Cupid's Advice

Getting over an ex and dealing with a break-up can be a difficult journey, but there are some tricks that can help you cope. If you're looking for ways to use social media to cope with a split, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Unfollow or block your ex: One of the best things you can do for yourself when coping with a split is unfollowing, muting, or blocking your ex on social media. Even if you ended on good terms, cutting off contact on social media will help you to start moving on instead of constantly focusing on what they are posting.

2. Post things for you: Using social media can be extremely empowering if you're using it for the right reasons. Instead of posting to impress others, gain approval, or show your ex how well you're doing without them, focus on using your accounts for your own self expression. Only post things you want and use social media to empower yourself.

Celebrity Break-Up: Julianne Hough Files for Divorce from Brooks Laich 5 Months After Split

By Carly Silva

In the latest celebrity break-up news, Julianne Hough has officially filed for divorce from celebrity ex Brooks Laich. According to UsMagazine.com, the pair, who tied the knot in 2017, announced their split five months before officially filing for divorce earlier this week.

In celebrity break-up news, it's officially over between Julianne Hough and Brooks Laich. How do you know when your relationship is irreparable?

Cupid's Advice:

Trying to salvage a relationship can be tricky, so it's important to know when to call it quits. If you're looking for signs that your relationship is irreparable, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You've already tried everything: If you're trying to decide if your relationship is able to be fixed, it's important to assess what you've already tried. If you and your partner have tried to fix things for quite a long time, or even tried therapy, and you find yourself exhausted because things still aren't working, it may be time to call it quits.

Related Link: Celebrity Divorce: Ant Anstead Says He Lost 23 Pounds Amid Divorce from Christina Anstead

2. Your relationship has become harmful to one or both of you: Another sign that may help you know that your relationship is irreparable is if you find the relationship to be doing more harm than good to one or both of you. Once your relationship makes you and your partner unhappy often or has caused damage or harm to you, that is definitely a major sign that it may not be salvageable anymore.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Ups: Lenny Kravitz Blew It During First Meeting with Ex Lisa Bonet

3. You no longer trust each other: Another sign of an unfixable relationship is a lack of trust. Continuing in a relationship without trusting your partner will only cause more problems down the road, so if you have tried everything to rebuild trust, and you still can't rely on each other, your relationship may not be repairable at that point.

Celebrity Exes: Brooks Laich Steps Out Without Wedding Ring After Julianne Hough Split

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Brooks Laich was spotted out in Los Angeles without his wedding ring. The sighting comes after his recent split from Julianne Hough. The pair wed in mid-2017 and had been the source of multiple breakup rumors in recent months. We wish these two nothing but the best on their separate journeys!

This celebrity ex is letting his newly found single-dom be known. What are some small steps you can take to move on right after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups are tough and moving on can feel impossible. If you're looking for ways to get that train rolling, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Unfollow them: If you know you'll be itching to stalk their social media profiles and constantly check-up on what they are doing, unfollow them. During this process, it's important that you are focusing on yourself and doing what's right for you. Wasting your time on their socials will only make moving on more difficult and longer. Try taking a break from social media all together! Detox from your screen and work on your self-care routine instead.

2. Cut the communication: While you may thinking reaching out and continuing to seek closure is a beneficial thing, it will only hurt you in the long run. Once you break up make sure you understand what went wrong and why. After you receive this closure, don't continue asking to talk, it will only sour the split. By cutting off the communication, you will be able to completely focus on yourself and spend time working on your personal growth. Use this time to better who you are whether that's in your career or with your loved ones.

3. Turn to your support network: Nothing heals a wounded heart better than spending time with your friends and family. Tell them what's happening with your split and allow yourself to be vulnerable around them. Try planning a wine night with your girlfriends or a dinner with your family! Surround yourself with love and people who care about you and it will be a step in the right direction.

1. Reconnect with friends: It's easy to distance yourself from your friends during your relationship, but it's important to spend time with them after a breakup. Your close friends are there for you and this is when you need them most. If they're long-distance friends, schedule times to call them!

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Brooks Laich expressed his desire for kids following his recent split from Julianne Hough. According to UsMagazine.com, the former professional hockey player was discussing his “journey” to learn more about racism on a “How Men Think With Brooks Laich and Gavin DeGraw” podcast episode when he said, “It’s important to me. In celebrity news, Brooks Laich isn't letting his split from Julianne Hough keep him from having kids in the future. What do you do if your partner isn't interested in having kids, and you are?

