

Celebrity Parenting: Kristin Cavallari Says Jay Cutler Is the 'Stricter Parent'

By

Megan McIntosh

Though no one would argue that celebrity parents Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler aren't a team, they do have slightly different parenting styles. According to UsMagazine.com, Cavallari is a more laid-back parent. Though she's insistent that she doesn't let the kids run wild, she admits, "I'm more along the lines of let kids be kids and make a mess..." Husband Jay Cutler, on the other hand, likes to be a little stricter than his wife and can do without the mess.

Even celebrity parents have to discipline their children. What are some tips to keep in mind for disciplining your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Disciplining your kids is never a fun time, but it's a necessary evil when it comes to helping your kids grow up the right way. Cupid has some tips:

1. Keep it positive: Don't focus on what they're doing wrong. Keep the focus on the positives. If they washed their face and didn't brush their teeth, emphasize how good it was that they washed their face. Give them a high five or words of affirmation. They will associate good behavior with good feelings.

2. Give them individual attention: Rather than waiting for your child to misbehave, give them attention. This proactive approach, gives positive attention to the child so that they strive to emulate positive behavior that they see mommy or daddy do.

3. Have clear rules with tangible punishments: There should be a clear direction or even written paper that dictates to your child what rules they are expected to follow. If they know that not doing homework means no dessert, they are not punished after the fact. Your kids already know what will happen if they don't do their homework. But make sure you're consistent with what you expect from your child.

Kristin Cavallari Confirms Second Pregnancy with Jay Cutler

By

Gabby Robles

Exciting news! According to UsMagazine.com, Kristin Cavallari and her husband Jay Cutler have confirmed that they are expecting their second child. The couple already welcomed son Camden Jack in 2012. In September, Cavallari spilled that she would “love to have a little girl...But if I had another boy, that would be great, too.” So cute!

How do you prepare for baby #2 differently than #1?

Cupid’s Advice:

You might think you’re a professional after having Baby #1, but there’s some more tricks you have to learn before you know everything! Are you expecting to share your world with another bundle of joy? Cupid has some advice:

1. Get more stuff: It might seem like you have everything because of your first baby, but you don’t. You could always use new and more stuff – especially if your babies are close in age. Reusing clothes is okay, but things such as car seats only last six years, so you might want to upgrade.

2. Make sure Baby #1 knows what's going on: Even if your first child is at the stage of not talking, they still need to be explained to what is going on. When you get Baby #1 on board, they'll be wary at first. You must prepare them for the changes that are about to ensue, but also make them feel secure and safe.

3. Share some loving with your man: Once Baby #2 comes you're both about to be SUPER busy. Take this time to have some date nights and use as much alone time as you can get! So hire that babysitter and make a reservation because now's the time for some romance!

Kristin Cavallari Says She's Trying for a Second Child

By

Kerri Sheehan

Kristin Cavallari is already looking to give her 14-month-old son Camden a sibling! She revealed this weekend that her and her Chicago Bears quarterback hubby Jay Cutler, are doing all of the necessary things to get pregnant. Cavallari dished to UsMagazine.com back in September 2013, saying, "I would love to have a little girl, but if I had another boy, that would be great too."

What are some factors to consider when you're deciding whether to have a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a child is a big decision. Here are some things to consider:

1. Finances: Having children costs money. Make sure you're financially stable before you decide to add an addition to your family.

2. Your significant other: Before making the decision to conceive you have to make sure you and your partner are on the same page. You're both in this together so you both have to be gung-ho about the idea.

3. Other children: If you decide to have another child then you have to prepare your other kids for the new family member. Make sure they know what you having another child means so they're not blindsided.

Kristin Cavallari Says Baby Before Marriage 'Worked for Us'

By

April Littleton

According to People, the former The Hills star is perfectly happy with the way her life turned out. Cavallari found out she was pregnant right after she announced her re-engagement to Jay Cutler. “We definitely weren’t ready to get married then and so we put everything on hold and we ended up having the baby before. I think that when we did get married, we were absolutely ready,” she said. The happily married couple are now parents to son Camden Jack, 13 months and tied the knot in June.

