

Celebrity Divorce: 'Bachelor' Star Nikki Ferrell and Husband Tyler Vanloo Split After 2 Years of Marriage

By Courtney Shapiro

In celebrity news, former Bachelor star Nikki Ferrell has split from her husband Tyler Vanloo after two years of marriage. A source told UsMagazine.com that the twosome are “done” and have been “on the rocks” since their wedding. The celebrity couple tied the knot in October of 2016 in front of family and friends. Ferrell has recently posted photos without her wedding ring.

This duo is calling it quits after only a couple years of marriage. What are some ways to work on your marriage before splitting?

Cupid's Advice:

How can you work on your marriage before splitting? Cupid has some thoughts:

1. Go to counseling: Talking to someone outside of your relationship might help to strengthen the marriage. The counselor may be able to offer advice that may not have occurred to you or your partner.

The Worst 'Bachelor' and 'Bachelorette' Breakups

Jake Pavelka and Vienna Girardi

Jake Pavelka thought Vienna Girardi would be his best chance at love when he knelt in front of her on 'The Bachelor' season 14 finale. But after a short engagement, the pilot decided it was over and broke the news to his fiancée over the phone! On a TV special, Pavelka accused her of cheating, while Girardi said he was obsessed with fame. Ouch! Photo: Bob Charlotte / PR Photos

‘The Bachelor’ Star Nikki Ferrell Opens Up About Celebrity Breakup with Juan Pablo Galavis

By Whitney Johnson

On the red carpet prior to Monday night's premiere of The Bachelor, former winner Nikki Ferrell opened up to host Chris Harrison about her celebrity breakup with Juan Pablo Galavis – and surprisingly she had nothing but nice things to say about her celebrity ex! According to UsMagazine.com, the pediatric nurse shared, “I’m not a quitter. I tried everything, and he tried too. It wasn’t just a one-side thing. We real-life tried, not TV-tried.” She added, “I knew I was never going to be the number one priority. He has a daughter...but there’s a difference between being the second priority and the seventh priority.”

Not everyone speaks so highly of their celebrity ex like 'The Bachelor' winner Nikki Ferrell. What are some factors to consider when someone asks you about your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone handles a breakup differently. Maybe you want to hide under the covers and consume pint after pint of Ben & Jerry's Phish Food until your heart begins to heal. Or perhaps you can't help but spill intimate details about your relationship to anyone who will listen, including that stranger who sat next to you on the subway. So what is the best way to respond when someone asks you about your ex? Cupid has some tips:

1. Think before you speak: It's tempting to say exactly what's on your mind (nice or not) when it comes to chatting about your ex and your intense breakup. Instead, when you're alone, really think about your relationship and come up with a blanket statement to share with anyone who asks for more information. Take a cue from The Bachelor winner Ferrell and consider something as simple as, "We tried our best to make it work."

2. Keep private details to yourself: If you find yourself saying too much when family or friends inquire about your recent heartbreak, start a journal. Writing down your emotions is a great way to share your feelings but still keep them private. That way, you'll be more in control of your thoughts when your loved ones want to know what happened!

3. Change the subject: If you're worried that you won't be able to stop talking about your former partner once you get going, just bring up a new topic! Politely say that you'd rather not talk about it and then ask about their holidays or if they've been watching the most recent season of The Bachelor. Easy!

Did 'The Bachelor' Winner Nikki Ferrell Reveal She Has A New Man?

By Emily Meyer

Although Nikki Ferrell's celebrity breakup from Bachelor Juan Pablo Galavis was only a month ago, her Instagram account tells us she's wasting no time getting back into the swing of things when it comes to her relationships and love life. According to Wetpaint.com, the Bachelor winner posted a photo over the weekend quoting Beyoncé's song "Halo" by writing, "I swore I'd never fall again, but this don't even feel like falling." She then captioned the quote with more lyrics from the song, "Think I'm addicted to your light," followed by a heart emoji. The private beauty didn't give any more details about this new special someone, but we can't wait to see what celebrity love gossip she shares next!

'The Bachelor' winner Nikki Ferrell found romance after her celebrity breakup. How do you know when you're ready to start dating again after a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you were in a relationship for months or years, breaking up is never easy. You have been dealing with a tornado of emotions ranging from anger and confusion to sadness. It can be difficult to figure out when you're ready to start dating again, so Cupid has three ways to help you know when you're ready to get back into the dating scene:

1. You have a positive outlook about your past love: Although it's normal to feel somewhat angry about how your last relationship ended, it's important that you let go of those negative feelings. If not, you may not be able to move forward to a place of peace with a new partner. Figure out what's still holding you back and like Bachelor winner Nikki Ferrell, speak positively of your ex to help you move into a better place.

