Cupid's Advice:

Don't let the ghost of relationships past haunt your new romance. Learn from the mistakes from your ex and bring new perspective into your next relationship:

1. Intimacy: There's a lot from a past relationship that can cause anxiety in future partnerships. For example, being cheating on may make you jealous and paranoid as a future partner. This is a normal reaction, but it's something to learn from. Take your trauma and turn it into intimacy by confiding in your new significant other about your concerns.

Celebrity Couple Kelly Ripa & Mark Consuelos Send Daughter Off to College

By Katie Sotack

It's off to school season, and celebrity parents are not immune to their nests becoming smaller. Live! host Kelly Ripa and Riverdale actor Mark Consuelos recently sent their second oldest and only daughter off to college. Consuelos uploaded a photo with the caption "2 down... 1 to go", referring to the couple's third child. Using the same picture, Ripa shared the news via Instagram, where many celebrity friends were sympathetic to the news. Lisa Rinna, Real Housewives of Beverly Hills star, who recently sent her daughter off to college as well, commented several sobbing emojis in solidarity.

This celebrity couple's nest just got a little bit smaller. What are some ways to deal with an empty nest when your children leave home?

Cupid's Advice:

It's college season in America! Parents cry and young adults rejoice as they ship off to schools across the country. Empty nesting may seem daunting at first, but think about all the perks of your children leaving home:

1. Reconnect as a couple: It's likely that you and your partner have not lived alone since before your child was born. Once your baby moves out, recommit to your relationship. Being home alone with your partner means date nights in and walking around in your underwear again. A child leaving is nothing lost; it's readjusting to a life you once had.

2. A new relationship: When your child moves away, your relationship will morph. Likely, it'll get better. The saying "absence makes the heart grow fonder" is absolutely true in this case. Instead of relying on you for their needs, they will learn to care for themselves. In doing so, your relationship will become more balanced and less demanding on your end.

3. It may not be permanent: In today's economy, moving out is not always permanent. It's very possible your child will be moving back in after college or if their job goes south. This is both totally normal and hope for you to have your baby under your roof again.

By Katie Sotack

Almost a year after his initial proposal on The Bachelorette, Jordan Rodgers proposed to JoJo Fletcher all over again. The celebrity news was revealed on Rodgers' Instagram on Saturday, featuring a photo of the couple showing off Fletcher's new rock. The caption went on to explain that their first proposal for the show was real and meant the world to both of them. However, as they began planning their wedding, they wanted to do it their own way, in private. Cue proposal number two!

Perhaps there will be a celebrity wedding on the horizon finally for this Bachelorette couple. What are some ways to make your partner feel special during a long engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Wedding bells are in your future, but the road to the chapel is a long one. Fear not! Long engagements are challenging, but there are ways to reassure your partner and reaffirm your love during the process.:

1. Remember the date: Commit to small gestures that remind your partner you are excited for your nuptials, however far down the line they may be. Write the date with doodled hearts on your fridge's whiteboard, or leave your partner a sticky note reading "one year to go!" However you remind your significant other of your excitement, make it a fun, any day surprise.

2. Keep the romance going: Wedding planning can throw your brain into overdrive. While the details may be tempting to take over your life (and all your conversations), share a world with your partner outside of your wedding. Find a balance between excitement for your wedding and commitment to your love life by scheduling date nights where wedding talk is off the table.

3. Take small steps: Do not let your engagement drag without any planning whatsoever. Even if your wedding is set years down the line, make yourself a schedule. Try to settle at least one detail a month so that both you and your partner feel you're moving forward.

Food Trend: Oat Milk

By Katie Sotack

Drink your morning oats with a new twist with non-dairy oat milk. The pressure for mainstream coffee shops and supermarkets to add vegan-friendly alternatives, like almond milk and Beyond Beef, has soared in recent years. After oat milks, like Oatly, were introduced into coffee shops, people were ready to make the switch in their own homes. With its healthy reputation and the fact that it has one-third the amount of calories as half n' half, there are plenty of reasons to be stirring it into your coffee.

Non-dairy milk alternatives are the food trend of the future. With abundant options of non-dairy milks to choose from, what are the perks of oat milk?

Oats are a staple in health communities. Whether fitness bloggers are taking them in through traditional methods, trying overnight oats, or drinking their daily fill, oats are undeniably popular. Here are the reasons to give oat milk a spot on your shelf:

1. Cruelty-free: A huge turn-on for oat milk is that animals were not a factor in its existence. The lifespan of a milk-producing cow is low. Cows are artificially inseminated to keep milk pumping and milked throughout the last seven months of their pregnancy up until a year after the calf's birth, according to nutritionfacts.org. That is enough to make most animal lovers' stomachs turn. So, they opt for oat milk.

2. Puss-free: Aside from the cruelty concerns, there's been growing research into cow milk containing puss. Generally, a healthy cow will not produce puss, but should they need antiseptics you may wind up drinking more of than you bargained for.

