Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles, where Lovato is receiving treatment. A source said that Valderrama stayed at the hospital for over two hours and said, "He was somber and quiet and you could tell he was in a very serious mood. He arrived and left by himself." Lovato and Wilmer dated for almost six years until breaking up in 2016, but have remained on good terms. Valderrama is the first celebrity guest to visit Lovato in the hospital after she was rushed to the hospital by ambulances from her home in Hollywood Hills on July 24 after suffering an apparent overdose. Lovato's publicist confirmed the news in a statement, but refuted tabloid claims that the singer overdosed on heroin. "Demi is awake and with her family who want to express thanks to everyone for the love, prayers and support. Some of the information being reported is incorrect and they respectfully ask for privacy and not speculation as her health and recovery is the most important thing right now."

These celebrity exes still clearly hold love for one another. What are some ways to support your ex during a trying time?

Cupid's Advice:

In difficult times, sometimes the right thing to do is to be there for your ex. Cupid has some tips on how to support them:

1. Show up: Just like Valderrama did, sometimes the best thing you can do when your ex is struggling is to show up and be there for them. Just because you are no longer in a relationship doesn't mean you don't have to be supportive of them when they are going through something difficult. Just going to them to offer your support and presence is a huge help.

2. Keep it platonic: One thing to remember when supporting your ex during a trying time is to not let things go too far and end up getting romantic. Your ex is going through a lot and a past relationship is easily something they can turn to for comfort, but you could end up getting hurt in the end if it doesn't work out. Make sure to support your ex only as a friend and make your boundaries clear.

3. Rally their friends: If you actually being around your ex might be too stressful for them, maybe try supporting your ex in a different way. If you still have mutual friends, contact them and let them know they should reach out to them. You can also try to organize a get together where you all can be there for him, without things being as awkward as meeting with just the two of you.

Celebrity Exes Demi Lovato & Wilmer Valderrama Haven't Ruled Out Reconciliation

By Karley Kemble

Demi Lovato has always been vocal about her feelings toward her ex boyfriend Wilmer Valderrama. The celebrity exes previously dated for six years before their celebrity break-up in 2016. However, the pair made celebrity news a couple days ago, after they were spotted grabbing lunch together. Now, a source close to the former couple tells People.com that there is a chance they could become exclusive again. For now, though, the source says Valderrama and Lovato are “extremely close friends” though “there’s always potential they could give a romantic relationship another try.” Guess it is possible to be friends with an ex, after all!

These celebrity exes are on good terms, and may end up back together. What are some reasons getting back together may actually work out?

Cupid's Advice:

Regardless what others may say, getting back with an ex is not always a bad idea. Sometimes time apart is what's needed to grow stronger. Cupid weighs in:

1. It's all on the table: If you're thinking about getting back together with an ex, the most important thing you must do is talk with each other. If there is any unfinished business or unresolved resentment, you must lay it all on the line. Once all the feelings are accounted for, be sure to set clear guidelines before jumping back in.

2. You've forgiven: Forgiveness isn't easy, but it is possible! Contrary to popular belief, forgiveness does not weaken your character: it shows you have the strength to accept the past, look beyond the mistakes, and move on. If you have come to terms with an ex who may have hurt you, but genuinely want to give them another chance, that shows a maturity toward both parties involved.

3. You're both in better headspaces: Break-ups usually happen because two people are unable to be on the same page. The time spent as a single person is pivotal in personal development. If you and your ex have given each other enough time and space apart, allowing each other to grow, then getting back together might be worth a shot. Though you already know each other, and the relationship is by no means "new," it is exciting to begin a new chapter and get to know each other's newfound headspaces.

Celebrity Exes Demi Lovato & Wilmer Valderrama Reunite for Lunch Date

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, celebrity exes Demi Lovato and Wilmer Valderrama were spotted having a lunch date at Sol Y Luna in Los Angeles, according to UsMagazine.com. The former celebrity

couple dated for six years, and their celebrity break-up occurred in the summer of 2016. However, Lovato and Valderrama sparked rumors last year when they were spotted together in multiple places. Could these two be reconciling their celebrity relationship or are they just good friends? We'll have to be on the look out!

These celebrity exes are either on good terms as friends or may be giving their relationship another try. What are some benefits to remaining friends with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes break-ups don't end badly, and in those times you may want to stay friends with your ex. Cupid has some advice on the benefits to staying friends with an ex:

1. They know you: If you guys end on a good note and stay cool with one another, then they can give you advice. The people we date get to know us in ways others don't. This comes in handy when it comes to your new relationship, because your ex can give you advice based on your past experiences and the fact that he indeed knows you in that way. Just make sure you are not dealing with a bitter or spiteful ex – you would not want to take the wrong advice.

2. You've got history: It's a shame to let all that history go to waste if you are both decent people that get along well after the break-up. Just because your romantic relationship didn't work out doesn't necessarily mean that a friendship won't work. You never know – maybe you were not compatible as lovers, but you make great friends, and the history can make the friendly bond stronger.

