

Are Eva Longoria and Eduardo Cruz Back Together?

By Kerri Sheehan

The stars can't hide from Cupid! Eva Longoria and Eduardo Cruz were spotted in New York City having lunch at Serafina. The couple has been on and off since they called it quits in March. This lunch date shows that they may be back on. An onlooker dished to People, "They cuddled subtly at first and eventually shared a more passionate kiss. They really looked like they were in love during the lunch."

How do you know whether to get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes a long lost love can become your one and only. Let Cupid help you decide if you should get back together with your ex:

1. You've grown: The only way that a failed relationship can be renewed is if one or both parties have had significant growth since the end of the union. If something went wrong the first time then it will likely go wrong again if neither party has changed.

2. You miss them: If you find that both of you miss being together then that may be a sign to give it another go. However, you should proceed with caution because you can never love someone as much as you can miss him or her. Keep in mind that when you miss him or her you may be remembering the good times far more clearly than the bad times.

3. Open connections: The only way to renew a failed relationship is to sit down and talk about what didn't work during your first breakup. If you two can make it through this conversation with a big blow up then all will be well.

Eva Longoria Says She's Not Angry About Ex Tony Parker's Affair

Eva Longoria is in a different place today than she was just a year ago when she was filing for divorce from then-husband Tony Parker of the San Antonio Spurs. This all happened after the discovery of inappropriate text messages to Parker's teammate's wife.

According to UsMagazine, Longoria knows that people think she is "angry and resentful," but that's just not the case. Her forgiving attitude may stem from the successful relationship she's been in since February with Penelope Cruz's little brother, Eduardo Cruz or "Edu" as she affectionately calls him.

How do you keep from lashing out about a partner's infidelity?

Cupid's Advice:

After a partner cheats on you, it can be a hard thing to overcome even after breaking up with them. It's easy to become angry at the world as the result of one incident. Here are some ways to avoid it:

- 1. Keep balance in your life: Balance is critical after your partner cheats. Force yourself to do things you normally do: go out with friends, eat healthy and try to have fun.
- 2. Laugh and cry: It's good to find a way to laugh during such an emotional time. Watch a funny movie or spend time with people who know how to make you smile. That said, it's okay to cry as well. If you aren't crying naturally, you can watch a sad movie or listen to sad music. Don't be afraid to cry it out.

3. Find someone new: It may take a while to be able to trust someone again, but don't be afraid to take that chance. Like Eva Longoria, finding someone new can help you on the path to forgiveness and letting go.

Do you need to defend yourself if rumors spread about your personal relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

You might've been told that when you ignore a rumor, it proves that it isn't true. However, if you react to it, it's a sign that you're guilty. But when rumors spread about your personal relationship, it's difficult to ignore. Here are some things to consider:

1. Your feelings: If the rumor will hurt your relationship, you may need to rise up and defend yourself. Doing nothing might do more damage to your emotional state.

2. Others in the rumor: When the rumor is hurting the other person who was mentioned in it, make sure everyone knows the truth. There's no reason to let suffering continue when the rumor is a lie.

3. Others' reputations: Defend yourself if this gossip will harm reputations. People work hard to establish themselves as a certain kind of person, and ruining that based on a lie isn't right.

Eva Longoria Is Opposed to Long Engagements

Eva Longoria is speaking out against long engagements. The Desperate Housewives actress says, "I never believe in long engagements.

People think engagement is another step. It's not another step. You're single and then you're married. The engagement is the planning part." She goes on to say that if she were the bride, she'd be like, "All right, let's get going."

Although Longoria's three-year marriage to Tony Parker ended in January 2011 after rumors of an affair on his part, she has found happiness again with Eduardo Cruz. When asked if she would consider marrying again, she said, "I'm not opposed to it, I just don't really give it a lot of thought right now."

Well, here's to the happy couple!

What are the benefits of a short engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Some people choose to have short engagements (like Tara Reid), while others choose to ride it out for years (like Brooke Burke). Let's take a look at the benefits to the Tara Reid school of thought:

1. Less time to worry: The lead-up to a wedding can cause a lot of stress. With a short-term engagement, it may still be a lot of stress packed into a small amount of time ... but before you know it, it's over.