2. You can be happy on your own: You have to be content with yourself before you can find happiness with someone else. Make sure you have your own hobbies, career, and social circle before you dive into another relationship. When you sincerely love yourself as an individual, you'll be ready to start the dating process again.

'The Bachelor' Winner Nikki Ferrell Confirms Split from Juan Pablo Galavis

By Emily Meyer

Sadly, it has been confirmed that another Bachelor couple has split. After speculation that there was trouble between celebrity couple Nikki Ferrell and Juan Pablo Galavis, Ferrell confirmed the celebrity breakup. According to E! Online, the split happened over her birthday weekend. The pediatric nurse revealed, "We were just going back and forth through texting. He was questioning the relationship, and I was questioning it back. I sent him a message saying, 'We should fight for this. We should work this out.' And he didn't respond." That's when the 28-year-old posted her angry message to Instagram. She confessed, "In hindsight, I probably shouldn't have done that. I'm a tad bit impulsive." Regardless, the two still have love for one another. Ferrell said, "Who knows what the future holds, but at this point in our lives, it's not working for either one of us."

Celebrity couple Nikki Ferrell and Juan Pablo Galavis were pretty upset about their celebrity breakup. How can you stay positive when ending a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

We've all been there: a bad breakup that makes you feel like you'll never be happy again. We know being strong is challenging, but staying positive can help you get through the tough times that are ahead. We know this celebrity couple will get through it and so can you. Here are three tips on how to stay positive when going through a split:

- 1. Forgive and forget: A big part of being positive is learning to let things go. Not all relationships work, so there is no reason to blame yourself or your ex. Learn to move on and remember the good times you shared.

Have 'The Bachelor' Celebrity Couple Juan Pablo Galavis and Nikki Ferrell Split?

By Emily Meyer

It looks like The Bachelor celebrity couple Juan Pablo Galavis and Nikki Ferrell have called it quits after trying to salvage their rocky celebrity relationship. For those who watched the controversial couple on The Bachelor and VH1's current season of Couples Therapy, it should be no surprise that there will be no more roses passed between the two of them. According to People.com, Ferrell dumped Galavis seven months after audiences watched him decline to say "I love you" to the 27-year-old pediatric nurse on the finale of The Bachelor. It seems she has finally grown tired of his childish behavior: On Sunday, she unfollowed the reality star on both Instagram and Twitter and then posted a harsh quote that appears to be aimed towards Galavis. She posted, "Isn't it pathetic how we waste so much time on certain people and in the end they prove that they weren't even worth a second of it."

'The Bachelor' winner Nikki Ferrell

had a tough time figuring out when to end her celebrity relationship. How do you know when it's time to call it quits in a long-term romance?

Cupid's Advice:

We all want that perfect connection with someone, but we know that relationships and love are hard work. As difficult as it is to admit, time changes things, and sometimes, a breakup is for the best. So how do you know whether to stick around or back out of a longtime love? Cupid has some tips:

1. Your connection has faded: If you and your partner have lost sight on what brought the two of you together, then it's time to say goodbye. A healthy relationship is one where the passion is constantly flowing. Rather than convince yourself that you belong together, you should be reminded every day of why you're in love with this person.

2. You're fighting more often: When it comes to relationships and love, it's important to remember that it's okay to fight. It's not about how much you argue with you partner but how you resolve your issues as a team. If the fighting becomes more serious and filled with anger, it's time to break it off.

3. Your vision for the future is no longer the same: A must in any relationship is to share the same goals and hold similar ideas for what you want. Whether it's the number of kids you'd like to have or where you want to live, make sure to be on the same page as your partner. If you find you're disagreeing over these big items, how will you ever agree on the little things?

Andi Dorfman Says Juan Pablo Needs to Propose to Nikki Ferrell

By Laura Seaman

With Bachelorette Andi Dorfman accepting Josh Murray's proposal, talk of a wedding isn't far behind. "We have not really started making [plans]," says Dorfman. "I think I'm gonna enjoy being engaged for a little while..." According to UsMagazine.com, the newly engaged bachelorette was then asked if she would invite old flame Juan Pablo Galavis to the wedding. "Um, yeah—just gonna be a soft 'No' for now," she responded, later adding, "If he marries Nikki, he gets an invite." The newly engaged couple is talking about a spring wedding, but nothing is for sure quite yet!