3. You get closure: Becoming friends with an ex can be a path into getting over them, but only as long as you're both ready and willing to actually be friends. If you're friends, then you obviously should have let go of any resentment between the both of you. The past is in the past, and now you've got a friendship. You didn't have to lose a good person just because it didn't work out.

When we fall in love we often ignore signs from our S.O., friends and family, and even ourselves. Not all signs are bad. How do you know if the person you're with is the right one?

Here is Cupid's dating advice to help you recognize that you have a keeper:

1. They know your comforts: When we have a bad day, are cranky, or don't feel well, having someone know just the way to make you feel better makes all the difference. If your S.O. knows what movie, food, drink, music to prepare to make your day better, that shows they've paid attention to you and they care about helping you.

Celebrity Break-Up: Demi Lovato & Guilherme 'Bomba' Vasconcelos Split

By Noelle Downey

There's trouble in paradise for one celebrity couple this week! According to UsMagazine.com, Demi Lovato and MMA fighter boyfriend, Guilherme "Bomba" Vasconcelos, have officially called it quits. The celebrity exes first started seeing one another in July of last year, shortly after Lovato and long-time boyfriend Wilmer Valderrama had their celebrity break-up. Although Lovato and Vasconcelos were "just having fun" a source close to Lovato confessed, the two rekindled their Hollywood relationship in January of 2017 and have since been verbal on social media about their celebrity love story.

Lovato gushed over her celebrity relationship to TV talk show host Ellen in April, saying, "I'm very happy. Life is really good." So what happened to break apart this famous celebrity couple? A source close to the exes claims, "It wasn't a dramatic split. Bomba is a good guy, but the relationship just ran its course."

This relationship has ended up a celebrity break-up. What are some ways to know your relationship is done for good?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups are never fun, but Cupid is here with the top tips on how to know when your relationship has officially run its course:

1. When the end feels inevitable: If you feel as though you're just counting down the days until something snags and you guys finally have the final fight that leads to the demise of your couplehood, it may be already time to call it quits. Relationships generally shouldn't feel like they have a looming expiration date, and if you feel as though any good times you have are constantly overshadowed with your gut-feeling that this relationship isn't going to last, then you should trust your instincts.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Demi Lovato Supports Rumored BF Guilherme Vasconcelos at MMA Fight

2. When neither of you is upset: If you feel as though your relationship has deflated to the point that neither of you is particularly invested in it continuing, then do yourself both a favor and cut it off so you can go find something that really fills you both with passion. If you can broach the topic of your break-up without either of you feeling like you're really losing anything of value, then it's probably time to cut the cord and get on with your lives, separately.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Joe Jonas 'Likes' Pic of Ex Demi Lovato with On-Again Boyfriend Guilherme 'Bomba' Vasconcelos

3. When you feel consistently unhappy: If you're in a relationship where you feel as though you're always waiting for the "good time" and the moment when you'll really feel like you and your partner are clicking, then take a step back and consider why that is. It could be that your relationship isn't really what you want it to be, and that could be because of the person you're in that relationship with. Remember, you don't need to have a million reasons to leave someone, you just need one good one, and being consistently unhappy in your relationship is a great reason to call it quits permanently.

1. Avoid drama: Let's be honest for a moment, some people just like getting in the middle of couples. If you know someone that's meddlesome and likes to cause drama, then it might be a good idea to keep your relationship a secret from them. You don't need unnecessary stress in your life.

2. If it's casual: Not every romantic partner is relationship worthy. There's no need introducing someone to your friends and family if you have no intention of keeping them in your life. There's nothing wrong with a casual relationship, but that doesn't mean you have to let the world to know your business.

Celebrity News: Demi Lovato & Wilmer Valderrama Break Up

By Nicole Caico

In the latest celebrity couple news, after six years together, Demi Lovato and Wilmer Valderrama's celebrity relationship has come to an end. According to UsMagazine.com, on Friday, June 3, both stars posted a joint statement on their Instagram accounts that read, "After almost 6 loving and wonderful years together, we have decided to end our relationship. This was an incredibly difficult decision for both of us, but we have realized more than anything that we are better as friends. We will always be supportive of one another. Thank you to everyone who has offered us kindness and support over the years." This is a celebrity break-up no one saw coming.

In celebrity news, another celebrity couple bites the dust! What are some ways to know you are better off as friends with someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you are a Hollywood star or not, love comes and goes just the same—and sometimes it's for the better. It's not always easy to see that a break-up is beneficial when it's happening, but often times it ends up as a good thing. The love you shared as a couple has the potential to turn into a stable friendship if things go correctly:

1. Identity thief: This doesn't necessarily mean a significant other stealing your credit card number. It could mean losing yourself in your relationship. If you get to a point where you feel you've taken on so much of your significant other's qualities and interest over the course of your relationship, it may be time for a break or break-up. Choosing to step back from your relationship to be friends instead will allow you to rekindle your own interests before you forget what they were to begin with.