Cupid's Advice:

Figuring out if you want to be a parent is such a big decision and even though you may have found who you think is "the one" they might not have the same plans as you to become a parent. If your partner isn't interested in having kids and you are, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Figure out if there's an underlying issue: A lot of the time if someone doesn't want to have kids, it's not necessarily because they don't want to be a parent, but because of something that they think may prevent them from being the best parent they can be. For instance, lack of time, lack of money, or lack of space could be factors. Talk to your partner and see if this is an issue that can be resolved before starting a family.

1. Let them know they're appreciated: We can't always solve problems for our partners, even if we would love nothing more than to wash away their worries. Julianne Hough and Hockey Player Boyfriend Brooks Laich Announce Celebrity Engagement

By Mackenzie Scibetta

Just when it seemed all hope was lost for celebrity couples, Julianne Hough and her boyfriend Brooks Laich prove love is still real in Hollywood. As UsMagazine.com reported, Hough announced her celebrity engagement on Instagram with a black and white photo of the adorable duo embracing in a kiss. She captioned the photo expressing her excitement for the “wedding planning adventures” to come. On her blog, she continued to show signs of complete bliss as she promised to share some “exclusive details and pics” with fans in the next few days.

We’re excited for some happy celebrity engagement news! What are some ways to creatively utilize social media to announce your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

After becoming engaged, one of your first instincts will be to frantically post on social media. However, by resisting that initial urge to ramble on social media with a blurry and unfocused picture, you can wait to post and produce a well-planned engagement announcement. Cupid has some suggestions to keep your engagement announcement on social media from being too cliché:

1. “How we met” caption: Everyone already knows you’re in love, but most people probably don’t know the story of how you and your fiancé fell in love. Caption your engagement photo with the heart-warming story of where, when and how you met each other, as it will be sure to capture the hearts of your audience members.

2. Silly poses: Take a look at Pinterest, and you can find a million engagement photo ideas that range from ones for coffee lovers to technology geeks. Pick one that perfectly describes your relationship, whether it be posing with your dogs or modeling at the beach, and you can create an engagement photo that is unforgettable.

3. Create a wedding hashtag: Use a wedding hashtag at the end of your post so you can keep all of your special day photos connected forever. Encourage family, friends and bridesmaids to use it so you can capture (and hopefully laugh at) all of those crazy moments leading up to your wedding.

How did you and your fiancé announce your engagement? Let us know below.

Antonio Sabato Jr. on His 'DWTS' Journey So Far: "I Have a Passion with Everything I Do"

By Sarah Batcheller

Impressed doesn't even begin to sum up the fan's opinion of Antonio Sabato Jr.'s Bollywood performance during partner switch-up week on ABC's Dancing with the Stars. While viewers missed his dynamic dancing with partner Cheryl Burke, he and Allison Holker really turned up the heat with kicks, jumps, and stunts. Much to Sabato's pleasure, judge Julianne Hough noted his passion and said he was "most improved." Find out more from the Fix It and Finish It host in our exclusive celebrity interview below!

Exclusive Celebrity Interview with Antonio Sabato Jr. About 'DWTS'

What was running through your mind when you found out you were dancing Bollywood?

ASJ: Excitement! I was very excited because I love Bollywood. I knew it would be fun and was very happy to get to do it.

Allison mentioned how high energy this dance is. Was it harder to learn than past dances because of the quick pace?

ASJ: In some ways, it was, and in some ways, it wasn't. The good thing is that I felt really comfortable in it from the beginning. Actually, I'm feeling more comfortable with dancing as a whole. Some weeks, it's hard, and some weeks are easier, but I love all the challenges. I think I had more fun learning Bollywood because it's a happy kind of dance, and that made it a fun challenge.

How did your chemistry with Allison compare to it with Cheryl? Did you agree with the judges when they noted the disconnect between the two of you?

ASJ: It's about the dance and what we tried to do. There's a chemistry when you dance with a great partner, and it worked with Allison as well as Cheryl. They're both amazing dancers, and I'm fortunate to dance with Cheryl and to work with Allison. I've never danced before, so I'm learning as a student and come in with no expertise.

