

James and Kimberly Van Der Beek Hit New West Hollywood Nightclub

James and Kimberly Van Der Beek were spotted having a night out together away from the little ones at Hollywood's new nightclub, Bootsy Bellows. The couple went straight to their private area in the back of the club together, for the club's exclusive "V.I.P night." An onlooker told People, "They really didn't show any PDA." The two mingled with their own friends and seemed to have a good night, without being all over each other.

How do you show you care about your partner without PDA?

Cupid's Advice:

The older you get, the less PDA you seem to need to show when in a relationship. You don't need affection 24/7 to prove that you care about your partner. Here are some ways to do that:

1. Take them places: Take your partner out with you, because it shows you want them around when you're doing fun things. You like their company.

2. Have fun together: You and your partner can have a date night doing something fun. Laughing together is enough without having to constantly be kissing each other.

3. Surprise them: One way to show your partner you care about them is by giving them nice little surprises, such as flowers. It's a way to show you appreciate them without smothering them.

What are some new things you have to prepare for when you have a boy versus a girl?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether you’re having a boy or girl, it’s always best to make sure you’re well prepared when you’re expecting. Here’s Cupid’s advice on how to get ready to welcome your baby boy:

1. Go blue: Since you’re having a boy, it’s pretty common to go with a baby blue theme for your son’s nursery. However, if you're looking to add other colors, different greens and yellows can easily compliment the soft blue.

2. Become the outdoorsy type: If you're not already a fan of outdoor activities, become one. While not all boys are the same, a vast majority of them lean toward enjoying playing outside, sports or playing with their favorite monster trucks.

3. Exercise: Granted, both boys and girls can keep you on your toes. However, boys tend to be a bit more active. Make sure you get plenty of rest and exercise so you'll be able to keep up with your little one when he learns to walk and crawl everywhere.