3. Lactose-free: For those whose gastrointestinal systems are not a fan of the lactose in milk, oat milk is a God send. Milks like Oatly are lactose and hormone-free, thus limiting the milk's negative effects on sensitive bodies.

4. They're moving: While they're currently a trending ingredient for coffee add-ins, oats are looking to expand. Soon you'll find oats in alternative-yogurts and 'nice creams'. The dairy-free community is also praying that 2019 or 2020 becomes the year Starbucks adds oat milk to its shelves.

Product Review: Bravity Bras Defy Gravity

By Katie Sotack

The breast lymphatic system “is a network of tissues and organs that help rid the body of toxins, waste and other unwanted materials,” according to LiveScience.com. Simply stated, breasts are essential to a properly working immune system. That said, many women have a hard time and are uncomfortable with their breasts when it comes to sleep. They can get in the way at night, causing discomfort and inhibiting the proper lymphatic cleansing process. However, we stumbled upon a bra that just might resolve this issue.

If you’re searching for comfort and the latest health trend while you sleep, get the best of both worlds with Bravity. Learn more about the bra’s perks in this product review.

Anyone with breasts can attest to the challenges they present when it comes to sleeping. Whether they're falling to the side or preventing you from lying on your chest, breasts can be a nocturnal hazard. That's where Bravity bras come in. Specially crafted with a Y-strap feature so the breasts are exposed, yet still cradled, these bras support the chest during sleep without the discomfort an underwire bra would cause. Here are some benefits:

1. Anti-wrinkle: Aside from the health boost of a properly cleansed lymphatic system, you'll begin to look younger, too. At any age and with any size breast, one might encounter cleavage wrinkles. They are completely natural and nothing to worry about, but if you're searching to keep your supple bosom, look no further. Bravity bras lift and separate the breasts to stop wrinkles from forming.

2. Comfort: The Bravity bra is crafted with padded adjustable straps so that it feels like tiny pillows cradling your cleavage. While made up of nylon and spandex so that the bra is cool to touch and form fitting, the no cup designs leaves breasts room to breathe.

3. Big breasted babes: Those with larger chests are typically more likely to seek a night-time bra. While Bravity benefits those of every size, big breasts are not left behind like they are in other major brands. We had an ample-chested woman test the product, and she claimed, "Nothing gets mashed up against my chin; it did work". Avoid the dreaded uni-boob with the y-strap technology made for any size.

4. Sports edition: Bravisport does exist! This is a medium support, racer-back bra made to eliminate the uni-boob. The bra provides extra support by combining the average sports bra with the y-strap design, thus creating two layers of defense. The removable cup pads also allow for customizable shape and comfort.

you to splash on the color and dare to be bold. MaireClaire.com has pronounced “This is the season to not play it safe”. And given these micro-trends are small, cheap, and non-time consuming even the most minimalists among us can embrace these looks. Get ready for the trendiest aesthetic that’ll get all the likes and retweets.

From the tip of your hair to the point of your toe, beauty is in the eye of the beholder, but these micro beauty trends sure help put the whole package together.

Think of micro trends as the bricks that build a house. A shabby foundation can throw off the whole appearance. Taking time to embrace these fun trends will tidy up your look. Here are the micro-trends everyone’s trying this summer.

1. Multi-colored mani: No longer does a manicure need to be monotone. Instead of using your precious time to whittle down which color you’d like, opt for 5 or 10 different ones. This manicure adds a whimsical note to all your looks. Amplify your easy-breezy babe aesthetic by rocking every one of your favorite colors.

2. Graphic eyeliner: Like the 80s’ beauty trend, micro trends are embracing bold, graphic eyeliner. Draw straight lines or dots along the length of your lid. If your really brave try neon graphic eyeliners, which have become popular through HBO’s Euphoria. But Euphoria star Zendaya has always been an eyeliner visionary. Pick a photo and mimic her creative eyeliner looks until you find your perfect liner.

3. Complementary colors: This summer is about getting artsy with makeup. You are Picasso and your face is the canvas. The look is perfect for date night.

4. Green eye shadow: If opposing colors are too distracting, but you're still seeking to make a statement, try green shadow. Greens come in pastel, metallic, and jewel tones so they have wide appeal across all skin tones. This trend is a great way to go, but be sure to keep other makeup minimal as to not muddy the effect of the vibrant green.

5. Breezy bob: The bob's been back since the mid-2010s since celebrities like Lucy Hale, Karlie Kloss, and Jennifer Lawrence let their stylists chop off their luscious locks. The breezy bobs will take your look to another level when the wearer adds ombre or highlights to lighten the overall hair color. Able to be worn curly, straight, or wavy the bob is a vacation from hairstyling that's still trendy.

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner feels like she's finally met her match. What are some ways to know you've met your "true partner"?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you just know you've found the one. Butterflies flutter in your gut, and your heart swells just looking at them. But, a true partner goes far beyond falling in love. Here are relationship tips to be sure your significant other is the one:

1. You want the same things: A partner should share your goals. When it comes to spending your life with someone, they should generally want the same things. If kids, a suburban house, and a steady career are in your future, love won't save your relationship with a kid-hating, apartment-renting, daredevil.