No, I didn't agree with the judges. That was their opinion as judges. I know that I had a great time in the dance. They are supposed to judge, and it didn't take away from what we did on the floor.

We love that Julianne commented on how passionate you are each week – that had to feel good! Where does that passion come from?

ASJ: I have a passion with everything I do. When I do something, I want to do it the best I can. I take pride in the life I have and the choices I make. I'm blessed to be on a show like DWTS. I guess the passion is in my blood – the passion to work hard on something. I'm Italian, and we are a very passionate people.

Julianne also called you “most improved” on Good Morning America last week. We'd love to know your thoughts on this sweet comment!

ASJ: HUGE compliment coming from her. I totally respect her as a dancer, a performer, and now a judge. As soon as I see her, I will thank her and let her know how grateful I am for what she said.

What was it like watching Cheryl dance with Alfonso Ribeiro? Any jealousy?

ASJ: Nah, I was happy for both of them. They were so good. Alfonso has been dancing his entire life, and I've been looking forward to watching people that know how to dance get to dance. It's so fun to watch. I was very supportive of both of them, especially Cheryl.

Is there anything you learned from Allison that you'll be using during training this week?

ASJ: I'm learning so much from every dance I do, and I enjoy every different move and song. I learned with Bollywood to relax even more and to have more fun. I've learned to pay attention to every step and to loosen up. That's what I'm going to take with me this week as I do the Salsa with Cheryl.

When we first spoke with you, you mentioned your family would be in the audience each week. What sort of feedback have they been giving you?

ASJ: My family is being very supportive of me. They love the show; they love to dance; and they love to get to see me dance. We're always there together, and it's a blessing. They love it. All my friends come and see me and support me, and it makes it so special.

Lastly, you're still shooting Fix It and Finish It while you're competing. How is Louisville?

ASJ: We had our last shoot there on Friday, and now, our crew moves to Cleveland. I really love the city a lot, and hopefully, I can run into LeBron!

Dating Again: How to Move On After a Breakup

By Marni Battista

Moving on after a breakup can be tough. At Dating with Dignity, we don't think the best way to get over your ex is to get under someone else! Julianne Hough and Ryan Seacrest are one Hollywood "It Couple" that recently ended their relationship, and it looks like at least one of them has moved on. Rumors have it that Seacrest has already bagged himself a new lady friend, while Hough still wants him back. If we could advise the bubbly blonde on how to pick herself up again, here are the tips we'd give her:

Related Link: Lessons from Justin and Selena: Should You Get Back with Your Ex?

1. Put YOU first. When you go through a breakup, it's extremely important to make sure you take care of yourself first. Even if you saw it coming or it was a decision you know is for the best, it's important to allow yourself time to grieve the loss. Take this opportunity to get back to your fitness regimen, reconnect with old friends, start an activity that perhaps you've put aside for a while or even take a solo weekend vacation. Take some time to feel sad (after all, it's normal to be sad) and remember what you enjoy about yourself.

2. Don't be afraid to say yes to dates. If you get asked out at your local coffee shop or at a friend's birthday bash, say yes. Even if you feel it might be too soon to launch into a super-serious relationship, saying yes to an evening of flirting or a nice dinner won't hurt. It's important to let yourself be seen by someone who doesn't know your "story," and it allows you the opportunity to get back to being you. Plus, it feels good to be pursued!

3. Have fun with girlfriends. When you're in a long-term relationship, you often forget about girl time. Take this opportunity to reconnect with your friends: go out for a night on the town, have fun and take pictures of how much fun you're having to anchor to the new life you're creating. Posting photos on Instagram or checking in on Foursquare to that hot new restaurant opening is totally fine by us too. While the urge to stay in your cave may be strong, trust us that it's important to get your "girl" on and put yourself back in social situations.

4. Remember that it's okay to be single! Even though it sucks when you don't have a date to the next summer wedding or a go-to Saturday night plan, creating the life you want has to start with you and you alone.

Coming from a place of fear that "I'll never meet anyone" or "I'm getting too old" will only lead you down a path you don't want to be on. Relish in the "what's good" about being single and make a list of the things you get to do now that you have more time. Read more books, develop deeper friendships, focus on completing projects that kept getting put on the back burner, go to sleep when you want and cherish that the remote control is all yours.

