These celebrity exes seem to be taking the high road. What are some benefits to keeping a civil relationship with your ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Everyone knows how difficult it can be to stay on good terms with an ex. It’s possible, but it can take a while to get to a point where you’re both balanced enough to have some sort of friendship outside of the relationship. If you’re figuring out the pros and cons of taking the high road with an ex, don’t worry. Cupid has some love advice on the benefits that staying civil with your ex can bring:

1. Someone to confide in: No one else was apart of the relationship other than your ex. So, if you're having a difficult time healing or moving on in other relationships, they can be the perfect person to confide in. They know parts of you no one else does, and that can be very beneficial in the long run.

2. Beneficial for the kids: If you and your ex have children together, it is very good to try and keep a civil relationship with their other parent. # Celebrity Couple News: Former 'Bachelor' Ben Higgins Is Engaged to Girlfriend Jess Clarke

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity couple news, former Bachelor star, Ben Higgins, has proposed to girlfriend Jess Clarke. According to UsMagazine.com, Clarke posted three consecutive photos on her Instagram with the caption, "I woke up in a dream today and I get to live in this dream every day from now on (eeeeep)." The pair had been together for about a year before Higgins popped the question. In January, he told the publication that he planned on proposing to Clark in 2020 saying, "We're great. It's fun. It's just healthy... I think she would say the same. Our relationship is healthy. I'm a better version of myself, a more free version of myself than I've been in a while."

In celebrity couple news, coronavirus isn't keeping this couple from moving forward in their relationship. What are some ways to continue to progress your relationship while sheltering in place?

Cupid's Advice:

In these times of global isolation, we're spending more time than ever with our family and significant others. Being cooped up in a house with your partner for too long is a recipe for disaster, but there are ways to keep the romance alive! Just because you're inside for a while doesn't mean you still can't progress your relationship in healthy ways. If you're struggling with knowing how to do that, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice on how to continue growing your love in a confined space:

1. Home improvements: This might seem more like work than having fun, but now that you both have more time on your hands, it can be time to finally get that room painted! Or that new garden planted! When you're both spending time with one another while working on something that is important to both of you, it can keep your bond growing. You're being a team, and when the task is finished, you'll feel accomplished with yourself as well as each other.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Says 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sex Confessions Are 'Confusing'

2. Have a picnic: Just because you're indoors doesn't mean you can't plan fun little dates with your partner! If it's warm enough outside, try going for a picnic in your backyard! Grab some food and drinks from the kitchen (or hit the grocery store if able) and head outside. It might not be the most ideal place, but a picnic is a picnic, and as long as you're both together, it shouldn't matter where it is.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Chris Lane Reveals Quarantine Has Strengthened Relationship with Lauren Bushnell

3. Movie night: Another fun date idea is to find a day of the week where you can have a movie night. Curate a playlist of some of your favorite films (or maybe even bad films) to watch alongside your significant other. Make some popcorn, get in your pajamas, and just relax together. Or, if you want to do this more frequently, try out some silly goals like “Let’s watch every single movie Nicholas Cage has been in,” and choose a new one every night to view. It’s fun and kooky, and everything to refresh your relationship!

Celebrity News: Teresa Giudice Says She’s No Longer ‘Physically Attracted’ to Husband Joe

 By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, reality TV star Teresa Giudice opened up about her marriage to estranged husband Joe during the reunion of The Real Housewives of New Jersey. According to UsMagazine.com, she was anything, but gentle. Andy Cohen asked her back in October if she was still attracted to her ex-husband, and she said she wasn’t. In the previews of the episode, he asked her again, months later, and she was still firm about having no physical attraction to him. She even went as far as to say that Joe wanted to have sex on their trip to Italy and that she was thankful for her youngest daughter sleeping in the bed with her every night. “It was a good c-kblocker.”