How do you decide when you’re ready for children?

Cupid’s Advice:

Parenthood is one of life’s greatest joys, but you have to be 100 percent ready for it. Are you and your partner thinking about expanding your family? Cupid has some tips:

1. In a good place: If you and your significant other can provide a stable living environment and you can afford to add another person into the mix, then go for it! Babies are expensive. Wait a little while longer if you're not sure if you're financially ready to keep up with the demands of a newborn. Make sure things are going well between you and your honey as well. You don't want to bring an innocent child into this world when there's obvious tension or unresolved problems between the two of you.

2. Talk it out: The only sure way of knowing if you're ready to have children or not is by talking it over with your companion. It takes two people to make a baby, so both parties involved need to be sure it's what they want. If one of you even has the slightest hesitation, then hold off on baby plans and revisit the idea in a few months when you and your partner have had more time to think.

3. Sacrifice: Taking care of another human being requires a lot of sacrifice. Certain aspects of your life will have to change if you plan on being a parent. You can forget about going to late-night parties during the first few years of raising your child. The money you saved up for those brand new shoes you had your eye on at the mall will have to go toward a pack of diapers. It may seem like a lot to give up, but if you're really invested in being someone's parent – it'll be worth it.

Celebrity Couples That

Reunited

By

Whitney Johnson

There are no set rules in the game of love, and it's easy to question if you're dating Mr. Right or Mr. Right Now. Such doubt often leads to broken hearts, but as many Hollywood pairs have proven, time apart may be just what the doctor ordered during the search for happily ever after. Here are five celebrity couples that reunited after a breakup and found lasting love (for now at least):

Katy Perry and John Mayer: This musically-talented twosome is keeping us all guessing! The couple was first seen together during the summer of 2012; they split briefly in August and then reunited, even spending the holidays together. However, in March 2013, they broke up again. Addressing the split, Mayer reportedly said, "I'm on the same journey as everyone else. Coupling is a tricky thing." Even so, as recently as June 2013, they were seen together with pals at Chateau Marmont in West Hollywood.

Jessica Biel and Justin Timberlake: Biel and Timberlake first dated for over four years (a lifetime in Hollywood!) before splitting in March 2011. However, they were together again by fall, and in December, Timberlake proposed in the mountains of Jackson Hole, Wyoming. The star-powered duo married in a top-secret ceremony in Italy on October 19, 2012.

Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler: This Chicago-based pair first began dating in fall 2010 and confirmed their engagement in April 2011. However, the Chicago Bears quarterback called things off just a few months later. The couple reunited in November 2011 and announced the Laguna Beach star's pregnancy in January 2012. They took the next step in their relationship, tying the knot in Nashville on June 7, 2013.

Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber: It's hard to know if these two songbirds are on-again or off-again. The twosome split in November 2012, but always stayed in touch. In April 2013, they confirmed their renewed relationship when the Spring Breakers actress flew to Norway to be with her ex-beau. Keeping the romance alive, the couple appears to be going strong at the start of summer.

marriage counseling in hopes of reconciling. They reunited two years later, and the tattooed twosome have been happily together ever since.

Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler Tie the Knot in Nashville

By

Petra Halbur

Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler were married over the weekend in Nashville, Tenn. The Hills star and Chicago Bears quarterback quietly tied the knot at the Davidson Country Clerk's office in Nashville on Friday and celebrated with a ceremony the following day on June 8. The ceremony took place at Woodmont Christian Church, which was listed #1 on Martha Stewart's "Wedding Ceremony Locations in the South." Despite the impressive location, however, it was an intimate affair. "It's going to be about 150 people, so not huge," Cavallari told UsMagazine.com back in May. "I was never the girl who dreamt about my wedding or any of that stuff, but the wedding how we're planning is exactly what I wanted. I think it's going to be perfect for what we're doing."