What are some reasons to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a huge step to take in a relationship. That's why a proposal is so important! Some couples date for years and never end up married, while others are engaged in a matter of weeks. How do you know when it's time to finally pop the question and take your relationship to the next level? Here is some advice to help you figure it out:

1. You've talked about the future in depth. Marriage is a (hopefully) permanent future together, so all parties involved should know about future plans such as moving, career goals, or anything else that would affect your lives together. Don't leave anything hidden from your partner! Your future plans don't just involve you anymore.

2. You're ready to join the family. Maybe it's been easy to avoid your partner's family so far, but once you're married, you are officially part of the family whether you like it or not. Depending on your partner's family situation, this might mean going to visit them on holidays or joining them on vacations. Make sure you like this family before you become a part of it!

3. You are prepared in every way. This means emotionally, mentally, and financially. If you don't have the money to buy a house, pay for a wedding, or even get a ring, maybe you shouldn't be proposing. Yes, a marriage is a sign of never ending love, but it's also a very legally and financially binding agreement. Make sure you have this figured out before you dive in headfirst!

Juan Pablo Galavis Proposes a Career Change for Nikki Ferrell

By Sanetra Richards

First comes love, and then comes . . . a career change? That seems to be what Bachelor Juan Pablo Galavis is asking of girlfriend and season 18 winner Nikki Ferrell. According to UsMagazine.com, the 32-year-old professional soccer player wants the 26-year-old to use the spotlight to her advantage. “He wants Nikki to work as a model or TV personality in Miami,” says a friend of Galavis. Although it is a tempting proposition, the pediatric nurse does not have any plans on leaving her current field of work. “She loves her job,” adds the source.

What do you do if your partner is becoming too controlling?

Cupid’s Advice:

Loving someone for who they are is part of being in a relationship and sometimes you may brush a few things under the rug because you are accepting who they are. Nevertheless, there is one specific behavior you cannot ignore – controlling. Cupid has some tips on how to handle a controlling partner:

1. Take notice: There was a point in time when you may have thought your partner ordering food for you at a restaurant was a sign of him or her knowing what you like, or maybe you thought it was adorable when they picked out certain outfits (on a daily basis) for you to wear. However, the reasoning behind these “kind” actions soon become clear and you realize it is the need of control your partner must have. Do not overlook these signs. Instead, stand on your own two and let your significant other know you can handle your own. Or maybe even turn the tables onto him or her. Show them what it is like to constantly have their order placed before they have the chance to speak, or tell them what and what not to wear (yes, you should definitely take it to this level). As conniving as it may seem, your primary goal is getting your point across, thoroughly.

2. Communicate: Talk with your partner about any problems that have stemmed from their controlling behavior. Chances are they do not realize they are being officious. Take into mind their feelings before lashing out. Speak in calm manner that is not rooted by anger or frustration. You may even find a reason as to why they are obsessively controlling.

3. Work with your partner: Give them a few tries to adapt to actually not being controlling. If they begin to do something that resembles the behavior, stop them. You may have to repeat this quite often until they get it right. It requires you to be patient and understanding – your significant other may have a very dominant personality and is willing to ease that for the sake of your relationship.

By Sanetra Richards

Progress is being made! The Bachelor Juan Pablo Galavis posted an affectionate photo with girlfriend Nikki Ferrell earlier this week, where he made sure the word “love” was loud and clear in the caption. The 26-year-old pediatric nurse’s back is facing the camera, showing off a shirt that reads, “Pediatrics... our patients are cuter than your patients.” The caption said, “Mi Catira @nikki_ferrell LOVES her JOB and thats ONE of the things I LOVE about her... #NikkiTheNurse.” According to UsMagazine.com, the post is just a few days after it was reported that 32-year-old Galavis finally voiced his love to Ferrell. An insider told Us that the reality TV star “has told her, ‘I love you,’” and that the two “Skype and text every day and are in constant contact.”

The Bachelor* Juan Pablo Galavis flaunts his celebrity love on social media. What are some ways to show your love for your partner in public?

Cupid’s Advice:

Professing your love is just the first step to showing your partner affection. So, what’s the next? Doing it publicly! It may be challenging, but with Cupid’s love advice, you will be an affection expert in no time:

1. Be physical: Take a cue from Galavis and don’t be afraid to show your significant other how much you love them. A simple kiss on the cheek or a hug will do. If you are walking or standing beside each other, hold their hand. Small gestures like these will not only let others know you are happily in love, but they’ll also give reassurance to your partner.

