Surprise! Kylie Jenner Gives

Birth to Baby Girl with Travis Scott

By Jessica Gomez

Congratulations to celebrity couple Kylie Jenner and Travis Scott on officially becoming parents to a new baby! In celebrity news, Jenner gave birth to a baby girl this past week, according to EOnline.com. At that time, Mom Kris Jenner and sister Kim Kardashian were seen at the hospital along with Travis Scott and Kylie's best friend Jordyn Woods. The celebrity baby has not yet been named. As the world knows, Jenner kept her pregnancy on the down low, making this news even more relevant. "I'm sorry for keeping you in the dark through all the assumptions. I understand you're used to me bringing you along on all my journeys," Kylie said via Instagram on Sunday. "My pregnancy was one I chose not to do in front of the world. I knew for myself I needed to prepare for this role of a lifetime in the most positive, stress free, and healthy way I knew how. There was no gotcha moment, no big paid reveal I had planned. I knew my baby would feel every stress and every emotion so I chose to do it this way for my little life and our happiness," she explained. "Pregnancy has been the most beautiful, empowering, and life-changing experience I've had in my entire life and I'm actually going to miss it. I appreciate my friends and especially my family for helping me make this special moment as private as we could. My beautiful and healthy baby girl arrived February 1st and I just couldn't wait to share this blessing. I've never felt love and happiness like this I could burst! Thank you for understanding."

Well, this celebrity baby news wasn't just a rumor! What are some reasons to keep your baby news to yourself for a while?

Cupid's Advice:

There are a few reasons that you may want to keep your pregnancy under wraps for a while, just like Kylie Jenner and many others. Cupid has some reasons as to why:

1. You have a stressful pregnancy: You just don't need nor want the stress. If you have a sensitive pregnancy where your health and the one of your baby depends on you taking it easy, then hiding your pregnancy could be an option for you. If we feel like outside factors can cause us stress during a critical time, then as mothers-to be we must cut out those factors. Sometimes people can become over bearing when it comes to receiving baby news – so if you're around those kind of peeps, you know what it is.

2. You're superstitious and don't want to jinx it: This may not be logical to everyone. However, if it's logical to the mother-to be, then that's enough – it's her body and her baby. Sometimes certain people find reassurance and comfort in not telling people right away due to fear of a miscarriage or something going wrong. At the end of the day, as long as the baby news is delivered later rather than never, it should be enough.

3. Judgy peers: Whether these peers are at school or work, or are your neighbors, friends, or fam, sometimes they're just not the easiest people to deal with. At times, we may be surrounded by people who judge or gossip, and that can lead to you wanting to keep your pregnancy low-key. During pregnancy, drama should be avoided, so there's no shame in doing what you have to do.

These are just a few reasons why you someone may hide their pregnancy. What are some reasons you or someone you know hid a pregnancy? Comment below!

Thankfully, nowadays there are alternate options to have a child even if you have fertility issues or simply want to expand your family in a different way. Cupid has some insight on some non-traditional ways to welcome a child into your home:

1. Adoption: Adoption is a very common way to gain a new wonderful member to your family. Celebrity News: Kim Kardashian Reveals Her 2018 New Year's Resolutions

By Karley Kemble

New year, new Kim? Kind of! According to EOnline.com, Kim Kardashian has been very open with the changes she hopes to make in 2018 on her exclusive app. In the video, Kardashian states her main goal “is to be on my phone less and more in the moment.” She also hopes to up her fitness game and work out five to six days a week with her trainer. 2018 will certainly be a huge year for Kardashian and her husband Kanye West, as they will soon be welcoming another celebrity baby via surrogate, too!

This celebrity news shows us that even celebrities like Kim Kardashian plan to make big changes with the new year. How can you stick to your resolutions once you've committed to them?

Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to make resolutions at the beginning of the year, but it's not always easy sticking to them. In fact, most people ditch their big resolutions before January even ends. If you're hoping to make sure your big changes stick, check out these tips straight from Cupid:

1. Re-frame the "resolution": Resolutions rarely see life past January is because of the immense pressure to strictly abide to them. If there is even a small deterrent, most people give up because they aren't perfecting their goal. Try re-framing and leave room for error. For example, if you want to lose weight, instead of saying "I will lose 20 pounds this year," say "I want to change my eating habits and focus on my overall health." The two coincide, and it's more likely you'll have more success!

2. Don't be afraid to restart: Slip-ups are inevitable, so don't beat yourself up over them! With 52 weeks and 365 days, you would be insane not to stray from your big resolution. When you do stray (notice: "when" and not "if"!) know that your next choice/decision is an opportunity to get back to your goal. It's better to have a slow and steady progression, rather than no progress or even backtracking and giving up completely!

3. Have a support system: Lean on others for support. It's not a sign of weakness, rather, it's a sign of strength! When you tell others about your goals, they will want to help encourage you and help keep you accountable. Making others proud is always a very empowering motivator, so you should definitely consider this option!

These recipes will add some new cooking techniques to your repertoire and make you look like a celebrity chef in no time! Check out these meal planning ideas inspired by Jennifer Lopez's diet and the creative substitutes Kim Kardashian makes.

1. It starts with the protein: Have you ever noticed that the bigger the cut of protein is the cheaper it is? This is because it requires you to do a little fabrication: basically, the art of butchery. If you don't feel comfortable about breaking down a whole chicken, look for large portions, such as loins and roasts. You can cut these into stew meat, pork chops, or leave it as a roast. Buying these large portion saves you money, requires only a little prep ahead of time, and you can freeze any leftover cuts until you're ready to use.

2. Seasonal vegetables: Meal-prepping made easy and cheap means using readily available resources. While most grocery stores have a variety of vegetables year-round, the ones in season tend to be cheaper and, tastier, and much more delicious. Summer squashes can be used in pasta, stews, or sides for traditional entrées. Get creative and challenge yourself to use vegetables in every dish in a variety of ways.

3. Leftovers anyone: What's easier than an already prepped meal? Not everyone loves leftovers, but some dishes taste better as they age. Stews and soups continue to develop flavor as they sit in the fridge ready to be eaten. Yes, some people don't like leftovers, so consider smaller batches, but it's already a meal prepared that just needs to be reheated.

4. The back-of-the-pantry meal: Have you ever seen Chopped? They require contestants to use unusual ingredients to prepare normal meals. When you're running short on time and can't go to the store, digging around in your pantry can actually produce some unique dishes. It can be fun to challenge yourself.

5. To freeze or not to freeze: The ultimate in meal-prepping, preparing a dish ahead of time and saving it for later is incredible for a lot of people. If you have an afternoon free on a weekend, preparing a lasagna or casserole and freezing it makes an evening later in the week that much easier. Not everyone has time to cook an entire meal beforehand, thus the previous suggestions, but take that free time and get in the kitchen. You'll thank yourself later!

There's something about investing right from the beginning of your child's life that makes you feel like the parent who can conquer anything. Here are some of the latest nursery trends based on what we've seen celebrity parents doing:

1. Art gallery: Coco Rocha sets the standard for chic. For her daughter's nursery, she has a wall dedicated to artwork. Kourtney Kardashian used coral pink everywhere: on the walls, in the fluffy-clouded-wallpaper on the ceiling, all the way to the accents in the room. Juxtapose with pops of turquoise for flashes of cheery delight.

3. Patriotism: Parenting is hard. You have to evaluate your beliefs and see if they are something you want to pass onto your children. By Rachel Sparks

Kim Kardashian just revealed the sex of celebrity baby number three! According to EOnline.com, during an interview with Ellen Degeneres, Kim Kardashian was telling a story where North West said, "Mom, baby sister isn't here. I think I need all the toys in my room." This celebrity couple is on their way to a full house!

