Cupid's Advice:

There are many advantages to secretly tying the knot with the one you love. Along with many other perks, for starters, you'll leave out all of the pre-wedding drama and save tons of money. Here are some benefits to a secret wedding:

1. Less outside pressure and influence: Family and friends tend to push their wedding ideas and agendas on couples. While meaning well, the outside influences put pressure on the couple to choose a venue that doesn't suit their style or select entertainment that's out of their budget. Having a secret wedding relieves some of this pressure and allows you both to focus on what's important.

This celebrity divorce hit Blake Shelton hard. What are some steps you can take to recover after a tough break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Break ups are one of the hardest things you go through in life. Through the pain, you have to find the light even if it takes some time. Cupid has some advice on how to recover after a tough break up:

1. Cry: Never ever be ashamed to cry! Man or woman, everybody has a heart and can have it broken. The best self therapy is to just let it all out. Whether it happens when you are in front of people or when you are alone, you will feel so much better. Holding back the tears won't help you because you aren't expressing how you feel. Building up emotions isn't healthy and can cause issues later.

2. Talk: Talking is another therapeutic way to help recover from a tough break up. Speak about what happened. It will only help ease the pain away. Say you accidentally spilled your coffee. Initially, in anger you say, "Darn! I spilled my coffee." As the day goes on, you soon lose the anger and when you explain what happened, the anger is no longer there. Speaking on what happened and repeating things somehow helps put your mind and in this case, your heart at ease.

3. Go out: While we're not saying head out to the clubs or immediately sign up for speed dating, taking baby steps and enjoying yourself will help with recovery. Start small, like a movie date with friends or even by yourself. Surrounding yourself with loved ones always helps, but sometimes you just need to be alone. Dating yourself for a while is a great way to heal your broken heart. Sometimes simply taking yourself for ice cream can help.

Relationship Advice: Tales of the Other Woman

By Dr. Jane Greer

Everyone feels they were scourged in the aftermath of betrayal, and in an effort to work through that and regain their equilibrium they like to talk about what happened, often to anyone who will listen. Sometimes, though, while that can make someone feel better in the moment, it can cause greater trouble down the line and further delay the journey back to personal peace and happiness. Whether you are in the public eye or not, speaking out about the person who hurt you can be tempting. For example, Evan Felker's ex-wife Staci Nelson reacted recently to claims that he cheated on her with country superstar Miranda Lambert. Doing this can feel like your chance to set the record straight by telling your side of the story, and it can feel like a way to fight back. You've been wronged, so this is your way to make it right.

Sometimes speaking out about the one who wronged you can be helpful, while other times it can cause more negativity. So how can you balance it? This relationship advice comes down to what you say, and whom you say it to.

The obvious place to go to vent your anger and frustration is to friends and family, since they are the people who know you and support you. They may encourage you by asking you to tell them what happened, or they may be more provoking by launching a missile and speaking badly about your ex-partner, thus throwing logs on the already flaming fire. Try to be careful, however, about what you share with them for a few reasons. While the initial reaction is to look to end the connection, sometimes cheating can actually help people reevaluate and overhaul their relationship to make it stronger and more resilient than it was before. There are enough times that people get back together. If in fact you and your ex do reconcile one day you don't want your friends and family members to have turned so completely against him or her and become so alienated that it makes it difficult for you to reconnect. Also, there is always the matter of the people you shared while you were together. What if, during your relationship, your cousin became good friends with your ex-husband, or your college best friend's wife is now best friends with your ex-wife? These are hard connections to break, and it helps to be aware of the tricky position that putting down your ex, who may still be an important factor in their lives, can put the people you love in. While oftentimes there is a strong pull to rally as many people as possible to your camp, drawing these lines can sometimes be very divisive and you risk creating more losses for you with your existing relationships if people feel they have to choose a side.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Miranda Lambert Throws Shade at Celebrity Ex Blake Shelton With Key Lyric Change