In celebrity news, Teresa Giudice is no longer attracted to her husband. What do you do to get the spark back in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, the attraction that you have for your partner can fade. You can get into a routine that causes the romance to flicker. Or, your honeymoon phase has ended, and it's hard to navigate the relationship in the same way you did before. Being physically attracted to your partner is an important aspect of a relationship's longevity, and keeping that fire alive isn't always as easy as it seems. If you're having trouble with finding that spark again, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice that can help you relight that flame in your relationship:

1. Watch old videos: If you're married, sitting down together to rewatch your wedding video can cause you both to remember why you fell in love with one another in the first place. Even if you aren't married, old videos with each other in the peak of your relationship can be the catalyst for jump-starting the emotions and attraction that you might've lost along the way.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Joe Giudice Says He 'Can't Wait' to Celebrate Christmas with His Daughters in Italy

2. Plan a trip: A lot of times, a relationship can suffer because it's been harder to spend as much time together as you used to. Planning a trip to go away together for even just a couple of days can do wonders for a relationship that hasn't gotten alone time in quite a while. Existing with one another away from your day-to-day life is a great way to rekindle relationships.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Joe Giudice Reunites with Teresa & Four Daughters in Italy

3. Reenact your first date: A fun way to bring the spark back into a relationship is to reenact the first date you guys went on. Whether that be a dinner date, a trip to the movies, or whatever it may be, it can be a cute way for both of you to reminisce on what initially caused you to fall in love with this person. Besides, if the first date was bad, you both can laugh about it together all the way through.

Celebrity News: Russell Brand Talks About ‘Heartbreak’ After Katy Perry Baby News

 By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Russell Brand has opened up on his past heartbreak after celebrity ex-wife Katy Perry announced that she’s expecting a child with fiance Orlando Bloom. According to UsMagazine.com, Brand posted a video to his Instagram on March 5th titled “Healing From a Broken Heart.” In the video he discussed his past experiences with love and heartbreak. This came only a day after Perry revealed she was pregnant.

In celebrity news, Russell Brand is opening up about heartbreak right after Katy Perry announced her pregnancy. What are some ways to heal your broken heart when your ex moves on?

Cupid's Advice:

Heartbreak is one of the worst pains imaginable. When you split from someone you had a real connection with, it can be difficult to heal. Sometimes, it can take a long time to not feel that ache in your chest for that other person. It only worsens when you see your ex moving on. How do you heal your broken heart after that happens? Cupid has some love advice on different ways that you can healthily move past heartbreak after seeing them with someone else:

1. Take a break from social media: Social media can be your worst enemy when it comes to heartbreak. You're tempted to check up on your ex's page. You might creep over to their new partner's profile. Their friends might dominate your feed. If anything, do a bit of social media cleansing and then stay off it as much as possible. The less you look at their stuff, the easier it will be to start the healing process.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple: Katy Perry & Orlando Bloom Steal Kiss at Misha Nonoo's Rehearsal Dinner

2. Get closure: Sometimes, the best way to start healing from a broken heart is to get closure from this person. Break-ups can be messy and rough. Many times closure isn't involved when two people go their separate ways. Ending on a sour note can leave wounds fresh for a lot longer than necessary. If you're both in a place that you can meet and talk everything out, it could be beneficial for you both.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Orlando Bloom Reveals How Past Divorce Affects Katy Perry Relationship

3. Take up a new hobby: Sometimes, the best way to get over an ex is to immerse yourself in something new. Pick up cooking or baking. Find art classes in your area. Begin writing again if you've put that down. Look for new outlets to invest your time. The longer your mind focuses on something new and distances itself from environments and people that remind you of that other person, the better it will be for your heartbreak process.

