How do you keep the drama in a breakup to a minimum?

Cupid’s Advice:

Breakups are the worst! Cupid has some helpful tips for getting through a breakup with as little drama as humanly possible:

1. Stay off social media: Whether you have feelings to share or you know your partner might be getting online to vent, don’t stoop to that level. Keep the tweets, posts and pics to a minimum while you work through the split.

3. Do things for yourself: So you've cried on one of your friend's shoulder, screamed to another, and went out with a few more. It might be a lonely time but don't be afraid to embrace the alone time and do things just for you, by yourself; it will feel good to recharge your batteries.

5 Celebrity Couples Who Started Off As Friends

By Courtney Omernick

Some argue that men and women CAN be 'just friends' and steer clear of a romantic relationship. However, sometimes friendships with members of the opposite sex can turn into something more. Below, Cupid has five celebrity couples who began their romantic journey in the friend zone.

1. Jordin Sparks and Jason DeRulo: At first, Jordin had a boyfriend and Jason was single. Then, Jason had a girlfriend and Jordin was single. The pair maintained a friendship while they both had different significant others, but once both of their status update's read 'single', they turned their relationship into something more!

2. Kate Middleton and Prince William: The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge met back in 2001 at St. Andrew's University in Fife while studying Art History. At first, they were just friends, but their friendship turned into romance when the pair shared a flat together with two other students during their second and third years.

3. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: It seems as though their relationship moved quickly, but these stars were friends long before their walk down the aisle. Kim and Kanye first met back in 2004 while Kim was married to Damon Thomas. After Kim's divorce to Kris Humphries in 2011, Kanye was there to pick up the pieces, and the rest is history!

4. Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher: They may have been Jackie and Kelso for years on 'That 70's Show,' but according to a source, the pair did not get along while playing each other's love interest. It wasn't until Ashton split from Demi Moore that these stars became friends! Now, Mila is pregnant with Ashton's baby and plans to take a trip down the aisle with him soon.

5. Beyonce and Jay-Z: These A-listers were friends and talked regularly over the phone for 18 months before they went on their first date in 2000. In 2003, the couple finally admitted to the public that they were dating. Five years later, Beyonce became Mrs. Carter.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Jordin Sparks, Nina Dobrev and Gwyneth Paltrow

By Shoshi

For today's column, let's take a look at three celebrity couples that keep the gossip mills churning – whether it's because of a potential engagement, a possible new love affair, or never-ending separation rumors.

Jordin Sparks and Jason DeRulo: Lately, all eyes have been on this couple, wondering when they're going to get engaged. DeRulo made the smoothest move ever on Valentine's Day by gifting his girlfriend with 10,000 orange roses. How in the heck is he going to top that? What also has people buzzing is that the sultry singer proposed to Sparks in his latest video for "Marry Me."

Calm down, and stop waiting for your wedding invitations. They're only 24 years old – why is everyone trying so hard to marry them off? They're still figuring it out. That's not to say that they haven't started talking about marriage; right now, it's out on the table and being discussed. The two of them are best friends, so it's looking really good.

DeRulo is still trying to decide how and when to propose. I see it coming on a holiday or a birthday; New Year's Eve keeps popping up.

Nina Dobrev and Liam Hemsworth: Are these two Atlanta-based actors a new couple? They have recently been spotted on a date and sharing a few kisses.

If they do decide to pursue a relationship, don't look for this one to last a long time. No offense to Dobrev, but she's in a rebound situation after her split from longtime boyfriend (and The Vampire Diaries co-star) Ian Somerhalder.

Similarly, Hemsworth's energy is all over the place when it comes to his heart. Can you blame him? By the end of his relationship with Miley Cyrus, it had become a train wreck. He has a bit of healing to do. He isn't sure what he wants in a relationship, so he's just having a good time and looking to see who's out there. The Hunger Games actor has a few wild oats to sow before settling down again.

Gwyneth Paltrow and Chris Martin: Oh, how the gossip is flying on the marriage of this longtime pair! Her reps have denied that she's having an affair with lawyer Jeff Soffer; there have been other names thrown around as well. The question remains is any of it true – and who knows? Only those people directly involved with the couple know the real deal.

When I look at the marriage of the actress and musician, it's in deep trouble – and not just because of affair rumors or because Martin may not be a happy camper living in Los Angeles. Long story short, the Coldplay frontman is bored to tears with their relationship, and he looks disconnected. If things don't turn around soon, look for a divorce announcement. Martin is going to want to split, but Paltrow will make sure that it looks like she's the one who wants to end their marriage, as her image is very important to her. Martin will be fine with that as long as he gets to move on.

How do you use gifts to show your appreciation for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

It's nice to receive gifts from people you love and care about. When someone gets you a present it shows that they think about you and appreciate you. Giving your partner gifts is important for your relationship, especially with helping your lovebird feel loved. Cupid has some advice on to use gifts to show your gratitude toward your special someone:

1. Give your lover a gift on a non holiday: Want to really show your appreciation and gratitude to your special someone? What better way to that than to give them a gift for no other specific reason other than because you love them and just wanted to. Maybe give them a gift when you see they are having a bad week or going through a hard time, nothing like gifting them with something special to bring a smile to their face.

2. Plan to give the best gift yet for their next birthday: Nothing will show how much you love and care about your lover then by making their birthday one to remember. Birthdays usually become less exciting as we get older and the presents are less unique and special, break that idea and notion by doing or getting something you know your honey will love, enjoy and truly appreciate. Think about what gift will truly surprise them, you can also ask family and friends for help.

3. Create, make or write a personalized gift: This is a chance to show your creative side as well as show you are willing to make the time and effort to put something together that is one of kind and just for them. A gift doesn't necessarily mean giving your loved one a present. You can also write your sweetheart a personalized love letter or thank you card that expresses how grateful and thankful you are to have them in your life or show your appreciation by making them breakfast in bed.