How do you decide who to invite to your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

The guest list is, perhaps, the most stressful part of planning a wedding. Cupid is here to help:

1. Choose the wedding size: Before anything else, you and your partner need to decide how large you want your wedding to be. Once you've picked a guest count, then you can start prioritizing potential invitees.

2. Consider obligations: It may be tempting to exclude everyone you don't like from the guest list, but consider your familial and relational obligations to the people in your life. In some respects, a wedding is for the friends and family as much as it is for the bride and groom.

3. Don't do it for the gifts: Unless you're planning a wedding for thousands, don't invite that wealthy friend-of-a-friend-of-a-friend. It's shallow and transparently materialistic.

Kristin Cavallari Wears Tiara While Celebrating Bridal Shower

By

April Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, Kristin Cavallari wore a sparkly tiara and sash during her bridal shower at The London in West Hollywood over the weekend. The former The Hills star shared a picture of her bridal getup surrounded by friends to her Instagram account Tuesday, June 4. Cavallari is set to marry Jay Cutler this summer. She and Cutler are parents to Camden, who's 9 months.

How do you personalize a bridal shower?

Cupid's Advice:

A bridal shower is one of the most fun events you will get to experience as you're preparing for your wedding. The shower will be the opportunity for your friends and family to plan something that will pay homage to you. Your loved ones will get to showcase your personality through gifts, games and some unique activities. Want the day of your shower to be something you'll never forget? Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Pick a theme: Your bridal shower will show some character if there's a theme involved. Do you love to watch football with your partner? Pick a sporty theme for your shower. Maybe you're more of a girly girl. Deck out your bridal shower in all pink. Are you a goofball? Ask your guests to wear silly costumes and hats.

2. Decorations: Instead of gathering a bunch of store-bought decorations, get your bridal party to help you create your own. Throw some cute cutouts around the room, like hearts, wedding bells and flowers. Fill your party favors with personal objects. Do your friends know you can't live without makeup? Pick out an assortment of lip glosses and fill bags with them. Anything that shows off your style will be the perfect gift for your guests.

3. The location: The bridal shower doesn't necessarily have to take place inside of your home. If you're considering a sporty theme, think about having your shower outside or maybe even at a bowling alley. If you're all about keeping the party mellow and casual, maybe take the girls out to a spa. No matter what you decide, throw the traditional “rules” out the door and plan the shower YOU want.

When choosing a date for your wedding, it may be difficult to find a day that will be perfect for both you and your guests. You want nice weather for your wedding and you want everyone to show up. How can you choose the perfect date? Cupid has some ideas that you should consider:

1. Important events: When choosing when to have your wedding, you should consider which days need to be off the table. Kristin Cavallari Says Motherhood Is 'So Much Fun!'

By

Nicole Weintraub

Two months after having her son, Kristin Cavallari is back to her former self and happier than ever, according to UsMagazine.com. The former Hills star and fiancé Jay Cutler who is a quarterback for the Chicago Bears welcomed their son Camden Jack two months ago. Cavallari affectionately calls her son, “Boo Boo,” and has been gushing about him nonstop. Since giving birth, the star has lost most of the baby fat by simply eating right and walking on the treadmill. With Halloween right around the corner, the couple is planning to dress their son up as a lion since he is a Leo. “Having a baby is just so much fun,” gushed the star, though she admitted that she sometimes misses her alone time since she is alone with the baby most of the time while her fiancé is off at work. The duo are not planning on having any more kids for the time being, planning on focusing on their son and teaching him to walk before their big day. “I want Camden to walk down the aisle,” Cavallari explained, “so we’d have to wait anyway for him to start walking.”

What are some reasons to put off nuptials?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting married? There is a ton of planning that goes into a wedding, though sometimes it's best to pull the reigns on the planning for just a little while. Here are a few reasons on why it may be better to wait to get married:

1. Babies: Having a baby is stressful enough without adding the whole planning of a wedding onto your plate. Plus, most women want to focus on their babies especially while they are young since they grow up so fast. In Cavallari's case, she is waiting until her son can walk so that he can be incorporated into her wedding.

