This new celebrity couple isn't in hiding anymore! What are some ways to keep your new relationship from hurting your recent ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on isn't always easy, and while it can be a sensitive time, it still has to be done. Cupid has some ways to keep your new relationship from hurting your recent ex:

1. Respect: Respect is the most important part of this whole situation. You and your ex called it quits, and it's important to respect the fact that it takes time to move forward. Not only should you respect this, but your new partner should as well. Parading your new partner around can be hurtful and can cause unwanted drama. Your new love interest may be inclined to stir the pot; don't let them. Make sure everyone respects each other and things go smoothly. Who wants the drama anyway?

2. Distance: Distance can actually very much help the situation. We're not saying that you and your new flame cannot enjoy going out, but maybe for a while avoid going to places that you and your ex used to frequent. Keeping your new relationship separated from the old is one of the best things you can do. Keeping a respectful distance helps to build a healthy relationship for all parties involved.

3. Time: Time is an important part of the healing process as well. To “soften the blow,” allow your ex to have some time to heal. With some time, your ex should be better about the situation, and you and your new partner will be able to thrive with no drama. They say time heal all wounds, so, in this case, give your ex time to adjust to the fact that you are moving on. Just think about if the shoe were on the other foot.

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up with someone is extremely difficult, particularly when you have been together for years and years, like this celebrity couple. Check out these three ways to help you know if it's truly time to call it quits:

Halloween is tomorrow, and already the celebrities are out and about donning a wide range of crafty costumes as they take to the streets. From classic Disney characters to trendy media ensembles, it seems like this spooky season will be a creative one for the A-list community. There are a few celebrity couples that always give their all for this haunted holiday, so we are counting down the top five celebrity couples who dress up, and party down for Halloween:

1. Fergie and Josh Duhamel: This couple's rocky past is long behind them as they currently stand strong and are one of the cutest little families. The duo has pulled off some spectacular couple's costumes in the past, so we expect nothing less in 2014. 2. Neil Patrick Harris and David Burtka: This couple always brings their A-game for trick-or-treating. They like to keep it all in the family with their adorable twins in tow. Couple costume prediction: Something a-la The Wizard of Oz or possible A Midsummer Night's Dream. In honor of Neil's recent hosting gig, it's bound to be an academy award winning movie cast.

But we are excited to see what the real household members of the playboy mansion will wear this year. Couple costume prediction: Romeo and Juliet. Celebrity Couples That Have Bounced Back After Cheating

By Jennifer Harrington and Laura Seaman

For those who follow celebrity news, cheating in Hollywood is hardly a surprise. What is often more interesting are the couples that, despite the spotlight and scrutiny, manage to stick together through a cheating scandal. So Cupid took a look at a few high-profile lovebirds who have weathered the storm of infidelity to see what lessons about moving on can be learned from the A-listers.

1. Josh Duhamel and Fergie: This couple met back in 2004, became engaged in 2007, and were married in 2009. Soon after they became man and wife, though, a stripper accused the actor of cheating. This didn't seem to upset the Black Eyed Peas singer, as she stayed with him through it all. In 2012, Duhamel addressed the rumors and said, "When you go through difficult times, it really makes you stronger as a unit, as a partnership. It does for us, anyways. Our love today is a deeper love, definitely." In 2013, they welcomed their baby boy Axl Jack Duhamel. What didn't kill this relationship made it stronger, and these two are as happy as ever.

2. Kobe and Vanessa Bryant: Hotel worker Katelyn Faber accused the basketball star of sexual assault back in 2003. While Bryant did admit that he slept with the Faber and cheated on his wife, he denied that it was assault. Through the trial and all of the press, Bryant's wife stayed by his side. The two are still together and are now raising their two daughters, Natalia and Gianna. In fact, they were recently spotted on a family vacation in Greece.

3. David Borneaz and Jaime Bergman: The Bones actor and his former Playboy Playmate wife have been married since 2001, but in 2010, he admitted to the public that he cheated on a then-pregnant Bergman. The other woman in the picture is no stranger to scandal: Rachel Uchitel was also a mistress of Tiger Woods. Later, to make matters worse, explicit texts between the two were leaked to the media. Soon after, the actor commented, saying of him and his wife: "We're working on repairing what has been damaged so badly." He now says that the entire affair was a type of bonding experience for the couple and that they are closer because of it.