2. They support you: Of course not all goals need to be share. However they should stand by your individual goals and root you on as you achieve them. For example, if you want to eat healthy and get fit your partner doesn't need to do the same. However a partner that undermines your attempts to stay on track by offering you ice cream every night is not trying to help you succeed.

3. You're both willing to work: Aside from goals, communication is the key to a healthy relationship. A partnership likely won't have to same communication styles. But true significant others should be willing to compromise

Beauty Trend: Customized Body Care

By Katie Sotack

Hopefully none of us are a stranger to face wash. Skincare of the face is as ritualized as morning coffee in America. This year the beauty community is encouraging skin care to extend to the whole body. Leg masks, back exfoliators, and general body cleansers have hit the market in an attempt to supple and plump your skin (as well as drain your extra cash). While it's true this new skin treatment will cost more, it doesn't mean it comes without its benefits.

Customized body care is the beauty trend that will elevate your skin all over. What are the perks of every shower turning into a spa day?

Body care is all about worshiping every aspect of your skin. Just because your belly isn't your introduction the world, that doesn't mean it doesn't deserve to be pampered. Commit to caring for your body as a whole and watch your skin look brighter, clearer and healthier within a few weeks:

1. Bacne: Clear skinned shoulder blades always make a fashion statement. Show off your sexy shoulders barren of any red dots or blackheads with back exfoliates that are especially essential to those who condition their long hair. Back acne is a common problem for long haired individuals whose conditioner soaks out of their hair and into their pores. Conditioner clogs skin which should be permeable and encourages back blemishes. Cleansing the shoulders will counteract the clogging conditioner.

2. Bikini bumps: Shaving down there has the averse effect of razor burn garnishing your bikini line. After shaving use a calming body moisturizer to treat the red bumps and ease irritation. Forewarning though, bumps aren't always razor burn, get checked out by a doctor. And while we're on the subject of medical care, moisturizers are not for internal use. A clean, lightweight moisture can be useful around the thighs and bikini line, but nothing should be getting up in there.

Related Link: Beauty Trend: Make Your Eyes Pop

3. Ingrown hair: A perk of full body skincare is nixing those frustrating hairs growing underneath the skin; or even worse those hairs that inspire infected red lumps. By routinely exfoliating the skin, ingrown hairs are coaxed out of hiding. Instead of growing inward, the hair will pop straight outward as it should. If you're prone to trapped hairs, cleanse the areas that bother you most and keep an eye out for the positive effects

Related Link: Product Review: Rock Long Hair on Date Night with Barely Xtensions

4. Humanize yourself: Remember that you're a person and people naturally have cellulite, wrinkles, hair, and acne. The real purpose behind the body care beauty trend is to treat yourself. Enjoy the feeling of hydrated, healthy skin, without getting caught up in the looks of things. Celebrate your body as a vessel to experience life in and reward it with healthy skin for doing it's job.

Fitness Trend: Move Away from Your Dependence on Technology

By Katie Sotack

Admit it: technology has become an addiction. It's easy to get lost trying to grow your following on social media. You've maybe gotten so wrapped up in a game on your iPad you've forgotten to wash your work clothes for the next morning, too. Consumers are reclaiming fitness as a time to disconnect and recommit to health. The gym, which had become flooded with big screens and Fitbits, has now become a place to find solitude.

As technology integrates further into our lives, how can we achieve mindfulness through this unplugged fitness trend?

Mindfulness is the act of bringing one's attention to the current moment. Psychologists recommend it as a way to deal with emotional distress and to live life to its fullest. The task has become increasingly more challenging as we've become more attuned to our screens and less invested in the physical space around us. Here's some fitness advice to help you unplug and lead a healthier life:

1. Go harder: To maximize a full workout, mindfulness is essential. The presence of a phone or other distraction limits the workout by dividing attention and providing a slower tempo for movement. It's suggested that songs with high BPM (beats per minute) increase the speed of a workout. Plus, with distraction comes bad form. Give your body the respect it deserves by focusing on structure and engaging muscle groups, ultimately disconnecting from life and experiencing a workout your health and the impact of the workout.

2. Breathing: 2019 has seen an increase in breath-focused fitness like yoga and swimming. A key component to mindfulness is meditation, which largely focuses on breathwork. Exercises that stress the importance of deep and measured breath will aid in focusing the mind. The 'breathe through the pain' mantra of yoga will bleed into everyday life. Even emotional challenges will feel less stressful as you take measured breaths to remain calm. Plus, there's the added benefit of regular exercise, which leads to increased endorphins. By participating in an exercise that emphasizes breathing, a person will increase their mood and decrease their waistline simultaneously.

Related Link: Celebrity Diet: Does Going Vegan Hurt Your Health?

