In our exclusive celebrity interview, she opens up about these relationships and says, "Being on The Bachelor or The Bachelorette is such a unique experience. There's

And, of course, she's still a fan of the show. With next week's finale of season 22 of The Bachelor, we had to ask about her prediction for Arie Luyendyk Jr.'s final rose. "Well, I read the spoilers!" she says with a laugh. "I kind of feel like I know what happens, but at the same time, I always think they're going to throw me for a loop."

For her latest project, Tilley is partnering with Lime-A-Rita to introduce The Ritas, three legendary women who are sharing their best life hacks, including dating and relationship advice. "Of my friends, I'm always the straight-shooter, tells-it-like-it-is, so it's nice to have these three women to ask for advice. They give it to me straight, just like I would do for myself!" she shares.

If you go to any of the Lime-A-Rita social media sites and hashtag #RitaSays with a question, they'll send you an answer. "I want everyone to tag me in their questions so I can see what kind of advice they're getting from The Ritas," she adds in our celebrity interview.

Kargman revealed that her daughter Ivy was actually the brain behind her book title after the passing of her aunt. In her daughter’s opinion, flowers didn’t do her memory justice. In a surprising twist, Ivy proceeded to tell Kargman, that if she passes away, she is going to sprinkle glitter on her grave because that’s just how fabulous she is! Not to mention how difficult it is to clean up, so it’s remnants would definitely last longer than flowers. Kargman also shared with her New York guests, that although she is not a fan of Los Angeles, she is excited to go there to attend the Emmy’s.
