Parenting Advice: Tips to Leave in the Past

By Megan McIntosh

Do you remember when you last tried an old wives' tale because you thought it was solid parenting advice, but it didn't work? It might have even made the situation worse. We now know some advice our elders swore by is best left in the past.

Cupid shares parenting advice that's best left in the past.

We've all heard one of these parenting tips from either our parents or grandparents when they want to help us with our children. Sometimes the best thing you can do is agree and move on. Here are a few things we should all leave in the past:

1. Spanking: Your parents might have spanked you when you were a kid. They probably thought it was the most effective way to punish you. Society now understands a child can't understand your explanation, nor can they connect spanking as a consequence of their wrong-doing.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: Five Reasons to Stop Yelling at Your Kids

2. Chicken soup for colds: Your parents probably made a bowl chicken soup for you when had a cold while you were still a kid. Chicken soup has no actual medical value to cure your illness. Soup as a comfort food when you're sick will make you feel better mentally. It won't get rid of your cold. Best to stick to medicine.

3. Put some alcohol on your teething baby's gums: You know this is a risky remedy. Alcohol in any form is bad for your baby. Give them a teething ring or some baby's aspirin instead.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: Cooking Fun with Your Kids

4. Do as I say: This is a frequent statement you might make to your kids, "Do as I say, not as I do." You might realize that the best lesson is a visual one. Show your kids your good behavior and they will imitate you.

Beauty Trend: The Best of Spring Hairstyles

By Megan McIntosh

Spring is all about rebirth and renewal. After a harsh winter of keeping your hair and body covered, it's time to let your hair down. There's no better way to step into Spring and Summer than by sporting a new hairstyle. Every new season, old hair trends come back into play. You'll see them on everyone from the locals to celebrities on TV and in movies. This Spring, some hair beauty trends have made a comeback on celebrities like Zendaya and Chrissy Teigen, but it's clear it's all about making the cut.

With a new season, comes the time to cut into a new hairstyle. Cupid has many new Spring hairstyles for you to debut with a bang.

It's not always easy to make the cut when it comes to your hair. Sometimes it can be hard to even give yourself a trim. But it's clear that snapping off some inches is the trend this season, so what better way to build that confidence than to emulate the most confident of stars?

1. Sweeping bangs: Sweeping bangs are so named because they're not as harsh or as much of a commitment as full-on bangs. They're all the fun of a fringe with none of the regret. Because these bangs are able to sweep to the side, you can have bangs on the days you want and go without on the days you don't. It's clear though, bangs are here to stay this Spring.

2. Get blunt with a bob: Blunt bobs have made a comeback this Spring season. There's something sophisticated yet wild about this look. You can rock this hair cut in the office or a night on the town. Jenna Dewan and Sarah Paulson make it look easy, but just make sure that the blunt bob you go for fits your face shape and jawline.

Related Link: Beauty tips: Essential Primers

3. Curly with a bang: Some people think it's impossible to rock bangs with curly hair. Stars like Zendaya and Natasha Lyonne have been all about the curly bangs this season, and they've been doing it well. The key is finding the right stylist who can work with your curl pattern to find the bangs that fit perfectly.

Related link: Beauty Trend: Metallic Lip

4. Groovy baby: Looks like the 70s are making a comeback this Spring with a shaggy look. Celebrities like Chrissy Teigen make this hairstyle look carefree and easy with textured layers. No doubt it took careful planning and moose distribution to create this messy look, though. This layered cut can also make your hair look fuller if you have thinner hair.

Cupid's Advice:

There's always a little friendly competition at the beginning of a potential relationship. Cupid has some tips on what to do when someone else is interested in the person you're trying to snag:

1. Act your age: Some people like to act immature or childish to get someone's attention. That is not the way to do it. While using a childish voice or teasing a potential partner may get you temporary attention, it's no way to keep them interested for the long term.

2. Confidence: It doesn't matter what you do, what you wear, or what you say if you don't do it with confidence. Be confident in your walk, be confident in your flirting, just be confidence. Confidence is attractive because it shows that you know you've got what they're looking for.

Related Link: Dating Advice: Five Steps to Winning a Second Date

3. Show interest: This might seem obvious but the best way to grab someone's attention is to show genuine interest in their lives. ## Celebrity News: Are Khloe Kardashian & French Montana Getting Back Together?