In celebrity news, there's a new Bachelorette in town! What are some unique ways to go about finding love?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding love in this modern dating scene can seem almost impossible. With the many dating apps, the insensitivity that's come with technology and social media, and knowing that traditional ways of finding love are sometimes too unrealistic to play out, it can look pretty bleak out there for all the single folk. But, there are still some unique ways to find love that doesn't rely on apps or constant worrying over social media. You might not get the opportunity to land yourself on a reality show to find love, but Cupid has some love advice on original ideas on finding love yourself:

- 1. Ask your friends for set-ups: I know that blind dates can seem terrifying and over-dramatized in film and media, but bringing back this model of finding others can actually work to your advantage. In fact, most young people do find love interests based on their friends. So, if you want to shoot your shot and trust a friend, ask them to help set you up with someone they know. Don't give them any pressure! Just tell them that you're open to anyone new, so they aren't stressed to find you the perfect date.

2. Live your life for you: When you begin to start getting to know all the facets of who you are, and you live for yourself and no one else, you'll go down a healthy life path. Doing what is right for you means you will be around jobs, places, and near people who further align with your life plan. You'll have a much better chance of meeting a soulmate because they will also have a similar life path.

In celebrity couple news, Beyonce and Jay-Z stood up for what they believe while staying seated during the National Anthem at the Super Bowl. What are some ways of standing up for what you believe together can bring you closer as a couple?

Many times it is your beliefs that can be a catalyst for bringing two people together. Those who have a common belief system or are passionate about certain causes can actually have that aspect of their lives bring a solid foundation to a relationship. Standing up for something as a couple is such a powerful feeling. If you are wondering what ways believing in something as a couple can bring you closer with your partner, Cupid has some love advice on the topic:

1. You can go to events/rallies together: If it is a specific cause you and your partner both support, there’s a chance that there are countless events, protests, or charity drives that you can go to together. It's such a wonderful thing to be working alongside your significant other on a cause you both believe in. You'll soon realize that when the relationship gets more serious or leads towards marriage/kids, it is much more vital for you and your partner to have that team dynamic. Standing up for causes together is a sure way of building on that aspect of your relationship.

Cupid's Advice:

Just like Tyler Posey, sometimes being single is just more suited for where you are in your life. It isn't always the best time to have a relationship, and that's okay. Work, school, or even family matters can get in the way of really giving your all to someone else without wearing yourself down. If you've just freshly gotten out of a relationship and don't know how to enjoy being unattached, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice on the positives of being single:

1. Spontaneous travel: When you're not tied to anyone, you don't have to worry about including them in your plans and working around both of your guys' schedules. But, if you're struggling with showing your partner how much you care about them, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice to make sure your partner knows exactly how proud you are to be with them:

1. “You make me a better person:” If you’re not big on PDA or telling someone how you feel, directly, saying that they make you a better person can be a powerful comment to make. We don’t meet many people in life that inspire us to be better than we are, so when we do, it is important. thank them for all their support:

1. Cook them a meal: The way to someone's heart is through their stomach. If you're wanting to show just how much you appreciate how supportive your partner has been, try cooking them one of their favorite meals. According to EOnline.com, Giudice posted new photos on his Instagram account of him in Italy where he is spending quality time with his father-in-law. He even posed for a selfie with Teresa's dad on his Instagram story before tagging her account in it.

In celebrity news, Joe Giudice is showing good faith by meeting up with Teresa's family. What are some ways involving your family can help save your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Families are such an integral part of a relationship. Getting to know your partner's parents is a big step in taking a relationship to the next level. And, when you and your partner are on the rocks, they can also be a very helpful outlet to combatting these issues and keeping your bond from crumbling. If you're having a hard time figuring out how to save your relationship, don't fret! Cupid has some love advice on how involving your family can actually be a useful asset during these trying times:

1. New perspectives: If you're speaking to your in-laws, know that they know your partner better than you ever will. Being open and honest with them about your relationship will give them a chance to hand you new perspectives on the situation. They can provide anecdotes of how your significant other reacts towards certain behaviors while also offering wise advice for keeping your relationship alive.

2. Tough-love: Families are good at many things, but one of their best skills is to give you tough love when you need it. Most times your family won't sugarcoat anything for you, and if you come to them for relationship advice, they won't hesitate to be as blunt and honest as possible. If you've messed up, they'll let you know, and if you're being stubborn, they'll call you out on it. Trust families to not take your feelings into consideration because, sometimes, being direct about relationship issues can actually help you resolve them.