2. Illness: If you, your partner or a family member is seriously ill, it may be for the best to postpone the nuptials. Everyone will be distracted and the main focus should be on that person getting better, not on your wedding.

3. Family Emergencies: If there is a family emergency such as a pending death or a death in the family, out of respect and the right thing to do it may be best to postpone the wedding. Family members will need to go through a mourning period before they can be excited about a celebration.

Announcements from Famous Couples

By

Lily Rose

First comes love; then, comes marriage; then, comes a little one sitting in a baby carriage. In 2012, things may not happen exactly in that order – especially for our favorite celebrity couples. No matter the order of things, when the little bundle of joy does come, it is cause for celebration and for baby announcements. When it comes to celebrity baby news, announcements range from traditional to over-the-top.

Announcing Celebrity Baby News

Some famous couples opt to announce their baby's arrival with a simple yet heartfelt press release. Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler, who welcomed Camden Jack Cutler on Aug. 8, decided to go that route. So did Kelsey and Kayte Grammer, who welcomed daughter, Faith Evangeline Elisa Grammer, on July 13. Also taking a simplistic approach, Hilary Duff tweeted her son Luca's first photo.

But why settle for simple and heartfelt when you can do it big and make it financially lucrative? From the date the press first learns there's a celebrity pregnancy to the date the child arrives, most publications are scrambling, begging, and scheming to get their hands on the first baby pics. Some celebs, such as former reality TV star turned fashion designer, Jessica Simpson, chose to circumvent the rigmarole by simply selling the pictures. People featured the first snapshots of Simpson's daughter, Maxwell Drew. Simpson was reportedly paid $800,000 for their exclusive right to her little girl's first photos.

Simpson isn't the only one to sell the privilege of offering the public its first glimpse of her child. Former American Idol judge Jennifer Lopez and Latin crooner Marc Anthony also sold the exclusive rights to the first pictures of their twins. As far as the price goes, Lopez and Anthony didn't do too shabby either: The celebrity couple reportedly made a cool $6 million.

Famous Couple's Expensive Baby Pics

Of course, no one does it as big as Hollywood couple Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt. The public waited with bated breath to see the child produced by the genetically blessed superstars. Jolie and Pitt reportedly sold the photos of their twins, Knox and Vivienne, for more than $11 million.

Still, some famous couples chose a different but still non-traditional route to share their celebrity baby news. For example, singer, Beyonce Knowles and her rap star husband Jay-Z erected a tumblr page displaying daughter Blue Ivy's first photo shoot. The page was offered free to the public.

Some think selling your baby's first photos seems just plain wrong. Others figure, why not? It's better than the paparazzi chasing you down the street for them! Let us know your thoughts.

What are some ways to feel attractive after having a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby is a huge ordeal, as caring for a newborn is a lot of responsibility and pressure. Here are some tips on how to feel more attractive after having a baby:

1. Go out: Just because you have a baby, doesn't mean you can't enjoy a night out on the town. Have a date night with your partner or a girls' night out to raise your spirits and give you something for which to look forward. The more fun you're having, the less you'll feel self-conscious. Having a baby does not change your identity – you're still the same beautiful person you were before your pregnancy.

2. Pamper yourself: You feel your best when you look your best. If you've been feeling a little low, treat yourself. Perhaps go for a nice relaxing massage or go for that pedicure you've been putting off because you can't find the time. Schedule some alone time in so that you can enjoy a little relaxation time. You deserve to indulge every now and then.

3. Be productive: Sometimes we feel unattractive when we feel unproductive and have nothing to do. Go to the gym, put the baby in the stroller and go for a walk around the park. A little movement and change of scenery does a lot, especially if you've been stuck in the house between the later stages of pregnancy and caring for a new baby.