Being able to vent and say bad things about your ex can be an important initial step, but you want to continue to take subsequent steps and have that not be where you remain. Instead of only demeaning them and looking to do a character assassination, start to shift what you are expressing to focus on the impact their betrayal had on you and how you are dealing with it. To begin the real healing, it is important to be in touch with all of your feelings, not just your anger. This way it can eventually become less about stirring the brew of your rage and more about developing your self-awareness. In my book How Could You Do This to Me?: Learning to Trust After Betrayal, I speak about blind trust. Was this going on for you? Were you too trusting, did you see signs and ignore them, or did you miss them completely? It is this reflection and understanding that will enable you to learn how to trust your own judgement so that you feel better equipped to protect yourself in the future and keep this from happening again. By doing this it helps you to stop perpetuating the negative by keeping yourself in the role of victim, and instead shift to moving forward and away from your ex and the fallout of the betrayal.

Being deceived is devastating at best, at worst, if not dealt with, it delivers a blow that can keep you feeling low for a long time and can derail you from living your best life. For that reason, doing all this is your emotional health insurance as you go forward. Hopefully, Staci will be able to get back on track and become stronger as she carries on.

Celebrity Break-Up: Did Miranda Lambert and Anderson East Split?

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity gossip, rumors have been circulating about Miranda Lambert and Anderson East's celebrity relationship. We are not jumping to conclusions, but hopefully Anderson and East will comment on these celebrity break-up rumors soon!

Rumors are stirring about a potential celebrity break-up. What are some ways to decrease break-up speculation?

Cupid's Advice:

People have a tendency to be nosy. They may begin to assume things in regards to your relationship if there are notable changes on social media, or in person. Whether these changes have any truth to them, it can be annoying to have people constantly discussing these rumors. Luckily, Cupid is here with some advice on how to decrease this talk:

- 1. Be honest: If you don't mind people knowing the truth, then share your break-up right after it occurs. This will stop people from formulating their own conclusions as to if you and your partner have broken up and why. Let people know about your break-up, and give them an explanation to the extent at which you feel comfortable so that further rumors don't begin to arise regarding the reasons why.

2. Delete social media: After your break-up, you may want to take a break from social media anyway. Also, if you temporarily delete your social media during this time, it will decrease speculation that can form from people analyzing who you are following, who is liking your pictures, and such. Sometimes it's nice to take a break from it all.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Jennifer Aniston & Justin Theroux Announce Separation

3. Be yourself: The number one reason why break-up speculation arises is because people notice changes in individual's personalities. If you and your partner actually did not break-up but you are just going through some other personal changes, let your friends and family know so that they don't assume otherwise. If you and your partner did break-up but you don't want people to know yet, try your best to still act like yourself so speculation doesn't occur.

Not every couple can get on stage together at a major awards show to display their love for each other to the world, but it is important to show your significant how much you love them in order to be happy together. Even if it's not televised, loving gestures are necessary for keeping romance alive:

1. Spice it up: Sharing new experiences is a great way to strengthen a relationship. Plan the trip you and your S.O. have been dreaming about, or even just try a new restaurant.

2. Throwback: If leaving your comfort zone isn't something that sounds appealing to you, revisit something you did together in the beginning of your relationship that you both loved. Maybe recreate your first date and flatter your partner with how much you remember.

3. Look ahead: Set a goal together—abstract or physical—and work together to reach it. Sharing a common goal and actively working towards it will show your S.O. how much you still care.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Katie Holmes, Gigi Hadid and Miranda Lambert

By Shoshi

If you're looking for the latest celebrity news on Hollywood romances, you've come to the right place! Below, I consider the future of three new celebrity couples.

Shoshi's Predictions For These Celebrity Couples

Katie Holmes and Jamie Foxx: If you believe the media, Foxx and Holmes are secretly in love with each other. The thought of that makes me giggle. I always think that Tom Cruise has sent Foxx in to be his spy to find out what Suri is up to. While they would be a weird couple, it could also work. Foxx has always been tight lipped about who he's dating and Holmes never reveals if she's dating anyone. Both of them seem to spend more time with their children than anyone else. Could they be the perfect pair? I don't see Holmes and Foxx in a steady relationship. However, I do see friends with benefits. They're both sexy and single. Why not participate in some extracurricular activities from time to time? Don't believe the media hype, but just know that we'll be the last to know if they are officially a couple. Neither of them are going to talk.