3. Fatigue: Constant tiredness may be brought on by stress, chronic pain, or trouble sleeping. A mindful workout, which focuses on a strong mind-body connection, will alleviate all of the above. Psychologists use the connection to adjust lifestyles and attitudes. When a person is cognizant of their entire being, emotional wounds and physical pains begin to heal. This phenomenon happens by processing our emotions and therefore healing that which plagues us. A mindful workout is a great start to both emotional and physical health (and should exercise alone work for you, it's a lot cheaper than never-ending doctor's appointments).

Related Link: Fitness Trend: 5 Ways Hot Yoga Melts Away Calories

4. Alertness: A downside to our constant internet connection is that we as a species have become horribly unaware. People cross busy Manhattan streets without looking up from the movie on their phone. Friends' voices have become background noises to our texting. Taking an hour a day to workout unplugged reminds us that it is possible and can feel amazing. Ever heard of runner's high? The endorphins of a full-fledged mindful workout are off the charts. You'll feel superhuman, pushing your body and mind to the limits and not caring about the time spent away from your screen. Plus, a strong mind-body connection makes people more aware in everyday life. You'll begin to pick up on details your brain had been filtering out as well as upping your quick-witted banter skills.

Movie Review: 21 Bridges

By Katie Sotack

Chadwick Boseman and J.K. Simmons star in a new action thriller that'll have you perched straight in your seat. Boseman plays an NYPD cop who uncovers a conspiracy surrounding two cop killers. The movie takes place in the course of one night where Boseman's character becomes increasingly unsure of who to trust. As tensions rise and the chase goes on, the city closes down all 21 routes of escape from Manhattan to prevent the killers from fleeing.

21 Bridges is a star soaked, action-packed thriller that'll leave you questioning who to trust and where to turn.

Should you see it: Avengers: Endgame directors had a hand in making this film and Chadwick Boseman stars. If you're a fan of the Marvel Cinematic Universe for its action scenes rather than its one-liner comedy and enjoy the shaky anticipation a good chase, check out this movie.

Who to take: This is a movie for the in-depth friend who can talk about anything and everything afterward at dinner.

Cupid's Advice:

Knowing who to trust is not a science, but an art. Try as psychologists might, we can't all be trained in the micro-twitches of a liar's facial movements. Instead, think of trust as a building exercise. Here are relationship tips on establishing and maintaining trust.

1. Intuition: Security to the stars and traumatized victims, Gavin de Becker famously exclaimed to the world "Trust your intuition!" in his self-help book The Gift of Fear. Often read in self-defense classes and by women seeking ways to minimize attacks, the book is ultimately about relationships (both long term and immediate). The most essential advice from every chapter is, "trust yourself first and foremost." Social niceties teach us to suppress our illogical worries, but your body and mind have intuitive reasons for that gut feeling. Next time you feel something 'off' in your relationship, speak up.

Related Link: Movie Review: The Lion King

2. Honesty: The number one way to establish trust is honest and open communication. This means intimacy and it can sound scary. Take the process one step at a time. The first few dates are not the time to confess that embarrassing time when you walked into a wall because you were nose-deep in your cell phone. Talk about your hopes and dreams to build gradual intimacy and add in the embarrassing or deeper feelings once trust has been established.

Related Link: Celebrity Vacation: Jason Momoa & Lisa Bonet Explore Italy After Zoe Kravitz Wedding

3. Keep True: A far more practical take on the establishment of trust is by staying true to your word. If you promise to do something, make sure you stick to it. Think of it from your partner or friend's perspective. Had they promised to pick you up at the airport but instead left you searching to find a cab, you'd feel cheated. Instances like this make a person seem unreliable and would encourage the receiving person not to trust the, with another task.

expecting your first child or you're pregnant with your third, there's always room to learn. You can follow the expert parenting advice offered in these classes through level-based classes to begin your journey to more efficient parenting.

1. Judgment free zone: There's not any worse feeling as a parent than to worry you're being judged for your parenting style. Not only will a parenting class give you the skills you need to be an efficient mom or dad, but the class will be full of other parents who feel the same way you do, and you're less likely to be criticized. Never let someone's harsh judgments affect how you think you should bring up your kids, but in a class, you're more likely to find like-minded individuals who won't make you feel like an awful parent because you need some extra help.

2. Support systems: Even with your partner and family support, raising a child can feel like a lonely job. Taking a parenting class can help you connect with other parents going through the same thing you're going through—whether it's supporting your child through a learning disability or coping through postpartum depression after your second child.

3. Firstborn jitters: Time to put it out there, having a baby is magical and wonderful, but it's terrifying. To new parents, it may feel like any wrong move could harm your new little angel. That's valid. If you've never had a child before you likely have no idea what you're doing. Attend a parenting class to master the basics and reassure yourself that your parenting skills are up to par.

4. The latest research: Parenting trends and topics are always cycling. It can be a challenge to stay up to date with the newest concerns and tactics to battle them. Taking classes may open your eyes to new information and challenge some instincts that may secretly be harming your kid's self-esteem. For example, praising a child's intellect when they achieve may cause frustration and feelings of failure when they cannot immediately master something. Instead, praise their hard work.