If Hough took our advice, we think she'd be well on her way to getting over her breakup with Mr. American Idol. Remember: there are plenty of (taller) fish in the sea!

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Jennifer Aniston, Julianne Hough and Kim Kardashian

By Shoshi

For today's expert post, I want to look at the energy of three celebrity couples who have been plagued by rumors this summer: Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux, recently-split Julianne Hough and Ryan Seacrest and new parents Kim Kardashian and Kanye West.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Halle Berry, Jada Pinkett-Smith and Heidi Klum

Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux: It's no surprise that these two lovebirds postponed their wedding – I think even Stevie Wonder could've seen this one coming. There's definitely some conflicting energy around this relationship. Let's dissect it, shall we? The top reason for the wedding being postponed is that Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie are getting hitched this summer too, and Jennifer Aniston doesn't want her wedding close to the same time. Can you blame her?

The other rumor is that she and Justin Theroux are just too busy to get married. Now, I can't help but question this excuse. When people are ready to spend the rest of their lives together, the last thing they'll let stand in the way is their hectic schedules. After all, it's not like the two of them can't afford to take some time off.

When I look at Theroux's energy, it reveals that he isn't the marrying type. He can feel committed to someone without a ceremony. There's nothing wrong with that perspective as long as Aniston is fine with it.

He also feels like he doesn't have any control in the relationship. For instance, after planning to live in New York, Aniston said it felt like a fishbowl and moved the couple back to Los Angeles. Even so, Theroux has been spotted checking out places to live in downtown New York. Aniston has taken Theroux out of the playground where he feels most like himself, which tends to be a big damper on a relationship, especially for men. If Aniston doesn't allow Theroux to feel comfortable, he'll seek that feeling from someone else. Their love can go either way at this point!

Julianne Hough and Ryan Seacrest: Since this adorable couple broke up in March, everybody is on Ryan Seacrest-dating watch. Who will he date next? And will he get back together with Julianne Hough? The spirits say no; he's ready to move on.

Hough, on the other hand, is trying to win the television host back – she has her eye on being Mrs. Seacrest. Unfortunately, it's so not going to happen. Seacrest definitely cares about her, but she's just not the kind of partner he wants/needs as he builds his empire. It also doesn't look good that Hough has been partying like a college girl in recent months. She's screaming for attention from her ex, but instead, she just needs to look for love elsewhere.

Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: Little North West arrived five weeks early, much to the delight of her parents, Kim Kardashian and Kanye West. After the baby's name was announced, people immediately started saying that this famous pair were already bad parents.

Looking at their energy, I think West is going to be a pretty good dad. As for Kardashian, she'll have a bumpy time at first because the baby girl will feel more comfortable with her dad. The reality star will try a little too hard to be a "good mother," which will ultimately hurt her parenting skills. Plus, North will be the number one priority for West, leaving Kardashian a bit jealous. While West and Kardashian love the spotlight, the rapper will have a better grasp on why it's important for their bundle of joy to not be a part of the entertainment business until she's a bit older. When the time is right, though, North West will be a mini-mogul following in the footsteps of her parents. Mark my words!

Celebrity News: Julianne Hough Relaxes in Miami One Month After Split From Ryan Seacrest

By Andrea Surujnauth

Julianne Hough is maxing and relaxing post breakup with Ryan Seacrest. The actress was spotted tanning and hanging out on the beach in Miami with pal Nina Dobrev. Hough and Seacrest dated for nearly two years, but broke it off in March. The rumored reason they pulled the plug on their relationship was due to Seacrest's busy schedule. "Dude works all the time," a source told UsMagazine. "[Seacrest] never sleeps. It's a lifestyle she couldn't handle anymore. Work always, always came first [for him]. She wants a more low-key life."

What are some ways to keep your mind off of a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is never easy. How do you keep your mind off the pain you are feeling? Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Stay away: After a breakup it is best to stay away from your ex and block them on social media. By keeping them close during your time of healing will make it near impossible to heal. You need your time away to get over the feelings you have but having them around will make you wish the breakup didn't happen and it will be impossible to forget about.

2. Friends: Going out with friends and having a good time is a great way to forget about a breakup. Your friends are bound to keep you distracted and happy so you won't be thinking about the heartbreak you are feeling.

3. Stay active: Keeping yourself active will take time away from thinking about your ex-beau. You will be on the go so time will fly and you won't have any free time to linger on the breakup.