Gigi Hadid and Zayn Malik: All media eyes are on model and personality Gigi Hadid and former One Direction singer, Zayn Malik. It even looks like they spent New Year's Eve together. At least, that's what their photos would lead us to believe. Isn't that what "couples" do? With all of the time they've been spending together, we should file them in the couple category. At least for now. Hadid has the attention span of a gnat when it comes to her relationships and love. She is fickle, but she's perfectly entitled to be that way. She's young, hot, and figuring it all out. If I were her, I would do the same thing. This relationship will run its course soon enough. Hadid doesn't have time for a serious relationship since she tends to be busy modeling and hanging with the Jenner's. Right now she's having fun causing a stir on Instagram with Malik. Guess they don't have anything else better to do.

Miranda Lambert and Anderson East: We all know that Blake Shelton is currently dating Gwen Stefani. But it looks like his ex, Miranda Lambert, is now seeing Anderson East. A photo on Instagram captured the two of them cuddling with the caption, "The snuggle is real." As if we needed the clarification. Just who is this Anderson East? A rhythm and blues singer from Alabama. I had never heard of him until Lambert's selfie. By the looks of it, this new relationship is the most interesting thing about him. When I look at this new celebrity couple, I don't see much to the fling. I predict the main reason that she's seeing him is to keep up with Blake and Gwen. The celebrity exes are playing a game of who can move on quicker. The media is falling in love with The Voice co-stars as they go on adventures around the globe. The last thing Lambert wants is to look pitiful and brokenhearted. Blake is all over the place having fun, it's time for her to start posting her own "moving on" pictures. That's not to say that she isn't generally into East, I'm just not fooled by her calculated move. Lambert will move on when she finds someone better. If the rumors about her are true, East shouldn't get too attached to her. As soon as someone better comes along Lambert will move on.

Celebrity News: Blake Shelton Says There Are 'So Many Great Things Happening in My Life'

By Mackenzie Scibetta

You don't often hear of country music mixing with pop successfully, but The Voice co-stars Blake Shelton and Gwen Stefani are apparently making it work just fine. According to UsMagazine.com, just a few hours before the 2015 Country Music Association Awards began, celebrity news broke that Shelton and Stefani are officially a new Hollywood couple. Following the awards ceremony Shelton took to Twitter to confirm his happiness saying that "Awesome night tonight. So many great things happening in my life..." On the other hand, single celebrity, and ex-wife to Shelton, Miranda Lambert is taking the divorce much harder saying that she “needed a bright spot this year”.

We’re pretty sure this celebrity news may have something to do with new love Gwen Stefani. How do you know if your new relationship has staying power?

Cupid’s Advice:

The unconditional bliss of a new relationship can make it hard to tell whether you’re happy because your significant other is the one, or just because it is something new and fresh. While the future of a relationship can be unpredictable, if you look hard enough there are signs that can help reveal the success of your budding romance. Cupid is here to help you decide if your new partner will be a lasting one:

1. You always laugh together: Laughter stimulates the release of feel-good hormones, thus pushing us towards a happier mood. Being in a significantly good mood around your new love will surely reap many benefits. Also, if you and your partner have the same sense of humor then that’s a good sign your relationship will never get boring.

2. You openly communicate: The first few fights of a relationship can be awkward, but if you both are willing to fully express yourself and feel comfortable arguing with each other respectfully then that will make your love last. You’re guaranteed to argue so if you can figure out a way to politely oppose each other you are on a good track. If you find your partner intentionally saying things to hurt you then that's a recipe for disaster.

3. You're comfortable in silence: A healthy relationship means two people who can function separately without hindering the success of the other person. You both need to be able to relax and read in the same room as one another, without feeling forced to make conversation. Silence allows you to balance your life and grow as an individual.