5. Aid academics: Studies have shown that engaged parents are one of the top factors to an academically successful child. Classes specifically designed to focus on academics will teach the right questions to ask your child and ways to become more involved in their life, like attending school functions and being more involved in homework.

Health Advice: Victoria's
Secret Angels' Pregnancy
Fitness

By Katie Sotack

With each Victoria's Secret fashion show, we're brought a parade of beautiful bodies strutting down the runway with toned arms and killer legs. These Angels are no stranger to a fit lifestyle even while pregnant. Models like Gisele Bündchen and Behati Prinsloo don't miss a beat because of their baby bumps. The Victoria's Secret Angels are here to prove fitness is an achievable lifestyle no matter the circumstance.

Angels follow strict health advice to be runway ready with a baby on board. How can the average expecting mother use their fitness tips to stay toned?

Regardless of the situation, fitness requires dedication and an inner drive. Once you have that it's all about knowing where to start. Following the Victoria's Secret Angels' routines and tricks will give your pregnancy a healthy boost. Here are the health tips for a pregnant celebrity workout and diet.

1. Start before pregnancy: During a sit down with your doctor, they're likely to say it's bad form to lose weight while pregnant. Not to mention the time to try strenuous workouts belongs before pregnancy in order to avoid stressing your baby. Being fit while carrying is about maintaining rather than achieving. This requires some planning on your part. If a fit pregnancy is important to you, begin a routine before you start trying.

2. Angel's workout: The models follow a strict body sculpting routine. For the first six weeks of training exclusively engage in cardio like swimming, dancing, or running. In the following six weeks focus on interval workouts which involve building muscle. The trick to a lean muscle is keeping the weight low and the reps high. The ratio should be twenty minutes of cardio to 15-20 weight reps, alternating back and forth throughout the workout.

3. A colorful plate: Angel mummies don't count calories as restricting can affect milk production and thus the development of your baby. Rather, pre-, post-, and during pregnancy fitness is about making healthy choices. Your meals should be colorful. Pile on the bright veggies to match with a white protein like chicken or fish. Carbs are essential as well, just lower the portion size and keep it brown (as in whole wheat/grain).

4. Post-pregnancy: To lose weight post-delivery, it's recommended to begin with leisurely walks. Anything harder than that should be preceded by medical clearance and be relatively low impact. Move onto water aerobics for cardio before adding light weight lifting. Respect where your body is and know it won't spring back to its pre-pregnancy levels immediately.

5. It's their job: While working to emulate an Angel body during pregnancy it's important to realize your limitations. For Victoria's Secret models it's their literal job to sculpt and tone their body while making sure to eat right. But for the average person getting to the gym for hours and knowing exactly what to eat is challenging. Not to mention the pregnancy cravings and fatigue. Give yourself leeway to have an ice cream cone every once in a while.

Food Tips: Jack Fruit & Other Ocean Inspired Flavors

By Katie Sotack

Summer may be over, but your ocean journey has just begun. Pacific foods are trending in 2019, meaning that the sand in your shorts has faded but the salt on your tongue lives on. Fruits like Jackfruit, a tropical Indian food reminiscent of the fig family, will be popularized in organic supermarkets such as Whole Foods. According to TasteofHome.com the juicy jackfruit isn't the only tropical flavor we can look forward to in our food tips.

With ocean-inspired foods on the rise, how can we bring pacific food tips for a tropical summer palate to our cozy fall dinners?

When eaten, oceanic foods taste like an impossibly hot day ending in a juicy bite of fruit. Or a homey barbecue while the pool water dries off your tanned skin. The flavors are a journey to a tropical paradise where relaxation meets comfort eating. With all this sensual indulgence from these foods, you might wonder how it can meet with the hearty meals of fall. Here is food advice for this food trend.

1. Embrace the meats: Given you're a meat-eater, this is a quick way to satisfy the fall craving for hearty goodness with ocean-centric flavors. Filipino pork sausage, a popular pacific food, would be a perfect substitute for traditionally western meats like beef in a recipe. Switching out your regular meats to an ocean nation's foods will add a twist to any plate.

2. Seafood: There's nothing yummier than oven-baked salmon. With a splash of sea salt and a butter-based sauce, sea meats are a wonderful transition meal from summer to fall. Popular on pacific islands for its accessibility, seafood is filling, healthy, and spot on-trend. To fulfill the hearty fall hopes you may have for this dish, pair with a starchy carb like potatoes.

3. Don't forget the veggies: This food trend is not an excuse to ignore your fiber-filled friends on the plate. After you've got the base of your meal with oceanic meat, fill up on dark greens suggestive of the ocean. Kale, which became a popular fad in American about a decade ago, is the perfect add on that's also easy to find in your local market. If you're willing to do some hunting, get your hands on wild plants native to pacific regions. Try out a fiddlehead fern or cow parsnip.

4. Dessert: Last but certainly not least is the pacific desserts we've all been waiting for. Do not fill up on heavy cakes and pies. Rather take a tip from our ocean-living friends, and end your meal with small berries and tropical fruits. Certain summertime fruits like plums, strawberries, and watermelon may be more difficult to find out of season. However, put a fall spin on your after-dinner layout with blueberries, cranberries, and pomegranate, which are easier to find in the fall.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Releases Intimate Details in Front of Peter's Mom!