2. You get what you want more quickly: The reason you get engaged is most likely because you're ready to spend your life with the person you said "yes" to or to whom you proposed. By not prolonging the engagement, it's more of an instant gratification.

3. No second guessing wedding plans: Sometimes having more time to plan your nuptials is not exactly a blessing. As the clock keeps ticking, you have more time to change your mind about things that were already set in stone months ago. It can cause a lot of work and chaos.

2. Trip: Visit a town or attraction close to your area and spend the day checking out the site, shopping and having a

included Eduardo's big sister Penelope Cruz and husband Javier Bardem, Kim Kardashian, Heidi Klum and Kanye West. A source says, "Eva and Eduardo were so cute. They were kissing and making out all night. He's so genuine."

How do you make your partner's birthday special?

Cupid's Advice:

Birthdays are the one holiday a year where you and you alone get to feel special. So, it's important to honor your partner the best way you know how on his or her big day. Cupid's got some tips:

1. Throw a surprise party: It may seem generic, but if you can really pull it off, a surprise party will make your partner feel all sorts of special. Just the fact that you went to the trouble says a lot!

2. Plan a vacation: If you want to go all out, plan a trip for two to somewhere tropical. If you're married, consider it a second honeymoon. There's so much thought that goes into planning a vacation, and your partner will surely appreciate it.

3. An "out of the box" gift: It's easy enough to stick with candy, jewelry and flowers for a woman and sports tickets, cologne or a watch for a man. Try to think outside of the norm for your partner's present so he or she can see how much you truly know him or her.

Eva Longoria and New Boyfriend Eduardo Cruz Make Out at Lunch

It's official: Eva Longoria is over Tony Parker. The Desperate Housewives star was recently spotted smooching new beau Eduardo Cruz at an L.A. restaurant, according to RadarOnline. Longoria split from San Antonio Spurs player Tony Parker in November 2010 after three years of marriage. The 35-year-old actress has rebounded with singer (and Penelope Cruz's brother), Eduardo Cruz, 10 years her junior. Last month, Eva tweeted that she is ready to move on. "Starting over is hard to do, but life goes on. I pray for strength, courage and wisdom on my new journey."

After a divorce, how do you start over?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you split from a spouse, it may seem like you'll never be ready to date again. Cupid has some tips on how to get back in the game:

1. Date: Starting over is as simple as this: start dating for fun. Don't expect (and don't look for) a serious relationship right after your divorce, but go out just so you remember there are options out there.

2. Get by with a little help from your friends: Lean on your friends to help you recover after a divorce. Make sure to not spend too much time alone, and you'll be ready to start your new life with the help of your buddies.

3. Try something new: Sometimes you need to do something meaningful to signal a change. It can be anything from a new haircut to a new job to a new city. Making a significant change will help begin the process of starting over.

Eva Longoria Goes Public With New Boyfriend Eduardo Cruz

Just one week after finalizing her divorce with Tony Parker, Eva Longoria finally went public with her new boyfriend, Eduardo Cruz. If that name sounds familiar, it's because Longoria's new flame is none other than actress Penelope Cruz's younger brother. According to RadarOnline, the couple were first spotted together in October at her restaurant, Beso, followed by a few other encounters in December and January. While it was clear that those encounters were meant to be a secret, the pair seemed open on Saturday while sailing on a luxury yacht in Miami.

Should you keep your new relationship under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Amidst all of the normal chaos of life and responsibilities, sometimes it's nice to have something that's just your own. Cupid has some ways to tell if you should keep your relationship on the down-low:

1. If you are both comfortable with it: Many times in the beginning of a relationship, we say things that we think the other person wants to hear. If you're deciding not to let anyone in on your secret courtship, make sure it's a decision you've both agreed upon.

2. If you're not sure where it's going: When you begin to date someone, there's a period of time where you're feeling each other out. If you think there's a chance you won't make it past the previews, now may not be the time to alert the media.

3. If you just got out of a relationship: Sometimes we find people when and where we least expect it. If that time for you is right after you ended a longterm commitment, you may want to give it some time before you introduce someone new to your friends and family.