2. No spark: At the beginning of a relationship, the butterflies come easily because everything is new, but if you're a few months in and it feels more like a few years, it may be time to turn this romantic relationship into a friendship. You two may enjoy each other's company, but without a real spark, you're headed for friendship bracelets rather than wedding bands.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Amber Heard Files for Celebrity Divorce from Johnny Depp

3. Fundamental differences: In order to have a long lasting romantic relationship, certain things need to line up. You should like each other's families, have similar priorities, want to live in the same region—basic, necessary things like that. If you want to lead an expensive lifestyle and your significant other pinches pennies at every turn, or you need to live in a city and your significant other wants to live in the country—those may be an early indicators that you two will be better as friends in the future.

How do you know if you're in a relationship for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are tricky, meeting a new person and letting them into your lives is challenging. Even if you love love, allowing another person to come into your life entirely is hard. Trusting someone else is along the same lines. There are many ways to get into a relationship, to every person it's different. Determining whether you are delving into a relationship for the right reasons is also challenging. Cupid has some advice:

1. Love at first sight: When you know you are meant to be with another person, it is simple. Seeing each other is the brightest part of your day and you love them more than life itself. Getting into a relationship because you know you'll love that person more than you've ever loved before is a great thing. However, if you are getting into the relationship because you want to be loved, that will not work nor will it be healthy for you.

2. Loneliness: Your only guy around has been Ben and Jerry; you want a real man. You are lonely and sad and in need of an companion. Jumping into a relationship to rid yourself of your loneliness is not a good reason to get into it. Of course it isn't fun to be lonely however, you will not help yourself or your beau if you get into a relationship.

3. Rebounding: You were just broken up with from the love of your life, all you want to do is stop being sad. After two weeks of constant despair, you want to jump into a relationship with some new "better" guy. This is possibly the worst idea available. Wait it out, go through the sadness and you will love again.

How do you keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors are relationship killers. They are hard to avoid and are always harmful. Here are some tips on how to keep them from ruining your relationship:

1. Tell the truth: Being open and honest with your beau will keep you and your partner happy. When your sweetheart knows everything that is going on in your life, there is no need for them to get upset over rumors of you flirting with an old friend, when they know you caught up over ice cream.

2. Be confident: Don't let stories cloud your judgment. If you trust your partner, then believe what they say and push the nonsense aside.

3. Avoid unnecessary drama: Avoiding situations that will create more rumors will help keep your relationship from being torn apart. Don't have a public argument. Instead, keep it inside so that the grapevine is not telling everyone you broke up.

Demi Lovato Catches Bouquet at Disney Co-Star's Wedding

The wedding fairies may be trying to tell former Disney star Demi Lovato something. The actress recently attended her former Sonny with a Chance co-star Tiffany Thornton's wedding, and she caught the bride's bouquet at the reception, according to UsMagazine.com. Lovato wasn't shy about her accomplishment, either, as she went straight to Twitter to tell the world. "Such a beautiful day," Lovato tweeted. "Congrats to the new Mr. and Mrs Chris Carney! P.S. Guess who got the bouquet? ME!"

How do you deal with your man when he freaks out after you catch the bouquet?

Cupid's Advice:

Catching the bride's bouquet at a wedding traditionally means you'll be the next to tie the knot. This can send your man into a full-on panic. Here's how to keep him calm:

1. Don't make it a big deal: After you catch the bouquet, play it cool. Don't make a big fuss or put any pressure on your man. This will only make him more stressed.

2. Keep expectations out of it: Make it clear that the bouquet doesn't change your mindset about your relationship. Make it be known that you don't have any outstanding expectations as a result.

3. Play it off as superstition: Make it be known that you are fully aware that the bouquet tradition is purely superstition, and simply laugh it off.

How do you keep a relationship casual?

Cupid's Advice:

There are plenty of reasons to want to keep the relationship casual, especially if you just started seeing someone. But how do you go about it? Cupid has some tips:

1. Expectations: If the relationship is not of a serious nature or isn't at that stage, then make sure you know what to expect. Don't assume that your partner will be more emotionally available than he or she actually is. Don't expect that the relationship is more meaningful than it is, or you may risk getting hurt.

2. Communication: Communication is key. It may be awkward discussing the status of the relationship, but it's important to be open about where you stand and make sure you and your partner are both on the same page.

3. Group dates: A good idea may be to go on a group date. This will ensure that the setting is more fun and less intimate. If you're out with a group of friends, you'll be less likely to discuss your feelings.

Should you get back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Most of the time, it's a bad idea to get back together with your ex. After all, you broke up for a reason and chances are that those things will end resurfacing in time. Cupid has a few things to consider:

1. Look for the spark: When getting back together with an ex, it's common for things to quickly return to how they were after the "honeymoon period." If you want things to be different, then the spark should carry past the good times. It should be there even on bad days.

2. A new beginning: This is a fresh start, so try to learn from past mistakes.

3. Be cautious: If things are going back to how they used to be, don't be afraid to call your lover out on it. The key is communication, so say something if you're not happy.