'The Bachelor' Stars Juan Pablo Galavis and Nikki Ferrell Seek Couples Counseling

By Sanetra Richards

It looks like The Bachelor stars Juan Pablo Galavis and Nikki Ferrell may be hitting some hard times. It's been just a few months since The Bachelor finished shooting, and the controversial celebrity couple have turned to Jim and Elizabeth Carroll, WE tv's Marriage Boot Camp counselors, for some relationship advice. The duo, who have worked with other reality TV stars including Jenni Farley and Roger Matthew, Trista and Ryan Sutter, and Gretchen Rossi and Slade Smiley, spoke with Galavis and Ferrell earlier this week. According to UsMagazine.com, the Carrolls gave a brief synopsis of their talk with the famous couple, saying, "I think they have marriage on their minds, but I think what Juan did was a really – I mean, it wasn't a very romantic fairytale ending – but I think what he did was very wise in the fact that he said, 'You know, I want to go through conflicts with this girl. I want to do some problem solving. I want to see basically what the ugly side is before I jump out there and tell somebody I love them and just get married.'"

This celebrity couple are having some relationship issues. What are some ways to work on your troubled relationship and love?

Cupid's Advice:

Things may become hectic or confusing during your relationship and love. You may be close to calling it quits, but there are ways to work through it and make your partnership even stronger. Consider this relationship advice:

1. Recognize the problems: The most important step you can take is to acknowledge the issues at hand. Challenge yourself to find out what wrong paths you and your significant other took along the way. Examine your partner's behavior and mannerisms as well as your own.

Related: Nikki Ferrell's Ex Says She 'Normally Wouldn't Take That' from a Guy

2. Ask for some alone time: Alone time gives you the opportunity to think. There are little to no distractions, and your partner is not chiming in every five seconds. You can even make a pros and cons list. Hopefully, the good will outweigh the bad!

Nikki Ferrell's Ex Says She 'Normally Wouldn't Take That' from a Guy

By Sanetra Richards

Playing it cool seems to be what Nikki Ferrell is doing. The Bachelor season 18 winner is not letting the outside opinions bother her relationship with Juan Pablo Galavis. According to UsMagazine.com, the 26-year-old's ex, Ryan Dill, spoke of her unusual actions in a recent issue: "Knowing her like I do, I'm surprised Nikki acted like everything was fine during After the Final Rose." Dill went on to refer to the post-finale show when Ferrell informed host Chris Harrison that Galavis has not professed his love, saying, "She normally wouldn't take that s—t from a guy. The Nikki I know would have slapped him and walked out."

What are some ways to know you're being yourself in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Your relationship is going well; everything is all hugs and kisses . . . except there is one problem. You are questioning whether you are still the same person you once were. Cupid is here to give you a few tips on how to maintain yourself in a relationship:

1. Doing what you love: Whether this is a hobby like reading or painting, if you are doing it because you thoroughly enjoy it, a sense of you still remains. The chances of you and your partner having all of the exact same interests are slim to none. So, why not do something that is just for you? A relationship is about union, not about consumption.

2. Ability to detach from your partner's hip: You can have a day out with your friends without constantly finding a way to add your relationship into the conversation – the good news is you have not completely lost yourself. As stated before, your life does not revolve around your significant other (there's no need to drag him or her along). Your friends and family deserve to have just you sometimes.

‘Bachelor’ Stars and Celebrity Couple Juan Pablo Galavis and Nikki Ferrell Attend Wedding

By Louisa Gonzales

The Bachelor stars Juan Pablo Galavis and Nikki Ferrell may not be ready to get hitched themselves, but that doesn't mean they can't celebrate their friends' big day! The celebrity couple recently attended a wedding in Dominican Republic. According to People.com, Ferrell, 27, posted a picture of the twosome on Sunday, standing in front a spectacular view of where the wedding festivities took place. The reality TV stars were first introduced on The Bachelor season 18 and have been together since the former Venezuelan soccer player presented Ferrell with his final rose on the finale episode, which aired on March 10th. Sources say that the celebrity couple is happy that they don't have to hide their relationship and love anymore, even though Galavis is hesitant to commit to his new girlfriend.

This celebrity couple loved celebrating their friends' big day.

What are some ways to get wedding ideas from someone else's festivities?

Cupid's Advice:

It's no secret that planning a wedding can be stressful! There is nothing wrong with asking for help from others, whether it be from your mom, your bridesmaids, or a wedding planner. Consider this love advice and get ideas from your pals' ceremonies:

1. Just ask: If you attend a ceremony or reception that you really like, casually mention your feelings to the bride to ease her into revealing her wedding secrets. It never hurts to ask!