3. Safe space: Remember all those times you were homesick, and you wanted nothing more than to travel home and sleep in your childhood bedroom? A lot of times, having relationship blues can actually trigger a feeling of homesickness. Don't shrug it off. Lean into it, and visit your family. Taking time to yourself to go back to a place that you consider a safe space can give you an opportunity to decompress. Relax, unwind, and distract yourself for a few days. This can do wonders by looking at your relationship troubles with a fresh perspective.

Celebrity Breakup: Teresa & Joe Giudice Talk Divorce in Interview with Andy Cohen

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Teresa from Real Housewives and husband Joe Giudice held nothing back as they discussed their relationship in a tell-all interview with Andy Cohen. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple stated that they had talked about divorce before. Joe even admitted, “If we stay together, we stay together. If we don’t, we don’t. We’ll see.” He even went on to say that Teresa needs to find another man since she is “high maintenance.”

In celebrity break-up news, things aren’t looking promising for Teresa and Joe Giudice. What are some ways to decide whether to call it quits on your marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

Celebrity breakups aren't much different than ours. Even though there's fame and money, it doesn't change a lot about the dynamic when it comes to relationships. If you're on the rocks with your partner, and you don't know whether or not you should end the marriage, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice on when it might be a good idea to reevaluate your relationship:

1. No communication: The most important aspect of a relationship is the ability of both parties to be able to communicate with one another. If conversing openly and honestly with your partner has deteriorated, this might be a sign that the marriage needs to be reassessed. This is only if attempts to strengthen the communication has failed before.

2. Lack of respect: Joe dissing his wife Teresa by saying she needs to find another man that can handle her and her "high maintenance" tendencies is a very disrespectful thing to say about your partner. If you're in a marriage that shows levels of disrespect toward one another, your relationship has some layers of toxicity. Sit down and discuss why you're both saying such hateful things about one another, and if you cannot reach common ground, it might be a good idea to start packing your bags.

3. Low affection: This is something that can sometimes be harder to catch if both you and your partner have gotten into a routine that makes this behavior normal. If your marriage has faded into nothing, but low levels of attraction of intimacy, this may indicate a bigger issue. Try to figure out if this problem is fixable, and if it isn't, neither one of you deserves to be in a marriage that doesn't show the other the affection they need.

This new celebrity couple seems to be hitting it off. What are some # ways to know your new relationship is strong?

Cupid's Advice:

When you get into a new relationship, it can sometimes seem like everything is going so fast. There's the whirlwind romance, the attraction of everything that is fresh and new, and learning everything there is to know about this person. It can be fun and exciting, but it can also be difficult to know when a new relationship is becoming more than just a casual date. Fortunately, Cupid has some love advice on a few ways to know when your new relationship is going strong:

1. You're happy: This might seem obvious, but you'd be surprised how many people aren't genuinely happy with the one they're dating. Strong and healthy relationships should be full of as much fun and laughter as possible. We're not saying that every single moment of each other's relationship should be nothing but joy, but it should outweigh a lot of other emotions that make you both well... not happy.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Miley Cyrus Appears to Shade Exes Kaitlynn Carter & Liam Hemsworth in Post About Love

2. There's trust: Strong relationships cannot be built unless they have a sturdy foundation of trust. Communication and openness are a big key to having a successful bond with your significant other.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Cassie Randolph & Colton Underwood Are 'On the Same Page' About Marriage

3. The relationship makes you feel safe: This is probably the most important aspect of a bond. Knowing that you have a sense of comfort and safety within another person is one of the best signs of knowing if your relationship is going strong. Your significant other should be a safety net to you when you need them. They should provide you with a stable home and a sense of calm when you need it. If you don't feel safe within your relationship, maybe you shouldn't still be with that person.

