This celebrity couple were getting down on the dance floor! What are some ways dancing can add an important element to your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There are common factors both a relationship and dancing carry. Cupid has some advice on how dancing is an important element to your relationship:

1. Dancing involves leading: An important rule in dancing is that one person must lead. Leading allows one to keep the routine stable, giving rhythm, and direction. This can tie in with relationships because you should be mindful of everything and give signs of what you want and how you want it done. Guys who are shy and are afraid to lead usually never make it to the next step with a girl in a relationship; this can go both ways though.

2. Traditional roles: In our culture it is the norm for men to lead, while it's the woman's responsibility is to make it worth it. She follows your lead and turns it into something beautiful. Leading correctly results in a beautiful partner who does what's in your favor. Of course, it doesn't always have to be male/female based. There are many variations of this concept!

They may help you see some points that you didn't think of before.

2. Tell them your feelings: Tell your friends and family why you think it is a good idea for you to get back with your ex. If your ex has changed something about themselves and you feel the change will help the relationship blossom the second time around, let them know that. Explain your reasoning. These are the people that care for you the most, they only want the best for you so trust their opinions and trust that they will hear you out.

Taylor Swift Sends a Message to Harry Styles During

Opening Performance at the Grammys

By Andrea Surujnauth

Taylor Swift, 23, opened up the 2013 Grammy Awards with her hit song "We Are Never Ever Getting Back Together". According to UsMagazine.com, she took a painful jab at her 19 year-old ex-boyfriend, Harry Styles, from the group One Direction. During her performance she added a verse to her song "So he calls me up and he's like, 'I still love you,' and I'm like, 'I'm sorry, I'm busy opening up the Grammys.' And we're never getting back together, like, ever." Not only did she add this stinging verse, but she used a British accent for part of it which was obviously directed toward Styles, who is British. These two ex-lovebirds broke off their relationship at the beginning of the year. They were vacationing in the British Virgin Islands when the two apparently got into a fight. Sources told UsMagazine.com that Styles “said something he shouldn’t have ... This [breakup] is definitely going to be for good.”

How do you resist the urge to get back together with your ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Although it may be tempting, getting back with your ex may not be a good idea. You know this deep down inside, but you can’t stop feeling the urge to go back. Cupid is here to tell you how to resist:

1. Cut contact: Do not continue to talk to your ex. Stop looking at their Facebook or Twitter, better yet, delete them all together. Stay away from them until you feel you are completely over them. Seeing them or talking to them constantly will increase the urge to rekindle the relationship.

2. Distract yourself: Get a hobby or go out with friends. Fill your schedule up so you won’t have time to think about your ex-beau. As the time flies by, so will your feelings for your ex.

3. Remember why you broke up: There was a reason why your relationship did not work out. Keep that reason in mind. During a break-up you are tempted to think about the good times in the relationship. Ignore all of that and focus on the reason that the two of you are not together. This will help you realize that it can not work between the two of you so you need to move on.

What are some ways to keep romance intact after you have a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Having children is typically a joyful experience, but there's no doubt that romance in your relationship takes a hit as a result. Cupid has some tips:

1. Date night: You may not have had a specific night in the week where you always went on a date before you had a child. Now, however, it's necessary to schedule your alone time. That way you can coordinate a babysitter ahead of time.

2. Post-bedtime hangout: Although it may not seem like it at first, your child will eventually learn to sleep through the night. When that happens, their bedtime will probably be before you and your significant other's. Take the time after your son or daughter goes to bed to reconnect as a couple.

3. Mini-vacations: It's understandable that you'd be hesitant to leave your child behind on a trip, but sometimes you need a couple days to unwind. Leave your kid(s) with their grandparents or your siblings. Even if it's just a weekend getaway, it's important to spend some quality time alone every once in a while.

How can music help you recover after a tough breakup?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes it can be difficult to find ways to get over your ex. Cupid shares some advice about using music as an aid to recovery:

1. Sad love songs: It’s cliché, but true. Listening to sad music can give you the perfect opportunity to cry and let it out, instead of holding it all in. It’s a better outlet than venting too much to those outside the relationship.

2. Embrace the music: Taking up a new habit, such as learning a new instrument or joining a singing group can be a good outlet. It gives you the ability to concentrate on happier moments and forget the lack of compatibility with your ex.

3. Write it out: You don't have to be a superstar like Katy Perry to embrace the heartache, and write a song about your ex. It might not hit the charts, but it'll do the trick.

Matt Bellamy Thanks Pregnant Girlfriend Kate Hudson at Grammys

At the Grammys, Muse's lead singer Matt Bellamy was a winner in more ways than one. When the band accepted the Grammy for Best Rock Album on Sunday night, he seized the opportunity to gush about his girlfriend, Kate Hudson, in a very public way. UsMagazine.com reports that Bellamy, 32, ended his band's acceptance speech by thanking his "beautiful pregnant girlfriend." Hudson was present at the show, but didn't walk the red carpet. What are ways to thank your partner for being there for you?

Cupid's Advice:

While most of us don't have the chance to thank our significant others on TV in front of millions of people, there are plenty of everyday opportunities to say thanks for being there. Cupid has some ideas on how to show you care:

1. It's the little things: Attention all men: no woman doesn't like getting flowers. She'll like it even more if you give them to her out of the blue just to let her know you appreciate her.

2. Put yourself out there: If you want to thank your partner for being there, doing it front of an audience shows you're not afraid to celebrate your love publicly. Try making a speech at your mate's birthday party or on your anniversary in front of your friends.

3. Actions speak louder than words: Thanking your significant other doesn't always mean saying "thank you" out loud; it's about showing you're thankful by doing something for them. If your partner nags you about how messy you are, try cleaning the house before they come home.
