Celebrity Break-Up: Pete Davidson & Ariana Grande's Relationship Was Strained After Mac Miller's Death

Ivana Jarmon

In celebrity news, after the recent split from celebrity ex, Ariana Grande, Peter Davidson "does not blame himself for his split," a source close to Davidson told UsMagazine.com. The source continued on to say, "He's really sad about this split, and he only wishes the best for Ariana, but their relationship was really complicated with the passing of Mac Miller. It put a tremendous amount of strain on their relationship." Grande dated Miller for nearly two years before their breakup in May. Miller died at the age of 26 after an accidental overdose in early September. Grande announced during that time that she would be taking a break to take the time to heal and mend.

In celebrity break-up news, speculation continues about the cause for Ariana and Pete's split. What are some ways to keep the details of your split from becoming gossip?

Cupid's Advice:

Splitting up with someone is hard, but having your breakup become a hot topic can be even worse. Cupid has some tips on ways to keep the details of your split from becoming gossip:

1. No social media: During a break-up, social media can be your worst enemy. By putting your business out in the public, you give people power to gossip about your existing or nonexisting relationship. But by keeping your relationship out of the public eye, no one can say anything if they don't know anything.