4. David and Victoria Beckham: The soccer star was hit with a cheating accusation back in 2010 by In Touch Weekly, who published a piece stating that he had cheated on his wife with a call girl named Irma Nici. Beckham sued the magazine, and the suit was dropped. Beckham's rep released a statement saying the allegations were "completely untrue and totally ridiculous, as the magazine was told before publication.” This past July, the couple, who has four children, celebrated 15 years of marriage.

5. Scott Disick and Kourtney Kardashian: This reality couple has faced allegations of unfaithfulness throughout the course of their seven-year relationship. In 2011, rumors swirled that Disick and fellow reality star Kristin Cavallari were having an affair. Cavallari denied the rumors and speculated that they were initiated to spark interest before the premiere of a new season of Keeping Up With the Kardashians. With Kardashian pregnant with their third child, it sounds like all has been forgiven!

Ultimately, cheating should be avoided, and it's never a desired ingredient in any romance. But, unfortunately, it does happen. The examples from these high-profile couples proved that with time, forgiveness, and family support, it's sometimes possible to mend a relationship broken by unfaithfulness.

Celebrities Who Have Gotten Back Together After a

Cheating Scandal

By April Littleton

Celebrities are known for being in the spotlight – especially if they are involved in a relationship with someone. Sometimes, this can get them into a bit of trouble if they aren't being true to the one they love. Whether the rumors are true or not, many celebrity couples have had their fair share of cheating scandals:

1. Kristen Stewart and Robert Pattinson: In July 2012, Us Weekly published pictures of Stewart having an affair with “Snow White and the Huntsman” director Rupert Sanders. The day after the scandal went public, the “Breaking Dawn” co-star issued out a public apology to Pattinson through People. “I’m deeply sorry for the hurt and embarrassment. I’ve caused to those close to me and everyone this has affected. This momentary indiscretion has jeopardized the most important thing in my life, the person I love and respect the most, Rob. I love him, I love him, I'm so sorry," she said. After a brief breakup, the two ended up back together. However, the reconciliation didn't last. The couple broke up for the final time sometime last year.

2. Fergie and Josh Duhamel: In 2009, an exotic dancer named Nicole Forrester claimed she had an affair with then 39-year-old Josh Duhamel. In an interview with Oprah, Fergie addressed the claims. "It was difficult. When you go through difficult times it really makes you stronger as a unit. As a partnership. It does for us anyways. Our love is a deeper love now," she said. The couple went on to renew their wedding vows shortly after the allegations. The duo are also parents to son, Axl Jack Duhamel, born Aug. 29, 2013.

Scolaro told Life & Style Magazine that Thicke said, "I want to get you into bed!" upon meeting her. Patton's reps denied all of her claims and stated that Scolaro was "just a girl looking for attention." Thicke and Patton were high school sweethearts and married in 2005. They have a son, Julian Fuego Thicke.

4. Keith Urban and Nicole Kidman: Part-time model, Amanda Wyatt revealed to Daily Mail that Urban cheated on Kidman throughout their relationship. "I feel sorry for Nicole. Keith cheated on her repeatedly with me, right up to just before they got married," she said. However, the accusations didn't seem to tear the couple's marriage apart. Urban and Kidman had their first child together in 2008, and had a second daughter in 2010.

How do you keep jealousy about your partner's career at bay?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how happy you are for your partner's success, jealousy is in human nature and can occur in any relationship, no matter how stable or healthy it may be. Knowing how to handle jealousy is what will keep the green-eyed monster from harming both your relationship and your partner's career:

1. Show support: Even if you wish you had gotten the raise or promotion over your partner, at the end of the day, you must congratulate and support your partner on everything they achieve. Supporting one another is what keeps relationships both positive and strong.