Celebrity Breakup: Ryan Seacrest and Julianne Hough Call It Quits After 2 Years

By Jessica Conigliaro

American Idol judge Ryan Seacrest and longtime girlfriend Julianne Hough recently ended things. Hough could not handle dating a workaholic, thus ending their two-year relationship. "It's a lifestyle she couldn't handle anymore. Work always, always came first [for Ryan]. She wants a more lowkey life," a source tells UsMagazine.com.

How do you know when to call it quits in a long-term relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

You have been dating your partner for a while now and feel comfortable being around him. However, something just doesn't feel the same anymore. He treats you with less respect and you are left questioning the relationship. Cupid's here to help you make the tough decision:

1. Opposing goals: After dating your boyfriend for over a year, you decide it's a good time to discuss the idea of marriage. To your surprise, he completely dismisses the conversation, saying he's 'not the married type'. What do you do now? If you and your partner clearly want different things in the future, end the relationship as soon as you can. Never stay with someone that will hold you back from what you truly want—you will eventually resent them for it. Find someone that wants similar things in their future as you do. Searching for that person may take a bit of time, but the end result will be ever so rewarding.

2. Negative behavior changes: Unfortunately, people often change for the worse. Your partner got a promotion at work last year and has been stressed out for months. Instead of talking about his problems, he just takes out all his anger on you and starts unnecessary arguments. When the person you are with stops respecting you the way he used to, write it down in a journal. If you find yourself constantly jotting down your troubles, this is your cue to leave the relationship. Keeping tallies also reassures that you are not making any rash decisions; the problem is a recurring one, and is unlikely to go away. End things before they get even worse.

3. Pile of lies: Throughout your 2-year relationship, you were always suspicious of your man lying to you on occasion. He would never confess to leaving a mess in the kitchen, or forgetting to turn the T.V off before bed. In the past, the lies were so small that you disregarded them completely. If there's a small problem in your relationship, address it before it becomes worse. If you ignore the little nuances, your partner's tiny fibs will get increasingly worse, leaving you hurt mad at yourself for ignoring the signs. If an issue in your relationship is drastically escalating beyond your control, it might be time to consider walking away entirely. Some problems simply can't be fixed.

How Celebrity Couples Overcome Their Stressful Lives

By Whitney Baker

While it's tempting to think that celebrity couples never experience the ups-and-downs of real life, that's not always the case. Like everyone else, they must survive personal heartbreak, career letdowns and various forms of rejection – and they must do it all in the public eye. Of course, being a Tinseltown twosome means that they have money and means to overcome their stressful lives, perhaps by doing one of the activities below.

1. Learning something new: Although stars are often on set for long hours or traveling for various commitments, there is always downtime during their hectic schedules, giving them time to pick up a new hobby. For instance, Curtis Stone, who has a son with fiancée Lindsay Price, hopes that he and Price can learn how to speak Spanish and then teach their son the language.

2. Taking an extravagant vacation: Thanks to their hefty paychecks and flexible jobs, stars can jet off to Mexico or the Caribbean on a whim. Some of them even own their own private planes, making it extra easy to take a last-minute vacation. After co-hosting ABC's New Year's Rockin' Eve with Jenny McCarthy, Ryan Seacrest headed down to St. Barts for some fun in the sun with his long-time girlfriend Julianne Hough. This trip provided some much-needed R&R for the busy couple: Seacrest is gearing up for the twelfth season of American Idol, while Hough is promoting her upcoming movie Safe Haven. Likewise, Reese Witherspoon, Jim Toth and their three children spent the holidays in Hawaii.

3. Enjoying normal, domestic activities: Sometimes, just doing basic, everyday chores helps alleviate the pressure that comes with being rich and famous. When their schedules align and Carrie Underwood and husband Mike Fisher are both at their Nashville home, they like to keep things simple: they often spend time cooking and watching television together. Underwood likes to keep a similar routine when she's on tour, often doing her own laundry on her days off.

4. Donating to charities: While stardom certainly comes with stress, it also includes many wonderful perks. One way for stars to fully appreciate how blessed they are is by giving back – and no couple does this better than the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. Kate Middleton is making sure her charitable donations reflect on her pregnancy; in January, she gave both a hamper of new baby products and a package of baby clothes to one of her favorite causes, East Anglia Children's Hospices.

