these beauty tips, what are some of the best new 'dos that you can deem as an Instagram-worthy reveal?

With Thanksgiving coming up, it seems like the perfect time to debut a new hairstyle to your friends and family for the holiday season. But, your hair transformation doesn't have to be anything drastic. In fact, some of the most popular 2019 Fall hairstyles are subtle, yet effective. No need to drain your bank account or take a big risk completely changing your hair if you're looking for a simple switch that'll be just as powerful as bleaching your entire head. Here are five of Cupid's favorite low-effort, Instagram-worthy hairstyles that'll be sure to turn heads:

1. Low-side ponytail: A quick and easy way to change your hairstyle if you are usually a big fan of wearing your hair down is to tie it back in a nice low side ponytail. A favorite of celebrities like Kourtney Kardashian, this simple ponytail can add a touch of difference to your look without much effort. Tie up your hair right above the shoulder on the side of your head, and add some slight wave for texture to change a casual side-pony to a sophisticated style worthy of your Instagram and any Fall get-together.

2. Long shag: A shag is a great way to add a little flair of retro to your appearance. With recent beauty trends taking a page from decades past, it's only natural that a '70s shag would be "in" sooner or later. Easy to achieve, tell your stylist that you want some shattered layers with a long, thick bang. This should get you that fun and casual shag for the season.

3. Blunt lob: If you have thin hair and are forever wishing for a fuller look, the blunt lob could be your saving grace. Very popular this Fall, this hairstyle can be bold and classic while also giving the illusion of a fuller mane. Some stylist experts have even called this look the “statement cut of the season.” Having a simple lob that grazes your collarbone can do wonders for transforming your appearance without much effort involved.

4. Intense curls: It’s refreshing to see such a celebration of natural hair within the beauty industry, recently. Whether your hair is naturally curly or you want to add some voluminous curls to your hair, anyone can achieve this '70s disco trend that’s emerging for the Fall season. If you don’t have naturally beautiful curls, using a small curling iron and a teasing comb can give you that fun and timeless look. Keeping it voluminous or pulling the hair back into a semi-updo are both looks out of the several this hairstyle is capable of that can add that change you’ve been looking for this Fall.

5. Statement headbands: Probably the easiest and yet most effective hairstyle on this list, the headband had its time this summer, but it doesn’t seem like it’s going anywhere for the Fall. A cute way to switch up your Instagram feed as well as your own personal style, buying some chunkier headbands in fun, Fall patterns or colors can add that Boho spark to your look. Simply slide it on your head, pull the front pieces of your hair forward, and rock the ‘do. The best part is that you can stock up on many headbands for cheap at your local retail stores.

In celebrity news, the words on everyone’s lips are, “Where’s

Cupid’s Advice:

Despite the rumors that may be flaring up because Kourtney and Scott took their kids on a vacation, Sofia seemed comfortable enough to remain home so she could attend work events. Sometimes we can’t help it if our partner has to interact with their ex if they have children together. Cupid has advice on how to keep your jealousy in check:

1. Remember, your partner is with YOU: Your partner and their ex split up for a reason. Even if they are on friendly terms, you have to realize they didn’t work for a reason. Your partner would not be in a relationship with you if what you have between you both isn’t working.

keep you from living your life. It's not always easy to be friends with your ex, like Kourtney Kardashian is with Scott Disick, but it is possible to prevent that old relationship from holding you back like Khloe Kardashian after her break up with Tristan Thompson. Cupid has some tips:

1. Be comfortable moving on: Sometimes when you're afraid of being alone, you tend to hold on to toxic people. Holding on to exes who are not good for you can lead to being resentful and holding onto bitterness, like Bristowe with her ex Viall.

3. Don't talk about your ex: Don't talk about your ex-partner. Just don't. Talking about them is a sign that you're not over them. If you talk about them, you're thinking about them. If you're thinking about them, you're not moving on. Stop talking about them and you will stop thinking about them and you'll finally move on to better things.

What a celebration!