By Katie Sotack

The infamous Bachelorette windmill sex scene between Hannah and Peter was one of the most talked about moments this season. But according to UsMagazine.com, Hannah fudged the details. When facing off with Luke Parker, The Bachelorette confessed to having sex with Peter twice at the mill, yet apparently it was four times! Hannah announced this proudly in front of the studio audience, which included Peter's family. Still, despite (or maybe because of) the scandalous details, Peter's family could not have looked prouder as the audience gave the pair a standing ovation.

In celebrity news, Hannah Brown didn't hold any details back while talking to Peter on a recent episode of The Bachelorette. What are some benefits to being open about intimacy?

Cupid's Advice:

In our Puritan-grown culture, it's not wildly accepted to talk about intimacy in public. However, American youth culture is shifting to see the perks in being open and honest about intimacy. Here's how talking about intimacy can benefit yourself and others:

1. Normalization: Talking about intimacy normalizes said acts of intimacy. America's sensationalized media presents idealistic versions of sex and love, which do not match up with reality. With this idealized standard we rarely see an accurate representation of our own intimacy. The girl and guy are perfect, never having bad sex or weird sex. Not to mention a lack non-heteronormative relationships depicting physical love. Talking about sex and the intimate acts surrounding it can ease the tension our culture feels around sexual 'imperfections' which fall short of idealistic standards.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Says 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sex Confessions Are 'Confusing'

2. Ease the guilt: There's a famous Sex In The City episode where Miranda takes a lover who's so petrified of sex being a sin, that after every time they've been physical he must run to shower. Yeah, this was filmed in the '90s, but times haven't changed too much. Bachelorette Hannah Brown was thoroughly slut shamed by contestant Luke P. for enjoying sex with men she'd fallen in love with. By speaking out about about her experience at the windmill while in a supportive environment she was championed for something that had once penalized her.

3. Better sex: As sexologist Lindsey Doe likes to point out sex and sexuality are never one size fits all. But that's the way our culture likes to think about it, so partner's have been conditioned to fall short of our unique needs. Being open about your likes, dislikes, and experiences will not only work like a handbook for better sex but help to foster emotional intimacy between you and your partner(s).

New Celebrity Couple Shawn Mendes & Camila Cabello Kiss in Miami

By Katie Sotack

It looks like love is on the horizon for major PDA participants and new celebrity couple, Camila Cabello and Shawn Mendes. According to UsMagazine.com, the two were spotted locking lips on the beach in Cabello's hometown, Miami. The "Senorita" singers have been rumored to be dating since early July, though Mendes feverishly denied the rumor. The pair have been good friends since their 2015 duet, "I Know What You Did Last Summer," and are still publicly stating such friendship after their respective breakups with model, Hailey Bieber and relationship expert, Matthew Hussey. However, since the denial, the two have been seen at numerous dinners and concerts, cuddled up to each other. Could a relationship announcement be next?

In celebrity couple news, Shawn and Camila got hot and heavy in a pool in Miami. What are some ways to show your affection for your partner in public?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you take it nice and slow or get hot and heavy, on occasion we all get swept up in PDA. There's a style for all of us, be it hand holding to a hardcore make-out session. These are the ways to declare your partner yours in public:

1. Cuddle up: In order to bring in new customer, movie theaters have brought the experiences of home to movie goers. This comes with nifty new reclining seats whose arm rests lift up. This gives you free rein to enjoy snuggling up to your partner while watching the newest flick. Plus the dark area of a movie theater will have your PDA flying total under the radar. Of course, if your more brazen you can take a tip out of Camila and Shawn's playbook and cuddled up while sharing food at a restaurant.

2. Hand holding: Vastly underrated and criticized for the potential of sweating palms, holding hand is the perfect amount of PDA. The tiny physical intimacy says to the world that you're in love, but your still your own person. It does so by connecting the partners, but not cutting them off from their surroundings like kissing would. Out of all forms of PDA, it's also the most likely to be tolerated by those around who are not very much in love with public affection.

3. Forehead kissing: This simple intimacy is easy to get away with in public. Soft lips on the forehead is very much an act of care which won't produce an eye roll. It's also a gentle reminder to your partner that you're there for them whenever they need you. Pair with cuddling or holding hand as aforementioned will add a new layer to PDA which is still publicly acceptable.

Travel Tips: Backpacking in Beautiful Vacation Spots

By Katie Sotack

Need a mental health break? Backpacking through the wilderness, Europe, or even a campsite nearby is an affordable way to explore outside of your usual day hiking. Greenbelly suggests it's best to decrease your pack's weight before traveling. If you've decided to hike out with your living space, food, drink, and survival gear on your back, (check GearWeAre for more), make it ultralight.

Reward your thirst for adventure and your wallet by backpacking at the next beautiful vacation spot with our travel tips for lightweight, low stakes gear carting.

