Cupid's Advice:

Coping with a death of a loved one is very difficult. It'll take some time to fully mourn the loss of someone who was once such a huge part of your life. Find a creative outlet: Take all of the negatives emotions you feel over the situation and turn it into a form of art. Start painting, drawing or even write down your feelings in a journal. If you're a fan of poetry, this may be an opportunity to try your hand at some stanzas yourself. This might not be the best time for arts and crafts, but it's a lot better than falling into bad habits that could cause you to go into deep depression.

Stay active: Maintain healthy eating habits and keep yourself involved in your family and friend's lives. Individuals dealing with loss tend to isolate themselves, but doing so will only make getting over your loss harder. Continue to do the daily activities you did before the incident. Go back to work even if it's only part-time and consult with someone you trust if you feel like you need someone to talk to.

Funeral preparations: Helping out with the funeral plans can help you get the closure you need. It'll be a chance for you to say your final goodbyes and fully accept what happened. Dealing with the funeral will be challenging, but you'll get through it.