Related: Fergie and Josh Duhamel Are Expecting

2. Share their success: Remind yourself that as a couple, you are a unit, meaning their achievements are also your achievements. When they score the big promotion or get rewarded for their hard work on a project, remind yourself that by supporting them, you contributed to their ultimate success, and they may not have been able to accomplish it without you. This can replace feelings of jealousy with pride.

3. See the positives in their career: While you may feel envious about certain parts of your partner's job, whether that comes from their role of working closely with the opposite sex, or accomplishing more than you have in your own career, try to focus on the positives it brings to your relationship. This could be anything from their paychecks that support your family, or the personal growth and happiness the specific career provides your partner. Never overlook the positives.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Katy Perry, Kate Middleton and Fergie

By Shoshi

For today's expert post, I want to look at the energy of three celebrity couples who are celebrating exciting times in their relationships: Katy Perry and John Mayer, who are back together and recently released their first duet; Kate Middleton and Prince William, who welcomed their son, Prince George, in July; and Fergie and Josh Duhamel, who are expecting their first child very soon.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Jennifer Aniston,

Julianne Hough and Kim Kardashian

Katy Perry and John Mayer: This musically-talented duo is on again – at least for now. It's becoming difficult to define their love since it tends to change so quickly. Mayer has actually managed to keep his mouth shut about this relationship, unlike his behavior in the past. (Did we really need to know that sex with Jessica Simpson was like a drug?)

When looking at the energy around the couple, it seems like they're having fun. While they do enjoy each other's company, what keeps them getting back together is their ability to relate to one another. It's a level of comfort that they both need at this time.

There's been buzz about their new duet – and for good reason! Mayer sings that he can see himself growing old with her. How adorable is that? The only thing is that gushy love eventually ends. The soulful singer has a habit of quickly becoming attached to the woman he's dating, so only time will tell if they survive past the honeymoon stage.

In their duet, he also wrote that he couldn't run anymore. He's finally starting to show signs of getting serious about his love life. During his relationship with Perry, she will help him grow up a bit. Even so, Mayer will become bored and soon move on to the next lady.

Kate Middleton and Prince William: Ever since Kate Middleton and Prince William announced their engagement, the world has been enchanted with the lovely couple. When Kate announced she was pregnant with a royal bundle of joy, we couldn't wait for the baby to arrive!

We can all finally relax: Prince George is here and has been presented to the world. The Duke and Duchess's marriage appears to be going strong; in fact, they've never been better. Surrounding their relationship is the energy of Princess Diana, as if she watches over them and guides her son. Without a doubt, these two are best friends. They want to keep a low profile and simply enjoy their lives together.

There is another baby energy circling Kate. They want to wait a bit before their next child, but they may not have a choice. Don't be surprised if she's soon pregnant with baby number two, which will bring them a daughter.

Related Link: Will Harry and Pippa Be Named Godparents for Prince George?

Fergie and Josh Duhamel: Fergie and Josh Duhamel cannot wait until the arrival of their son. The energy in their relationship has shifted for the better since Fergie got pregnant. Rumors had been circling about Josh's activities with other women, but now, he's a bit more centered and focused on family.

Fergie has just legally changed her name from Stacy Ann Ferguson to Fergie Duhamel. It is said that, when you change your name, you change your destiny, so the newly-annointed Mrs. Duhamel has shifted her energy on many levels.

Josh is going to be really close to his son – it'll be hard to find him in a photo without him. It will cause him to want to work less, while Fergie will be inspired with material for a new album dedicated to the two men in her life and the love she has for them. It's a very happy time in the Duhamel household. All the best to them!

How do you know if your partner would make a good parent?

Cupid’s Advice:

You and your partner have been together for a while now. You both are tossing around the idea of starting a family together. Before doing anything drastic however, you want to make sure your love will make a good father. Cupid’s here to help you figure that out:

1. He takes care of you: Whenever you’re sick, your partner always stops by with soup to make sure you are okay. He helps you get better and doesn’t ever worry about catching your germs—he’s more concerned about you than his own health. If he is this nurturing with you, he is sure to be a good father. When his children will need him most, you know for a fact that your love will happily take care of them.