As far as low-cost ways to travel go, backpacking is brilliant and versatile. The packer can commit to a quest by themselves, take arms with a group of travelers, or go off on a romantic getaway with their lover, a tent, and the stars above to a beautiful vacation spot. Whatever way the packer decides to travel the number one rule is pack light.

1. Weigh out your gear: By weighing each item before it goes in the pack you'll be able to see if said item is worth its weight. Some things will naturally be heavier, but don't throw them away for that reason alone. Your jug of water? That'll take a toll on your shoulders, but you'd be worse off dehydrating out on the trail.

Related Link: Travel Destinations: Visit the Great Smoky Mountains & Pigeon Forge

2. Sharing is caring: After weighing and packing each item, weight all the trip's backpacks. If yours is too heavy, for example, but someone else is willing to carry more, give it to them. Another tip for sharing essentials is that there doesn't need to be two of everything. Coordinate with your team to know who's bringing what. This will save the group from carrying more pocket knives than necessary. It may sound like a small, nearly weightless decision, but when you're walking all day with a ton on your back, you'll be grateful for the lessened weight.

3. Synthetic materials: When backpacking, both cotton and denim are a no go. Not only do they weigh more than synthetic materials, but they also retain water. Cotton absorbs water from the environment and your skin so those white socks will be soaking wet for a while once you accidentally step into the trail's puddle. Alternatively, synthetic materials that can be found in certain workout brands keep away sweat to keep you cool and dry.

4. Say goodbye to technology: It might be hard to step away from the internet, but disconnecting from the world wide web too many benefits to count. While the phone detox might take a day or two, the weight you'll save is worth it. Phones, GPS-s, iPods, and tablets require chargers and cases, all of which will add up. Putting down the tech, for now, will help you build your relationship with your travel companions, too!

5. Factor in the weight of your bag: We're talking about what you'll be carry in the bag, but the actual pack is just as important. This is the area to splurge. Buy a bag that's lightweight and has hip and shoulder straps. Speak to the workers at your local camping store, but be aware that backpacking bares weight on your hips. To alleviate pressure your pack should fit securely around your hips and arms with and without the weight in.

Celebrity News: Jordyn Woods Parties with Khloe Kardashian's Ex James Harden

By Katie Sotack

It looks like more Kardashian exes are after Jordyn Woods! Model, Woods was seen partying at a Houston nightclub with NBA player James Harden, according to People.com. Celebrity exes Khloe and Harden ended things three years ago, but after Khloe's baby daddy Tristan Thompson made moves on Woods, the tensions between the superstar family and Jordyn over exes are high. Woods seems to be attracting all the same men as the Kardashian sisters, as she was spotted with Kim's ex Ray J as well. Though Woods claims she's as sorry and apologetic as she can be, Khloe maintains she never wants to see her again.

In celebrity news, Jordyn Woods may be asking for more drama with Khloe Kardashian. What are some basic rules when it comes to friends' exes?

Cupid's Advice:

According to Khloe Kardashian, her friendship with Woods is totally over. Yet with feelings still webbed between the two and their exes, does girl code still apply? Here are the laws of the land when interacting with a friend's ex:

1. Not too friendly: Unless this ex was part of the friend group before your bestie started dating them, it's best to pull back from that budding friendship. Don't go around commenting on their Instagram posts and bar hopping with them. It's better to let your friend know they're your number one. This doesn't mean you have to hit the unfollow button or that you can't be social at parties. Just try not to be their closest confidant.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: 'Vanderpump Rules' Stars Tom Schwartz & Katie Maloney Get Official Marriage License in Vegas 2 Years After Wedding

2. Dating an ex?: You two really clicked and they might be, like, the love of your life. That doesn't make the situation as less tricky. Parse out if you really have feelings for this ex, that go beyond lust. Then if you're sure you need to be with them, go to your friend first. This doesn't mean you'll be free and clear from any negative fall out, but your friend will respect that you didn't go behind their back.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Camila Cabello Opens Up About Anxiety Struggles

3. Take your friend's side: Even if you don't agree with their bitching they likely need to vent about the relationship. Don't use this time to point out that their ex wasn't all the bad. After the breakup let your friend blow off steam for the first few weeks. After that if they're still bitter, let them know it's not benefiting them to fret over the past.

Celebrity Parents: Former 'Bachelor' Arie Luyendyk Jr. Calls Wife Lauren the 'Hottest Momma'

By Katie Sotack

Arie Luyendyk still has the hots for his final rose recipient and now wife, Lauren. The caption on a recent Instagram post of his wife in a swimsuit holding their eight week old baby read, “I love those cheeks. Proud of you @laurenluyendyk, hottest momma around #8weeks”. According to EOnline.com the celebrity couple are having a grand old time as parents. They can be seen hiking and eating out on social media where they document their trials and tribulations of new parenthood. As for the post, Lauren responded with a squeamish “Omg baby”, to which Arie let us know he couldn’t help himself with a simple “Sorrrrryyyyy”.

These celebrity parents are always supporting and uplifting each other. What are some ways to support your partner after she gives birth?