5. Adopting a puppy: Similarly, many celebrities show their goodwill by rescuing dogs from local shelters. These furry creatures provide them with constant companions despite their busy schedules. At the start of the New Year, Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth adopted a Chihuahua-mix puppy, Bean, who joins their family of four other rescued dogs. Likewise, Katherine Heigl – who even started her own animal companion charity – and husband Josh Kelley have a full house: they're raising their two daughters alongside seven rescued dogs.

With this cast, the movie will be incredible!

Who to take: This movie comes out on Valentine's Day, it will definitely be a tear-jerker. Since Safe Haven comes out on Valentine's Day, your options on who to take are vast. In the trailer, we see how incredible both Duhamel and Hough are as actors, and also how compatible they are together. It is pretty clear of the chemistry amongst the two costars. You can star into their eyes and know that they are destined to play alongside each other. Nicholas Sparks has a way of connecting his characters through his text and director, Lasse Hallstrom has carried this through. You can see their love, the chaos of Katie's life, how frightened she is, all in the rapid scenes of fire, running, kissing, and passion. This movie is a must see for all ages and all genders!

When should you risk your life for love?

Cupid's Advice:

Love is an aspect of life most people strive for. Determining what you should sacrifice or drop for love is a hard line to discover. Of course with every relationship, you have to put yourself out there. You need to open up, accept the fact that your partner wants to fully love you, you simply need to open up. Having a haunted past can affect how you react with risking your life with love. Similar to Katie (Hough) in Safe Haven, risking your life for love is sometimes necessary. Cupid has some advice:

1. You need to move on: Having a rough breakup, or a past relationship where you were frightened and not comfortable, can make going into a new relationship challenging. Fortunately for these people, there are better men out there! If you are scared to start dating another person because of your ex, you need to move on darling. There are other people out there who are going to treat you better than the last did, you just have to let them break down your walls.

2. You have found 'the one': So many people discuss about 'the one,' and when you've found 'the one,' nothing else in life matters. This may be true, if you do nothing but think about the love of your life, if all you want to do is be around them, and know they're 'the one'; risk it. Why would you want to lose your other life because you may be scared to open up, or let go of your past. If he is 'the one,' don't think about it twice, go for it.

3. You want danger: Some women tend to stick themselves in a safety net, putting their life tucked safely away. This is only good for a person for so long, it is not healthy to always know what is going to happen because you won't allow anything else. If you're in a rut, spending all your time with your Netflix account, be dangerous. Risk yourself for love, we promise it's worth it.

Julianne Hough and Ryan Seacrest Spend Thanksgiving Weekend in Los Cabos

By Nic Baird

Media personality Ryan Seacrest and dancer Julianne Hough enjoyed their vacation in Mexico this weekend, according to People. The couple took a romantic stroll, hand-in-hand, along a beach in Cabo San Lucas, Saturday. Despite a lavish Thanksgiving meal a few days earlier, Hough maintained her toned physique while sporting a bikini. On the other hand, Seacrest showed no skin in a hat, shirt, and shorts. The pair met in 2007, when the Dancing with the Stars and American Idol sets were across the hall from each other.

Where are three romantic Mexican vacation spots to book with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Romantic vacations send sparks flying in any relationship, and lavish getaways in exotic locales are closer than you think. If you're thinking of dipping your toe in those warm tropical waters, take a look at these three exciting spots:

1. Playa del Carmen: A small town about an hour south of Cancun, Playa del Carmen was originally a fishing village, but now exists as a centre of tourism to Mexico. You get the beautiful warm Caribbean waters without all the hustle and bustle of Cancun. And for scuba divers, the world's second largest coral reef is right off the coast.

2. Puerto Vallarta: A well balanced tourist city; perhaps the full package. History, ecology, and tourist attractions litter the sites of Puerto Vallarta. No matter what kind of relationship you're in, you'll find something here. The Splash water park, and Vallarta Adventure Center offer great programs for couples or families who are looking to play on the slides, or swim with the dolphins.

3. Tulum: Once a secluded getaway, the Coba port houses some of the best preserved Mayan ruins, and breathtaking underground water caverns. Definitely the quietest option for a romantic getaway, the New York Times describes it as a "yoga aesthetic" for the well-traveled boomer era professional. Eco-adventures and plenty of accommodation make it the perfect spot for a magical getaway with your spouse.