It looks like Kim and Kanye will be welcoming another celebrity baby girl to their brood! What are some ways to prepare for a third child versus the first or the second?

Cupid's Advice:

Each addition of a new child takes its own preparation. When you brought home baby number two, you worried how your first born would react to not getting as much attention. Now, you know more about handling an infant, so there's less to buy and worry about. But having a third infant is different. Now you've got two older siblings to prepare, five schedules to try and balance, and the financial strain of another kid. How can you prepare for baby number three with less stress? Read our parenting advice below:

1. Potty train: If you have older kids that aren't potty trained yet, go ahead and make your life so much easier now and get those kids' butts on the toilet. You don't want to have an infant strapped to your chest while you're chasing a screaming, naked two year old around the house.

2. Prep the house: Besides setting up a nursery, there's a lot that you can do before baby number three gets here. If you have carpets and children, you know what a disaster that can be. While redoing floors may not be at the top of your prepping list, removing carpets can help you avoid allergies and stains. Buy the carpet tile samples from a home improvement store for a cheap and easily replaced rug for your kids' rooms.

3. Start a routine: Children thrive off of routines, but changing them can be hard. Start the newborn routine now so the kids won't have such a hard time adjusting. The most critical thing is to ensure you spend alone time with each child so they know they won't be forgotten.

4. Encourage alliances: Building strong relationships with the kids and encouraging them to be the best of sibling friends will make entertaining the older kids much easier. It also teaches them how to look out for each other, making them feel special instead of left out when the newborn comes home.

Celebrity Style: Boots You Can Rock in the Winter

By Rachel Sparks

Earlier this year, we got a glimpse of the fashion trends that were coming for fall and winter, and though what to wear on our upper bodies is always important, what to wear on our feet is sometimes even more exciting. Elle.com released the hottest boot trends that walked down the runways. Latest celebrity styles range from crimson statement kicks to waist-highs. There's more to rock than the classic black ankle boot.

How can you rock the hottest celebrity styles this boot season?

Boots during winter is like Starbucks PSL for fall: you can't have one without the other. As much as we love the classic black boot, we're setting them aside for this year's best celebrity fashion trends:

1. The disco ball boot: Brighten everyone's day while rocking the glitter boot. Pair it with black pants or a red jacket for a dramatic rock star look. Celebs rocking it: Celine Dion, Rihanna, Blac Chyna, and Cardi B.

2. The scrunchy look: It can be casual or that sexy messy look. Wear it over pants, with a dress, or an extra long T-shirt; you can't go wrong. Celebs spotted wearing these: Reese Witherspoon and Hillary Duff.

Celebrity Baby News: Kim Kardashian Confirms She's Expecting Her Third Child

By Ashleigh Underwood

The young Kardashian clan continues to grow as Kim Kardashian finally confirms the rumored celebrity baby news according to E! Online. The mother of two has been hoping to expand her family with husband Kanye West for a while, but was unable because of previous pregnancy complications. This time however, the celebrity couple have conceived through surrogacy.

This celebrity baby news was rumored, but now it's confirmed. What are some ways to keep your baby news under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby is exciting and something you want to enjoy forever. While some people are ready and willing to share their news right away, others may want to put it off for a while. Here are a few ways to keep your baby news quiet:

1. Only tell people you trust: If you need or want to tell a few people about your baby, by all means do so! However, in order to keep the secret from getting to too many ears, only tell people you really trust. This way, it is less likely that the news will get spread around to other people. Make sure the ones you tell are people who will support you and have your back through the pregnancy.

2. Hide your bump: If you are the one carrying the baby and want to keep the secret for a while, you may want to hide your bump from the public eye. An easy way to do this is to wear baggy clothing or lots of layers. This way, no one will think about what is underneath all the clothing because it will fall off your body so easily.