By Megan McIntosh

Though they were previously a thing, French Montana and Khloe Kardashian are not a celebrity couple, according to UsMagazine.com. After Kardashian's divorce from Lamar Odom, she moved on with French Montana, but admitted that she "was not in a good place" when they dated. Now, after her breakup with Tristan Thompson, she is currently "not thinking about her love life at the moment" and is instead focusing on her daughter, True.

In celebrity news, it seems this rumor is unfounded. What are some reasons you should think twice before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to know when it's right to rekindle an old flame. How do you know you shouldn't take that step and try getting back together; that it's time to really let it go and move on? Cupid has some advice:

1. Nothing has changed: What was the reason you broke up with your partner? Is that still an issue between you two? If nothing has changed since you broke up, then there's no reason to get back together. The issue will only re-emerge and cause a future break up.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Adele & Simon Koneckis Call It Quits

2. The reason you're returning isn't a good one: Why are you getting back together with your ex? Is it because you genuinely have a connection, or is it because you want closure? Never return to an ex because you don't understand the break up. If you broke up, there must have been a reason. If that reason still stands, so should the break up.

Related Link: Single Celebrity: Brad Pitt Is Moving On as a Single Man As Final Divorce Decisions Are Made

3. It might be a rebound: Never rekindle an old flame for a rebound. If you broke up with someone, there's no reason to return to another ex as a rebound. If there's no emotional attachment, you can try to have fun. But, inevitably, feelings always pop up. If you want to rekindle with an old flame, it should only be you two involved in the why.

Cupid's Advice:

Disciplining your kids is never a fun time, but it's a necessary evil when it comes to helping your kids grow up the right way. Cupid has some tips:

1. Keep it positive: Don't focus on what they're doing wrong. Keep the focus on the positives. If they washed their face and didn't brush their teeth, emphasize how good it was that they washed their face. Give them a high five or words of affirmation. They will associate good behavior with good feelings.

2. Give them individual attention: Rather than waiting for your child to misbehave, give them attention. This proactive approach, gives positive attention to the child so that they strive to emulate positive behavior that they see mommy or daddy do.

Related Link: Celebrity Parenting: Hayden Panettiere 'Hasn't Had Much Time' with Daughter Kaya

3. Have clear rules with tangible punishments: There should be a clear direction or even written paper that dictates to your child what rules they are expected to follow. If they know that not doing homework means no dessert, they are not punished after the fact. Your kids already know what will happen if they don't do their homework. But make sure you're consistent with what you expect from your child.

Parenting Tips: How Your Kids Can Benefit from Audio Books

By Megan McIntosh

There's something about hearing a story that makes it a little more exciting than just reading it. When someone tells you a story, it leaves room for you to focus on imagining the characters and learning the vocabulary. Celebrity parent and model, Chrissy Teigan reads aloud with her daughter Luna and the benefits from reading aloud are many. But when you don't have the time, or when kids want to be a little more independent, children can really benefit from audio books.

Parenting Tips: Reading aloud and using audio books can be a great benefit to your kids and give them a little independence!

Here are some helpful tips to start using audio books to help your kids with vocabulary and reading:

1. Do it together: it's always a good idea to introduce your child to audio books with them. You can help them with the cues and help them follow along with the words in the book. You can even review vocabulary words they may have learned.

2. Try to keep it close: Use books that you've already read aloud to them previously. This way they're already familiar with the story and can more easily follow along when you're not present. Once they've adapted more vocabulary from the audio books or you've summarized the story beforehand, then you can move on to more difficult and new books.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: How to Keep Your Kids Motivated Throughout the Rest of the School Year

3. Let them multi-task: Just like it can be hard for kids to sit still in class, it can be hard to sit still and listen to a story. Let them play with a toy, draw a picture, or even eat a snack while they're listening to their audio book. This increases their love of reading while teaching them to multi-task.

4. Utilize your resources: There are so many sources for audio books. Use websites like Overdrive and Hoopla to access your local library without needing to take the drive. Audible is an app with audio books that you can access on your phone.

Related Link: Parenting Tips: Keep Your Kids Safe Online

5. Have fun: Don't stress if your child doesn't understand every word in a book; if the story is interesting to them, let them listen anyway! If a child isn't feeling an audio book, no need to push it. Move on to the next audio book that sparks their interest in vocabulary and story telling.