2. Good with other kids: Your friends had a baby last year and your spouse loves spending time with the little one. He offers to babysit and enjoys playing and laughing with their child. This should be a very clear indication that your partner will make a great father. He is showing enthusiasm towards children and is probably stirring up excitement of becoming a father of his own some day.

3. Patience: Your love wants to leave the house by a certain time, but you are taking forever to get ready. Instead of getting mad and frustrated at you, he is understanding and lets you get ready in peace. By doing so, your man is showing you how patient he can be—which will definitely be good when you have kids together.

The Most Health-Conscious Celebrity Couples

By Andrea Surujnauth

Celebrities are always expected to look great. Some spend hours and hours exercising, while others follow crazy diets like Kourtney Kardashian's ghee gulping every morning or Jennifer Anniston eating only baby food. However, being health-conscious doesn't necessarily mean drinking weird green mixtures or fitting in two or three workouts each day. It means eating healthy, exercising regularly and staying away from eccentric diets that starve your body of much-needed nutrients. So which celebrity couples are truly the most health-conscious duos in Hollywood?

1. Jada Pinkett Smith and Will Smith: Jada, a yoga advocate, has introduced her fitness regime to her family: she often does yoga with her loving hubby and even with their children. As she recently told WomensHealthMag.com, “I used to push a lot of iron. I’ve been in the gym for like 15 years now, and I’m just not motivated by it anymore. So I do a lot of outside sports. On my Christmas vacation, I did a lot of cross-country skiing, and I like to hike. I usually do my yoga at home in the evenings for about an hour. Sometimes I go to a class, but with my schedule, it’s really difficult for me – and my kids like to join me. We do a lot of yoga together.” See? It really is possible to keep up with a busy career, stay in shape and spend time with your family!

2. Fergie and Josh Duhamel: This cute couple is often photographed getting fit together. They go running or hiking and even do push-ups while out on the trail. What are some ways to prepare your relationship for a child?

Cupid's Advice:

With a child coming into you and your beau's life, you need to prepare your relationship. "A child changes everything" is more than accurate. Not only will your baby change the way you live however, it will change your relationship. Or at least try to. With having a child, you and your mate need to keep strong, especially strong together. Cupid has some advice:

1. Sleep deprivation: You and your partner will both realize what sleep deprivation really means when you have a child. Three-hour nights of sleep will be common to you two. With this being said, your need to prepare your relationship for possible fights over who gets up for the baby. You both will be completely exhausted however, one of you still need to get up. This ties in with score keeping also, no matter how many times you get up for your child-you're still the parent! And it is a parents job, so don't let it interfere with your relationship.

2. Score keeping: "I changed diapers twice today, now it's your turn." "I got up last night to rock the baby back to sleep, you do it tonight." Leave all of this entirely out of your relationship! Score keeping on what and what not you did with your child will end in chaos. It is both of your responsibilities to love your child more than anything on earth. Fighting does not tie in with love. You and your mate will drive one another crazy if you enforce a score keeping system in your life. Leave it out!

3. Sexual disconnect: Be prepared ladies and gentlemen for a strong disconnection from sex with your partner. With some, it may still be visible. However, with most couples, sexual disconnect is common. With the lack of sleep, excess of baby poop and puke, sex seems entirely unappealing. At the end of the day, you and your mate will be thinking of how your eyelids look, not how you look in the new La Perla lingerie you recently bought.

Katie's mysterious and sudden arrival is noticed by many, especially widowed store owner, Alex (Duhamel). As Katie begins to fall in love with Alex, her past begins spiraling into her life, leaving her terrified and struggling to feel safe. She knows she must make a decision: a life full of safety and minimum troubles, or a life slightly more dangerous, but full of love? With this cast, the movie will be incredible!

Who to take: This movie comes out on Valentines Day, it will definitely be a tear-jerker. Since Safe Haven comes out on Valentines Day, your options on who to take are vast. No Valentine this year? Nicholas Sparks has a way of connecting his characters through his text and director, Lasse Hallstrom has carried this through. The trailer shows the intensity of their love in the movie, the way Katie looks at Alex when he's around his kids. You can see their love, the chaos of Katie's life, how frightened she is, all in the rapid scenes of fire, running, kissing, and passion. This movie is a must see for all ages and all genders!