In celebrity baby news, Khloe enjoyed a baby shower while also celebrating her partner's birthday. What are some ways to balance celebrations in your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrating two events in a day can create some very busy energy, but that doesn't make it any less fun! Cupid has some ideas on ways to maintain the balance between both family celebrations:

- 1. Plan ahead and thoroughly: One event takes time to plan, so imagine two. You don't want to stress yourself out. Ask for help planning if needed. There are many things to consider when planning, so make an agenda and get started when possible. When planning both events side by side, you are more likely to keep them balanced as well.

2. Make the events equal in size: Of course this depends on what type of events you are coordinating, but if you want to create two balanced ones on the same day, without one event outshining the other, it could be a good idea to make them the same size. When thinking of size, you should consider guest lists, themes, decorations, amount of food, etc. Again, this depends on the type of events.

3. Schedule properly: Time management is important. One event should be during the day and the other in the evening, ideally. Plan accordingly by scheduling the events at specific times for specific time periods, with enough room to change clothes if necessary and traveling. There should be a reasonable gap in between, so in order to consider this properly, the events should be on a somewhat tight schedule for the best, stress free results.

Celebrity Getaway: Scott Disick & Sofia Richie Enjoy PDA on Mexican Vacation

y Jessica Gomez

Kourtney Kardashian's ex Scott Disick and girlfriend Sofia Richie were all lovey dovey during their celebrity vacation in Mexico, according to EOnline.com. The celebrity couple posted photos on Instagram. Both were having fun and a ton of PDA was going on. According to a source, the couple is very happy, always have fun, and were making out and all over one another often during the vacay.

This celebrity getaway is getting steamy. What are some things to consider when it comes to public displays of affection?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA is a controversial topic. Some people are fine with it, and some people are hardcore against it. There are different levels of PDA, from holding hands to make out sessions and butt grabbing – so different levels call for different measures. Cupid has some tips on things you should consider when it comes to public displays of affection:

1. Are there kids around?: This matters depending on the level of PDA of course. Are you just kissing one another innocently or is it to the point of someone telling you to get a room? Children are innocent and you wouldn't want to influence them in a particular way, especially if they aren't your kids.

Related Link: Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Plan Vacation Ahead of Wedding

2. Are you making others uncomfortable?: Generally, we are told to not care about what others think. However, it can be annoying when a group of friends are hanging out, and there's that couple all over each other the whole time. Do as you please, but try to keep in mind whether or not you're overdoing it. Everything in moderation.

Related Link: Macaulay Culkin Steps Out with Brenda Song in Paris

3. The place: PDA stands for public displays of attention (as we all know), but certain public places may be more acceptable than others. For example: work, school, a funeral home, children's playgrounds, and hospitals are obvious places where most people would agree couples should stray away from intense PDA. So just keep your eyes open and be aware of your surroundings, and of course pay attention to the level of PDA.

This celebrity news shows that these exes aren't necessarily civil all of the time. What are some parameters you can put on your relationship with your ex if you have children together?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups can be messy. Breakups with kids can be really messy. While Kardashian and Disick try and remain civil for the sake of their three children, it's clear they face their fair share of problems. If you're having trouble with an ex, Cupid has some tips that you can implement into your life:

1. Kick the emotions to the curb: You must keep your frustrations and all negative feelings about your ex between the two of you. It's easy to jump to conclusions and expect the worst from your ex if you ended on bad terms and continue to have drama. Your child (or children) are the most important commitment you two share, so when they're around, get along as best as you possibly can.

2. Have a clear-cut plan: Early on into your separation or divorce, it is pivotal to have a clear and defined custody agreement. Between the two of you, decide on a visitation schedule and figure out how you will celebrate holidays and their birthdays. It won't be easy by any means, but it will really help you diffuse potential conflicts from arising.

3. Leave the new boyfriend/girlfriend out: Introducing a new person into your child's life can be complicated. It is best to leave the parenting to the parents until the relationship becomes very serious. That way, you and your ex can learn how to co-parent maturely and avoid playing the blame game with each other.

This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to keep drama out of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Kourtney and Scott might have been one of the most dramatic couples Hollywood has ever seen. Here are some tips to keep the drama to a minimum:

1. Keep it private: Constantly posting about your relationship – whether it be the good, the bad, or the ugly – could open the opportunity for other people to get involved. By keeping the social media to a minimum, drama definitely won't be a huge problem, as your relationship will remain between you and your partner.