If you've been with someone for a while, and you're wondering if you're both ready to dive headfirst into marriage, fortunately, Cupid has some love advice on signs you should look out for:

1. You recognize that effort is necessary: There's a certain stereotype that claims when you find the right one, everything will be easy. But, that isn't the case. In fact, every relationship has hardship and takes two people coming together to make an effort to keep their love alive. If you or your partner hasn't realized that being in this marriage is a long-term commitment to making an effort with one another, then maybe you're not ready to say "I do."

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Justin Bieber & Hailey Baldwin Tie the Knot for the Second Time

2. You make long-term plans together: If you're in it for the long haul, chances are both you and your partner have talked about your future together. Making serious life plans with your significant other is a big sign that you're ready for marriage. You've talked about your hopes and dreams, and you've supported one another when discussing them. Never plan a wedding if your future doesn't feature your partner as being apart of it.

Related Link: Royal Celebrity Wedding: Princess Beatrice Is Engaged to Property Tycoon Edoardo Mapelli Mozzi

3. You've done your fair share of soul-searching: Before you commit to someone else, you first must commit to yourself. The most important step of being in healthy relationships is to know your worth and love every aspect of who you are. If you're expecting your partner to love you, you've got to invest in loving yourself, too. You've got to be willing, to be honest with yourself and to know every facet of who you are under different circumstances. Soul-searching is a hard part of life, and it can be very uncomfortable. But, when you've found peace and love inside yourself, you're more than ready to be married to someone who feels the same.

But, there are positives to working with them, and it can also be a great thing for your relationship. Here's some love advice from Cupid about the pros of working with your partner:

1. Increased sense of intimacy: Couples that work together or share experiences are more likely to have a stronger connection than those that don't. If you're both working in the same environment or company, there is even more of a sense of intimacy involved because you can talk openly about your work lives in a way that your partner will understand it. There's something about shared stresses that can be very therapeutic once you get home from a long day at the office.

There’s another royal celebrity wedding in the works! How do you know your partner wants to marry you for the right reasons?

Cupid’s Advice:

Marriage is a beautiful thing, but knowing when a long-term partner is wanting to marry you for the right reasons can be harder to decipher than one might think. Walking down the aisle is a big commitment, and it’s important to know that your significant other is in it for the same reasons you are. If you’re thinking about marriage, but you don’t know exactly how to tell if your partner is sincere, don’t fret! Luckily, Cupid has some love advice that will help you know if your partner is the real deal or not:

1. They make future plans with you in them: Let’s be honest, most people don’t talk about things they would rather not entertain. But, if your partner has been making plans about their future and you’re apart of it, this could be a great way to know that they’re marrying you for the right reasons. Bringing up future plans, in general, is a good sign in knowing how much they trust you, as well. They're opening their thoughts to your opinion about something important to them because they value it that much!

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Miles Teller Marries Longtime Girlfriend Keleigh Sperry in Hawaii

2. Other people tell you that they brag about how great you are when you're not around: An important part of a relationship is in how that person treats you when you're not there. How do they talk about you? How do they discuss your relationship? If friends, coworkers, and family alike speak up about how highly they praise you outside of being together, it's a sign that they're in the relationship for the right reasons. Your spouse should be one of your favorite people, so make sure they're just as great without you as they are with you before saying "I do."

During these trying times, if your partner is determined to stay by your side and stick it through, that's a great indication that they're marrying you for the right reasons. Never commit yourself to anyone who runs when things get tough.

Ayala had commented underneath the post saying, "ILYSM" alongside a heart emoji and an angel emoji. According to UsMagazine.com, the reality star squashed the rumors by stating, "We are just friends and not dating! I've just been very lucky to have met so many great people through The Bachelor!"

In celebrity news, Kirpa Sudick is not dating Cam Ayala after all. What are some ways to tastefully let people know you are not dating someone?