Julianne Hough Reveals How Ryan Seacrest Spoils Her

By Nic Baird

Dancing With The Stars' Julianne Hough gushed about boyfriend Ryan Seacrest at the Sunday Emmys, according to UsMagazine.com. Hough called Seacrest "extremely romantic." At the award show, Hough revealed a recent birthday gift the media personality had given her. "I had picked out an outfit randomly [in a magazine]," Hough told Seacrest's E! colleague Giuliana Rancic. "[F]ive months later, he had the whole outfit [purchased]." Seacrest even tried to dress his girlfriend of two years for the Emmys, but admits "[hers] was the right choice!"

What are some ways to make your partner feel special on their birthday?

Cupid's Advice

Birthdays are the perfect time to make your partner feel special. There's never a better time to show you appreciate their existence, than the anniversary of the day they were born. Follow these tips to communicate how much that makes you happy:

1. Be excited: It should be clear to your partner how excited you've been for their birthday if you planned a party or spent time on a thoughtful gift or activity. Regardless, be happy and excited to celebrate your partner's birthday. Some people are sensitive on their birthdays, so you need to show enthusiasm and give them tons of positive attention.

2. Celebrate with others: Encourage your partner to socialize on their birthday, or arrange a dinner with friends yourself. It's important they get attention from their friends and family to feel valued. Make sure this is happening, even if they seem hesitant.

3. Don't be empty handed: This doesn't mean you have to buy any sort of expensive gift. Just show you put enough thought into their birthday to get them a present or arrange some celebration. As their significant other, it's partially your responsibility they feel appreciated. If you come up with nothing, what are they supposed to think about your relationship?

Julianne Hough Reveals the Secret to Her Relationship with Ryan Seacrest

Julianne Hough does not take her relationship for granted. People reports that the dancer has a difficult time coordinating schedules with radio personality Ryan Seacrest, her beau of nearly two years. “[Balancing your career and a relationship] is a hard thing to do, especially when you’re so caught up in your work and bettering yourself,” said Hough.

“I’m so lucky that I have a great relationship. I’m very blessed and I don’t take anything for granted. I think if you alienate people and just focus on your work then it just becomes lonely and it’s not fun anymore.”

How do you balance your career and relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Balancing your career and your personal life is tough, but it’s even more difficult when you have to coordinate with your partner. Here are a few ways to balance your career and relationship:

1. Plan a date night: For the extraordinarily busy worker, a date night is a must. Set aside time at least once a week where your only focus is on your partner. Put away all cell phones and laptops and enjoy the evening together.

2. Include your partner: On nights when you have too much work to go out, invite your partner to help you. Ask for your significant other's insights on your latest project or ask for their help sorting through old emails.

3. Be open with your partner: Don't feel guilty about your career. If you know work will soon be overwhelming, let your partner know that you'll be a little occupied in the coming weeks. Your mate will appreciate your honesty and will help you work around your schedule.

Footloose featuring Julianne Hough, Kenny Wormald and Dennis Quaid

Get prepared for a guilty pleasure flick! In the 2011 remake of the 1984 film, Footloose brings back city kid Ren McCormack (Kenny Wormald) who moves from Boston to a small town where dancing has been banned after a tragic accident. McCormack isn't as readily willing to give up dancing as the rest of the town, and he sets out on a mission to bring it back. When he unexpectedly becomes attracted to the preacher's daughter, Ariel (Julianne Hough), it causes drama as the preacher is the main culprit in the ban against dancing and rock 'n roll. Although remakes are rarely better than originals, there's no doubt that the quality dance moves in this flick will leave you with a great feeling.

What do you do if your partner's parents don't like you?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to make a relationship work if your significant other's parents don't like you. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make amends: Although you may not be able to fully solve the problem, it's important to encourage your partner's parents to come around to you. Send them flowers or have a heart-to-heart conversation if need be.

2. Analyze the situation: Find out the facts about why your mate's parents aren't a big fan of you. If there are legit concerns, address them directly. If the concerns seem unwarranted, talk to your boyfriend or girlfriend about it.

3. Change: If your partner's parents are right in their view of you, then it might mean you need to change the way you go about doing things. Sometimes change can be a good thing.
