Relationship Advice: Get the Birthday Gift Right

By Dr. Jane Greer

Birthdays are generally synonymous with hopes, cakes, and, of course, presents, but they can also be tinged with disappointment since there are so many expectations wrapped into this one special day, and emotions can run high.

Sometimes the gift is perfect. For example, Priyanka Chopra and Nick Jonas celebrated his 26th birthday together this past week at a baseball game which, according to social media, seemed to be exactly what he wanted. A misstep with the all-important gift, however, can sometimes be the very thing that sinks the ship, and can not only ruin the day, but can also breed resentment for a long time afterward.

Whether you're dating someone, or you've been married for years, getting the birthday present right can be a challenge. Your partner has wishes you may not be aware of, and you might not be sure what to get. How can you live up to meeting their desires, and where do you start?

There are a few things that can lead you down the wrong path while you are contemplating that purchase. To begin with, if you have not paid attention to what they have appeared to be interested in over the past few weeks or months, like the scarf she stopped to look at in the store window, or if you have missed their hints, like the massage he always says he would like to get, then you may have no idea where to begin. If that's the case, when they tear away the tissue paper, hoping to find something specific looking back at them but find something out of left field, your gift might be met with disappointment. Along the same lines, it is never a great idea to simply buy what you like or want with no consideration to whether or not your partner might feel the same way. Just because it is your taste does not mean it is theirs. If they say they want a sweater, before choosing the one you would buy for yourself, instead think about their preferences and previous choices. Similarly, you might see this as a good time to get something practical, why not? You really need that better coffee maker or expensive knife. Here is another way you can go awry, though, since your partner might not appreciate that, and may be hoping for something more personal and indulgent. Finally, while some do like a joint activity to be the gift, as was the case with Nick Jonas, not everyone falls into that camp. Make sure that is okay before you take the plunge, since some might see it as encroaching on their birthday, which they don't want to share, since they want it to be only about them.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Cope with a Loved One Who Is an Addict

For any and all of these reasons, browsing online or in a store can feel like a minefield that could blow up in your face at any moment. So, what can you do to avoid that? Begin by asking what they want in advance, even going as far as requesting that they make up a birthday list. Think about suggesting that the list have three or four items that fall into different price ranges. That way you can have options, and you will know that whatever you choose will be well received. Another possibility might be to take them to a favorite store and have them try on a few things. You can go back later and choose one or more of those items, and it will still be a surprise, but you know it is something they will enjoy. Finally, you can simply get a gift card to a store or spa you know they like so they can select what they want, going back at a later date either by themselves or together to make an outing out of it.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Is It Too Soon to Get Engaged?

Sometimes people are reluctant to make a present list because they think it spoils the surprise of the gift, which can be nice but not necessary. They also may think they are making it too easy for their partner by telling them what they want. But the truth is it is more about the pleasure and the good feelings a great gift will generate over time. By helping your partner out so they know precisely how to please you, you guarantee a happy outcome, which is what matters most. The goal is to get what you want, it isn't a contest to see if your partner can figure it out.

It is likely that the way you give gifts comes from the way the family you grew up with gave gifts – in other words, that is what you know, and naturally you continue that pattern. The trick is to be open and aware of your partner's ways and preferences, so you can develop your own gift-giving protocol together. It sounds like Priyanka and Nick have been able to do just that.

Relationship Advice: Is It Too Soon to Get Engaged?

By Dr. Jane Greer

When is it too soon to get engaged? There are so many considerations that go into making this decision, from practical issues such as having enough money to finishing a degree to living in the same place, to more philosophical ones like is there a proper timeline for true love? Sometimes people have to first deal with other commitments and responsibilities before taking the plunge. But what if you meet someone and know instantly that person is your soulmate, do you still have to wait? Some think the answer to that is no. Nick Jonas and Priyanka Chopra announced their engagement after dating for only two months.

Quick engagements can be a sign that one or both parties are ready to settle down and feel the security and stability that comes with marriage. However, there are a number of pieces of relationship advice to consider before taking this next all-important step.

One of the biggest questions that comes up is, does it make sense to wait even if all the pieces are in place so that you can have more time to bring each other into the other's respective world? In other words, does having the inside track on your partner's life before you're all in add to the success of a marriage? Some might worry that the intensity of the high one feels when they first fall in love won't last, and therefore won't be enough to sustain you through life's ups and downs. If you do feel, however, it is enough to get you through, and you are seriously considering a quick engagement, it can be helpful to ask yourself why. Is it because you simply want to get married and crave the security that comes with that? Or were you disappointed by a previous relationship and now eager to move forward with someone who's ready to truly commit and get married? Or is it all about the person, that you have fallen so hard for one another, that you have become a part of each other's lives so completely, and there is enough compatibility, that you feel you want to and will be able to continue to make things work between you?

