In celebrity news, Jack Osbourne apparently isn't a fan of his estranged wife's new beau. What are some ways to handle jealousy coming from an ex moving on?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break up is always hard. Some take it better than others, so it is important to consider your ex partner's feelings. Cupid has some advice on how to handle jealousy from an ex:

1. Stay away: The easiest and safest way to handle a jealous ex is to stay away! While you don't have to hide like you're in the Witness Protection Program, keeping your distance may be best. Everyone is different, so you can't know for sure how your ex feels. Running when you see them is a bit too much but if you deliberately go looking to see your ex, just be prepared for anything that may happen. If you are seeing someone else, please heed this warning. You know what they say... "If you knock on the Devil's door, he will answer." Be smart and be safe.

2. Respect the break up: For whatever reason, your relationship unfortunately ended. For you and your partner, it is important to respect your break up. Showing respect towards your ex could ease the tension and may help your partner to move on. Parading a new flame around too soon may egg your ex on and cause a huge, unnecessary commotion. Keep the peace and have respect.

3. Stay quiet: If your ex is acting out, sometimes the best response is no response. Not every action deserves a reaction. Whether your ex is genuinely upset or purposely trying to hurt you, keep calm and continue on. Eventually, your ex will get tired of not being answered and will hopefully work on healing themselves. Silence is the loudest answer you can give.

withstand the test of time?

Cupid's Advice:

Everybody wants to know if their relationship is going to last the long run. Cupid has some signs that signal a relationship won't be long lasting:

1. Poor communication: If you're fighting with your partner all the time and can't seem to communicate effectively, then your relationship might not be durable through the years. Sure, every couple has the occasional fight, but constant bickering is not okay. You should be able to communicate your problems maturely and be able to talk through your issues with your beau.

2. Your lifestyles don't match: Sometimes, no matter how hard two people try in a relationship, logistically it just can't work. If you and your partner never have time to see each other because of conflicting schedules, keeping a relationship up for many years might not be possible. Even if you two may love each other, sometimes your lifestyles aren't the best fit together.

3. Lack of trust: A good relationship is built on trust. If you're constantly doubting your partner's actions and think they might often lie to you, it's clear the relationship won't have much longevity. You shouldn't have to worry about who your love is texting or where they've been the night before.

Jack Osbourne Admits His Baby-to-Be Wasn't Planned

Despite the surprise factor, 25-year-old Jack Osbourne and fiancée Lisa Stelly are thrilled to be expecting their first child together. Known for his love of extreme sports, Osbourne has no problem curbing these activities once he is a father. He told Britain's Star magazine that he is "excited" for the baby and that he's "really happy about the whole thing." RadarOnline says that along with the excitement of the new baby is the possibility of a reality TV show for the blossoming household, much like The Osbournes, which originally brought Osbourne to fame.

How do you quickly adapt to the idea of having a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancies aren't always planned, so it's often necessary to come to grips with the idea of having a baby quickly. Here are some things to consider:

1. Tell your family: Telling your family about your unplanned pregnancy can be difficult, but there are a myriad of benefits. They can be a valuable source of support when it comes to difficult decisions, can provide financial help, and may even go with you to your appointments.

2. Stay healthy: Be aware of necessary lifestyle changes such as the one Jack Osbourne plans to make for his baby. Make smart diet choices as well as smart physical choices. Avoid alcohol and dangerous movements.

3. Trust the professionals: When in doubt, there is no better advice given than that of your doctor. Make sure to have regular appointments with your doctor, and don't be afraid to ask them any questions you may have.

Engagement and Soon-to-Be

Fatherhood

Newly engaged Jack Osbourne, son of Ozzy and Sharon Osbourne, is about to be a father. Osbourne shared the news less than two weeks after he confirmed his engagement to actress Lisa Stelly, reports People. “I’m excited,” said Osbourne on Piers Morgan Tonight. “I’m a little nervous.”

How do you balance an impending marriage and soon-to-be parenthood?

Cupid’s Advice:

Though both wedding planning and pregnancy are exhausting, it is possible to balance both. Here are a few suggestions:

1. Enlist help: Planning a wedding is difficult even for people who aren’t pregnant. If a wedding planner is outside the budget, rely on your bridesmaids or phone a close friend for some extra help.

2. Remember your schedule: If you're planning on getting married while pregnant, make sure to keep your biological calendar in mind. For example, don't buy a wedding dress that will soon be too small.

3. Take it one step at a time: If planning the wedding is too stressful or if you're having a rough pregnancy, it's okay to put the wedding on hold. Extend your engagement and wait for a time when you're feeling up to the task.