When should you risk your life for love?

Cupid's Advice:

Love is an aspect of life most people strive for. Determining what you should sacrifice or drop for love is a hard line to discover. Of course with every relationship, you have to put yourself out there. You need to open up, accept the fact that your partner wants to fully love you, you simply need to open up. Having a haunted past can affect how you react with risking your life with love. Similar to Katie (Hough) in Safe Haven, risking your life for love is sometimes necessary. Cupid has some advice:

1. You need to move on: Having a rough breakup, or a past relationship where you were frightened and not comfortable, can make going into a new relationship challenging. Fortunately for these people, there are better men out there! If you are scared to start dating another person because of your ex, you need to move on darling. There are other people out there who are going to treat you better than the last did, you just have to let them break down your walls.

2. You have found 'the one': So many people discuss about 'the one,' and when you've found 'the one,' nothing else in life matters. This may be true, if you do nothing but think about the love of your life, if all you want to do is be around them, and know they're 'the one'; risk it. Why would you want to lose your other life because you may be scared to open up, or let go of your past. If he is 'the one,' don't think about it twice, go for it.

3. You want danger: Some women tend to stick themselves in a safety net, putting their life tucked safely away. This is only good for a person for so long, it is not healthy to always know what is going to happen because you won't allow anything else. If you're in a rut, spending all your time with your Netflix account, be dangerous. Risk yourself for love, we promise it's worth it.

Celebrity Couples That Have a Kid-Free Marriage

By Jessica Smith

Parenthood, that is, bringing a child into this world with your own DNA, is a miracle. Sure, it's an extraordinary undertaking and a definite blessing, but it can also be one giant pain in the butt. As a result, deciding to have children as a married couple is a gargantuan step that will forever change your lives. Although you can expect to lose your privacy and most likely your mind, you can also expect to feel love and gratitude beyond anything you've ever experienced. However great these rewards, and perhaps because of the many potential troubles, these Hollywood couples remain kid-free:

3. Fergie and Josh Duhamel: Let's forget about the fact that Josh Duhamel was accused of cheating on Fergie, since she has decided to forget about the matter herself, and instead focus on the dream-fulfilling marriage these two now have—literally. Nine years ago, Fergie read a tabloid about a dream that Duhamel had about her, and she later asked him if it was a good dream. His answer eventually led them to a marriage. Though they've been married for four years now and want to start a family, they still remain kid-free. Time's ticking away, so they'd better hurry before it's too late!

1. Prince William and Kate Middleton: Undoubtedly the most talked-about wedding of 2011 and perhaps the most anticipated 'I do' since Princess Diana's royal wedding, Prince William and Kate Middleton had a lavish wedding that will be very difficult to top. The royal pair wed at Westminster Abbey in front of 1,900 guests, while thousands more gathered outside to watch the newlyweds ride by in a horse-drawn carriage and kiss on the balcony of Buckingham Palace. The cake alone cost $80,000 and Middleton's custom-made dress cost $70,000. Overall the wedding had to be supported by the taxpayers of England because it cost over $30 million.

2. Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries: The whole world was fortunate enough to see this wedding thanks to a camera crew so large that 50 guests had to be cut to accommodate for it. Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries wed in a beautiful vintage Hollywood black-and-white-themed ceremony where she helped design every detail. The venue was at a private estate in Montecito, California that is worth an estimated $20 million. Over 500 guests witnessed the 'I do's' under large white tents that were built to keep the wedding under wraps and to fit in with the black-and-white theme. Let's not forget about the wedding dresses; yes, there was more than one. Each of the three gowns was Vera Wang and reportedly cost $20,000 a pop. The entire wedding cost anywhere from six to ten million dollars, but we wouldn't expect anything less from Kim Kardashian.