3. Carry on: When you are trying to hide a huge lifestyle change, you should continue to live your life as normal. If you all of a sudden stop going out with your friends, or seeing people in your family, they will suspect that something is up. Instead, continue your life as if nothing has changed and no one will think twice about it.

Fashion Advice: Red Carpet

Looks You Can Rock at the Office

By Melissa Lee

Celebrities seem to look like they're always wearing the most stylish pieces. For those of us that tend to look to the stars for fashion inspiration, it may be a little hard to find work appropriate outfits when we're influenced by the red carpet. If you're trying to maintain a balance between fashionable and professional, use your favorite celebs for outfit ideas to uphold that "office chic" vibe.

If you're in need of some fashion advice, Cupid's here to save the day with some red carpet looks you can rock at the office!

1. Wide-legged trousers: Hailing from the '70s, these kinds of pants are making a comeback – especially in the office. Stars like Alessandra Ambrosio and Vanessa Hudgens have been seen rocking wide-legged trousers, making them totally celeb-approved. Pair these pants with a tucked-in blouse or button down and you'll look both stylish and professional when walking around the office.

Vanessa Hudgens is a huge fan of wide-legged pants.

2. Blazers: Once seen as a strictly-professional piece, blazers have actually been spotted more and more on the red carpet. With the right shape, blazers can completely transform a rather casual outfit into a work-friendly look. Kim Kardashian and Jessica Alba are two celebs that have been spotted wearing blazers numerous times throughout the years.

3. Pencil Skirts: Similarly to blazers, pencil skirts were assumed to only be worn at work at a point – but celebrities and their stylists have been putting a stop to that assumption. Stars like Jamie Chung, Blake Lively and Miranda Kerr have expressed their love for this waist-cinching piece. Rock a pencil skirt by tucking in a flowey button down and you'll be good to go for the day!

4. Matching Sets: A modern take on the power suit (made famous by Hillary Clinton, of course) is perfect for the office. Plus, if you're running late for work, matching sets are perfect – all you have to do is find a pair of shoes that work! Victoria Beckham is notorious for rocking matching sets, whether it be when she's working or just taking a stroll with her family.

5. A-Line Skirts: Skirts are an incredibly versatile piece that can be worn for nearly any occasion, but A-Line skirts are particularly great for the office. The best part about picking up a few of these skirts are all the different ways you can wear them. You can make several stylish outfits with the same skirt, just by switching up the top, accessories and shoes. As long as it's a proper length, A-Line skirts are a crucial wardrobe piece for any working woman's closet.

Celebrity Interview: 'The Cycle' Co-Host Aliya-Jasmine Sovani on Work, Life, Love and Balancing It All

By Noelle Downey

Aliya-Jasmine Sovani is one of the newest voices at NBC with the talk show she co-hosts, The Cycle, now airing digitally to reach a millennial audience. With her show, she strives to make the news more accessible to young people by creating a haven for a well-researched blend of political, pop culture, and sports news that so many viewers wish they could find with just a quick Google search on their phones. And now they can, thanks to The Cycle. When she's done at work, the co-host has a life full of love, laughs, fashion, and friends to enjoy. In our recent celebrity interview, Sovani opens about how she manages to have it all, from her dream job to true love.

Aliya-Jasmine Sovani Spills Details on Her New NBC Talk Show The Cycle in Celebrity Interview

While The Cycle may be hosted by NBC, one of the biggest networks around, Sovani insists that this new digital take on a talk show is bringing something brand new and accessible to younger viewers – and a lot of that has to do with the tone of the show. “Imagine Anderson Cooper doing the six o’clock news and then going home in the evening, and he throws a black v-neck T-shirt and cracks open a beer,” she explains with a laugh. “The way that he would explain his day to Andy Cohen at night over a drink is the way that we try to do the news every day.”