2. Communicate: Conflicts or arguments tend to get even worse when there's poor communication. If there's something bothering you, be straight forward! Calmly explain to your partner that there is an issue that you'd like to work on, together. This opens the opportunity to have clear communication and a productive conversation to fix the problem. No drama here!

3. Choose to let it go: There are just some arguments that aren't even worth having (like that one about who's turn it is to empty the dishwasher?). Recognize that while conflict can be healthy at times – when it's productive – there doesn't always have to be a fight. Sometimes, you can just validate your partner's feelings, apologize, and move forward.

New Celebrity Couple? Kourtney Kardashian Cuddles with Younes Bendjima in France

by Noelle Downey

Is there a new celebrity couple on the horizon? According to UsMagazine.com, Kourtney Kardashian was recently spotted getting cozy with hot model Younes Bendjima on what appeared to be a romantic getaway at Hotel du Cap-Eden-Roc in Antibes, France. Bendjima wrapped his arms around Kardashian from behind in a sweet embrace on the terrace of the hotel in an adorable photo snapped by press. However, although there are rumors that the pair have been spending time together since December, a source claims that Bendjima and Kardashian are keeping it casual. “Kourtney and Younes are not serious,” the source explained, “they are hooking up.” Whatever the label on their celebrity relationship, however, it’s been enough to stir up some trouble when it comes to Kardashian’s celebrity ex, Scott Disick. When photos of Kardashian and Bendjima surfaced, a source claims Disick felt some real pain. “Scott is jealous of Kourtney’s relationship,” the source affirmed. Before this sweet cuddle in France, Kardashian and Bendjima were most recently spotted enjoying their Hollywood relationship in LA in early May.

This celebrity couple says they aren’t defining their relationship. What are some reasons to wait on labeling your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you’re unsure whether or not you should put a label on your relationship, here are the top three ways to know it may not be time to take that big step:

1. When you’re not looking for a commitment: If you’re more interested in a fun fling than a long term relationship, consider holding off on defining your relationship. Once labels are involved, talks of exclusivity and boundaries in your relationship are inevitable. If you’re looking to keep your flirtation fun but free, then don’t burden either you or the person you’re dating with a label the neither of you want. Keep things casual and tell your friends or any nosy family members that for right now, you two are just hanging out and enjoying each other’s company, with no pressure on either side to make it something more.

2. When you want different things: If you ever feel as though your partner is pressuring you into a label that you're not ready for, step back and call a time out on any further talks about your relationship's identity. Don't allow yourself to be pressured into making a choice you're not ready to make, and if your partner is absolutely adamant that you need a label in order to continue your relationship, than it might be time to say goodbye before either one of you gets hurt. You should never have to apologize for not wanting to be in a relationship with someone, so if you're not ready, you're just not ready. Don't force it.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Scott Disick Reveals He Once Proposed to Kourtney Kardashian

3. When you don't have time: There's no doubt about it, relationships take a lot of work and effort. If you just don't know how you'd fit in the demands of a relationship into the stress and business of your daily life, then it may not be a good idea to try for anything beyond a casual fling. To be in a healthy relationship, both partners need to be giving of themselves equally, and if you're not in a position where you can make room in your life for the needs and desires of another person, then hold off on the labels until you're in the right time of your life for that big step.

In celebrity news, it looks like these two have no hard feelings after their fling. What are some ways to recover quickly after a fling gone bad?

Cupid’s Advice:

Flings are meant to be just that, a fling. Here is how you can recover when a fling has gone wrong:

1. Remember it was a fling: The point of a fling is for it to be short term and something that eventually ends. So when it goes wrong try and remember it was never meant to work.

Cupid’s Advice:

Just because you start seeing someone new, doesn’t mean the new relationship is ready for a label. Use this relationship advice to help make that decision:

1. Exclusive: When you start seeing someone new and you both decide it is time to start seeing other people, this can be a good indicator that the relationship is ready for a label.