Just like celebrities, sometimes we can post something on our social media that tend to look different than how we intended. But unlike them, we can't go to a news source and dismiss these relationship rumors. Instead, we have to think up ways to tastefully let others know we're not dating someone without looking too defensive. If you're in this predicament, and you don't know how to go about squashing dating rumors, don't worry! Cupid has you covered with our love advice on how to nicely let others know you're not dating this person:

1. Be playful: Sometimes, having fun with the situation can be a good way to let others know it doesn't bother you before you let them know you guys aren't dating. If both you and the other person are game, it can be funny to be playful and pretend like you are dating. Be over-dramatic with the idea, posting mushy comments, creating your own 'ship' name, taking ridiculous photos together, etc. By doing this before coming clean that you both aren't dating, it can let people know that none of it bothered you, and it wasn't a big deal!

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Star Tia Booth Has a New Boyfriend

2. Be kind: This might seem like an obvious answer, but there are ways you can dismiss dating rumors that are much harsher than you meant them to be. Try and be as kind as possible when letting others know you aren't dating someone. Saying something rude or condescending can make you look bad when someone was just curious about the situation. So, try and be as polite and friendly as you can when letting others know so you don't look like a ticking timebomb anytime something false is said about you!

3. Be direct: Perhaps, the best way to be tasteful is to just be honest about it. Being direct doesn't have to be harsh, and it can stop speculation quickly. Simply explain away the idea that you and the person are dating and then say nothing else on the matter. By facing the situation head-on and refusing to talk about it further, it can be an easy and effective way of stopping the rumors from circulating.

Celebrity News: Laura Dern Speaks Out About Bradley Cooper Dating Rumors

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Laura Dern dismissed all dating rumors between herself and Bradley Cooper. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress opened up about her close relationship with Cooper, stating, "We are amazing friends, and we're family." This set of rumors circulated soon after Cooper's celebrity relationship with supermodel Irina Shayk ended back in June.

In celebrity news, this pair are just good friends. What are some ways to lay false relationship rumors to rest?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, it can be frustrating for two people to be friendly towards one another without others thinking something romantic is going on behind the scenes. Platonic relationships, especially between the opposite sex, have a connotation that there must be underlying feelings there when that isn't always the case. Two people enjoying each other's company is fairly common. Friendship exists. If you're stuck in a situation where others are trying to make something out of nothing, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice on how to lay pesky relationship rumors to rest:

1. Direct conversation: Sometimes communication can be the biggest key when dismissing relationship rumors with your friends. They might just be teasing you about it for fun, without realizing it can actually bother you. If you haven't been abundantly clear about this newfound friendship, sit these friends down and have a direct conversation about it. Opening up about how you aren't dating this specific person and explaining why these false rumors have been bothering you may allow them to realize that you're telling the truth and not assume anything else about the relationship or even relationships in the future!

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Bradley Cooper Enjoys a Boys' Night in L.A. After Irina Shayk Split

2. Ignore it: Perhaps, people are only speculating about you and this other person because they know it gets a rise out of you. If these rumors don't overly upset you, find it in you to simply ignore what others are saying. Like is told to us from a young age, ignoring someone's teasing can often lead to the teasing to stop, altogether. This can be used in your adult life, as well. If you pretend like these false rumors don't bother you, the situation will probably diffuse itself.

Make a status update, tweet, or even post a photo of the both of you explaining away the rumors. Speaking out publicly about the situation can immediately dismiss it if you're taking that much time and effort to set the record straight on your social media platform!

In celebrity couple news, Porsha and Dennis have rekindled things after one month apart. How do you know whether to give your ex a second chance?

We are wishing the celebrity couple well in their reunion, however not all relationships deserve a second chance, and there are factors to be considered before jumping right back in with your ex. Cupid has some love advice on how to know whether to give your ex a second chance like the Real Housewives of Atlanta stars:

1. Your brain and your heart match up: Feelings can be overwhelming and a lot of the time you may get lost in them. The heart wants what it wants, but the brain has a different agenda. While the care may still be there for your ex and old feelings may even resurface, following your heart can come with its consequences. If your heart is invested, but your brain is showing you all the red flags, then you should be very cautious before giving your ex that second chance.