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Tales of the Other Woman

Whatever the case, most people do find that the all-consuming, instant attraction eventually, and really inevitably, wanes. That's why a certain amount of time and effort is generally important to allow the relationship to solidify so you have the chance to really learn how to work things out together, and to see how each of you reacts to different situations. With time, you'll move from that googly-eyed stage where your partner can do no wrong, to eventually "sobering up," so to speak, and deal with life – sickness, cars that don't work, endless bills, having to work late – as opposed to the euphoria you might be feeling when you first come together. In fact, the "honeymoon phase" can often last longer than most people think, in some cases even up to a year, but by the time you move away from that and into everyday reality where you need to be able to work together as a couple to deal with the nuts and bolts of each day, it takes more than rose-colored glasses to navigate the raging rapids. If you don't manage to build that strong foundation, it will only be a matter of time before your individual needs, as well as all the daily hits of living that create friction and tension, tear you apart.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: The Pitfalls of Dating While Divorcing

If you are in love, and if marriage is on the table, here are a few things you can ask yourself to determine if you are ready. First, do you think you are able to deal with your differences and compromise around them so you end up at a joint decision that feels good for both of you? Are you able to communicate and listen to each other, and ultimately relate to each other's feelings, so that you both feel understood? Can you problem solve, as well as work through and clear up your anger and disappointment so those feelings don't linger and cause trouble between you? Do you have empathy for each other? If you have these skills in place, then you are starting your life together with a full toolbox of important skills.

Nick and Priyanka seem to have found in each other what they are looking for, and have faith that they can continue to keep love alive. If you, too, have that trust in your partner then perhaps a short engagement can work for you as well.

There may be a new celebrity couple in Hollywood! What are some ways to keep your budding relationship on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

When entering into a new relationship, your first instinct is to show off your new reason to smile. In a time where social media runs society, it may not be the best idea. Cupid has some advice on how to keep your budding relationship on the down-low, at least initially:

1. Stay off social media: Do yourself a favor and stay off of social media! Give the relationship a chance to grow naturally before bringing in outside forces. While people will always have something to say, staying off of social media cuts out all of the chatter that could potentially ruin this new found relationship.

2. Keep it to yourselves: This new relationship should just include you and the other person. Keeping things quiet can help build the strong foundation needed for a relationship. There is no need to bring any outsiders into what you two have started building; this will also keep your relationship on the down low. Why have everyone in your business from the very beginning?

3. Deny, deny, deny: While lying is generally considered wrong, if you both agree that you want to keep things private, denying you're in a relationship could be the solution. When seen together, you can explain that you're out as friends. Granted, at some point people won't believe you, but to keep things low key in the beginning, it may help.

Nick Jonas isn’t ready to move on yet, as his break-up with celebrity ex Olivia Culpo is too fresh. It can be tough to know when you’re ready to enter the dating scene again. Cupid has some tips:

1. Time has passed: Obviously time passing is important, because you need to grieve about your lost relationship and love life before you can move on the next. There’s no specific time that applies to every person, so you’ll simply have to go with how you feel. When you aren’t upset and pining for your ex, it’s safe to consider dating someone else. This could mean 2 weeks, 2 months, or 2 years.

duo is likely in the future.

Celebrity engagements can be over-the-top! What are three ways to make your proposal memorable?

Cupid's Advice:

People will ask your partner about his or her marriage proposal for years to come, so it's best to make it unforgettable. Cupid has some tips:

1. Spontaneity: What is a whirlwind romance without being spontaneous at times? A great way to make a proposal special is by shocking your partner and taking their breath away. Sure, you may have discussed marriage and having children, but that doesn't mean your partner needs to know exactly when you will pop the question! Think about what you want to tell them, choose the perfect atmosphere, get down on one knee and bask in the happiness!

2. A picture is worth a thousand words: Capture your special moment on camera! It is something that you will remember and treasure for the rest of your lives together. You could have a photographer/videographer there to capture the moment for life, as well as having family and friends join you afterwards to make it special and announce it to your loved ones.

3. Detail oriented: The details of the proposal are important. What matters most, though, is the love you and your partner feel. Including significant details will only make the proposal that much more personal and memorable. It will show that you truly know your partner and the history that you have created together. Include their favorite flowers, ask their father for permission the old school way, choose a location that has meaning to the both of you, and plan the events before and after the proposal.

Speculators say the purity ring could be a thing of the past for Nick Jonas. The 18-year old star was seen with girlfriend Delta Goodrem sharing beach chairs and holding each other intimately in Los Cabos over Labor Day weekend, according to UsMagazine.com. In addition to the sexy vacation, Jonas tweeted a message causing some to suspect an impending engagement. "I'm getting so excited about sharing my big news with all of you!" he said. "Who thinks they know what it is?" The two were first seen holding hands in May.

What are ways to bond with your partner on vacation?

