Cupid’s Advice:

Nothing can keep you from a happier future than an open wound from a past relationship. Cupid has some ways to keep the fall-out from your past relationship civil:

1. It’s okay to still love each other: Your relationship may be over, but that doesn’t mean the love disappears. Love is a beautiful and painful thing, and it is a gift. Part of growing up is recognizing that love by itself isn’t always enough to make a relationship work. Breaking off a relationship that isn't working isn't about ending the love you feel. Sometimes loving someone means letting them go for your happiness and for theirs.

2. Keep the conversation simple: If you have to talk to your ex, keep it civil and simple. Avoiding an ex is impossible; after all, it is a small world. So, keep the conversation as light as possible, and try not to bring any baggage to this conversation. Greet them! Ask them how they are doing. Laugh, joke and be open-minded and friendly. Above all else, keep things moving.

3. Remember your boundaries: There's a difference from knowing someone casually and knowing them intimately and at times the line blurs. There will be a point when your ex jumps back into the dating game and you'll wonder if he or she thinks of you. You have to remember things are different now. When a relationship ends, you can't expect to treat your ex the same way because the role you have in his/or her life now is completely different.