Related Link: Celebrity News: Anderson Cooper Thanks Boyfriend Ben Maisani at GLADD Awards

Of course, it’s not just the tone; it’s also the content, which the co-host says is chosen with younger viewers in mind. “We’ll do all the biggest headlines when it comes to world news and politics, but we also cover sports and pop culture,” she says, “so if Kendrick Lamar drops a new album, we’ll talk about that with the same kind of importance.”

In this new digital world, convenience is everything. Sovani believes it was important to make this show as easy to access on-the-go as possible to match the fast-paced life of most modern millenials. “Our show is completely made to watch on your phone, which I think is really cool and forward-thinking,” the co-host shares. “This is new: the idea of traditional news networks pushing out content to a millennial audience using digital and social platforms. Being able to be part of that movement, as a storyteller and as a journalist, is really rad and incredibly fulfilling. Not only am I getting to tell stories that I care about, but I'm able to tell them on a platform that I also use to consume information."

The Cycle* Co-Host Dishes on Her Favorite Date Night

Of course, with a new show and such a busy work schedule, Sovani has to set some serious boundaries to make sure that she can find time to just relax. So what are her secrets for achieving that perfect work-life balance? "I live about three blocks from the ocean. I have a little rescue mutt, and I bring him to the ocean every single morning, and that's kind of my tranquility," she says in our celebrity interview. "I also have a rule at home: I don't have my phone in my bedroom at all. I won't even use it as an alarm. And I have a 'no weekends' policy. So the only time I'll check my email and my phone on the weekends is on Sunday night at 6 p.m., just to get ready for Monday."

During these social media and digital fasts, Sovani still has plenty to entertain her: "I just let my weekends be about me and my dog and my boyfriend," she enthuses. "We really like to go out for brunch, and we spend a lot of our weekends at the ocean. For me, that's everything."

Related Link: Do-It-Yourself Date Night Advice from HGTV Host Monica Pedersen

Sovani isn't just making strides in her professional life; she's also taking big steps in her celebrity relationship. She admits that this is the first time she's ever lived with a boyfriend, so she's concentrating on keeping things fresh and fun. "I think it's very easy to get into a routine where all you guys talk about is work when you get home," she explains,

“so we decided to try to go to more comedy shows! Instead of just doing a dinner date night, we decided to start doing ‘dinner and comedy’ nights. We’ll see the show, and then we can go for dinner and talk about it and the world at large.”

So is laughter truly the best medicine? For Sovani and her special someone, it certainly is. “I think that it reminds you of why you were intellectually attracted to that person,” she reveals. “For both of us, that’s what we find really attractive about each other. So that’s been a great addition to our relationship.”

Aliya-Jasmine Sovani Reveals Her Go-To Fashion Item

Of course, whether in the office or on date night, Sovani is committed to looking fantastic. And there’s one item that she just can’t live without: “Sheath dresses are my new thing that I love in my 30’s,” she gushes. “I have these really great leather Oxford booties that I wear with my sleeveless sheath dresses and maybe a blazer thrown on top for work. Then, in the evening, all I have to do is replace those shoes with a cute pump and my briefcase with a nice little Chanel bag. That’s been my new date night trick.”

Related Link: Fashion Advice: Choose the Perfect Date Night Dress

With style tips as good as that, Sovani is clearly in-the-know when it comes to trends, and her knowledge of celebrity news is just as on point. Her favorite bits of celeb gossip right now are focused on two powerhouse ladies: Kim Kardashian and Serena Williams. “I read a headline about how Kim is being really open about getting a surrogate to have her next child. I know for many woman, that’s been a taboo topic,” she says. “So I think it’s really interesting that she’s being very open with it. It’s opening up a dialogue for women who might not be able to have children and who have thought about that.”

And it turns out the journalist is also a huge fan of how Williams recently shared her pregnancy photos. “I think that’s really incredible because she has this iconic strong female body and all women are pressured into looking certain ways,” Sovani explains. “Female athletes especially spend so much time conditioning their bodies, so for her to flip the switch and watch her body transform publically is really brave.”