Cupid's Advice:

It doesn't matter where you go on vacation, as the most important thing is to spend time with your partner. Here are some suggestions:

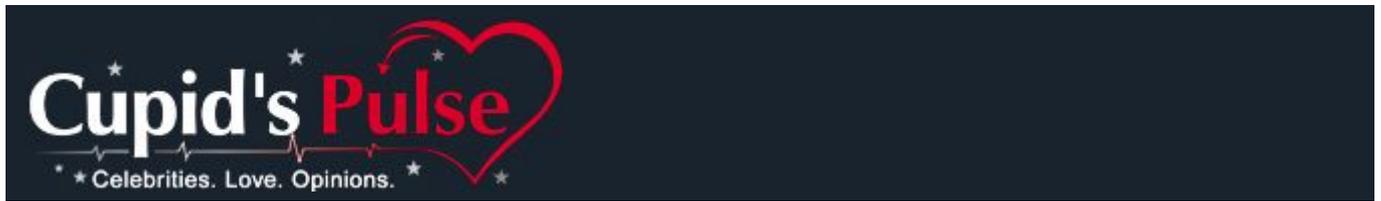

1. Try something new: Enjoy vacation by doing things you wouldn't normally do. Part of being away is letting go of the daily grind. For example, go skydiving or bungee jumping with your partner.

2. Make time for simple pleasures: Do things with your lover you usually don't have time for, such as cuddling in the mornings.

3. No idiot box: Try not to just watch TV together while on a trip. Instead, relight that spark by spending quality time swimming in the pool or cuddling in the hot tub.

Are Nick Jonas and Delta Goodrem Dating?

Jonas, 18, and Goodrem, 26, were photographed coming out of a moving theater in Hollywood on Sunday, and they did not shy away from each other even when spotted by the paparazzi. Jonas seemed happy with his weekend activities, as he tweeted, "I feel so blessed. Had a great weekend" on Monday. This isn't the first time the duo have been caught together. In March, Goodrem posted a photo with Jonas on Twitter showing them with their arms around each other and smiling.

What are some tell-tale signs that your two friends are more than just friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes your friends choose to keep their new relationship a secret, but Cupid has some things to look for to tell if they're more than just friends:

1. Lots of eye contact: If you're hanging out in a group, keep a lookout for eye contact between your friend and his or her suspected new partner. If you catch them exchanging meaningful glances, chances are they've left the friend zone.

2. Higher texting volume: If your friend who isn't usually texting a lot is starting to bring out his or her phone all the time, this may be a sign that he or she has a new love interest. Increased cell phone usage is definitely telling!

3. Avoidance: Your friend may be avoiding all topics related to relationships when you talk to him or her. Omission is always something of which to be suspicious.

Nick Jonas Dating Another British Co-Star?

Nick Jonas sure has a love for Brits. People reports that Jonas, 18, is getting close with Les Miserables co-star Samantha Barks. Barks, 20, was all giggles when asked about Jonas, commenting, “Nick is such a wonderful person...we definitely keep in contact.” Jonas had nothing to say on the subject, politely telling reporters, “I keep that stuff to myself.” The Jo-Bro has been playing the role of Marius since June, and, according to the Daily Mail, has been romantically linked to another one of his co-stars, Lucie Jones. Now, however, Jonas seems extremely happy with Barks. When asked about his love for British women, Jonas merely replied, “They’re great – very kind...[and] very supportive.” What are important things to consider before entering the dating world?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re young and just starting to realize you’re attracted to the opposite sex, it can seem like nothing can go wrong. Cupid has some things to consider before jumping into the dating pool:

1. Know the risks: A mistake many young people make when they first start dating is not knowing the risks. There are too many stories of unwanted teenage pregnancies and rape that circulate these days, so it's important to be cautious.

2. Separation: Young people often make the mistake of mixing their private and professional lives. It's important to keep your relationship separate from your career ambitions when you're young. If your relationship ends, your job should not be affected.

3. Peer pressure: Peer pressure is at its peak when you're young. Don't date around just because everyone else is doing it. Only play the field if you feel ready.

Nick Jonas Double Dates

Nick Jonas, of the pop group The Jonas Brothers, has been seen out with two different girls in the last week in London, Mail Online reported. The youngest Jonas brother is in England performing Les Miserables, and was recently spotted out on the town with two of his co-stars, Samantha Barks and Lucie Jones. No relationship with either woman has been confirmed for Jonas as of yet.

How can you play the field without hurting yourself – or someone else?

Cupid's Advice:

Jonas has a history of on-and-off relationships with other young stars, including Miley Cyrus and Selena Gomez, but there comes a time when playing the field can be taken too far. Someone will get hurt if there aren't clear signs of what both people want in the 'relationship' from the start.

1. Define what you are: Are you single? Are you looking?

What are you looking for? Figure out who you're looking for in the dating game, and then make that clear to anyone you might get involved with.

2. Pick on someone your size: Only go for people who are looking for the same things you are. If you want to be single, but the person you're seeing wants a committed relationship, there's no way things can end well for either of you.

3. Bounce back, not back and forth: If something doesn't work out, you need to be realistic with yourself, and end it. It's not right to bob back and forth between mates, and play with other hearts than your own.