3. Elizabeth Hurley and Arun Nayar: Elizabeth Hurley and Indian textile heir Arun Nayar started dating in 2002 and waited to wed until 2007. The lavish and eight day-long wedding was worth the wait. Because the couple came from different backgrounds, their wedding was divided into two locations. For the British wedding, Hurley married Nayar in a beautiful ceremony at Sudeley Castle in Gloucestershire where Elton John gave the bride away. The nuptials continued in India at a similarly-star-studded ceremony. Hurley wore beautifully embellished dresses and chocolate fountains were scattered all across the venue making this wedding unforgettable. The wedding cost an estimated $2.5 million.

4. Fergie and Josh Duhamel: This celebrity pair opted for a white fantasy wedding at the Church Estates Vineyards in Malibu. Fergie and Josh Duhamel exchanged vows under magnolia trees filled with thousands of white roses. The bride carried a bouquet of flowers studded with crystals and wore a beautifully fitted Dolce & Gabbana gown. The reception was held in a tent that was made to look like a forest of trees, with the ceiling covered in lights. Kate Hudson, Rebecca Romijn, and Jerry O'Connell were a few of the many celebrities who attended this extravagant wedding.

5. Kendra Wilkinson and Hank Baskett: Kendra Wilkinson and former NFL player Hank Baskett's wedding was not only lavish: it was one of a kind. They were the first couple ever to wed at the Playboy Mansion other than Hugh Hefner himself. Of course, they had to make it special. Kendra walked down the aisle in a princess-style white gown and wore more than $100,000 worth of platinum jewelry by Michael Barin. The ceremony was held out in the open on a lawn where white rose petals and flower wreaths lined the aisle. Hundreds of guests, including plenty of playmates, watched the happy couple promised to be together forever in this beautiful ceremony.

Fergie Says She Doesn't Want Kids with Josh Duhamel Yet

Black Eyed Peas singer Fergie is enjoying her time off with her husband, actor Josh Duhamel, after being on the road eight years touring with her group the Black Eyed Peas. “We like each other. We like hanging out together and we have fun,” Fergie told MTV News. “We have fun in the kitchen cooking and singing silly songs. Not to give too much away – I’m not going any further than that – but we have a good time together, and it’s nice to get to have that quality time. We enjoy it.” Though they recently celebrated their three-year anniversary, don’t expect the Hollywood duo to make a pregnancy announcement anytime soon. “It’s not happening yet, I can tell you that definitely,” the singer says. “But we want to have a family, so that’s in the cards, but it’s just not this second.”

How do you know when it’s time to start having children?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having kids is usually the next step to take after marriage. Here’s how to determine when you and your spouse should start planning for your new addition to the family:

1. Live like newlyweds for a while: Enjoy your time with your spouse for a little while before having kids. The first few years of your marriage are when you and your lover can take advantage of spoiling each other with “just because” gifts and enjoy your time together taking romantic vacations.

2. You’ve done what you wanted to do: For some people, their life truly begins when they have kids, but if you’re the type of person that wants to live a little before having children, then be a little selfish and cross some things off of your bucket list.

3. You’re ready to expand your family: After treating your puppy as though it’s your own kid and both you and your spouse still feel like something is missing in your life, then it may be time to start planning for a family.

Fergie Says She May Have a Baby This Year

It's a new year, and Fergie and husband Josh Duhamel might be considering making a new addition to the family. "Maybe, who knows?" the singer told People. "We'll see." As of right now, Fergie's focus is on spending more time with her hubby of three years since she no longer has a schedule to follow everyday. "I'm looking forward to being home and not having to sleep in a different city or country every night," she said.

What are important factors to consider before having children?

Cupid's Advice:

Becoming pregnant often comes as a surprise, but many parents have the chance to decide when they're ready to give birth.

Cupid has some tips:

1. Maturity: Be sure that you have the right mentality and you're ready to refocus all of your attention away from yourself and onto caring for your newborn.

2. Reasons: If you believe you're ready, be sure you're prepared for all the right reasons. Be sure you're financially and emotionally stable.

3. Mutual: Be sure both you and your partner ready to commit to raising a child. There are plenty of single mothers out there who have raised perfectly brought up children on their own, but I'm sure they'd tell you that it was not an easy task to do alone.