Cupid's Advice:

Arie and Lauren are enjoying their time together as new parents, but Arie has been sure to let new dads know it's a vital job as well. "It will be hard, it will challenge your relationship. It will also be the best thing you'll have ever done together," the former Bachelor said. Take a parenting tip from Arie, and use these ways to be there for your partner after the birth of your child:

1. Take care of Mama: With the focus on the new life you've brought into the world, remembering the needs of the woman who's produced this baby can fall to the bottom of the list. But don't let it. Pregnancy and birth takes a huge toll on the body. Hormonal-wise, the baby package is likely a roller coaster that does not dissipate after postpartum. Take the time to check in with your partner emotionally and physically during the ordeal.

Related Link: Parenting Tips: Taking Care of Yourself Helps You Take Care of Your Kids

2. Get her a gift: I'm not talking flowers here, though even that gesture is nice. Instead think of the traumatic toll birth has taken on her body and get her something she needs. Try something like MOMBOX, a subscription service that delivers a box full of goodies for postpartum moms. They have boxes for vaginal birth and c-sections which come with things like transition panties, herbal bath salts, and nipple cream. If you're not into prepackaged gifts, try to put a basket together yourself. Use your knowledge of what relaxes your partner and what's currently paining her to create the perfect gift.

3. Give her alone time: Her entire life is revolved around your baby right now, but her mental health is important too. Once a week offer to watch the baby by yourself for a few hours so mom can do something for herself. Suggest taking a bubble bath or going out with friends/family. Anything to remind her that she is a person outside of your precious child and her needs deserve to be met too.

Beauty Trend: The Dangers of Skin Bleaching

By Katie Sotack

Every year thousands of women of color fall prey to the dangers of skin bleaching. Popular in countries with booming industries, like the Philippines, women, and celebrities spend stacks of cash to receive IV treatments known as the 'Cinderella Drip'. Yet not all skin lighteners are lucky enough to afford the IV, which whitens the skin from the inside out and has yet to be approved by the FDA. Many consumers purchase cheaper, over the counter beauty creams, containing poisonous chemicals like mercury. Long known to be toxic to humans since the hatters went mad from exposure, mercury is used in these products as a skin lightening agent that reduces the production of melanin, and all for the sake of a beauty trend.

This dangerous beauty trend has some terrifying side effects. So why do people continue to use the creams and what potential harm lies beneath?

Skin bleaching is a dangerous game. The FDA hasn't verified the products as safe and, for the most part, they are not in the United States. However, some cultures value fair-skinned individuals and can cause women of color to reach for these creams without remorse. Here are the facts behind skin lightening:

1. Translucent, easily bruised skin: The user's skin becomes almost translucent and the slightest touch can leave a bruise that takes ages to heal. A long-time user of skin lightening creams confessed these effects to the New York Times who sought out a specialist. Specializing in people of color's skin, the dermatologist they found in Brooklyn said that doctors in their practice saw cases like this at least once a week.

2. Elevated social standing: In countries like the Philippines skin lightening is sold as a way to elevate one's social standing. The fairer the skin the more well-off one appears. Historically, countries with higher uses of lightening creams and pills have perceived lighter skin as not only beautiful but powerful. This concept runs rapid in western societies as well where the treatment is popularized through the media. American sociologists produced studies which suggest the lighter skin tone a person has within their ethnic group, the more privilege they receive from society as a whole due to lighter skin people appearing to be of a higher class.

Related Link: Beauty Tip: Flawless Makeup Starts with Good Skincare

3. Rashes: Many users have developed large red patches all over their bodies from the cream. The result appears to be like lesions with crusty looking rings around the rash spots. This reaction is a sign of mercury poisoning from the lightening creams. Symptoms also include vision impairment, fetal development issues, pins and needles, and loss of cognitive functions.

Related Link: Product Review: Beauty Essentials for Spring

4. Understanding the reasoning: When addressing the issue you may be tempted to call a participant crazy for risking their health for beauty. However, keep in mind that every culture has individuals who perform dangerous tasks to achieve their society's ultimate beauty standards. In the 16th century Europe, women began wearing corsets which reduced oxygen intake and caused fainting. Today Iran leads the world in rhinoplasty with 200,000 Iranians a year undergoing this procedure which entails a nose splint, swelling, and eye bruises for weeks if all goes right. Similarly to skin lightening for women of color, we find white women and men in America sitting in beds of ultra-violent light likely to cause cancers for a glorious, status soaring tan. The warning: approach cultural beauty tricks and standards with empathy and care.

Related Link: Beauty Trend: Shades of Gray

5. Lighteners are imported and smuggled in: Most over the counter lightening creams and products should be banned for their excessively high levels of mercury. For example, in a Refinery29 video, reporter Lexy Lebsack found that one small jar of skin lightening cream contained forty-two thousand times as much mercury as the legal limit in the Philippines. However, these products are still sold in corner stores every day to thousands of women looking to lighten their skin tone, not knowing the danger that lurks beneath the lid.
