There's another celebrity baby to add to the mix! What are some ways to prepare for a baby boy specifically?

Cupid's Advice:

There are some obvious differences you could imagine when preparing for baby boy as opposed to a girl, so here are some pointers on what to expect when you're expecting ... a boy!:

1. Pink or blue?: Telling a little girl to put down the football is vastly different than telling a little boy to put down a doll. Gender roles are a vital part of parenting from the very beginning so be mindful of gender roles and identity, and what they mean to you as a parent.

2. Boys do cry: Don't assume because you're having a boy that parenting will be a breeze. Even though they might get a little more down and dirty, know that boys (babies included) can be a lot more emotional and sensitive than popular stereotypes maintain.

3. The process: There's no all-encompassing manual or instruction pamphlet designed for parenthood. It's a learning process for not only the baby, but also for parent. If this is your first baby or baby boy, don't be afraid of learning and making mistakes.
